My little daughter, while playing in the house one day, fell and burned her hand severely against the stove. She ran to her mother crying and my wife, knowing the benefit I had received from Zam-Buk, put some on the child's burns. The little one stopped crying almost immediately, so soothing was the balm, and in a very short time her hands were all right again."

QUEER FISH AND HOW THEY ARE CAUGHT

Col. Gaskins' Lecture at the Salvation Army Barracks Last Night Was Very Largely Attended

The lecture of Col. Gaskin which was delivered in the Salvation Army Barracks last night was as successful as predicted. The Colonel is one of the best speakers of the Army in Canada, and his address of last night was a delight to the fairly large audience that was present. His headquarters are in Toronto where he holds the position of general secretary of the Dominion and the local corps very much appreciated his lecture here.

The local band met him at the C. P. R. station last night and escorted him to the Barracks where a large and interested assemblage awaited.

The Mayor occupied the chair in a very satisfactory manner and introduced Col. Gaskin to the audience. He made a number of laudatory remarks about the good work the Salvation Army is doing, making special reference of their work in Peterborough. The citizens generally in this city have great respect for this organization in their work of mercy and charity and in their rescue of the fallen.

The subject of Col. Gaskin's lecture was "Queer Fish and How They Are Caught." The address was very interesting, the Colonel being a most humourous speaker, and also illustrated his remarks with appropriate stories of actual reformations that the speaker had witnessed and heard of. Many of these people who had become converts had been regular depraved creatures before officers of the Army had interceded with them, and the manner in which they had been saved was the subject of the lecture. They were likened to fish which have special characteristis and which are caught in very different ways. The lecture was full of humour and pathos, and as a narrative of the efforts of members of the Army in saving the friendless was most interesting.

The Mayor afterwards expressed his pleasure with the splendid lecture that had been given and said that it mentioned only a few of the many cases of conversion which the Army is continually securing. He made a few complimentary remarks about the merit of the Colonel's lecture and said he wished to see his return before long.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, Jany. 25.—Stocks were depressed to-day because of fear of money flurries and further legislation and antagonism against the corporation. C.P.R. was the weakest features on heavy selling, which broke it 31-3 points. There was also pressure directed against N.Y.C. and some of the cheaper priced issues.

The market was never very active and the selling, while persistent, did not seem urgent. The bull interests seem willing to see prices go lower while the liquidation was in progress so long as the bears did not press things too much.

People's Gas was to-day restored to a six per cent. dividend basis after being on a five per cent. basis for about a year. It looks as though the decline might go a little further, but we would not get too heartish when the list is weak. The close was weak at thee low for the day.

HOPE FOR THE EARLY COMPLETION

Of the Cavan Swamp Drain—Latest Intelligence From Vicinity of Mount Pleasant

Examiner Special.

Mount Pleasant, Jan. 23. — Dr. Thompson, of Toronto, formerly a resident of Mount Pleasant, made a short visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McLean.

Mr. Geo. Richardson, of Portal, N. D., is visiting at the home of Mr. Geo. Wilson. He will be safe in Ontario during the coal famine in the Northwest, and during the storms and blizards of that frozen region.

A short visit was made by Mr. Abraham Webster, formerly of Manitoba, to his numerous friends here on his return to his field of labour at Port Stewart. He gave up farming for mission work, under the control of the Methodist Conference.

The old Cavan Council was returned for 1907. As they have been promising to drain the Cavan swamp, it was thought advisable to return them until the job is finished, which it is said, will be on the 1st of January, 1908. When completed it will shorten the distance between Peterborough, our market town, and Mount Pleasant, about four miles. We hope that no obstacle will arise in the future to prevent the drain project.

The Charlotte St. Team Still Leads The City League

Defeated the Strathconas in the Fastest and Roughest Game of the Season Last Night

AUBURN WON THE CONTEST FROM THE LAKEFIELD TEAM

In the roughest and fastest game of the City League series to date the Charlotte Street team defeated the Strathconas last night by 7 goals to 1 and still retain their lead.

A large crowd saw the game and were thoroughly satisfied with the exhibition put up by the two teams. The contest was a mixture of hard checking, brilliant combination and fast individual rushes and hockey galore.

The score seems to indicate a one sided game but it was far from being so. The losers put up a stubborn argument and pegged away from start to finish. They had almost as much of the play as had Charlotte Street, but their failure to take advantage of the opportunities afforded them to score was in marked contrast to the work of the winners when in close proximity to the Strathconas' net. They allowed no chance to shoot to get away from them and generally shot hard and true to the mark.

It was no parlour game by any means and had it not been for the strict and impartial refereeing of Mr. Geo. Lynch might have developed into a Donnybrook Fair. As it was there was any amount of slashing tripping and heavy body checking and the referee kept a pretty steady procession to the boards. 34 men in all were ruled off, each team having 12 penalties.

The Charlotte Street team showed their usual speed and in checking back were distinctly superior to their opponents who were often failed to come back fast when they lost the puck. This with the ability of the Charlotte Street bunch to take advantage of every opportunity to send in a shot were the chief difference between the two teams. As far as combination went the Strathconas did as much clever passing and handling of passes as did their opponents. Long and Miller were the stars of the winners. They played clever hockey at all stages of the game handling their sticks nicely and shooting well, getting the majority of the goals between them. Lang made some pretty stops in the flays. For the losers White, P. Weatherston and McMillan were at all times prominent and Seymour also showed up well. Wilson got in the way of some shots that looked certain to count.

The pace set by the teams was fast all the way through. Both outfits seemed to be in the best of condition and there was no lagging at any point. In the first half although the Methodists led by 2 goals to 1, the Strathconas had fully as much of the play Charlotte Street drew away in the second half and although the red and white team kept hammering away they could not keep the league leaders back and the latter succeeded in scoring five goals while their opponents were blanked.

The teams were as follows:—

Charlotte Street.		Strathconas.
Lang	Goal.	Wilson
Roddy	Point	W Weatherston
Moore	Cover Point	White
Dusty	Rover	Seymour
Long	Centre	Carruth
Grose	Right Wing	McMillan
Miller	Left Wing	P Weatherston

The goals were scored as follows:—
1.—Strathconas, Carruth, 7 minutes.
2.—Charlotte Street, Long, 3 minutes.
3.—Charlotte Street, Long, 5 minutes.
Half Time.
4.—Charlotte Street, Long, 3 minutes.
5.—Charlotte Street, Long, 4 minutes.
6.—Charlotte Street, Miller, 2 minutes.
7.—Charlotte Street, Long, 2 minutes.
8.—Charlotte Street, Grose, 8 minutes.

Following are the penalties:—
Charlotte Street—Grose 3, Dusty 2 Long 4, Miller 2, Roddy 1, total 12.
Strathconas—P. Weatherston 3, Seymour 2, McMillan 2, White 4, Carruth 1, total 12.

Auburns Beat Lakefield

The first game went to the Auburns, who defeated the Lakefield team in a hard and close game by seven goals to four. The hockey did not compare very favourably with the quality displayed in the second game. The outstanding feature was the close checking of the two teams. The game was by no means clean although referee Lynch had the players well in hand at all stages.

The Auburns had the best of the play all through although the Lakefield team played good hockey and had no thought of quitting. In fact they were the stronger at the finish, scoring the last three goals in decidedly clever fashion. They were considerably lighter but were a game bunch and played hockey at all times.

The first half was marked by close hard checking which allowed neither team much chance of scoring. It seemed impossible to break away and at times the contest developed into a regular shinny match. It was not until the end of 19 minutes' hard playing that the first goal was scored the Auburns doing the trick. Lakefield came right back at them with a goal in 1 minute. The local team had scored once more before half time.

In the second half the play opened up considerably and was appreciably faster and more exciting. Auburns had things easy for the first fifteen minutes of the period scoring five goals right off the reel. Then the visitors came to life and fooled the Auburn defence for three of a kind.

For Auburn McDonald at centre was the shining light, showing great speed and scoring ability. Crough played a hard game at cover and Belleghem's checking was a stumbling block to the Lakefield forwards on many occasions. Tucker was playing a splendid game in the first half until he was painfully injured by being struck in the face with the puck and had to retire. Lakefield dropped Sabourino to even up.

Quinn and M. Quigley were the pick of the Lakefield team and both played clever hockey. In the second period Quinn was especially prominent unworking some beautiful rushes while his stickhandling was excellent. Quigley also did some pretty rushing.

The teams were:—

Auburns.		Lakefield.
Derocher	Goal.	Quinlan
Belleghem	Point	Sanatino
Crough	Cover Point	Murduff
Shaw	Rover.	M Quigley
McDonald	Centre.	Quinn

Skip Ferguson Won Again in the Singles, Defeating Utica by 19 Up

A telegram to the curling rink last night from R. M. Waddell with the Peterborough curlers at Montreal stated that "We lost to Montreal in the doubles—Ferguson in eights in singles". This morning's Montreal papers substantiated the intelligence—part welcome and part unwelcome.

R. H. LEARY ELECTED TO PRESIDENCY OF EXHIBITION

The Industrial Exhibition is Under the Charge of an Efficient Body of Officers and Directors

EXHIBITION OF 1907 ASSURED SUCCESS

The adjourned meeting of the eterborough Industrial Exhibition, was held in the council chambers last evening. In the absence of Mr. D. Hughes Charles, who is confined to his home through illness, Mr. Robert Fair was chairman pro tem. The minutes of the last annual meeting were received and adopted.

The following gentlemen were present: Mr. Robert Fair, Mr. F. J. A. Hall, Mr. William Collins, Messrs. Conway, D. Kennedy, R. Munroe, J. M. Brooks, — Stewart, J. J. Turner, sr., T. H. Hooper, R. H. Leary, W. Robertson, — Arnott, A. Dawson, Ald. Elliott, Jas. Bell, — Deyell, H. Vaughan, Ald. Ball, Ald. Phelan, J. Redmond, R. N. Scott, Smith, Mr. Brown, reeve of North Monaghan, and Alex. Elliott.

A communication was received from the J. M. Greene Co., and referred to the superintendent.

The question of holding an exhibition during 1907 was then considered. A large number of gentlemen gave their opinions, as follows:

Speeches

Mr. Robert Fair, in speaking of last year's exhibition, said that the fair in this city should be one of the best in the Midland district. It would be a pity to abandon it now.

Mr. William Collins spoke along the same lines. He said that the citizens of Peterborough did not lend the practical assistance they ought to. This state of affairs was deplorable in a city that is the centre of one of the best agricultural districts in the land. It would certainly be a succes if the directors, members and citizens would, for the reputation of the city at least unite and determine to boom the exhibition.

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., gave his opinion, stating that the directors should strive to procure more members. He thought that it would certainly be a great loss to the city if the fair should be discontinued. He was willing to lend his aid in every way possible.

Mr. Deyell considered that the country was not canvassed sufficiently. Many farmers would become members if they were sought out by the directors. The speaker said the farmers were interested in the fair, and it would be a general disappointment if the fair were allowed to drop. However, he said, the farmers generally are not asked to become members; many of them would do so if asked.

Ald. Elliott and Ald. Leary were anxious to see the show continued. The latter agreed with Mr. Deyell and said that if the farmers are to be interested they should be members when they would be more likely to exhibit.

Mr. Redmond gave an account of the growth of the show in Guelph, and in his opinion Peterborough farmers should have an equally good one. If the local fair were dropped how could the city expect to get the National Dairy Show here? He thought that it was up to be people to unite and work for the success of the fair.

Mr. Conway and Mr. Dawson believed that the farmers were after the prizes and not the reputation of possessing good stock. Mr. Dawson said he favoured the idea of canvassing the farmers.

Ald. Phelan thought that the city did its duty as far as making a grant went, but he could not understand why the farmers did not take more interest in it.

Ald. Ball spoke along the same line as the previous speaker. He thought that outside exhibitors should be encouraged to exhibit here.

Reeve Scott of Smith, and Reeve Brown of North Monaghan, spoke of the educational value of the fair, and of methods to make it a success. They all stated that their best wishes were for the fair, and that they would assist as much as possible.

Mr. Dawson Kennedy agreed with the former speakers in That the exhibition should be continued. The farmers are richer than formerly and it would be a great mistake to discontinue it. He thought that if the exhibition should fall through now there was no use of asking that the Dairy Show be brought here. He considered that the membership should be increased, and believed that 800 or 1000 farmers could be secured. In this way great interest might be aroused.

On motion of Mr. William Collins, the name of the exhibition was made "The Peterborough Industrial Exhibition," with headquarters at Peterborough.

Election of Officers

The election of officers for the year was then proceeded with and resulted as follows:

Hon. Pres.—Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M. P. P.

Pres.—Ald. Leary.

1st Vice-Pres.—Mr. J. H. Garbutt, of Smiths.

2nd Vice-Pres.—Mr. Samuel Redmond, of Otonabee.

Board of Directors — Mr. John Telford, Bonismore; Mr. J. Brown, North Monaghan; Mr. W. Stewart, Otonabee; Mr. Samuel Deyell, Otonabee; Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., Mr. J. M. Brooks, Mr. Dawson Kennedy, Ald. Elliott, Mr. Jas. R. Bell.

Hon. Directors. — Mr H. C. Winch Mr. William Collins, Mr. D. Hughes Charles, Mr. E. M. Elliott, Mr. D. W. Dumble, Mr. J. H. Larmouth.

Auditors — Messrs. A. A. Hollingshead and Mr. Robt. Fair.

Sec. Treas.—Mr F. J. A. Hall.

General Discussion

Discussion followed as to the appointment of a man to meet the farmers of the county and endeavour to swell the membership. This question was left to the board to consider.

The preparation of a prize list was also discussed. Mr. Conway considered that the list should be sent out early in the summer and mailed to the farmers of the county. Mr. Conway thought that there should be no advertisements in the prize-list; Mr. Collins and Mr. Conway, however, contended otherwise. The matter was left for future consideration.

Mr. Fair and Mr. Elliott moved and seconded a motion that a vote of thanks be extended the press, the councils of the city and county, and the Peterborough Radial Railway Company.

Mr. Collins and Mr. Kennedy moved that the thanks of the society be given to the retiring officers for their assistance in the past.

A committee was appointed to wait on the city and county councils, as follows:

On city council — Messrs. Kennedy, Redmond, Fair, Turner and Bell.

For county council — Pres. Leary, and Messrs. Elliott, Redmond, Stewart and Deyell.

The latter waited on the county council this morning.

LINDSAY NOW AFTER NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

Points Out What It Considers Sufficient Reasons Why It Should Not Come to This City

THE ANNUAL FAIR IS REFERRED TO

The Lindsay Watchman-Warder is out with a knock at the proposal to hold the proposed dairy show in this city, and suggests that Lindsay is the better place. In an editorial article this week, it says:

Peterborough is generally after everything in sight, and frequently succeeds in grabbing a large share. It is out for the proposed dairy show, but unfortunately their industrial and agricultural exhibition seems to be on its last legs, and at the meeting called for last Wednesday it had to be adjourned to a later date because there were not enough present to do business. The press urges that the show should not be dropped as the people of the western part of the province will very naturally argue that if Peterborough cannot run an agricultural exhibition it would be a poor place to hold a dairy show. Peterborough often looks down on Lindsay with a lofty air of contempt but there is one thing we can do—run a successful agricultural exhibition, also a poultry exhibition. Why not have a dairy show in Lindsay?

WANTS TWO SEASONS FOR HUNTING

Mr. R. C. Strickland Contributes Interesting Letter on Deer Hunting Season

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir, — After having had forty years experience in deer hunting, will you allow me to state my views as to the way the law regulating the same should be enacted.

There should be two seasons, the water season and the snow season, for hunting, the first from the 20th October to the 30th, both dates inclusive; the second from the 10th November to the 20th, both dates inclusive, the latter when the snow is on the ground, when wounded deer can be tracked, and put out of their suffering. It is horrible to think of the hundreds of deer that are wounded before the snow is on the ground and cannot be tracked, and are left to die, in some swamp or marsh, of starvation, and suffering from wounds. Dogs should not be allowed in the woods after November 1st. Hunters who take out a license for the water season might have the privilege of using dogs, but to kill their deer in the water, one deer to each member of the party; hunters in the second, or snow season, to hunt without dogs, and to be allowed to kill two deer. Any hunter wishing to hunt both seasons, must take out a license for each season. The Government cannot satisfy both factions, the dog hunters and the still hunters, by having the same period for hunting. If the Government don't take action to prevent shooting at deer in the woods before there is snow on the ground, the deer, like the buffalo will soon be a thing of the past. The water hunters should be allowed to take out a license for one man in each party to carry a rifle in the woods while starting dogs, and this license to constitute him a deputy game warden for the season. A water hunter or a snow hunter killing a fawn must report the same to the authorities within ten days of the close of the season, and by paying $3 will be free of any liability, otherwise, if found out should be liable to a fine of $20. The killing of fawns should be prevented as much as possible.

By fixing the time for the water hunters, as I suggest, most of the water hunting parties would go out from the 15th of October to the 1st of November. The first five days they would be in time for salmon-trout fishing, and the last ten days for deer hunting, which would give them a good outing, which is really what must pity and town hunters look for every autumn.

Hoping that the above suggestions may help in solving the deer problem, I remain.

Yours truly,
R. C. STRICKLAND
Lakefield, June 25, 1907.

St. Andrew's Church Reports A Prosperous Twelve Months

At the Annual Meeting on Thursday Night all Departments of the Church's Work Showed Gratifying Progress—150 New Members

FINANCES ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

All the Societies Connected With the Church Had a Successful Year's Work—Some Eloquent Evidences of the Progress Made

The year just closed was one of great prosperity for Peterborough in every respect, and consequently, it was not a surprise when at the annual meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Thursday evening, the reports from the different departments for 1906 showed that this church had a year of much expansion and great prosperity. Under the pastorate of Rev. J. G. Potter, and under the guidance of the present Board of Managers, St. Andrew's has been coming to the fore rapidly, and there are few churches in the city that can show such a steady and healthy growth. The membership has been increasing steadily, while the financial support is becoming much stronger and promises to be even better during the year ahead.

There was a representative, though not what might b termed a large, attendance at the annual meeting, held in the Sunday school hall last night The most of the evening was taken up with hearing reports from the different departments of the church. Without an exception, those showed that 1906 was one of the most successful years in their history, and that the good work was constantly widening its sphere of influence.

REPORT OF SESSION.

After devotional exercises by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Potter, Dr. McKinnon was voted to the chair, and presided very efficiently during the meeting. After a few remarks of an introductory nature he called upon Mr. Richard Lees, M.A., clerk of the session, to read the report of the session for 1906

The report referred to the large measure of prosperity that St. Andrew's church had experienced during the past year. There had been a marked increase in the membership. Sixty-three had joined by certificate and 29 by profession of faith. Those including the members who connected themselves with the church on the first Sunday of the new year, made a total of 150 added to the roll. The work of the Sunday school had been most helpful during the year. The response to the appeal for teachers had been most satisfactory. In December three new members had been added to the session, and the complete list at present is as follows:—Rev. Jas. G. Potter, B.A., Moderator; Jas. Petrie, Wm. Fowler, John Mathieson, Wm. Stevens, Jos. Girven, George Cockburn, John Hill, Stewart Ferguson, Wm. Smithson, Thos. Borland, J. A. Fair, F. D. Anderson, Richard Lees, M.A., clerk of Session

LADIES' AID REPORT.

The report of the Ladies' Aid Society was also a record of a most successful year. It stated that the membership at present totalled 87, an increase of 9 over 1905. During 1906 10 regular and 10 special meetings had been called, and the average attendance was twelve. The largest attendance at any one meeting was twenty.

The receipts during the year were $296.45 The expenditure had been heavy owing to the decoration of the church and other improvements undertaken by the Ladies' Aid. The total cost of decorating the church was $678.92 lavatories installed cost $223.75, and the erection of a partition in the Sunday school hall, $90. The Society had a good surplus from 1905, but owing to the heavy expenditure, the new year is commenced with a deficit of $179.73. However, the report stated that the ladies did not consider this as a discouragement, but rather as an incentive towards harder work in the future.

W.F.M.S.

Mr Potter read the report of the W.F.M.S., which was of a most encouraging nature. Good progress had been made during the year, and there was an increase in membership, attendance at meetings, and subscriptions. The membership at the close of 1906 was 63, an increase of 16 over 1905. The average attendance at the meetings was 35. One life member had been added during the year, Mrs. Wm. Fowler. There were 150 subscribers for "Tidings" during 1906, an increase of 25 over the previous year. The total contributions during the year were $174.

MISSION BAND.

Another encouraging report was that of the Young Ladies' Mission Band, Miss Lizzie Smith, secretary. Ten meetings had been held during 1906, with an average attendance of 12. The total contributions had been $12.15, and in addition to this two quilts and a numbe rof articles of clothing, valued at $12.85, had been sent to the Northwest. The receipts from the "Mite Box" offerings were $5.25.

WILLING WORKERS.

Miss B. Hart read the report of the Willing Workers' Mission Band. It had a membership of 20 girls, and two meetings had been held each month, with an average attendance of 14. The receipts during the year were $28.10, and the expenditure $16.55

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Mr F. E. Kerr, secretary of the Sunday school, presented his annual report, showing that the average attendance at Sunday school during the year had been 177.48.

The total revenue was $299.65, and the expenditure, $296.79, leaving a balance on hand at the beginning of the new year of $2.86. The debt on the Sunday school at the beginning of 1906 was $72.24, but this had been wiped off during the year. The receipts from the Bible class, which are not included above, were $8.49, and this sum was paid over to missions, making the total to missions from Sunday school and Bible class, $75.50.

C.E. SOCIETY.

The report from the Christian Endeavor Society, which met every Monday night during the year, was read by Miss M. Reid. The receipts were $14.64, and the expenditure $2.50, leaving a balance on hand of $12.14. Reference was made to the establishment and the good work of the Elizabeth Bell Home Missionary Auxiliary during the year.

The society contributed $42.00 to missions during 1906.

ST. ANDREW'S GUARDS.

Mr. Potter reported for St. Andrew's Guards, which have recently amalgamated with the Young Men's Guild. They had done much good work and had assisted greatly during the year. Mr. Potter also reported for the Junior Boys' Guild, which had met as regularly as possible every Friday night during the year.

There was no formal report from the Young Men's Guild, but several of the members bore testimony to the interesting meetings held, and the good work done during the year.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

Mr. T. C. Elliott, chairman of the Board of Managers, presented an interesting report from that body, showing that there had been an improvement in the financial support during the year, and that the outlook was exceedingly bright for 1907. It had been decided to let the matter of erecting a gallery in the church rest in abeyance for the present. In the report the choir, and the different organizations in connection with the church, were thanked for their faithful work during the year.

All the reports were adopted on motion.

Messrs Anderson and Mather, whose term of office on the Board of Managers had expired, were re-elected unanimously.

Mr. McClelland was re-elected to represent the congregation on the Nicholls Hospital Advisory Board, and Mr. Wm. Fowler as representative to the Charity Board.

Well Known Naturalist Taking Trip to Pacific—Dr. Cleaver Gave Lecture in Keene—Other News

Examiner Special

Keene, Jan. 24.—The many friends of Mr. Bonnycastle Dale, the well-known naturalist who spent last summer in this vicinity, will be interested to learn that he leaves for the Pacific Coast this week.

Rev. Dr. Cleaver, Toronto, lectured in the Methodist Church here on Tuesday evening, taking as his subject Victor Hugo's story of "Jean Valjean." The attendance was rather smaller than was expected, but those who did attend were very much pleased with Dr. Cleaver's clever and instructive lecture.

Miss Flora Powell and Mr. Henry Powell visited at Miss B. Read's on Monday.

A number of local sports attended the ice races in Peterborough this week.

Mr. Wm. Cleary, Asphodel, was in the village Wednesday.

Miss May Bell, Peterborough, is the guest of Miss Lillian Bell.

Miss Jean Cleary, Asphodel, is the guest of Mrs. D. Moore.

Dr. Lawford, the missionary whom the Keene Methodist Church helps to support, gave an account of the work in the West on Wednesday evening in the Methodist Church.

MEDICINE HAT'S BIG BOOM; GAS AT FIVE CENTS

This is All That it Costs for Gas for Factory Purposes in That Favourable Town in Alberta

A GREAT FUTURE FOR IT

Examiner Special

Montreal, Jan. 26.—"Gas for factory purposes at five cents per thousand feet and fifteen cents for household consumption!"

This is no dream of a romancing municipalizer or socialistic propagandist, but the sober truth vouched for by Dr. T. M. Nicholson, of Medicine Hat and Calgary.

These are the prices paid for natural gas—a first-class illuminant—by the people of Medicine Hat to-day.

Dr. Nicholson is a young man of energetic temperament, who sees in Medicine Hat, with its splendid endowment of nature, a practically unlimited field for development. The gas is not only used for lighting but for heating and as power for the driving of all kinds of machinery.

The prospects of securing oil for Medicine Hat are described by Dr. Nicholson as very promising. The Canadian Pacific has so far departed from its usual policy in such matters as to have begun boring for oil, and first-class machinery is already on the spot.

A Rare Combination

for Women

So Says the Doctor about

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets

We never object to showing the formula of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets to any reliable physician.
We showed it recently to a doctor of many years' experience.
The other day he wrote us a letter. Doctor-like he doesn't wish his name published, but says we may publish the letter. Here it is.

Messrs. B. N. Robinson & Co.,
Costicook.

Gentlemen,—I have studied carefully the formula for Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, which you submitted to me, and I am free to admit that it is a rare combination to meet the various diseases to which women are subject, and shows that it has come from one who has mastered the art of healing the diseases peculiar to females.

M.D.

The doctor speaks truly when he calls the remedy a "rare combination," for that is just what the tablets are.
They combine the very latest remedies for women known to medical science. There cannot be anything better until there are new discoveries in medicine.
If you have been taking the old remedies put on the market years ago, stop it. You can get something better, and the best is none too good for any sick or run-down woman.
In Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, you will find all that medical science can devise to this date to make you a healthy woman, and you need nothing they do not contain.

They Make Healthy Women.

Crimson Blind

BY FRED M. WHITE

son left the Castle he placed in the post-bag a letter addressed to Mr. Reuben Taylor? In view of what I read recently in the paper alluded to the name struck me as strange. Now, Mr. Merritt, is it possible that letter had anything to do with you?"

Merritt did not appear to hear the question. His eyes were fixed on space; there was a sanguine clenching of his fists as if they had been about the throat of a foe.

"If I had him here," he murmured. "If I only had him here! He's given me away. After all that I have done for him he's given me away."

His listeners said nothing; they fully appreciated the situation. Merritt's presence at the Castle was both dangerous and hazardous for Henson.

"If you went away to-day you might be safe?" Chris suggested.

"Aye, I might," Merritt said, with a cunning grin in his eyes. "If I had a hundred pounds."

Chris glanced significantly at Littimer, who nodded and took up the parable.

"You shall have the money," he said. "And you shall go as soon as you have answered Miss Lee's questions."

Merritt proclaimed himself eager to say anything. But Merritt's information proved to be a great deal less than she had anticipated.

"I stole that picture," Merritt confessed. "I was brought down here on purpose. Henson sent to London and said he had a job for me. It was to get the picture from Dr. Bell. I didn't ask any questions, but set to work at once."

"Did you know what the picture was?" Chris asked.

"Bless you, yes; it was a Rembrandt engraving. Why, it was I who in the first place stole the first Rembrandt from his lordship yonder, in Amsterdam. I got into his lordship's sitting-room by climbing down a spout, and I took the picture."

"But the other belonged to Van Sneck," said Chris.

"It did; and Van Sneck had to leave Amsterdam hurriedly, being wanted by the police. Henson told me that Van Sneck had a second copy of 'The Crimson Blind,' and I had to burgle that as well; and I had to get into Dr. Bell's room and put the second copy in his portmanteau. Why? Ask somebody wiser than me. It was all some deep game of Henson's, only you may be pretty sure he didn't tell me what the game was. I got my money and returned to London, and till pretty recently I saw no more of Henson."

"But you came into the game again," said Littimer.

"Quite lately, your lordship. I went down to Brighton. I was told as Bell had got hold of the second Rembrandt owing to Henson's carelessness, and that he was pretty certain to bring it here. He did bring it here, and I tried to stop him on the way, and he half killed me."

"Those half measures are so unsatisfactory," Littimer smiled.

Merritt grinned. He fully appreciated the humor of the remark.

"That attack and the way it was brought about were suggested by Henson," he went on. "If it failed, I was to come up to the Castle here without delay and tell Henson so. I came, and he covered my movements whilst I pinched the picture. I took the picture home, and two days later it vanished. And that's all I know about it."

"Lame and impotent conclusion!" said Littimer.

"Wait a moment," Chris cried. "You found the diamond star which you pawned——"

"At your request, miss. Don't go for to say as you've forgotten that."

"I have forgotten nothing," Chris said with a smile. "I want to know about the cigar-case."

Merritt looked blankly at the speaker. Evidently this was strange ground to him.

"I don't know anything about that," he said. "What sort of a cigar-case?"

"Gun-metal set with diamonds. The same case or a similar one to that purchased by Van Sneck from Walen's in Brighton. Come, rack your brains a bit. Did you ever see anything of Van Sneck about the time of his accident? You know where he is?"

"Yes. He's in the County Hospital at Brighton. He was found in Mr. Steel's house nearly dead. It's coming back to me now. A gun-metal cigar-case set in diamonds. That would be a dull thing with sparkling stones all over it. Of course! Why, I saw it in Van Sneck's hands the day he was assaulted. I recollect asking him where he got it from, and he said that it was a present from Henson. He was going off to meet Henson then by the corner of Brunswick Square."

"Did you see Van Sneck again that day?"

"Later on in the afternoon. We went into the Continental together. Van Sneck had been drinking."

"You did not see the cigar-case again?"

No. Van Sneck gave me a cigar which he took from the common sort of case that they give away with seven cigars for a shilling. I asked him if he had seen Henson, and he said that he had. He seemed pretty full up against Henson, and said something about the latter having played him a scurvy trick and he didn't like it, and that he'd be even yet. I didn't take any notice of that, because it was no new thing for Henson to play it low down on his pals."

"Did anything else happen at that interview?" Chris asked, anxiously. "Think! The most trivial thing to you would perhaps be of the greatest importance to us."

Merritt knitted his brows thoughtfully.

"We had a rambling kind of talk," he said. "It was mostly Van Sneck who talked. I left him at last because he got sulky over my refusal to take a letter for him to Kemp Town."

"Indeed! Do you recollect where that letter was addressed to?"

"Well, of course I've forgotten the address; but it was to some writing man—Stone, or Flint, or——"

"Steel, perhaps?"

"That the name! David Steel, Esq. Van Sneck wanted me to take that letter, saying as it would put a spoke in Reginald Henson's wheel, but I didn't see it. A boy took the letter at last."

"Did you see an answer come back?"

"Yes, some hour or so later. Van Sneck seemed to be greatly pleased with it. He said he was going to make an evening call late that night that would cook Henson's goose. And he was what you call gassy about it: said he had told Henson plump and plain what he was going to do, and that he was not afraid of Henson or any man breathing."

Chris asked no further questions for the moment. The track was getting clearer. She had, of course, heard by this time of the letter presumedly written by David Steel to the injured man Van Sneck, which had been found in P's pocket by Dr. Cross. The letter had been written most assuredly in reply to the note Merritt had just alluded to, but certainly not written by David Steel. Who, then, seeing that it was Steel's private note-paper? The more Chris thought over this the more she was puzzled. Henson could have told her, of course, but nobody else.

Doubtless, Henson had started on his present campaign with a dozen different schemes. Probably one of them called for a supply of Steel's note-paper. Somebody unknown had procured the paper, as David Steel had testimony in the form of his last quarter's account. The lad engaged by Van Sneck to carry the letter from the Continental to 15, Downend Terrace, must have been intercepted by Henson or somebody in Henson's pay and given the forged reply, a reply that actually brought Van Sneck to Steel's house on the night of the great adventure. Henson had been warned by the somewhat intoxicated Van Sneck what he was going to do, and he had prepared accordingly.

A sudden light came to Chris. Henson had found out part of their scheme. He knew that David Steel would be probably away from home on the night in question. In that case, having made certain of this, and having gained a pretty good knowledge of Steel's household habits, what easier than to enter Steel's house in his absence, wait for Van Sneck, and murder him then and there?

It was not a pretty thought, and Chris recoiled from it.

"How could Van Sneck have got into Steel's house?" she asked. "I know for a fact that Mr. Steel was not at home, and that he closed the door carefully behind him when he left the house that night."

Merritt grinned at the simplicity of the question. It was not worthy of the brilliant lady who had so far got the better of him.

"Latch-keys are very much alike," he said. "Give me three latch-keys, and I'll open ninety doors out of a hundred. Give me six latch-keys of various patterns, and I'll guarantee to open the other ten."

"I had not thought of that," Chris admitted. "Did Van Sneck happen by any chance to tell you what he and Mr. Henson had been quarrelling about?"

"He was too excited to tell anything properly. He was jabbering something about a ring all the time."

"What sort of a ring?"

"That I can't tell you, miss. I fancy it was a ring that Van Sneck had made."

"Made! Is Van Sneck a working jeweller or anything of that kind?"

"He's one of the cleverest fellows with his fingers that you ever saw. Give him a bit of old gold and a few stones and he'll make you a bracelet that will pass for antique. Half the so-called antiques picked up on the Continent have been faked by Van Sneck. There was that ring, for instance, that Henson had, supposed to be the property of some swell he called Prince Rupert. Why, Van Sneck copied it for him in a couple of days, till you couldn't tell t'other from which."

Chris choked the cry that rose to her lips. She glanced at Littimer, who had dropped his glass, and was regarding Merritt with a kind of frozen, pallid curiosity. Chris signalled Littimer to speak. She had no words of her own for the present.

"How long ago was that?" Littimer asked, hoarsely.

"About seven years, speaking from memory. There were two copies made—one from description. The other was much more faithful. Perhaps there were three copies but I forget now. Van Sneck raved over the ring; it might have been a mine of gold for the fuss he made over it."

Littimer asked no further questions. But from the glance he gave first to Chris and then to his son the girl could see that he was satisfied. He knew at last that he had done his son a grave injustice—he knew the truth. It seemed to Chris that years had slipped suddenly from his shoulders. His face was still grave and set; his eyes were hard; but the gleam in them was for the man who had done him this terrible injury.

"I fancy we are wandering from the subject," Chris said, with commendable steadiness. "We will leave the matter of the ring out of the question. Mr. Merritt, I don't propose to tell you too much, but you can help me a little farther on the way. That cigar-case you saw in Van Sneck's possession passed to Mr. Henson. By him, or by somebody in his employ, it was substituted for a precisely similar case intended for a present to Mr. Steel. The substitution has caused Mr. Steel a great deal of trouble."

"Seeing as Van Sneck was found half dead in Mr. Steel's house, and seeing as he claimed the cigar-case, what could be proved to be Van Sneck's, I'm not surprised," Merritt grinned.

"Then you know all about it?"

"Don't know anything about it," Merritt growled, doggedly. "I guessed that. When you said as the one case had been substituted for the other, it don't want a regiment of schoolmasters to see where the pea lies. What you've got to do now is to find Mr. Steel's case."

"I have already found it, as I hinted to you. It is at Rutter's, in Moreton Wells. It was sold to them by the gentleman, who had given up smoking. I want you to go into Moreton Wells with me to-day and see if you can get at the gentleman's identity."

Mr. Merritt demurred. It was all very well for Chris, he pointed out in his picturesque language. She had her little lot of fish to fry, but at the same time he had to draw his money and be away before the police were down upon him. If Miss Lee liked to start at once——"

"I am ready at any moment," Chris said. "In any case you will have to go to Moreton Wells, and I can give you a little more information on the way."

"You had better go along, Frank," Littimer suggested, under his breath. "I fervently hope now that the day is not far distant when you can return altogether, but for the present your presence is dangerous. We must give that rascal Henson no cause for suspicion."

"You are quite right," Frank replied. "And I'd like to—to shake hands now, dad."

Littimer put out his hand, without a word. The cool, cynical man of the world would have found it difficult to utter a syllable just then. When he looked up again he was smiling.

"Go along," he said. "You're a lucky fellow, Frank. That girl's one in a million."

A dog-cart driven by Chris brought herself and her companion into Moreton Wells in an hour. Frank had struck off across country in the direction of the nearest station. The appearance of himself in Moreton Wells on the front of a dog-cart from the Castle would have caused a nine days' wonder.

"Now, what I want to impress upon you is this," said Chris. "Mr. Steel's cigar-case was stolen and one belonging to Van Sneck substituted for it. The stolen one was returned to the shop from which it was purchased almost immediately, so soon, indeed, that the transaction was never entered on the books. We are pretty certain that Reginald Henson did that, and we know that he is the bottom of the mystery. But to prevent anything happening, and to prevent our getting the case back again, Henson had to go farther. The case must be beyond our reach. Therefore, I decline to believe that it was a mere coincidence that took a stranger into Lockhart's directly after Henson had been there to look at some gun-metal cigar-cases set in diamonds. The stranger purchased the case, and asked for it to be sent to the Metropole to 'John Smith.' With the hundreds of letters and visitors there it would be almost impossible to trace the case or the man."

"Lockhart's might help you?"

"They have as far as they can. The cigar-case was sold to a tall American. Beyond that it is impossible to go."

A meaning smile dawned on Merritt's face.

"They might have taken more notice of the gentleman at Rutter's," he said, "being a smaller shop. I'm going to admire that case and pretend it belonged to a friend of mine."

"I want you to try and buy it for me," Chris said, quietly.

Rutter's was reached at length, and after some preliminaries the cigar-case was approached. Merritt took it up, with a well-feigned air of astonishment.

"Why, this must have belonged to my old friend, B——," he exclaimed. "It's not new?"

"No, sir," the assistant explained. "We purchased it from a gentleman who stayed for a day or two here at the Lion, a friend of Mr. Reginald Henson."

"A tall man?" said Merritt, tentatively. "Long, thin beard and slightly marked with small-pox? Gave the name of Rawlins?"

"That's the gentleman, sir. Perhaps you may like to purchase the case?"

The purchase was made in due course, and together Chris and her queer companion left the shop.

"Rawlins is an American swindler of the smartest type," said Merritt. "If you get him in a corner ask him what he and Henson were doing in America some two years ago. Rawlins is in this little game for certain. But you ought to trace him by means of the Lion people. Oh, lor'!"

Merritt slipped back into an entry as a little, clean-shaven man passed along the street. His eyes had a dark look of fear in them.

"They're after me," he said, huskily. "That was one of them. Excuse me, miss."

Merritt darted away and flung himself into a passing cab. His face was dark with passion; the big veins stood out on his forehead like cords.

"The cur," he snarled—"the mean cur! I'll be even with him yet. If I can only catch the 4.48 at the Junction I'll be in London before them. And I'll go down to Brighton, if I have to foot it all the way, and, once I get there, look to yourself, Reginald Henson, a one-eyed pounder is a good sum to go on with. I'll kill that cur—I'll choke the life out of him. Cabby, if you get to the Junction by a quarter to five I'll give you a quid."

"The quid's as good as mine, sir," cabby said, cheerfully. "Get along, lass."

Meanwhile Chris had returned thoughtfully to the dog-cart, musing over the last discovery. She felt quite satisfied with her afternoon's work. Then a new idea struck her. She crossed over to the post-office and dispatched a long telegram thus:—

"To David Steel, 15, Downend Terrace, Brighton.

"Go to Walen's and ascertain full description of the tentative customer who suggested the firm should procure gun-metal cigar-case for him to look at. Ask if he was a tall man with a thin beard and a face slightly pock-marked. Then telephone result to me here. Quite safe, as Henson is away. Great discoveries to tell you.—Christabel Lee."

Chris paid for her telegram and then drove thoughtfully homeward.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

Lord Littimer was greatly interested in all that Chris had to say. The whole story was confided to him after dinner. Over his coffee on the terrace he offered many shrewd suggestions.

"There is one thing wherein you have made a mistake," he said. "And that is in your idea that Henson changed those cigar-cases after Miss Gates laid your votive offering on Steel's doorstep."

"How else could it be done?" Chris said.

"My dear, the thing is quite obvious. You have already told me that Henson was quite aware what you were going to do—at least that he knew you were going to consult Steel. Also he knew that you were going to make Steel a present, and by a little judicious eavesdropping he contrived to glean all about the cigar-case. The fellow has already admitted to your sister that he listened. How long was that before you bought the cigar-case?"

"I should say it might have been a week. We had inquiries to make, you know. In the first instance we never dreamt of offering Mr. Steel money. I blush to think of that folly."

"Well, blush a little later on when you have more time. Then Henson had a week to work out his little scheme. He knows all about the cigar-case; he knows where it is going to be bought. Then he goes to Lockhart's and purchases some trifle in the shape of a cigar-case; he has it packed up, yellow string and all. This is his dummy. By keeping his eyes open he gets the chance he is waiting for. Ruth Gates hadn't the faintest idea that he knew anything when she left that case the day she bought it within reach of Henson. He gets her out of the way for a minute or two, he unties the parcel, and places the Van Sneck case in it. No, by Jove, he needn't have bought anything from Lockhart's at all. I only thought of that to account for the yellow string and the stamped paper that Lockhart's people use. He first takes one case out of the parcel and replaces it with another, and there you are. You may depend upon it that was the way in which it was done."

The more Chris thought over the matter the more certain she felt that such was the case. Like most apparent wonderful things, the explanation was absurdly simple. A conjurer's most marvellous tricks are generally the easiest.

"How foolish of us not to have thought of this before," Chris said, thoughtfully. "At any rate, we know all about it now. And we know who bought the cigar-case so promptly returned to Lockhart's by Henson. I should like to see this Rawlins."

"You have got to find him first," said Littimer.

"I'm going into Moreton Wells again to-morrow to make inquiries," said Chris.

But she was saved the trouble. Once more the ever-blessed telephone stood her in good stead. She was just on the point of starting for Moreton Wells when Steel called her up. Chris recognized him with a thrill of eager pleasure.

"You need not be afraid," she said. "You can speak quite freely. How is Van Sneck?"

"Very queer," David responded. "Bell hoped to have operated upon him before this, but such a course has not been deemed quite prudent. The day after to-morrow it will be, I expect. Henson has found out where Van Sneck is."

"Indeed. Has he been to see you?"

"He has been more than once on all kinds of ingenious pretences. But I didn't call you up to tell you this. We have been making inquiries at Walen's, Marley and myself. The time has come now to let Marley behind the scenes a bit."

"Did Walen's people know anything about the tall American?"

"Oh, yes. A tall American with a thin beard and a faint suggestion of small-pox called about a week before the great adventure, and asked to see some gun-metal diamond-mounted cigar-cases—like the one in Lockhart's window."

"Did he really volunteer that remark?"

"He did, saying also that Lockhart's were too dear. Walen's hadn't got what he wanted, but they promised to get some cases out of stock, which meant that they would go to the same wholesale house as Lockhart's and get similar cases. As a matter of fact, one of Walen's assistants was sent round to study the case in Lockhart's window. The cases were procured on the chance of a sale, but the American never turned up again. No notice was taken of this, because such things often happen to shopkeepers."

"And this was about a week before the night of the great adventure?"

"Yes. Wait a bit. I have not quite finished yet. Now, once I had ascertained this, an important fact becomes obvious. The American didn't want a cigar-case at all."

"But he subsequently purchased the one returned to Lockhart's shop."

"That remark does not suggest your usual acumen. The American was preparing the ground for Van Sneck to purchase with a view to a subsequent exchange. You have not fully grasped the vileness of this plot yet. I went to Lockhart's and succeeded in discovering that the purchaser of the returned case was a tall American, quite of the pattern I expected. Then I managed to get on to the trail at the Metropole here. They recollected when I could describe the man; they also recollected the

REFUSES TO GIVE IT TO THE PUBLIC

Colonial Office Withholds the Governor's Report.

ADMIRAL DAVIS' GIVEN OUT

American Says He Was Invited to Land by Colonial Secretary and Inspector of Police on the Absence of Governor Swettenham, But Latter's Report Is Not Such as Authorities Care to Publish.

London, Jan. 25.—The Colonial Office has received several telegrams from Sir Alexander Swettenham, the Governor of Jamaica, explaining the incident with Rear-Admiral Davis, but not one is of such a character that the authorities are prepared to make it public.

The Foreign Office says it has had no further communication from Washington, and that with the receipt of President Roosevelt's telegram, through Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, the international side of the question is settled. At the same time it is possible that when Governor Swettenham's explanation is received in full there will be further communication with the Government of the United States. The Associated Press gained the general impression at the Government offices yesterday that Governor Swettenham's career is at an end.

500 Bodies Buried.

Last evening the Colonial Office gave out two reports received from the governor on conditions in Jamaica.

Sir Alexander Swettenham says that up to date 500 bodies have been buried, besides a number of remains that could not be distinguished nor identified. The governor estimates that 200 bodies are still buried in the ruins, and that it probably will take 12 months to remove all the debris.

The main thoroughfares of Kingston have been cleared, the street car lines are in operation, and the people today are living in outhouses and the less damaged buildings. There are 3,000 homeless persons in temporary shelters erected in the gardens, or the public squares and at the race course. The number of homeless ones is being decreased, as work is plentiful, and many persons have been given free passage out of the city. There are still 400 patients in the hospitals, and many of the injured are being treated in their homes by relatives and friends.

Quakes Continue.

Slight earthshocks continue, but the weather remains fine.

Foreign Secretary Grey yesterday sent the following reply to Mr. Bacon through Esme Howard, the charge d'affaires of the British embassy at Washington:

"Please express to the Assistant Secretary of State my thanks for his message. The friendly attitude of the President and the American Government are warmly appreciated by His Majesty's Government."

Admiral Davis' Report.

Washington, Jan. 25—Secretary Metcalf late yesterday issued a statement the gist of which is:

The Department has received the full text of the correspondence between Rear-Admiral Davis, commanding the squadron of naval vessels which recently visited Kingston, Jamaica, after the earthquake, and Sir Alexander Swettenham, Governor of Jamaica.

From this correspondence it appears that Admiral Davis landed a party of six men to guard and secure the archives of the American consulate, and another party of ten men to clear away the wreckage. Later, upon the earnest entreaty of the Colonial Secretary and the inspector of police, who spoke for the Governor, (the Governor being absent from the city and at King's House, some three miles distant), 50 men were landed under arms from the Indiana to overawe an alleged mutiny at the penitentiary, containing five or six hundred prisoners. Admiral Davis was driven in a carriage to King's House. He found the Governor living with his family in tents, and he was accompanied back to the city by the Governor. That same afternoon, upon request of the Governor, the men were withdrawn from the city and returned to their ships.

OPENING OF ONTARIO HOUSE

Speech From the Throne Contained No Surprises.

THE LEGISLATURE OPENED

Brilliant Scene Witnessed by a Large Assemblage—Introduction of New Members—Many Important Government Measures Mentioned in Speech—Tax on Mining Lands and Mine Profits—Surplus.

Toronto, Jan. 25.—The opening of the Legislature was the event of social and political interest at the Parliament Buildings yesterday. Before two o'clock the floor of the Chamber was crowded by visitors and members awaiting the arrival of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. The Chamber presented an attractive appearance, with its blazing chandeliers, richly-gowned ladies, robed judges, and other dignataries, and crowded galleries. A great crowd outside watched the military advent of His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor Mortimer Clark, who, after the salute and the playing of the national anthem, proceeded to the Legislative Chamber, where he was received by Hon. J. P. Whitney, Prime Minister of Ontario.

In a distinct and clear voice His Honor then read the speech from the throne, as follows:

The Speech From the Throne.

"Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly: It affords me great pleasure to again meet you as representatives of the people in Parliament assembled.

"Once more we realize that our thanks are due to Almighty God for a bountiful harvest. The prosperity which has been enjoyed by our farmers for a number of years has been continued for another year, while the steadily increasing enterprise and commercial activity shown by our people afford good ground both for satisfaction and thankfulness and are indications of future prosperity.

The Interprovincial Conference.

"The sittings of the Interprovincial Conference at Ottawa in October last were attended by the Prime Minister and two of his colleagues. The deliberations of the conference will, I have reason to believe, result in an amendment to the British North America act by which the amount of the annual payment by the Dominion Government to the Province will be increased by about $800,000. A report of the proceedings of the conference will be laid before you.

"On the invitation of the Government of Canada, certain of my Ministers attended at Ottawa with reference to the proposed extension of the boundaries of Manitoba. The claims of the Province of Ontario to its hinterland were pressed upon the Dominion Government, my Ministers urging that the boundaries of Manitoba be extended northward to Hudson Bay by producing the eastern boundary of that Province northward until it strikes the Churchill River, and then by following the middle of the channel of the said river until the latter debouches into Hudson Bay, and that for geographical and other reasons the remainder of the Territory of Keewatin lying east of the suggested eastern boundary of Manitoba be contiguous to Ontario and bounded on the north and east by Hudson Bay and James Bay be allotted to the Province of Ontario. A decision is expected shortly.

More Farm Laborers Wanted.

"Better accommodation has been provided for the increasing number of immigrants, and my Ministers intend to make additional efforts to induce farmers and farm laborers to settle among us.

T. & N. O. Railway Loan.

"You will be pleased to know that the loan of three millions of dollars authorized by the act of last session for the completion of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway was successfully floated in Canada at par and without any expense other than that of advertising.

Revision of the Statutes.

"After the close of the last session of the Legislature my Government, in accordance with precedent, appointed a commission, consisting of certain members of the Judiciary, the members of the Executive Council and others, for the consolidation of the statutes of the Province, and subsequently a supplementary commission was issued extending the powers of the commissioners. Substantial progress has been made by them, but owing to the great volume of work and the care and thoroughness with which it is being done the revision cannot be completed earlier than next year. Certain of the changes recommended will, however, be submitted to you at as early a day as possible during the present session.

A New Judicial District.

"Owing to the steady increase of population in northern Ontario it has become necessary, in the interests of the proper administration of justice, to create an additional judicial district.

The Railway Board.

"In accordance with the legislation of last session the Railway and Municipal Board has been constituted. Although it has been in existence only a few months, the board has already considered and disposed of many questions coming within its jurisdiction. It has also proved an efficient agency for enforcing the electric railway rates specified by this Legislature and for adjusting disputes between labor and capital in respect of street railway operation. A report of the work of the board since its formation will be laid before you.

Cheap Electric Power.

"I am glad to be able to inform you that, under the provisions of the act of last session, very satisfactory progress has been made in the direction of procuring cheap electric power for consumers.

Extension of the T. & N. O. Railway.

"Tenders have been called for the extension of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway to a point of junction with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and the receipts for passenger and freight traffic show a large increase over the preceding year.

Mining Tax.

"The great value of the mineral deposits in the Cobalt district is becoming more and more evident, and the future is full of promise both to the investor in mining properties and the people of the Province. The rights of the Province in these deposits have been kept steadily in view by my Ministers, and accordingly a measure providing for the taxation of mining properties will be submitted to you for consideration. I think it well to draw to your attention the fact that a tendency to hasty and reckless investment and speculation is abroad, and, it is to be hoped, will be kept in check by the good sense of our people.

Public School Act Amendments.

"The amendments of last session to the public school act have given general satisfaction. The experience of the past year with reference to the working of the act has shown certain amendments to be desirable; a measure embodying them will be laid before you. The Education Department is now dealing with the question of the price of text-books, and expects, during the present session, to make a satisfactory arrangement with reference to this very important matter.

Prison Labor Problem.

"My Ministers have, for some time past, been considering the question of prison labor, with a view to avoiding all possibility of its being put into competition with free labor. It is a subject of the utmost importance, and cannot be dealt with hastily. Some facts with relation to it will be laid before you.

Some Other Measures.

"Bills will be laid before you relating to colonization roads; providing for the taxation of mining properties; consolidating and amending the companies' acts; amending the act creating the Railway and Municipal Board; the mines act; the public school acts; the act respecting the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway; and the volunteer land grant acts.

A Good Surplus.

"It affords me great pleasure to inform you that the revenues of the Province are largely in excess of the estimates, and more than sufficient to meet the Provincial expenditure during the year.

"The public accounts will be laid before you for your consideration at the earliest moment, and the estimates for the coming year will be also submitted for your approval at an early date."

New Members Introduced.

After the speech from the throne two new member were introduced, Mr. Allan Studholme, East Hamilton, by Mr. Beck and Mr. E. J. B. Pense, Kingston, and Mr. Alex. Ferguson of Cardwell, by Hon. Mr. Montieth and Mr. J. S. Duff, West Simcoe.

It was resolved that the speech of the Lieutenant-Governor be taken into consideration to-day, and that select standing committees be appointed, two novelties in this list being agriculture and colonization and fish and game.

The House was then adjourned.

Press Gallery Officers.

The Press Gallery met after the adjournment and organized for the session, William Banks, jr., of The Globe, being elected president; H. Anderson, The News, vice-president; W. A. Wallis, the Mail and Empire, secretary; W. B. Roadhouse, The Telegram, A. E. S. Smythe, The World, and George J. Ashworth, The Star, members of the executive.

Martin, an 80-year-old Mohawk Indian from the Brant reservation, near Brantford, Ont., is spending the winter here, working upon a translation of the New Testament into the language of the Mohawk and Six Nation Indians, upon which he has been engaged over two years. When completed, it will be the only Mohawk Bible in existence.

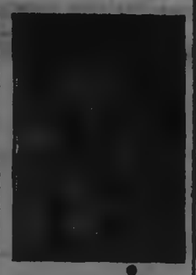
SCORED ANOTHER WONDERFUL VICTORY

One More Added to the Long List of Cures Effected by Psychine.

This young lady, who lives in Brownsville, near Woodstock, Ont., tells her own story in a few effective words of how she obtained deliverance from the terrible grip of weakness and disease.



I have to thank Psychine for my present health. Two years ago I was going into a decline. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I could not sweep the carpet.

If I went for a drive I had to lie down when I came back. If I went for a mile or two on my wheel I was too weak to lift it through the gateway, and last time I came in from having a spin I dropped utterly helpless from fatigue. My father would give me no peace until I procured Psychine, knowing it was excellent for decline or weakness. I must say the results are wonderful, and people remarked my improvement. Instead of a little, pale, hollow cheeked, listless melancholy girl, I am to-day full of life, ready for a sleigh-ride, a skating match, or an evening party with anyone, and a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 40 rods from my home. I have never had the slightest cause to fear any return of the disease.

ELLA MURIEL WOOD,

Thousands of women are using PSYCHINE, because they know from experience that it they have a safe friend and deliverer. Psychine is a wonderful tonic, purifying the blood, driving out disease germs, gives a ravenous appetite, aids digestion and assimilation of food, and is a positive and absolute cure for disease of throat, chest, lungs, stomach and other organs. It quickly builds up the entire system, making sick people well and weak people strong.

Warsaw, January 23. — Prior to their departure to their new charge at Everett, Ont., Rev. W. L. Atkinson and Mrs. Atkinson held a farewell reception to the friends and aherents of the church at the Manse Monday evening. The large attendance was strong evidence of the kindly feeling and respect which is entertained towards the minister and his family, and also of his success in his past work.

Representatives of the two appointments at Cottesloe and Warsaw being present, a business meeting was held early in the evening, at which it was decided that each become self-sustaining, and that the stipend be $800.

During the evening presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, consisting of a well-filled purse and a handsome rocking chair. The following were the addresses:

Dear Mr. Atkinson,—We, the members of your congregation in Warsaw, on learning of your departure from our midst, feel that we cannot let you go without showing, in some way, our esteem for you.

We understand that you consider a change is necessary, and we all hope that both Mrs. Atkinson and yourself will enjoy better health and be spared to do as good work in your new charge as you have done here. We ask you to accept this purse as a small token of remembrance.

During the few years you have been among us we have learned to love and respect you, and we pray that your influence over us will not be forgotten in many years to come. We also pray that God may bless you all, and that you may have many years of happiness and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

BEATTIE GOW.
PEARL M'INTOSH.

Mrs. Atkinson—

Dear Teacher,—It is with our sincerest wishes for your happiness and welfare that we, the children of your class, present this small token, hoping it will bring to your mind pleasant memories of your young friends of Warsaw.

Signed by the members of the class.

The recipients were taken wholly by surprise, and in a few words thanked the donors for their kindness.

Preceding their departure for their homes the company joined in singing those two selections (which are so appropriate for such occasions, "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

On Sunday next, January 27, Rev. Mr. Atkinson will deliver his farewell sermon in this charge.

S.S. NO. 6, ASPHODEL, TO HAVE A NEW SCHOOL

A Letter Received From Cavanazung, Speaks in Laudatory Terms of Mr. R. Lees, P. S. I.

SCHOOL WILL BE BUILT IN THE SPRING

The Examiner a few days ago contained an account of the closing of the school in S. S. No.6, Asphodel, on account of its state of delapidation. To-day a letter was received from a ratepayer of that section, which states that a new school will be built in the spring. The letter is as follows:

Editor Examiner—

Dear Sir,—On Monday, January 21, the supporters of S. S. No. 6, Asphodel, held a special meeting to consider the erection of a new school. The meeting was well attended, Mr. Coughlin being in the chair, and Mr. Doherty acting as secretary of the meeting. The chairman said he was quite certain that Mr. Lees voiced the feelings of the people when he recommended a new school for section 6, in the inspector's report last fall. He was also satisfied, he could safely say, that we had an inspector who took a deep interest in the welfare of No. 6 school and not one that looked for No. 6's welfare. All that the ratepayers wanted was some encouragement from the inspector, and they would do the rest. He then called on Mr. Lees to address the meeting.

Mr. Lees, on taking the platform, said he was always happy when he could talk to the ratepayers of the schools under his charge. When he taught in the Norwood High School some years ago he well remembered the pupils they had assisted to pass the entrance from S. S. No. 6, who had since distinguished themselves in different professions and public positions of importance.

He then went deeply into the regulations of the new school law, and wound up by showing the advantages obtained by having a new school, and assured the ratepayers that he was only doing his duty by giving them all the assistance he could in behalf of the schools. From the careful but firm stand Mr. Lees took he earned the confidence of all present.

A resolution was then passed to erect a modern school. A site was chosen just north of the cemetery, and about two hundred yards from the present site, and the trustees authorized to have debentures issued, to be paid in ten equal instalments. Mr. Lees and the trustees will soon have the plans ready and will advertise for its erection in the spring.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Lees for his valuable information and assistance in making the meeting such a success.

Yours, etc.,
S. S. No.6.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ACROSS THE SEA.

ENGLAND

The inhabitants of Dronfield, Derbyshire, have been thrown into a state of great excitement by the reported appearance of a ghost. So frightened were the occupants of the house in which the ghost appeared that they hurriedly left. The house possesses a remarkable feature. In the cellar is a dry, disused well, which for some unknown reason has never been filled in or covered. A young married couple from Sheffield went to occupy the house and one night they had some Sheffield children staying with them. Owing to this the wife slept with the children upstairs and the husband remained on the sofa downstairs. In the middle of the night footsteps were heard by both the husband and wife, but as each thought that it was the other moving neither got out of bed. In the morning they naturally spoke about the matter and were surprised to find that the footsteps had not proceeded from neither. This occurrence was followed by mysterious knockings, coming from a corner of the room over the cellar. Their origin could not be discovered. The fear of the young couple was now so great that they never slept without a light in the bedroom. The climax came a day or two ago, when in the middle of the night the wife woke up and found that the light was out. She struck a match. Then she saw in a corner of the room, she declares, the figure of a skeleton, which as the flame of the match died away, moved slowly towards the door.

Colonel Robert de Geimann, the Russian consul at Liverpool, died recently from the effects of two wounds which he inflicted on himself with a Turkish dagger. He had been driven to despair by financial troubles in connection with his estate at Warsaw. His servants were aroused by a revolver shot. They rushed into his apartments and found that he had fired at himself and had stumbled against the sideboard. He ordered the servants away and then seized a Turkish dagger and stabbed himself in the region of the heart. His fall brought up the servants again. They found him in a pool of blood. Colonel de Geimann was unconscious until the late morning. Then a telegram arrived from his daughter at Warsaw stating that all his troubles had been satisfactorily adjusted. The colonel listened to the message and exclaimed, "It comes too late! too late!" A moment afterwards he fell back and died. During the siege of Plevna Colonel Geimann was the officer in charge of the bodyguard of the Grand Duke Nicholas. He slept in an outer apartment of the Duke's bedroom, and one night a Turkish spy frustrated by him in an attempt to Duke, stabbed him with a dagger. Colonel de Geimann killed his assailant after a fierce struggle, and retained the dagger, with which he took his own life.

Among the quaint old taverns in London is the "Daniel Lambert," which is entered from Ludgate Hill. It has been in the possession of one family for more than a century and is now to be sold. It is the only hostelry in London which perpetuates the name of the most corpulent man of his times. In his early youth Daniel Lambert is described as having been a nimble pedestrian, an expert rider and a crack shot, but when at the age of 36 he came to London for pecuniary reasons, he scaled the enormous weight of 50 stone. His arrival in the metropolis early in the last century was heralded by the customary announcements in newspapers that "Mr. Lambert will see company at his house No. 43 Piccadilly, and nearly opposite St. James' church, from 11 to 5 o'clock. Tickets of admission one shilling each."

An elderly gentleman wearing a Union Jack triangle shapp, on the sleeve of his left arm and a medallion of a brindle dog suspended around his neck, attracted much attention at Bristol recently. He was Mark All, who in 1900, started to walk, 60,000 miles in seven years. He has now covered 58,888 miles and he hopes to complete his task by the end of February. His experiences have been thrilling for he has been stabbed in Italy, stoned in Germany, struck by lightning in France, and dug out of a snow drift in Russia. Mark who was born in Greenwich, commenced the walk while he was out of work to freak a record, and to demonstrate that a man is not too old at 70.

Mr F Weatherly, the father of the well-known song-writer, sent an interesting letter and photo. to the recent annual meeting of the Long Ashton (Bristol,) Board of Guardians, of which he is chairman. The portrait was that of himself and Honour Coleman, the oldest inmate of the workhouse. It shows them sitting side by side, the chairman holding the old lady's left hand. Underneath the photo is inscribed: The chairman, in his 87th year, and Honour Coleman, in her 106th year, of the Long Ashton Union, Somerset, December 1906. "Well, Honour, we must soon be going homeward." Enclosed with the gift was a copy of the baptism certificate of Honour Coleman. The old lady's mother was accidentally drowned in her 100th year.

An extraordinary hoax was perpetrated on the principal hospitals in Liverpool a few days ago. A number of tradesmen received postcards purporting to come from a lady known in philanthropic circles ordering goods to be sent to hospitals for the Christmas festivities. The consequence was that a procession of vehicles loaded with turkeys, geese, hams, fruit, evergreens, and other articles kept the neighbourhood of the hospitals lively for the greater part of a day. The officials having no notification were astonished, but delighted to see such piles of good things, and were discussing how to use them to the best advantage when it was discovered that some heartless person had hoaxed all concerned.

SCOTLAND

A good deal of interest has been aroused in medical and public health circles by the action of the Edinburgh Town Council in adopting a recommendation for the compulsory notification of phthisis. The matter had been before the Council in one form or another for seven or eight years, there being a disinclination to rush matters in view of the fears of a section of the community that somewhat harsh action might be taken by the authorities if too wide powers were conferred upon them. No drastic action is contemplated, such as preventing a patient going about his usual avocation if he is fit for it, or of forcibly removing a patient to the hospital against his will. The first step is the setting aside of a hundred beds at Colinton Hospital for bad cases. Steps will probably also be taken to ascertain the home conditions of every case notified. Inspectors will be appointed to visit the homes and see if the family have adequate air—space, and that everything is being done to prevent the spread of the disease. Every care will be taken to make the investigation as far from inquisitorial as possible, and moral suasion will be the power used to induce the patient to observe the necessary regulations.

Principal Rainy, one of Scotland's foremost theological statesmen, died in Melbourne, Australia, a few days ago. Principal Rainy's name will always be linked with one of the greatest movements in the religious history of Scotland. For it was by his influence more than that of any man that the union of the Free and the United Presbyterian Churches of Scotland was accomplished. The eldest son of rD. Harry Rainy, who was for many years Prof. of Forensic Medicine at Glasgow University. Robert Rainy entered Glasgow University, and after distinguishing himself there became minister of Huntly Free church in 1851. In 1874 he succeeded Dr. Cunningham as principal of the New College, Edinburgh. He was elected Moderator of the Free Church Assembly and again in 1900 and last year he was elected to the moderatorship of the United Free Church Assembly.

A renowned soldier, William Oates, has just died at Stirling. Oates, in February, 1859, was drafted out to India, and although too late for the grand historic scenes of Cawnpore, Lucknow, or Delhi, he had plenty of hard fighting for which he received the medal. He was again, in 1863, engaged in the Northern Frontier Campaign at Umbeilah. For this service he was awarded the Northern Frontier medal. At the outbreak of the South African War, although upwards of 60 years of age, the martial spirit was still dominant, and he offered his services and was accepted as one of the Scottish National Red Cross Hospital officials for duty at the front. For his services he was decorated with the medal for South Africa.

Mr John Tod, who gained considerable reputation as a writer on Scotland and the Scots people of a generation now rapidly disappearing, died recently at Lasswade, Midlothian. As a writer, Mr. Tod may be regarded as a forerunner of the "Kailyairders." His charming sketches, of the folk in "Blinkbonny" prove him to have been a keen observer of men and things. His garrulous narratives of village life in Scotland, which which he wrote under the name of "John Strathesk," are unaffectedly simple tales of simple people, and perhaps their popularity in a great measure may be attributed to this—that they contain more of fact and less of fiction than certain of the productions of other Scottish writers who have now a wider vogue.

An extraordinary will case was heard in the Edinburgh Court of Session recently. Mr. StuartMcCaig of Oban left property yielding about £3,000 a year, together with movable estate to the value of £10,000, with instructions that the annual income from the property should be spent in the erection of huge statues of himself, his brothers and sisters in a large tower which he had built on Battery Hill, Oban. His object was to encourage Scottish sculpture, and each statue was to cost not less than £1,000. The sister of the testator asked the court to declare that the will was void on the grounds of vagueness, and her contention has been upheld on appeal.

Thomas Graham, the well-known painter, died unexpectedly in Edinburgh, recently. Mr. Graham, who was a Scotsman by birth, went to London in the early sixties and was for some time associated there with Mr. Orchardson, R. A., and the late Mr. Pettie. He exhibited from 1863 continuously in the Royal Academy, and was invariably represented also in the Royal Scottish Academy, of which he was made an hon. member in 1883.

A peculiar marriage case was settled at Kirkcaldy, Fifeshire, recently. The action was brought to secure a correction in the register of a marriage celebrated in 1902, when a bridesmaid, by error, signed the papers in place of the bride, who did not affix her signature at all. When the bridesmaid married subsequently doubts were raised as to whether she was not already married, and to put the matter right the present action was brought.

IRELAND

Three recruits in the Inniskillen Dragoons, stationed at Ballincollig Barracks, Co. Cork, indulged in a wild escapade recently. They concealed themselves in the stables, and when the sentry was going his rounds they rushed at him, bound him hand and foot, tied a handkerchief about his mouth, and left him lying at full length in the barrack square. The recruits then took three horses from the stables, escaped by the eastern gate of the barracks, and set off at full speed toward Blarney. They were met by a corporal of the regiment, who challenged them, but they disregarded him and continued their wild career. The sentry was left to fight the bitter cold as best he could, by rolling himself on the ground. He managed to remove the handkerchief from his mouth by working his face against the ground, and called out for help, but none came until the corporal returned to the barracks, when the sentry was exhausted by the cold.

Memories of an eight-year-old tragedy are revived by an arrest which is reported to have been made in the south of England. In June, 1898, a man, McCaffrey, and a neighboring farmer in Co. Fermanagh, had a dispute about the ownership of some land, and eventually came to blows. McCaffrey's mother, son and daughter went to his assistance, and shortly afterwards their opponent fell, stabbed in several places, expiring almost immediately. McCaffrey disappeared, but the other members of his family involved in the affair were arrested and put on trial, but acquitted by the jury. The matter seemed to have been forgotten, when last week McCaffrey's mother left for England. Suspicion being aroused by her sudden departure, the police had her watched, with the result that an arrest has now been made.

The manuscript of Burns' poem, "to Mary in Heaven" has been the subject of litigation. Mr. John Savage a farmer of Downpatrick, found it among some papers bequeathed to him by a clergyman named Fallon. In July he entrusted it to a Miss Murphy, a schoolmistress, to sell on commission, and he afterwards read that it had been sold for £150. He sued to recover this amount, less commission, at the Ulster Winter Assizes, at Belfast recently. The defence was that the manuscript was given to Miss Murphy unconditionally, with the proviso that if it proved valuable, the plaintiff, and Mr. Murphy, the defendant's father, were to have a "spree" out of the proceeds.

A terrible accident occurred at a wedding at Dungaven, Co. Derry, recently. A man named McCluskey, intending to salute the bridesmaids on their way to church, loaded a shotgun with a charge of powder. When the girls passed his house he pulled the trigger, and was horrified to see one of the bridesmaids, Miss Gilderson, fall with a terrible wound in the neck. The gun had been loaded before McCluskey put in the charge of powder.

TOO TIRED TO STIR!

ARE YOU ONE OF THE

WEAK WOMEN

To Become Bright, Happy and Healthy?—Use Ferrozone.

Modern life makes demands on every woman's strength that seem impossible to meet. Only the robust and strong can stand the strain. The weak, with their delicately balanced organisms, must fail. Blood gets thin, it's innutritious. Nerves go to smash, vitality declines, and then follows misery and suffering caused by interference with certain functions upon which the very existence of every female depends.

Don't let your condition grow worse. Check the decline of vital force before it is too late! The one sure remedy is Ferrozone—not a temporary stimulant—but an uplifting nutritive tonic that contains the kind of building material a weak body requires.

FERROZONE revitalizes the system by putting new life into the blood. Not only does it nourish the ordinary blood supply—it does more, it makes new blood, the rich, red kind that denotes health.

Energy is reinforced, strength is steadily and surely rebuilt. Keen appetite, strong nerves, more restful sleep, buoyant feelings, all tell of the enormous good Ferrozone invariably accomplishes. For restoring the weak, the pale, the despondent, there is no treatment so instant and permanent in effect as Ferrozone. A trial proves this. Won't you use Ferrozone yourself? It will surely make you well—its effect is instant.

BUILT UP HER STRENGTH

Mrs. M. E. Etherington, a well known merchant's wife, of Troy, writes: "I am quite willing to give a public testimonial for Ferrozone, believing it to be a tonic of superior excellence, and one that will rapidly build up strength and supply new energy to anyone not feeling well. Last Spring I was in a very poor condition of health. I was nervous, felt tired and completely worn out. No doubt it is quite a common complaint with ladies of my age, but I placed great reliance in Ferrozone, and took it for several weeks. It made me quite strong, and, in fact, I have been in better health ever since. I can heartily recommend Ferrozone."

Ferrozone Assures Good Health!

WARNING! Beware of the substitutor who urges you to accept something "just as good." Only FERROZONE can cure satisfactorily—see you get it, and nothing else. Price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50 at all reliable dealers, or by mail from N. C. Poison & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., or Kingston, Ontario.

ARITHMETIC CLASS TO BE ORGANIZED

In spite of the fact that for the most part the Y.M.C.A. evening classes put in their work before the New Year, a number of men have asked for a new class in arithmetic.

This will be organized at once, if a sufficient number send in their names this week to the secretary of the association.

Mr. E. C. Scrigley, Commercial and Mathematical Expert at the Collegiate Institute will be the teacher.

This is a splendid chance for men, which will pay well.

is economical because it is so highly concentrated. By "highly concentrated," we mean that all excess moisture in the original Beef Juice has been boiled off, leaving nothing but the natural properties of beef in all their strength and purity. Always use ARMOUR'S because it is pure, and it as other brands of Beef Extract to obtain the same results. In buying Fluid Beef you pay extra for the water, salt and other ingredients added to solid Extract in making the fluid. In buying ARMOUR'S SOLID EXTRACT, you can add water and salt yourself, and be sure of its purity. Besides, this way is more economical than buying fluid beef.

In Harvest time the farmer gathers the fruit of his labours and lays by a portion for the winter—the time when all is going out and nothing coming in. CHIC MODES.

The Useful Removable Flounce—Buttons Seen on Tailored Waists.

Removable flounces are growing in favor and have much to recommend them both on the ground of daintiness and economy. As every one knows, a petticoat shows wear first at the lower flounce, and most upper skirts will outwear two garnitures.

Buttons constitute some of the smartest and effective trimmings on tailored waists and the belts that go with them.

TAILORED SUIT—5504-5501.

Crochet buttons are a fad with dressmakers, and in cube shape they are especially novel and modish.

If you are thinking of getting a fresh lining for your lace robe, nothing is prettier for this purpose than chiffon. If you are of an economical turn of mind, though, you can use an old ball silk.

A stunning hat is of green felt with a great bird for its only trimming. Birds are almost as ubiquitous upon hats as braid is upon gowns.

A charming separate skirt to wear with house blouses of a dressy character is of white broadcloth, although voile, cashmere and albatross make a very satisfactory skirt.

The gown pictured is a smart affair in golden brown broadcloth with trimmings of silk braid and buttons and collar of velvet.

Ways of Making Old Furs Look Like New.

What is to be done with old furs, especially if we may not buy new? Not every one realizes that good fur is usable to the last bit and can be cleaned, mended and remodeled by the home worker with much advantage. This is one of the few economies really "worth while." Worn furs can be pieced so that the work is quite unnoticed, and all sorts of furs will dry clean or wash. The white furs, so becoming and fashionable, need not be extravagant, for they will dry clean in the following way without the trouble of removing linings:

Cover the bottom of a clean frying pan or baking dish with flour and stir it about till it is thoroughly hot, but take care it is not on the fire—or, preferably, gas stove—long enough to get browned. Into the hot flour mix powdered alum in the proportion of a tablespoonful to a pound. Turn this mixture into a sheet of brown or white paper, lay the fur flat on a table and apply the flour with a pad of flannel, which should be hot too. Renew the flour and flannel as each gets dirty and keep on till the fur is quite clean, rubbing against the way of the hair so as to get well into the fur. Shake and brush out the flour and then rub powdered magnesia into the fur. This might now be left till morning, when it should be brushed and shaken to get rid of the magnesia, when it ought to be as delicately clean as ever it was. The linings will not be hurt. If anything, they will be cleaned and improved, especially if they be white satin. Brown and dark furs may be treated successfully with hot dry bran instead of the flour. A long haired fur will have to be rubbed by hand, as a pad of flannel will not work into the roots as the fingers will. The wet process is more troublesome than the dry because linings must be removed, so try the dry first. Some white furs, like rabbit skin, will wash in a soapy lather, but unless they are well stretched out and pinned into shape on a board to dry slowly they may shrink and harden. It is always wise to try to cleanse the hair without unduly moistening the skin. This may be done by using hot wet bran, on which is dropped a very little ammonia. Rub the bran into the fur by hand; finish with dry bran and dry flannel. Finally brush with a rather stiff brush so as to regulate and free the hair from flakes of bran.

CHILDHOOD DAYS

As a remedy for all the ills of childhood arising from derangements of the stomach or bowels, Baby's Own Tablets have no equal. You do not have to coax or threaten your little ones to take them—children like them. The ease with which they can be given as compared with liquid medicines will appeal to every mother. None is spilled or wasted—you know just how big a dose has reached the little stomach. And above all, mothers have an absolute guarantee that the Tablets contain no opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. They always do good, they cannot possibly do harm. Mrs. Edward Donovan, St. Agatha, Que., says: "I am delighted with Baby's Own Tablets. I know of no medicine that can equal them in curing the ills of young children." You can get the Tablets from any druggist, or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Don't Show Off the Baby.

Too great emphasis cannot be laid on this matter of shielding the baby from excitement. Undoubtedly the temptation to show him off is very great—he is such a dear, and he has such pretty tricks—but decide now, Is it your desire to gratify your pride or promote baby's welfare?

It is a great mistake to handle an infant any more than necessary not only on the score of his nerves, but also on that of his bones. Baby's bones, you know, are soft. Thus constant handling tends to destroy the shapeliness of his body. The greater part of his early life should be spent on the bed. When he gets tired of lying in one position gently roll him over without picking him up.

Expensive Handkerchiefs.

The Empress Josephine has the credit of bringing handkerchiefs into vogue. Before her time the mouchoir was not used or spoken of in polite society, but she, knowing that her beauty was spoiled by her bad teeth, used to carry a dainty handkerchief and hold it before her mouth when she laughed.

Since Josephine's time small fortunes have been spent on dainty handkerchiefs. The owner of the costliest handkerchief in existence is said to be the queen of Italy. She has one which took three women upward of five years to make.

SMART THINGS TO WEAR.

Buttons In All Sizes and Shapes Modish—Broadcloth Trims Lace Frocks.

For several seasons the button has been an article of ornamentation rather than of use, but never before has it been more ornamental in character than right now. Not only are metals used in the making of the new buttons, but stones of all colors and Dresden effects are also in vogue. The buttons are of all sizes and shapes—round, square, oblong and three cornered.

Chiffon broadcloth is frequently used in combination on lace gowns, which latter should be heavy and bold in design, either Irish crochet, Bruges, point de Flanders or point de venise. Russian lace, too, is suitable and comes in a lovely twine color.

For wear with tailor made costumes nothing looks better than embroidered linen collars and cuffs. Where these are not becoming the embroidered muslin sets beloved of Parisian women are attractive. Soft silk stocks, with prettily arranged bows, the ends worked in silk, are an appropriate alternative to the plain linen collar.

The gown illustrated is of mode velvet. The princess skirt is plaited in panels. The bolero jacket is adorned with tiny plaitings of taffeta and tucked green emerald velvet straps. The buttons are of green.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

It Is Not Necessary For Hat and Dress to Match.

It is no longer necessary for the hat and dress to match, and there is every reason to believe that we will see hideous contrasts this season. A bright grass green hat promises to have great vogue and will be worn with a variety of gowns, including black, blue and green, brown, black and white effects and plaids. It will take the place of the serviceable black hat every woman finds so necessary.

English embroidery is used to trim handsome cloth and velvet gowns. It is dyed to match or tone in with the fabric it adorns. Wide panels are used to decorate skirts, and boleros of it are used over empire frocks of silk or velvet.

The waistcoat is as much a feature of the street suit this season as it was last. The tendency is toward waistcoats of velvet to match the suit or of checked velvet.

White beaver or felt hats trimmed with plaid ribbons are among the season's outing models.

The costume pictured is of smoke gray broadcloth. The skirt fits snugly about the hips and flares out at the bottom, where it is trimmed with silk braid put on in Greek key pattern. On the smart little cape this trimming appears finished with buttons and silk tassels.

Newbro's Herpicide

A "HAIR SAVER" THAT GROWS IN POPULARITY

DANDRUFF IS A SIGN OF DANGER TO THE HAIR

Dandruff is now known to be a disease—and a highly contagious one—that will in time destroy the hair and cause baldness.

The first indication of hair destruction is the appearance of dandruff, although there is always considerable injury to the scalp before dandruff finally appears.

The value of Newbro's Herpicide as an eradicator of dandruff and as a saver and beautifier of the hair, is now recognized by well-posted people everywhere. It is the ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the dandruff germ"

Herpicide is not a wonderful "discovery" nor is it the result of a dream or revelation. It is simply a scientific germicide and prophylactic for the scalp and it is the first and only successful one to be compounded in harmony with Prof. Unna's theory. Prof. Unna the dermatologist of Hamburg, Germany (ask your Doctor about him) was the first to advance the belief that dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair are caused by an invisible growth of vegetable character in the sebaceous glands of the scalp.

The investigations of Prof. Unna and other noted dermatologists prove what many have learned by actual experience, viz: that ordinary hair remedies are ineffectual to prevent hair loss and that to be successful, the dandruff germ must be destroyed and kept out of the scalp.

The success of Newbro's Herpicide has demonstrated to the people at large the incorrectness of old theories relative to treating the hair and scalp. Even the Manufacturers of other hair remedies recognize the inevitable and, one by one, they are changing their remedies to conform to the germ theory of dandruff.

But why experiment with remedies that have not been tried? Herpicide is the original success, so why bother with substitutes at any price?

MORE MEN AND WOMEN HAVE GOTTEN POSITIVE RESULTS FROM THE USE OF NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE THAN FROM ALL OTHER HAIR REMEDIES COMBINED.

Tatting Design.

This design is worked in perfilusta white tatting thread, size 20. A shuttle and a pin are the only implements required. For the first oval make a loop on the fingers with the shuttle thread, do 4 d stitches, 1 picot, 2 d, 1 picot, 1 d, 1 picot, 1 d, 1 picot, 2 d, 1 picot, 4 d, draw up close. For the second oval make a loop, leave three-eighths of an inch of perilusta, work 4 d, draw the thread through the last picot of previous oval, 2 d, 1 picot, 1 d, 1 picot, 1 d, 1 picot, 2 d, 1 picot, 4 d, draw up close. Repeat for the length required.

How to Make College Flags.

College flags are quite simple, but require care and much precision in putting the letters on as well as in cutting them.

A good plan is to cut your letters from stiff cardboard and trace around them on the felt, afterward cutting with a sharp knife.

In mounting these on the felt background paste them on with a very thin coating of photograph paste and couch around all edges with many strands of silk, caught down at regular intervals with a single strand of the same color.

Couching means to hold the heavy cord or many strands of silk along the edge of the thing to be outlined and stitching across it and through material with the single thread in the needle.

Shrinking Cloth.

The question of how to shrink heavy cloths is often a difficult one to solve. Hang the material over the clothesline, with the fold on the line, and wet it with the garden hose. Allow it to hang until dry. It will be quite unnecessary to iron it, as the garment must be pressed when finished. This can only be done with heavy clothes, as a light loose weave would stretch and lose its shape.

The Only Perfect Emulsion

Any well made emulsion of good Cod Liver Oil is good as far as it goes, but if it lacks Iron it is not a perfect emulsion, because Iron is even more necessary and more valuable than the oil.

Ferrol is not only made of the best Cod Liver Oil, but it combines with the oil Iron and Phosphorus and is the only emulsion that contains Iron at all.

Moreover

is finer, more palatable and easier to digest than any other preparation of Cod Liver Oil. Anyone can take Ferrol; few can take Cod Liver Oil in any other way.

Every intelligent person knows that three of the greatest remedial agents known to science are Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus. To get them in combination and in proper proportion you must have Ferrol. There is no other way.

Sufferers from Anæmia, Bronchitis, Chronic Coughs and Colds, Lung Troubles of any kind, Nervous Prostration, Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, General Debility, Loss of Weight, Whooping Cough, Croup, La Grippe or any of the ailments known as wasting diseases, can take Ferrol with the confident assurance that it will cure them if a cure is possible.

REMEMBER

Each dose of Ferrol contains a full medicinal dose of Iron and in no other way can Iron be properly administered.

Ferrol holds the record for increasing the weight.

Ferrol contains neither alcohol, "dope" nor dangerous drugs of any kind.

Ferrol is the Ideal Infant Food. If your baby is not thriving, give it Ferrol and watch it grow.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed by the best Physicians. It is endorsed by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in prominent Hospitals, Sanatoriums, etc.

WHY DO MEN OVER 25 YEARS OF AGE NOT MARRY?

Symposium of opinions on this Most Interesting question with Widely differing view points

One writer says women should Be considered on cash basis; Figures what they are worth

Fair writers in their defence Tell the men where they are To blame for present condition

THE poets have got busy on the matrimonial question now, and this week a parody, published below, was received by The Examiner. Since the publication of the last batch of letters on this question, a large number have been receivde, a great many from young ladies, who seem to be taking deep interest in discussion. They appear to have had the better of the argument, too, so far, and the men are showing a disposition to admit, not openly, of course, but inferentially, that the arguments submitted by those defending the ladies are, to a certain extent, unanswerable.

The drubbing which "Christian Young Man" received from the members of the fair sex was too much for him to stand for meekly, and he is in with another letter, in which he replies to some of the assertions of those who were attacking his position.

Singularly enough a despatch came in over the wires to The Examiner today from Chicago, which may have a bearing on this question. After having read it the men will likely look upon it as a vindication of their position, that the motives influencing some, at least, of the ladies in their decision—not to say anxiety—to marry, are not of the kind calculated to make happy homes. The Examiner would not dare make such assertions on its own responsibility. It simply tries, in this controversy, to reflect the views of others. Here is the despatch; let it speak for itself:

Chicago, Jan. 26.—"What's the use of having a husband when you have plenty of money?"

The question was asked to-day in a spirit of disdain by Mrs. Lucinda W. Lewis, of 159 North Artesian avenue. She woke up the other morning to find herself heir to a part of the $250,000 Wilkinson estate in Dallas, Texas.

She was married to J. J. Lewis last November while she was in desperate circumstances. Matters were not much bettered, she says, after marriage. Just before the relative who left her the money died, the sheriff had an eye on her household goods. Her husband was ill in bed. Mrs. Lewis, as soon as word came of her good luck, disappeared. A friend saw her to-day and she admitted that she had left her husband.

"Why shouldn't I?" she asked. "I have money and can do as I please. I don't care to live with him. I am rich."

"Aren't you going to let your husband have a little of the heaven?" was asked.

"Husband!" she repeated, with curling lip. "What use have I for him now?" Seeing a carriage drive by she shrugged her shoulders. "I will have one better than that," she said, "and the fine clothes I shall wear, the furs, the diamonds!"

To-day a number of letters received on this question are given, and so long as the controversy arouses the interest in the public that it continues to do, it is felt that no apology is needed for giving the space to their publication.

Let those who are interested know what your views on the matter are. If the letters are short and to the point they will be published, but they must be short.

The following poetic effusion, which constitutes an interesting addition to the question under discussion, was received by The Examiner, and is given a place in these columns because it is believed that the sentiments expressed will prove interesting reading:

Tell me not in senseless jingle
Marriage is a blissful dream,
For the man is wise that's single,
And girls are not what they seem.

Girls are shrewd and dead in earnest,
And to wed's their only aim,
Miss that is, to Mrs. turnest.,
Anything to change their name.

Not flirtation, not coquetting,
Is their studied end or way,
But to act that each to-morrow,
Nearer brings their bridal day.

Smiles are sweet and glances killing,
And, poor man, bewildered thing,
Thus bamboozled, may, unwilling,
Pony up and buy the ring.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the flirting match of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle,
Be not humbugged with a wife.

Trust no woman, howe'er pleasant,
Let her keep her jaws in hash,
Wed, wed, in the fatal present,
And your future's minus cash.

Lives of bachelors all remind us,
We can live our lives the same,
And, departing, leave behind us
No cross "kids" to bear our name.

"Kids", perhaps, to whom another,
Hoeing out life's solemn row,
Some forlorn and henpecked brother,
One day may stepfather grow.

Let us, then, be not demented,
And lured in through Hymen's gate,
Still unmarried, still contented,
Learn to let the damsels wait.

CHRISTIAN YOUNG WOMAN TELLS THE MEN SOME THINGS

Editor Examiner—

Sir,—In reply to that young Christian man's letter, I beg to say that if there are so many more girls than men in this city, it stands to reason that the girls have got to do the work, or it never would be done. If the girls do not work, who is going to help them? Every mother cannot afford to keep her girls at home, especially if she has seven or nine. I think that probably this man is judging every girl by his own sister, and may be she is one that is kept at home, and if you would call in the morning about 9 o'clock she is still in bed, and her mother doing the washing. That is one of the home-trained girls that he admires. A girl can work in a factory or shop and yet be able to do housework far better than the one just spoken of. I don't believe that there is one girl in this city who thinks anything of a man who spends all he makes on her. She takes him for a know-nothing. Neither does she want him every evening, but most of the men are so jealous that they would be afraid, if not with her, that she would speak to someone else, and with that idea they are a nuisance. Any young man who is honest and has any thought of a future home would not act so, but of course, we all know that some men only want a slave to wait on them. They do not know how to treat a wife. It is all very well for them to come home and find fault if things are not to their taste, and then dress up and go to the opera, or, may be, stand on a corner till 11 or 12 o'clock, while their wives are at home and cannot go out for the want of a pair of boots. If these so-called Christian young men would not spend so much money in tobacco they would not have any trouble in getting suitable wives. Of course, she would be expected to cut the wood and fetch it in, and to carry up all the coal, bring in the water, and also to shovel the snow from the sidewalk.

Yours truly,
CHRISTIAN YOUNG WOMAN.

"GIRLS A HUMBUG" IS THE OPINION OF "STEWART ST"

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Sir, — In reference to the question in your paper "Why should a young man not marry after he is 25 years of age," I desire to give my views.

My experience with the girls is that they are very fickle minded, and pay too much attention to dress instead of learning how to do house work.

I should like to know why the girls think that the boys should give them a good time.

If it was up to the girls to give the boys a good time we would see that they would fare ver badly.

In my experience about one girl out of every twenty-five is a good, sensible girl, while the other twenty-four are generally a snarly good for nothing bunch.

Some girls, although you give them a good time, always give you the "cold feet."

"Love may intoxicate a man but marriage sobers him."

Girls are a humbug.

Yours,
STEWART STREET.

MODERN MAIDENS CAUGHT BY GLARE; A BUSINESS QUESTION

Dear Sir,—As the discussion on the marriage question in your columns appears to arouse more interest daily I hope you will allow me to offer a few remarks on the subject.

On reading over the numerous letters I have come to the conclusion that the reasons given by your correspondents are, for the most part, wide of the mark. They evidently view marriage from a business and and utilitarian standpoint. The man must surely be of a grovelling disposition who would choose a girl for her housekeeping qualities, and overlook such important matters as religion, principle, education, refinement, etc.

What causes the dearth of marriages, in my opinion, is the absence of love and sympathy in the hearts of the present generation, and the deadly spirit of selfishness, which is characteristic of the age. I quite agree with "Pica" when he says that high society is a great deterrent to matrimony in the present day. Girls are brought up more extravagantly than they should be, consequently it is a matter of necessity for them to secure husbands who are able to provide the cherished luxuries for them. If they do not all succeed in marrying rich men, they do the best they can in that direction. Of course, I must admit that there are noble exception, but, as a general rule,

"Maidens, like moths, are often caught by glare,
And Mammon treads where seraphs might despair."

I hope, for my own future, that Peterborough girls have got different sentiments than these. However, there is nothing that I can see to be said in favour of single life. When old age comes on and selfishness has gathered round the heart like a cancer, as it does in many cases, I assure you the single man or woman is a most pitiable wretch, and their society is pestilential to anyone who may come in contact with them. I would therefore enjoin the young people of this city not to procrastinate, but to take the first opportunity as I intend to do myself.

I am, Sir,
ALONE, AND YET ALIVE.

CHRISTIAN YOUNG MAN REPLIES TO HIS FAIR CRITIC'S VIEW

Editor Examiner—

Sir,—I wish, through the columns of The Examiner, to correct a wrong impression given in a letter by a member of the fair sex in your paper a few nights ago, in reply to my letter which appeared in last Tuesday's issue. She makes the assertion that I said I believed there were five girls for every young man in this beautiful city of Peterborough, whereas, I did not make that assertion. What I did say was this, and it was published in the right light in The Examiner Tuesday evening, that I believed that there were five girls to every young man in the city, not for every young man. That is to say, that where you will find one man you will find five girls to that man, as the population is composed, I firmly believe, mostly of girls. Another thing she said was that she did not think there were many girls nowadays who did not make good housekeepers. On this I do not agree with her. What do we find? We find that a good many girls work in the day time, and at night go to the theatre; and what time have girls of this class who are away from home after tea, to learn much of housekeeping? Regarding going to the theatre, I have always considered it a useless expenditure of money. In the first place, what does any lady learn there? There is, no doubt, a great deal of harm learned by going to the opera house. What kind of plays do we find there? We find that the actors are acting their part in the play, whether it be a murderer, an adulterer, a lyncher, a robber, a cheater, a slayer, a gambler, and many other evil things, although we may not do any one of them. However, that is what we learn there, and not good, unless the play is a religious one. Are not the ministers of this city opposed to the theatre? Yes, they are, and not many Sundays ago Rev. Mr. Bruce, of Park Street Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Major, of All Saints' Church, both preached sermons on the subject, and the latter preacher stated in the course of his sermon that young men could not afford to attend the theatre, much less than in the company of their girls. Do you ever realize how poverty generally comes? The member of the fair sex stated that the men generally gave them a better time before they were married. I agree with her. They usually spend all their money before they are married, and afterwards they have none to spend. In my opinion, the majority of girls do not take a serious enough view of the matter. If they did there would be less trouble and more marriages.

In conclusion, I would like to give this particular member of the fair sex a little advice, and that is not to rush into print statements which were never printed in the paper, but to read more carefully and do a little more thinking on the question.

Yours very truly,
CHRISTIAN YOUNG MAN.

A GRANDMOTHER GIVES HER VIEWS ON THE QUESTION

Editor Examiner—

Dear Sir,—Having read with interest the letters in The Examiner on the marriage question, I desire, if you will allow me, to present the views of a grandmother, who is now in the evening of life, and to ask the marriagable girls a few pertinent questions. Young girls of the present day—do you possess nobleness of character, truthfulness, sincerity, honesty, like the girls of old? Do you refuse gifts from any gentleman? Do you write only to your accepted lover, and not like some young ladies I know in Peterborough, who are holding high positions of trust. I fail to see the honour in writing to married men and addressing them as "My Dear"—piling on the agony by sending violets and tulips, in return for which they receive boxes of chocolates.

Young girls, you are given liberty without the chaperone, and therein lies the root of the making of many unhappy homes. Do not, like a thief in the night, steal into the happy home and rob it of its silver and gold. My son is married to a noble woman who has three dear little children and a nice home, and still that father will be found singing "Dearie, Dearie," at another fireside, and before the year is out that home may be swept to the winds. Girls, you do not wonder that Grandmother is bitter when she sees this acute suffering, caused by silly girls. Rouse up for a better influence over the whole community.

Daughters of Canada! bend together for an influence for good; look back on the life of Queen Victoria the Good, and go forward for good, and you will find a sensible, honourable hubby of your own, coming along, so I will leave you singing "Dearie, Dearie, My Own Dearie."

GRANDMOTHER,
of Burleigh.

To the Editor of the Examiner,

Sir, — I have been reading your columns, and, especially, the one entitled "Why men do not marry after they are twenty-five." There is a lot to learn and what some men want may be interesting to other readers. I can only give my opinion and tell the kind of girl I want. The girls of to-day seem to think that their place is either running to some place of amusement or walking the streets. They will go to a mill and work eight or ten hours a day for barely enough to clothe them. (No, Examiner, I do not want one of these.) Why do they do this? Because they do not want to work at housework, though they should be at that so as to learn how to do it. Lots of them will tell you that after they were married they did not know how to make an apron or bake a loaf of bread, besides a lot more they could not do. Those girls will have to send for some neighbour to wash the baby for fear they might let it fall and hurt it. Now, Examiner, these are the facts of the case. Do you wonder that a man of sense will go carefully? Fancy a man taking a girl such as I have told you of! She would likely burn his meat and porridge, feed him on baker's bread, and pay from 10 to 40 cents per dozen for cakes, and then tell him how hard she worked in the mill so that she could be free at night to run to parties, shows, and street parades. Not for mine! Well, the worst has not come yet. They will invite you to their homes—and what a fuss they will make to please their beau! They want to catch him, you know, and you should be a mouse, and watch them perform. They cannot play the piano, they cannot sing, no, but they think they can, and the way they try to do those things would tickle you. Then tea is ready, and whom do you suppose gets it ready? Why, their poor old mother. After tea, what do you suppose they do? Why, take you into the best room and entertain you. The cleaning up of the dirty dishes and the house is left for the mother to do all alone. Do you think any young man, with brains, would want a girl who would let her mother slave for said girl and company? I think not. The kind of the girl I want is one who, when she has company, will put her mother in the easy chair and go ahead with the work, get the tea and do up the work before she sits down with her guests, not one who will make a slave of her mother. I believe that if she treated her mother as I have described, she would treat her man in the same way, after she gets him. Believe me, I am acquainted with a girl in Peterborough who would not walk on the street with her father because he was coming from his work and was not dressed up. A girl who is ashamed of her father or mother is not fit for a wife for any man, according to my way of thinking. Girls ought to be figured on a cash basis; all things taken into account why a man should take them, and what he is getting for his trouble. He may have a long time to fret over his mistakes if he gets married too early. Well, I will close by telling the girls who want good men that they should learn to be good housekeepers, and kind to their parents, and they will not be long on the market.

Yours, etc.,
A STEADY READER OF THE EXAMINER.

S. ADAMS WAS MEMBER OF POLICE

Despatch From Edmonton Tells of the Tragic Ending of an Insane Rancher

A GRUESOME STORY IS TOLD

A tragedy which is probably unparalleled in the history of the Northwest, is reported from Edmonton, Alta., near where the partner and employee of a crazy man were forced to shoot the latter to save their lives. This tragedy, however, has a particular interest to Peterborough, as it is now believed that a former Peterborough man, Mr. Samuel Adams, a brother of City Treasurer Adams accompanied them northward in quest of the rancher. In the despatch below, it refers to a party of N. W. M. P. who left first, and it was with this party that Mr. Adams' brother went. The despatch which appeared in the press some time ago referring to a Samuel Adams undoubtedly referred to the former Peterborough man, as it was known that he had gone with the Mounted Police mentioned.

Samuel Adams has been out west about three years. He spent some time around the Soo, before going to Edmonton.

The following is the despatch bearing the tragic news of the death of Hornbeck, the insane rancher:

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 25—Crowded into a small shack that served as a store near Grand Eddy, on McLeod River, by an insane rancher named Hornbeck, who riddled it with bullets, men who he had chased to their shelter, were compelled in self-defence to kill or at least incapitate the mad man, and two bullets laid him dead, as he stood in the distance with his rifle to his shoulder, and a head on the imprisoned men, who would have rescued him.

Such is the substance of a story just brought to the city from Lac Ste. Anne, by Constable Tyler, of the Northwest Mounted Police. The tragedy occurred on the 17th of December. Hornbeck, who had become made from exposure to cold and the loss of his stock, pursued his partner and employee from his ranch over the snow for two miles, whilst bullets from his rifle buzzed around their heads. Cover was reached at a small store in the distance, and there Hornbeck held his men imprisoned for a time.

From a distance of a hundred yards he told them how straight he could shoot, and nearer and nearer bullects came to the building.

Death from the hands of the mad man stared the imprisoned men in the face, and after aconsultation, it was decided to disable him if possible. The aim proved fatal, however, and in an instant, Hornbeck was cold in death.

The first party of N. W. M. P. composed of Constabics Stark and Shand left Edmonton in quest of the rancher the last of December. No word being heard from them, a second party composed of Corporal Muroe and another, was sent out several weeks ago. The latter met the first at Lobstick Lake, about 80 miles from Lac Ste. Anne, returning with the body of the rancher.

Word was sent ahead to Lac Ste. Anne of the occurrence and this Constable Tyler learned from an Indian who had travelled on foot over the trail.

The stock of Hornbeck is also being brought from Grand Eddy. It consists of thirty mares, half of the original bunch that Hornback took north from Cochrane last fall. The mainder have died from exposure and lack of food.

THE MOVING PICTURES

—The machines of the Automatic Vaudeville, 432 George street, have been stored away by the Peterborough Amusement Co. until spring, and the premises are now being prepared for the moving picture exhibitions. The proprietors, Messrs. Geo. Scott & Co., have arrived in the city and commenced fitting up the suite and installing the moving picture plant. Some unavoidable delay has occurred which may delay the opening until Wednesday evening instead of Tuesday evening, but notice of any change will be given the public. See advertisement.

LOSE 25 PER CENT. OF CATTLE

Examiner Special.

Medicine Hat, Jan. 26. — Medicine Hat experienced the worst blizzard of the season yesterday, and the C. P. R. is badly tied up in consequence. The storm has been raging west of Moosejaw for several days, and worked its way here on Wednesday morning.

Monday evening's Winnipeg train has not reached here yet, and at last accounts the trains from the east were being held at Moosejaw.

SASKATCHEWAN REPORTED STILL SHORT OF COAL

Examiner Special.

Lethbridge, Alta., Jan. 26. — The chinook of the last few days gave way at noon yesterday to a fierce storm which has since been raging continuously covering the ranges with several inches of snow. The balmy chinook had partially exposed the grass, but the ranges are now iced.

Trains on all lines are reported several hours late. The condition of the cattle is of course worse than ever. The big company at Raymond, it is said, anticipates a loss of $100,000. Cattlemen who have been travelling over various lines report conditions much the same everywhere. It is thought 25 per cent. of the cattle in the country will perish. Favourable weather should probably bring the balance through.

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. OF RANGE CATTLE DOOMED

Examiner Special.

Winnipeg, Jan. 26. — Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan, is in the city in connection with the fuel supply of that province.

On his last visit to Winnipeg, he was able to arrange with the C. P. R., for a supply of six extra cars of Crow's Nest coal daily, to be distributed for relief purposes at the instance of the Department of Agriculture. These cars are sent by express trains on both the C. P. R and the C. N. R. lines from Regina, in response to telegraphic and long-distance telephone messages, which are often of a very urgent character, such as hot a pound of coal in sight." The agent at Regina is authorized to attach a car of coal to express trains in such cases, and in this way the immediate necessities are being met.

The amount of snow on the ground in Alberta he considers is greater than it is in Manitoba, where it is now four feet on the level. This is the impression he gained in going through the country. The horses are all right because they can dig under the snow, but the cattle are very lean being unable to do this as two slight chinooks have left a hard crust.

All reports available indicate the present storm in the far west is the worst in the history of the C. P. R The demoralization of traffic is almost complete beyond Moosejaw.

NORTH MONAGHAN YOUTH WHO EARNS $3.00 A DAY SENDING HEN'S EGGS TO THE MONTREAL MARKETS

A case of juvenile business enterprise has just been reported to the Examiner, and the young man who may be called the hero of the story is being warmly congratulated upon his business acumen and the success of his efforts.

An eighteen year old son of Mr. J. Bennett of North Monaghan has recently embarked in the poultry business on an extensive scale, and his enterprise has been liberally rewarded. He has over one hundred hens, and, contrary to the usual habit of hens at this time of the year, they are earning their keep.

He gathers about seventy-five eggs a day, and these he sends to Montreal, for which he receives fifty cents a dozen; in other words from his one hundred odd hens a derives a revenue of over three dollars a day.

PETERBORO' WINNING HONOURS AT THE GREAT SPIEL

Mr. Dickson Davidson Brings Home News of the Greatest Canadian Bonspiel

FERGUSON RINK PLAYING STEADY GAME

Mr. Dickson Davidson is the only representative of the Peterborough curling club in Montreal, who has yet returned home. He arrived in the city yesterday and reports that the Montreal Centenary Bonspiel was a magnificent success.

The Peterborough curlers were made to feel at home in the Canadian metropolis, and have made a record for which they may well feel proud. Mr. Ferguson's rink had last night reached the semi-finals, after defeating in succession the Fredericton and Prescott rinks in the Granite singles. His rink, Mr. Davidson states, has been playing a stellar variety of curling and the rink that beats it will have to be a good one. The St. John, N. B., rink, however, is a favourite among the curlers and is picked by many as the winners. This was the rink that defeated T. Rutherford, who had climbed among the ten left in the game.

The ice, Mr. Davidson states, is much different from the Charlotte street rink. It is smooth as glass, and unlike the pebbled ice the locals are accustomed to. Clubs are there from Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Chatham, Peterborough, Toronto, and several places in the United States—and all are most enthusiastic curlers.

Most of the clubs favoured the irons and these figured prominently in the game. Mr. Davidson states that from the showing made by Mr. Ferguson's rink, that he was on a fair road to the championship, which if won, would be accompanied by a handsome piece of solid silverware.

Whooping Cough

"My three boys had the whooping cough this winter and I could get nothing to help them until I sent for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It arrested the coughs at once and they kept right on improving until they were cured at the cost of one dollar. That was not a large bill for so distressing and dangerous an ailment. — Mrs. William Ball, Bracebridge, Ont.

WANT INSTITUTES IN THE NORTH TOWNSHIPS

A Deputation Will ask Government to Form Farmers' Institute There to Serve it's Farmers

IT WOULD BE A DISTINCT ADVANTAGE

A movement, headed by Reeves Booth, Hales, Johnston and Coben, is on foot to form a Farmers' Institute in the northern part of the County. It is pointed out that while in the south there are two Institutes, that for the east, and another for the west of the county, neither of these cover the northern portion of the county, and it is the intention of those interested to try, if possible, to secure the consent of the Minister of Agriculture and the Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes to the formation of a new institute to embrace the townships to the north of those in which the sphere of influence of the present organizations extends.

A deputation will wait on the Superintendent of Agriculture during the present session, and a request will be presented for permission to form the new institute and secure the usual grant made to those at present in existence. The gentlemen named will be in Toronto next week in connection with the request for a grant to help the townships in which the smallpox epidemic occurred last year, and they will take advantage of their presence there to impress their views upon the Government in relation to the Farmers Institute proposition.

It is understood that the officers of the West Peterborough Institute are heartily in favour of the proposal, and will do all in their power to promote it. At the present time one meeting is held by the West Peterborough Institute, in Harvey, at Lakehurst, and it is understood that in case the new institute is formed this would be held under its auspices and the older institute would confine its attention to the more southern portions of the County.

Bridgenorth Serenity Has Been Disturbed By Recent Sunday Night Burglarly Affair

Residence of Mr. Nathan Taylor, Just East of That Village, Broken Into During Church Hour on Sunday Night

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE DONE

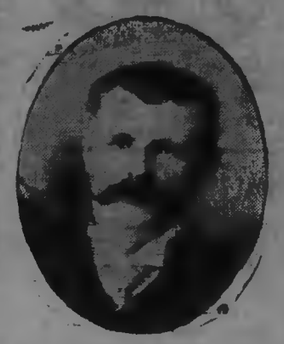
A burglary in Bridgenorth is a rare occurrence, but when it does happen it creates great interest.

On Sunday night the residence of Mr. Nathan Taylor, who lives just east of the village, was broken into and, although nothing was stolen, the whole interior of the house was ransacked and considerable damage done. The affair occurred during the hour of the evening church service, and the majority of the residents of the village were then at church. Mr. Taylor had moved from this particular house to another in the village during the winter months but had left part of his furniture. Mrs. Nicholls, on her way home from church, noticed a light in the house and thought it strange, because she remembered that there was no one living there. It was not until an investigation was made later, however, that the burglary was discovered.

A PROMINENT FIGURE REMOVED BY DEATH

HON. A. G. BLAIR

First Warden In New System



Mr. Patrick McNulty, who was this week elected to the wardenship of the County of Peterborough by his colleagues in the County Council, and who enjoys the distinction of having been given, without opposition, the highest position in the Council, the first time under the new system of election, is a native of the township of Asphodel, where he was born 47 years ago, and where he is at present a prosperous farmer.

He has had an extensive municipal experience, so far as it relates to township affairs, having served on the Council of the township of Asphodel for eleven years, acting as councillor from 1897 to 1903, and since the latter year occupying the position of reeve, each year since the first the office having been given to him by acclamation. It will thus be seen that, while he has never been on the County Council before, his qualifications, not only as a member of that body, but as well as its executive head, are such as to warrant the belief that he will make a successful warden, as his course during his first week's tenure of that office has demonstrated.

The new warden is a son of the late Neil McNulty, and is one of a family of eight sons, all but two of whom are still living. Rev. Father McNulty, of Amherstburg, Ont., is one of the brothers.

In his representation of the township of Asphodel, Mr. McNulty comes in the mouthpiece of one of the most prosperous and attractive municipalities in the county. It has property with an assessed value of $888,000, and there are over 600 voters in the municipality.

There is every reason to believe that under Mr. McNulty's guidance the County Council will have a prosperous and harmonious year.

The new head of the Council is a liberal, and a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

MANY MACABEES WILL GATHER HERE

Six More Officers Will be Among Those Present at Convention.

Preparations are being made for the District Convention of the Knights of the Macabees, which will be held in this city on Wednesday of next week. It is expected that some fifty delegates will be present from all parts of the northwestern part of the Province. The convention will be held in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, and it is probable that D. P. Markey, of Detroit, the Supreme Commander of the Order, and S. W. Traeder, Cambathe, the District Commander, will be present. Following the business session a grand banquet will be held in the evening.

BOYS "PLAYED DEER" OLDER BROTHER SHOT CLAUDE GODFREY

New Developments in a Fatal Shooting Near Bancroft—Youth Now Confesses to Having Shot His Brother in Play

RAN TO THE BARN AFTER DEED

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Bancroft, Jan. 26.—Two weeks ago a shooting accident, of which Claude Godfrey was the victim, occurred. It now transpires that the brother who was supposed to have been at the stable when the accident occurred, did the shooting. According to his story he and his brother were "playing bear," and each had a gun. The one which he was handling happened to be loaded, although he claims he did not know it, and when he fired the fatal shot and saw what he had done he ran out to the stable. He is about eighteen years of age, but does not appear to realize his position. He treats the matter rather lightly, and his parents do not seem to be worrying themselves very much.

THE WEATHER

To-day is a beautiful Canadian winter day. The sun shines from an unclouded sky, and the temperature is but moderately sharp, at least compared with what we have had on several days lately. At noon the thermometer was up to 10 above zero, while at daybreak this morning it was 12 below, and during the night, 17 degrees below zero. Thus there has been a rise in temperature of 27 degrees in a few hours. These sudden changes are characteristic of this winter, as well as last. Formerly we could generally count on three days of a more or less severe cold dip, which would be followed by three days of more moderate weather, and so on, but as variety is said to be the spice of life, we are now having our weather changes every 24 hours.

DEPUTATIONS WAITED UPON COUNCIL

Grant for Industrial Exhibition Urged—More Money for House of Refuge.

A deputation from the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition waited upon the County Council yesterday afternoon and urged upon that body the advisability of making a grant towards the exhibition. The deputation was composed of Ald. Leary Ald. Elliott, Messrs. Dawson Kennedy, W. B. Stewart and S. Deyell. They pointed out that a good fair was of benefit and advantage not only to the city but to the county, and asked for the co-operation and support of the latter.

The matter was left over until the next meeting of the council in June.

At this morning's session Mr. Wm. Anderson, M.P.P., addressed the council on the subject of good roads, explaining the $1,000,000 grant and urging the council to take advantage of it.

Mr. John Breckenridge, township clerk of Asphodel, also waited on the council asking that grants be made to that township for roads, etc.

A bylaw to provide for the issuing of debentures to borrow $2,000 for the completion and equipment of the County House of Refuge was carried. This sum was found necessary in order to finish the equipment of the building.

A SMOKING CHIMNEY CALLED OUT BRIGADE

Firemen Made a Rapid Dash to the Scene and Found a Smoking Chimney

Considerable excitement was aroused at noon to-day by the ringing of the firebell. The fire (!) was in ward two, and was really not worthy of the name fire. The firemen drove like mad, clanging the bell, and whipping the horses, and ran south and west, as if it was the C. G. E. works that were in danger.

A little smoke from the chimney of a house on Dalhousie street west must have excited some person to call out the brigade for nothing.

BANQUET IN HONOUR OF PRESIDENT OF CARPET CO.

Delightful Event at National Hotel Last Night—Employees of Brinton Carpet Factory Were Guests

EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH

The banquet given by the Brinton Carpet Company to its employees last evening at the National Hotel was a delightful function. It was tendered in honour of the 81st birthday of John Brinton, Esq. D.L., J. P., F. S. A., of Stourport, Worcestershire, the president of the company.

About forty guests assembled in the handsome dining hall of the National, where an excellent repast was spread. At the conclusion of the supper Mr. G. P. Preen, the manager of the Brinton Carpet Company, proposed the toast of the evening — the honoured president of the company.

It was a happy occasion, he said, to see so many of the employees of the Canadian factory present, and to have such a pleasant task as to propose the hearth and happiness of Mr. Brinton. He was a man who was known to most of them, if not personally, by reputation, as he was the pioneer carpet manufacturer in England, and carried on a very extensive business. He had handled his business himself from the beginning, and he hoped that he would become the largest carpet manufacturer in Canada and hold a similar position as in England.

Mr. Brinton, said the speaker, was a wonderful man, and a man of unceasing energy. Often he is present at the works in Kidderminster before nine o'clock, and does in one day what most men could not do in two; and this from a man of 80, was wonderful. Besides being interested in the business and welfare of his workers, he had also done a great deal for the town of Kidderminster. He had given a park to the town and restored the Parish church, and by many other generous gifts he had endeared himself to all Kidderminster people. In conclusion he remarked that it was with great pleasure that he proposed long life and happiness to Mr. Brinton, and the sincere and hearty congratulations of all present.

Mr. C. Hyrons seconded the toast, and it was heartily drunk with musical honours.

The toast was replied to by Mr. C. C. Brinton, the son of the respected president.

The health of the local employees was next proposed by Mr. Wadely and replied to by Mr. Pierce.

During the evening a number of songs and recitations were rendered, and the merry company disbanded after singing, "For he's a jolly good fellow," and God Save the King.

The County Council Rescinds The By-law Passed By The Council Of 1906, This Year

And Cost of Maintenance of Inmates in House of Refuge Will be Divided Over the Whole County

STRONG SHOULD HELP WEAK

As was foreshadowed in The Examiner, the County Council at its present session took action in reference to the division of the cost of maintenance of the inmates in the County House of Refuge, and instead of charging each municipality fifty cents per week for each inmate sent to the institution from it, as the Council of 1906 decided to do, and incorporated that decision in the bylaw providing rules and regulations for the government of the House of Refuge, will divide the cost equally over the whole county. This action was taken, against the strong advice of the Inspector of Charities, who pointed out that it was against the principle of the erection of the Houses of Refuge, which was that the strong should help the weak. The old Council, too, was not by any means unanimous in the action taken, a number objecting to it on the same grounds as those advanced by Dr. Smith.

The matter was taken up by the present Council, and it was decided after a full discussion, and upon the advice of the Inspector, Dr. Smith, to rescind the clause of the bylaw and maintain the House of Refuge by a general county tax, each portion of the county paying its share, according to assessment, towards the cost of maintaining the institution and its inmates.

OVERLAPPING CHARITY

The importance of system and organization, or the want of them, is plainly demonstrated in connection with the conditions obtaining in the distribution of charity, by the several church funds of the city. As things are now, it happens frequently that there is absolute, and, in one sense, sinful, waste of contributions by the over-lapping of the work of two or more sets of church representatives. From lack of system and consultation, some particular family in need of aid is helped to the extent of, and perhaps beyond, present needs by one church. Without knowing what has been done—for the recipients as a rule do not tell—another church piles Pelion on Ossa by making a similar lavish donation. The result is that the family is gorged with food and raiment, which, in the improvidence, which probably largely accounts for their condition, they eat, or will not, make good use of. "Feast or famine" is the motto of such families, according as the means are available or wanting. This sort of thing is going on almost continuously throughout the city. Indeed, instances are not wanting where families are pensioners upon three or four churches, in some cases to such an extent that surplus contributions are converted into cash for the purchase of whisky or tobacco, or some taboo articles, which are not included in the charity menu of the churches. These conditions are wrong for several reasons. There is absolute waste of contributions. Families are overloaded with perishable articles, contributed in excess of immediate requirements. Families are pauperized and the spirit of self-help is discouraged or subdued. In such concentration of contributions, families in need are often ignored, because all the eggs have been put into one basket.

All this may be avoided by a little concerted action, consultation and organization among the several churches. An arrangement of districts could easily be made, and specific districts assigned to each church or a list could be made of those in need of help, and the cases—made the object of common consultation—assigned to the several church or charitable organizations. Thus, or in some similar way, systematized, the work could be carried on without over-lapping—there would not be congestion of charity in one place and utter lack of it in another, and, while none would be over-fed, or over-warmed, or over-clothed, none would be neglected. Full value, so to speak, would be received for the charity dispensed. There is a good deal of talk about church union. But here is presented an opportunity for union of effort, in which no distinctive doctrines need be sacrificed, in which all the churches can meet on the broad platform of Christian charity, to be distributed with the wisdom of the sergent, on business principles, which are never contra-indicated, either in the highest ecclesiastical synod or in the distribution of eleemosynary food or cast-off clothing.

THE NEW LIBERAL LEADER

The Examiner very cordially congratulates Hon. Geo. P. Graham, of Brockville, upon his elevation to the position of leader in the Legislature of the Liberals of Ontario. He is a young man as statesmen go—48 years of age—energetic, capable, a fine speaker, and in every way well qualified to amply justify the confidence reposed in him by his fellow members, representing the great Liberal party of Ontario. He also possesses the good executive and business ability requisite in a successful leader. In accepting the position of interim leader, Mr. Graham shows his loyalty to the party, and self-abnegation, by declaring, upon assuming responsibility, that his acceptance of the leadership in no way interferes with the free action of the party in the future. Mr. Graham's experiance as a journalist gives him a knowledge of men and affairs and a broad outlook which additionally equip him for the creditable and satisfactory discharge of the duties of his light position, alike in the interests of the party he represents and leads, and of the Province of Ontario.

A PETERBOROUGH POO BAH

Peterborough is instituting a civic Poo Bah. The Health Committee of the City Council is in search of a civic Admirable Crichton, who is to embody the virtues of a round dozen or so of official functions. A resolution was passed last night to recommend to the Council the appointment of a sanitary inspector, whose official identity is shrouded in the multiplicity of branch offices he is supposed to annex. Here is a wordmap of the form into which the official in question is hammered out:

Sanitary Inspector.
Anti-cat-in-the river Inspector.
Minister of the Milk Bylaw.
Inspector of Bakeries.
Inspector of Wells.
Inspector of Slaughter-houses.
Inspector of Food.
Arbiter of Sewer Connections.
Superintendent of Scavenging.
Truant Officer
Reserve Constable, and General Utility Man for the Aldermen.

For doing all these things, this multiplex official is to receive the munificent salary of $700 a year and a livery. Seriously, it is proposed to appoint a sanitary inspector with all these collateral functions attached. It is a question whether this is not carrying economy to excess, and overloading a single individual with so many duties that he cannot efficiently discharge any of them. A sanitary inspector should be a man of more than ordinary intelligence, of good education, with a sufficient knowledge of sanitary science, either soundly theoretical and seasoned with common sense, or gained from experience. Can a man be found possessing these qualifications who is willing to become a "handy-man," "willing to make himself generally useful" for $700, and a free uniform—a scientist and a servant-in-livery rolled into one. A sanitary inspector whose efficiency affects the health and life of our citizens to a very large extent, should be a good man.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

New York is having its January Thaw troubles.

The four Prestons in the Legislature should really be reckoned as five—one is a newspaper man, and counts for two.

The Toronto Street Railway Company is not so black as it is painted. It does not hold up citizens; simply makes them hold up themselves.

If Senator Ross had not "discovered" and opened up New Ontario, in opposition to the Conservative opposition, Premier Whitney would not have had the trouble of establishing a new judicial district, and there would have been no Cobalt to demand a daily paper established "in its midst."

The Whitney Government promises to amend the Liquor License Act. In view of the impossibility of passing an Act of Parliament that will not permit thoroughfare to a coach and four, some difficulty will be found in enacting a License Act that won't leak, especially if it contains a hole two-fifths as large as the bung.

The death of Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue late "Fair Wage Officer" for the Dominion Government, removes, says the Brantford Expositor, one of the most loyal and devoted friends which Organized Labour in this province ever had. The "Fair Wage" law was administered by him most faithfully, and it is estimated that during the past three years over 600 fair-wage schedules have been prepared for insertion in Government contracts. This is a vast improvement on the old "sweat-shop" system, and for the betterment in the condition of the wage-earner thus brought about no small share of the credit is due Mr. O'Donoghue.

The Examiner has received a copy of the first semi-weekly issue of the Welland Telegraph. The weekly was a first-rate newspaper, which, it is no disparagement to say, was a journalistic sausage—stuffed full of meaty news, chopped fine—crisply and concisely told. The enterprise of the Telegraph is quite abreast of that of the good old town of Welland—the native heath of at least two Peterborough newspaper men—a town which has only recently found itself and forged to the front of the procession of the progressive centres of Canada. Welland, with unsurpassed transportation facilities, rail and water, has within the past eighteen months become the centre of great industries and has a most promising future. The well written, well edited, newsy Welland Telegraph in its semi-weekly form, is well fitted to tell the story of progress of its habitat, which, it is hoped, will be its chief "take" for years to come.

CREDIT WHERE DUE

A good deal of credit is being claimed by the Whitney Government for the distribution of $172,844 of railway taxes among the municipalities of the Province. To those who care to familiarize themselves with the history of the agitation for higher railway taxation in Ontario, it will be found that the credit for railway taxation rests upon Mr. Pettypiece, the former member for East Lambton, who introduced legislation in this direction. When the Pettypiece bill, which provided for the valuation of railway property "at its true cost and value," was introduced, Mr. Whitney and his colleagues, then in Opposition, gave their support to it. It was believed they were not sincere, and merely tried to set a trap for the Government, which then only held power by a slender majority of three. The trick so far succeeded that they were able to pose in the general election as the champions of railway taxation. But when they got into office they did nothing for a year, and then handled the railways so gingerly that the basis of taxation which they eventually adopted will yield about one-third of the amount which would have been forthcoming had the principles of the Pettypiece bill been applied.

To Mr. Pettypiece largely belongs the credit for such taxation as has been proposed. After an energetic campaign waged by him in this direction the Legislature dealt with the question. Through his efforts a commission was appointed which made inquiries as to railway taxation in many of the States of the Union, where facts and arguments were secured which could not be refuted. Mr. Pettypiece should not be refused the credit which is his due.—Brantford Expositor.

MEALS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

A somewhat unusual piece of legislation became law in Great Britain with the new year. It is the Provision of Meals Act, and is intended to make sure that no child is sent to school in an ill-natured condition or on an empty stomach.

Under the new act, whenever a child is underfed an investigation follows. The home life of this child is investigated and the circumstances of its parents subjected to searching inquiry, if it is found that they are honourably unable to pay, nothing further is done in the matter; but, if on the other hand, the necessity of the child is the fault of the parents, then the new law will pursue him for payment of the cost of the meal. The principle is thus established that the child must be fed; and the state and the parents can afterwards settle the financial responsibility. A firm administration of a law of this character will have far-reaching effects. The home life of indigent children will come under the surveillance of the state, and it is the hope of those who urged the passage of the measures that the mere self-protecting fear of legal consequences will develop into a genuinely self-respecting sense of moral obligation.

School canteens are set up not merely for necessitous children, but to provide as well comfortable meals for children who are unable to pay. This plan, its promoter anticipates, will be widely developed. As he puts it, "It's a fine thing to bring the children all together for a mid-day meal. The meal of good soup and pudding is far better than the little packet of bread and cheese, wrapped in a piece of rough brown paper, that the rain as often as not has reduced to a sodden pulp, munched in a corner of one of the class rooms. Working class mothers would soon find that the penny or three halfpence spent daily on a school canteen, represented to them a great economy of time and labour, and to the youngsters a mid-day meal far more nourishing and acceptable than could be provided, as a rule, by the little menage of the artisan home."

TORTURING SCIATICA

A Severe Case Cured by Dr. Williams Pink Pills

Fierce darting pains—pains like red hot needles being driven through the flesh—in the thigh, perhaps down the legs to the ankles—that's sciatica. None but the victim can realize the torture. But the sufferer need not grow discouraged for there is a cure—a sure cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make new blood, this new blood feeds and strengthens the nerves and frees them from pain. The pain is banished to stay banished—the cure is complete. Mr. Chas. B. Maclean, a prosperous farmer near Brockville, Ont., has been cured of a severe case of sciatica and wishes other sufferers to hear of his cure that they may benefit by his experience. He says:—"For upwards of five years I was a periodical sufferer from sciatica. In the morning while getting up I would be seized with agonizing pains in my hips. Sometimes these pains extended down one leg, sometimes down the other; often down both. The pain was terrible. Imagine the agony caused by a red hot spike being driven through the flesh. That was just my feelings when the sciatica was at its worst. Often while carrying water to the horses the pain became so acute I had to drop the pail in the middle of the yard. I followed doctor's treatment but with slight relief. I then tried rheumatic plasters and liniments but these did not help me at all. Then I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. At first they did not seem to help me but as they had been so highly recommended I persisted in the treatment and gradually noticed a change in my condition. The pain became less severe, I felt stronger and my appetite improved. I think I used the pills about four or five months before I was completely cured, but though that was two years ago I have not since had the slightest return of sciatica. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a marvellous medicine and so does my wife who used them as a blood builder. She says they have no equal and never wearies of praising them to her friends."

Good blood is the secret of health—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the secret of good blood. That is why they cure sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus' dance, heart palpitation, indigestion and the ailments common to women and growing girls. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I saw something at the post office this morning which struck me as very funny. One of the butt hinges on the post office door on the Hunter street front was broken. Instead of getting a new "butt" for a few cents and putting it on in place of the broken one, which could be done in a few minutes, the caretaker carefully nailed up the door, thus depriving the public of its use. Isn't it funny?

Yours truly,
AMUSED.

"WANDERER" OFFERS SOME EXCELLENT IDEAS

Snow Ploughing is Inefficiently Done—Mayor and Aldermen Taken to task for Slipshod Work.

HE ALSO WANTS A MEMORIAL ERECTED

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—In the past few weeks I have noticed a few things which I think would stand criticism.

(1) The Y.M.C.A. evidently is impregnated more or less, with a seditious sentiment. In fact if they (I mean those who suggested the sentiment) had proposed one hundred years ago to discuss "Resolved that Canada secede from the British Empire and adopt a republican form of government" they one and all would have been severely dealt with. No matter what the result of the debate was, it was not wise in such a loyal institution. In such a loyal city, as Peterborough, to even suggest such a sentiment. I have known, when living in the U. S. some years ago, of just such a debate, having been quoted as a sentiment, growing in Canada, in favour of annexation with U. S.

(2) The Library calls itself a public library. Is it so? I do not think so. Are there not one or more rich men who are interested enough in this great city to supplement the handsome gifts already on hand and donate the money for a suitable building, in which a good music or lecture hall could be included. Where are the men who are making from three to six hundred thousand a year out of the labours of our fellow townsmen (mechanics, labourers and merchants) could not they open their hearts sufficiently, and be a little magnanimous and donate a building. The law allows a certain rate (I think a half mill) to be levied to support a public library and I see no reason why we cannot have one. I called once and asked if the librarian here, had the works of three of the most popular writers of the day, and out of some thirty or forty books written by them, they had only three.

(3) Do you not think, Mr. Editor, it about time for the public here, to wake up and do something towards erecting a monument of some kind, to perpetuate the memory of a lady who has given to this city thousands of dollars in the shape of hospital, Y.M.C.A., Parks, and several bequests. It is a disgrace to us that we are not grateful enough to erect even a little one in Central Park for in my opinion it is the only place where one should be placed—where the public and visitors coming and going would be sure to see it.

(4) What is the matter with the Mayor and some of the Aldermen getting up at 4 or 4.30 a. m. some day and walking from Central Park to the "Cordage" (and I presume it is the same all over the city) and trying to walk on our sidewalks in such a manner that our guardians of the peace would not arrest them for being drunk and disorderly. I defy them to do it. Are the sidewalks ever shovelled? Is the municipal snow plow a flying machine or what is it? I could show the council men one street, where the snow plow done its work, one half on the sidewalk and one half in the ditch, nearly all winter.

Hoping, Mr. Editor, I have not transgressed too much on your valuable space, I am only a WANDERER.

A Cold Finds Your Weak Spot

THE BRONCHIAL TUBES AND LUNGS ARE PROTECTED AGAINST THE EVIL EFFECTS OF COLDS BY

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

You can never tell just what form a cold will take but you may be sure it will search out your weakest organ. With some it assumes a catarrhal nature, and affects the head principally; but with others it becomes bronchitis and there sets in a hard cough and severe chest pains. Then, again, it often leads to inflammation of the lungs, consumption, pneumonia or may settle on the kidneys or bowels.

Because colds do not always prove serious some people take great chances with them, but the risk is great. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is intended for people who want assurance against serious results from colds.

This great medicine has absolutely proven its extraordinary control over coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and all such ailments, and for this reason has a place in the great majority of homes.

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port Hope, Ont., writes:—"Being exposed to all sorts of weather I frequently catch cold. Last winter I was so bad with a cold that I could not speak above a whisper and had great pains in my chest. At last I feared that it would develop into consumption if I did not succeed in getting proper treatment. A friend advised me to take Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and I began to improve before I had taken half a bottle. One bottle cured my cold which I believe wouould have proven very serious if I had not used this medicine."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author are on every bottle.

Canadian Trapper's Life.

The last few years of the life of John Macdougall, son of the Rev. John Macdougall, the first missionary who worked in the Canadian Northwest, and L. C. S. Ward are brimful of adventure. Mr. Macdougall has been working for the Hudson Bay Co. in the Far North, while for the past six or seven consecutive years Mr. Ward has been trading on his own account with the Indians and half-breeds.

In this wild country it is no uncommon thing for a trapper to spend months without seeing a soul excepting the solitary mail carrier, who trudges along with his dog sled, often covering as much as 100 miles in a day. The country in the district where these old trappers live abounds with moose, elk, muskox, Arctic foxes—in fact, it is a veritable hunter's paradise.

During the season the trappers, who are composed almost solely of Indians and halfbreeds, make from $500 to $1,000, according to the plentifulness of furs. During the summer months they pass their time spending this money. Horses are unknown among the Rib and Beaver tribes, dogs, snowshoes and canoes being the sole means of transportation.

These Indians are also marvels of endurance, and one halfbreed is credited with having covered more than sixty miles on foot in less than seven days, but such instances are rare. Attempts have been made to harness moose, and a trapper named Poacher Purdy has succeeded in taming a team, which he drives daily, either to sleigh or his home-made wagon.—Edmonton Correspondence Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Obvious.

A reporter tells of one of the funniest scenes that ever occurred in the House of Commons due to an innocent remark made by Robert Spencer, who is now Lord Althorp. His Lordship was one of the greatest dandies of the House. He was noted for his fastidiousness in dress and had a very effeminate voice and manner. One evening he appeared in the House in an immaculate dress suit, with a white tie, a white waistcoat, and dangling a pair of white kid gloves in his hand. When his turn to speak came he arose with the utmost solemnity and began: "Mr. Speaker, I am not an agricultural laborer."

From anyone else such a remark would have attracted no attention, but from him, in the costume he was then wearing, it sounded so ludicrous that the House roared with laughter, and it was fully ten minutes before he could go on with his speech.

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP-- RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

La Grippe is Epidemic Catarrh.

LA GRIPPE spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes are all subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

La grippe is well-named. The original term, la grippe, is French, but it has been shortened by the busy American to one word "grip."

Without any intention of doing so, a new word has been coined which describes the disease exactly.

The ailment clings to the patient as tenaciously as if some terrible giant had clutched him in a fatal clasp.

Men, women and children—whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of this terrible monster.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip caught you? If so, read the following letters.

These testimonials will show you the quickest and best means of ridding yourself of this tenacious disease and its after-effects.

Suffered Twelve Years From After-Effects of La Grippe.

Mr. Victor Patneaude, 518 Madison St., Topeka, Kas., a well-known carpenter and member of Knights and Ladies of Security, writes:

"Twelve years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and I never really recovered my health and strength—but grew weaker every year, until I was unable to work.

"Two years ago I began using Peruna and it built up my strength so that in a couple of months I was able to go to work again:

"This winter I had another attack of la grippe, but Peruna soon drove it out of my system.

"My wife and I consider Peruna a household remedy."

Pneumonia Followed La Grippe—Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Brought Relief.

Mr. T. Barnecott, West Aylmer, Ontario, Can., writes:

"Last winter I was ill with pneumonia after having la grippe. I took Peruna for two months, when I became quite well, and I can say that any one can be cured by it in a reasonable time and at little expense.

"Every time I take a cold, I take some Peruna, which makes me well again.

"I also advised it for my daughter who was so ill with prostration that she could not follow her trade of dress making.

"A bottle of Peruna made such a change in her that she has been able to follow her trade ever since.

"I also induced a young lady, who was all rundown and confined to the house, to take Peruna, and after taking Peruna for three months she is able to follow her trade of tailoring.

The Medical Profession Recognizes La Grippe as Epidemic Catarrh.

"I can recommend Peruna for all such who are ill and require a tonic."

Systemic Catarrh, the Result of La Grippe. Pe-ru-na Receives Credit for Present Good Health.

Mrs. Jennie W. Gilmore, Box 44, White Oak, Ind. Ter., formerly Housekeeper for Indiana Reform School for Boys, writes:

"Six years ago I had la grippe, which was followed by systemic catarrh.

"The only thing I used was Peruna and Manalin, and I have been in better health the last three years than for years before.

"I give Peruna all the credit for my good health."

Pe-ru-na—A Tonic After La Grippe.

Mrs. Chas. E. Wells, Sr., Delaware, Ohio, writes:

"After a severe attack of la grippe, I took Peruna and found it a very good tonic."

Judge Horatio J. Goss, Hartwell, Ga., writes: "I had a severe spell of la grippe which left me with systemic catarrh. A friend advised me to try Peruna. The third bottle completed the cure."

"Most Effective Medicine Ever Tried for La Grippe."

Robt. L. Madison, A. M., Principal of Cullowhee High School, Painter, N. C., is chairman of the Jackson County Board of Education. He has for nearly six years been teaching in Painter.

He is a writer of occasional verse and has contributed to a number of leading papers and magazines,—religious, educational and secular.

In speaking of Peruna, Mr. Madison says:

"I am hardly ever without Peruna in my home. It is the most effective medicine that I have ever tried for la grippe.

"It also cured my wife of nasal catarrh. Her condition at one time was such that she could not at night breathe through her nostrils.

"In consequence, an inflamed condition of the throat was brought about, getting worse and worse, and yielding to no remedy until Peruna was tried."

For special instructions, address Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

EXCELLENT LECTURE BY CANADIAN AUTHOR

Rev. R. E. Knowles, of Galt, Wins the Favour of a Select Peterborough Audience

THE SECRET OF SCOTCH SUCCESS

A lecturer, worthy of the reputable name he bears in Canada, is the Rev. R. E. Knowles, a Galt Presbyterian minister, who addressed a fairly large and intelligent audience in the George Street Methodist Church last night on "The Secret of Scotch Success." What seemed to impress his audience the more was, not so much his knowledge of Scottish character, but the facile and select delivery, illustrating his command of the English language and his capability of expressing his sentiments in the choicest of English words. His address was tinged with a rich vein of humour, which, together with his broad and lofty ideals, made him a speaker of whom none could scarcely tire. His character sketches were vividly drawn. His presence was commanding and he frequently resorted to gestures to lend a greater force to the ideas he wished to convey.

Incidentally there was, intervening the various points on "The Secret of Scotch success," an edifying and inspiring sermon which could not fail to receive more than a passing consideration. The bright humour running through his lecture, alone was sufficient to win over any audience. His knowledge of literature is wide, and he frequently quoted from authors and poets who lived in the centuries of the past. Upon the first mention of Scotland's greatest poet, Robert Burns,—the author of the immortal "For A' That and A' That"—there was an unmistakable restlessness of hands and feet from the numerous sons of Scotland present at the lecture.

Rev. Mr. Knowles was a former resident of Peterborough, and in his introductory remarks he touched upon his life here—"the scenes of his early triumphs and defeats." He referred to the progress Peterborough has made in the past two or three decades, its commercial and literary enterprise. He regretted deeply the absence of his old friend and host, Mr. D. Hughes Charles, who was to have presided, but could not on account of illness.

In dealing with his subject, "The Secret of Scotch Success," he paid some pretty compliments to that historic race. Commercially, educationally, domestically, and from a standpoint of character, they have been successful. The Scotch are, and always have been, a race given to strenuous labour and industry chiefly because of the reluctant soil upon which they have had to earn their bread. There was always a tendency to look down upon those who have to toil with their hands, but he declared that there should be more pity expended on those who wander about in idleness. Work means a glow of health in the cheek and a gleam of power in the eye, and often labours, begun as a necessity, terminated as a benediction. Work, therefore, has done infinite things for Scotchmen.

The speaker was a thoroughbred Irishman, but he thought every man should have one drop of Scotch blood in his veins—but one drop only—and the Scotchmen heaved a sigh of relief as he concluded—one drop of Scotch blood is worth several of any other kind.

The Scotch are a sentimental people, but they make attempts to despise the thought. Their language, however, gives them away. "What language," asked the speaker, "could express the phrase, 'a bonnie lassie,' or the thoughts of the old song, 'In the Days of Auld Lang Syne,' as the Scotch language does? When the world wanted a love song that could be sung alike by prince and peasant, that might be lilted beside the campfires or on the battlefield, it was a Scotchman who dipped his pen into the ink and wrote "Annie Laurie."

Scotchmen, too, have a marked capacity for appreciating the substantial, and not what appears to be great. They have a passionate thirst for the reality. Fashionable society, said the speaker, has gone to the mischief. Too many have forgotten the words of Burns:

"The rank is but the guinea's stamp,
The man's the goud, for a' that."

The Scotch people are great nonconformists. They will stand by for their religion and for their freedom of conscience till the last. The insatiable quest of the Scottish heart is the acceptance of the sovereignty of God. This idea the speaker illustrated from Goldsmith's "The Deserted Village," with the following quotation:

"As some tall cliff that lifts its awful form
Swells from the vale, and mid-way leaves the storm,
Though round its base the rolling clouds are spread,
Eternal sunshine settles on its head."

The meeting was presided over by the Rev. Dr. Crothers, who, together with Rev. A. Bright and Rev. J. G. Potter, conducted the opening and closing devotional exercises.

At the conclusion of the lecture, which was given in aid of the Y. M. C. A. camp site, a vote of thanks was moved by Rev. E. A. Lanafeldt and Mr. G. B. VanBlaricom, and tendered by the chairman, to which the speaker briefly responded.

EVANGELIST HERE FOR ANOTHER WEEK

Mr. Maplesden Will Remain in the City and Conduct Special Services—Second Coming of Christ

All this week Mr. W. J. Maplesden, of Buffalo, has been preaching on the second coming of Christ in the Gospel Hall. He has a happy way of carrying his audience with him and his ministry has been very much enjoyed, being perfectly devoid of the peculiar mannerisms of many evangelists. He does not deal in sensationalism in any form; what he says he proves from the living word of God. He proved to the joy of many that the second coming of Christ is not a mere doctrine or fad, but it is a positive fact, soon to be enacted. This "blessed hope," as the Bible calls it, is premillennial, inasmuch as there can be no universal blessing on earth till judgment has taken place, as in Matt. 24th chap. 1st. The Lord will descend from heaven with a shout only to be heard by the saints on earth, and the saints who have died. These will be caught away as was Enoch of old, before the judgment by water; so will the church of Christ be taken away from the earth and then tribulation and judgment of living nations, after which the thousand years' reign of peace. It is also pre-eminent, and also pre-imminent, liable to come to pass at any moment. If any man or woman really believes in the coming of the Lord it is a purifying hope that will not be found in a dance hall or theatre or card table. The address last night was founded on Acts 1, connected with St. Luke 24th, which reads, "And He led them—the disciples—out as far as to Bethany, and lifted up His hands and blessed them, and when He had spoken these things unto them, while He beheld, He was taken out of their sight." This cloud was not a passing cloud, but the same that stood between Israel and Pharoah at the Red Sea, and stood over the Tabernacle, the glory of the Lord—"And while they were looking up into Heaven, two men—or angels—stood by and said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into Heaven, the same Jesus which is taken up from you into Heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven."

Our Lord said at one time, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me, this He spake of His death." All may meet Jesus now in grace and escape the coming judgment, but if Christ is rejected now all such must meet Him in judgment.

All next week Mr. Maplesden will continue these meetings and every night will take a special subject such as Justification, what is it, and what does it mean, to-morrow at 4 o'clock; this will be for Christians of every denomination. At 7 o'clock there will be a public meeting. A song service will begin at ten minutes to seven, conducted by Mr. G. W. Mulligan for fifteen minutes.

INJUNCTION WAS MADE PERPETUAL

Copeland, Chatterson Company Wins Its Suit—Judge Finds a Conspiracy

Judgment in the action brought by the Copeland-Chatterson Company against the Business Systems, Limited, composed of Henry J. King, Daniel S. Baird, Frederick Harcourt, William E. Trout, W. T. Archibald and J. Morgan Hoose, for conspiracy to fraudulently obtain the business of the plaintiffs, was given out at Osgoode hall by Justice Clute Saturday. The plaintiff's action was practically sustained, and they were given costs. The master-in-ordinary will assess the damages.

It was found that 88 tools recovered from defendant Hoose and brought into court were the property of the plaintiffs, and from the evidence it was inferred and found as a fact that they were used by Hoose in the defendants' employ, and they had been improperly taken from the plaintiffs' factory and that the object in inducing Hoose to leave the plaintiffs' employ was to obtain the use of the said tools.

The justice was satisfied that the confidential information secured by the defendants while in the employ of the plaintiffs was wholly appropriated by them to carry out their schemes.

It was also found as a fact that the defendants other than Hoose conspired together while still in the plaintiffs' employ to leave and they endeavored both before and after they quit the plaintiffs' service to induce other employees to leave. The parent conspiracy was to operate the plaintiffs' business by illegal means, and all the illegal acts resorted to from an early date were contemplated by the conspirators.

"Here we are dealing with a flagrant breach of trust during service with intent to reap the advantage contemplated afterwards," says the finding. "In such a case the fraud in service with intent to use afterwards and the use afterwards are both discountenanced by law. The utilization of the fraud cannot be legalized by the fact that though the utilization was contemplated when the fraud was committed, the relation of master and servant had terminated before it was arrived at. The incorporation of the name Business Systems was itself one of the acts done for the purpose of carrying out the conspiracy to fraudulently obtain the plaintiffs' business."

The injunction should be made perpetual and relief granted.

There will be a reference to the master-in-ordinary to take the accounts of profits, or assess the damages or both as the plaintiffs may elect on his different claims. Costs of this action inquire of the entry of judgment go to plaintiffs; further directions and costs reserved.—Toronto Sunday World.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAMME AT THE T. A. S.

Ladies' Literary Society Meeting Held Last Night Was of More Than Usual Interest

AN ESSAY ON THE "LILY OF ISRAEL"

The increasing appreciation on the part of the members of the Ladies' Literary Society of St. Peter's T.A.S., of the facilities afforded them for the cultivation of literatry power was evidenced by the large attendance at last evening's meeting, when the reputation, which the Society has attained for presenting programmes of unusual interest, was ably sustained.

Miss L. Sullivan was the essayist of the evening and read in a pleasing manner a most interesting paper on "The Lily of Israel," whom Wordsworth has so fittingly described as "Our Tainted Nature's Solitary Boast." The essay contained much information and was a most comprehensive account of the Holy Virgin's life.

In a little obscure hamlet in Galilee, called Nazareth, in the seventh month of the sacred year of the Hebrews, was born Mary, The Immaculate Virgin—who was to create in Heaven a light which would never be extinguished.

During her tender years she was carefully guarded by her parents, Joachim and Anne. Mary increased in age, mildness and beauty, shedding around her peace and joy, in the same manner as the sun sheds his benign heat; or as the flower scatters its sweet, refreshing perfume. She possessed extraordinay mildness and admirable simplicity. She was just in amiable kindness, her soul possessed that holy charity which might be called sympathy, her virtues alone betrayed her and revealed her lofty nature, as a flower hidden by its leaves is discovered by its delicious perfume. She was clothed in the most spotless robes of Angelic perfection and saw in everything about her the goodness and power of her Creator, and, ascending from the effect to the cause, she frequently knelt under canopy of Heaven and returned thanks to her God. She became so learned and so wise that she appeared more like an angel from Heaven than a daughter of the human race.

She walked in the paths of righteousness and in the ways of prudence and her life was occupied in gratifying her parents in all her actions.

At an early age Mary became espoused to Joseph an upright and holy man. A contented heart filled with hope, an intimate family happiness, a candour of soul which thought of nothing but what was good, meek and humble, rendered the home of the humble Virgin a veritable paradise.

On a certain day when "The Immaculate Virgin" was absorbed in silent contemplation, an angel appeared to her and addressing her conveyed the tidings that she would bring forth a Son, who would be called the Son of the Most High, the Saviour of the world.

Accordingly in a stable at Bethlehem, was born her Divine Son—the Redeemer of the world—whose sorrows and sufferings she so compassionately shared.

The sweetness and docility of this beautiful life was ably portrayed by Miss Sullivan.

As a pleasing preliminary to this interesting paper, the following musical programme was introduced by Miss Coughlin who occupied the chair for the evening:—

Instrumental—Miss Daisy Conroy.
Vocal duet—Misses Primeau.
Recitation—Miss Derocher.
Vocal solo—Mr. F. Pope.
Violin solo—Miss K. Wallis.

The next meeting of the society will will be held Thursday evening, Feb. 7th, when Miss Nora Fitzgerald will read a paper on "The Canadian North-west."

THEIR FAITHFUL WORK WAS REWARDED

Scholars of St. Paul's Sunday School Are Given Prizes—Annual Tea and Concert Held Last Night

Last night the annual tea and concert in connection with St. Paul's Sunday School was held, and was attended by about 250 persons, members of the school predominating. The function was held in the school room and was much enjoyed by those participating in it. During the early portion of the evening, from 5.30 to 7 o'clock tea was served to the members of the school, the result of the kind thoughtfulness of the ladies of the congregation. This feature, needless to say, was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the young participants.

Following the tea a programme was rendered and the presentation of the prizes took place, the chair being occupied by Mr. Wm. Madill. After an opening hymn and prayer by Rev. Mr. Bright, the following programme was rendered:—

Chorus, by twelve girls, trained by Mr. W. F. Nelson, with Miss Gladys Crane, accompanist.
Recitation—Roy VanZant.
Solo—Myra White.
Piano duet—Miss Gladys Crane and Miss Mattie Robertson.
Quintette—Miss Davies, and Messrs. Crane, Nelson, Gillespie and Bennett.
Recitation—Gladys Hunter.
Address—Rev. Dr. Torrance.
Girls' Chorus.
Recitation—Mabel Pringle.
Male Quartette.
Recitation—John Markel-Garvin.

The presentation of the prizes to those who had been present on each Sunday during the year then took place, the following scholars being given books, in recognition of their faithfulness:—Willie White, Fred Sharpe, John Markel-Garvin, Madeline Baptie, Stanley Anderson and Sadie White. It is a significant fact and one worthy of mention that one of the scholars named, Madeline Baptie has not missed a single Sunday in the past five years, a record for faithfulness which few of the adult members of the congregation can equal.

Ross Laing was presented with a prize book for having recited the Shorter Catechism at one sitting, and he was also given the Assembly certificate for the same record. Hugh Carmichael was given an Assembly certificate for having recited the large number of Scripture verses.

The prizes were presented by Rev. Dr. Torrance, who took occasion to compliment the successful scholars upon their splendid record during the past year.

PRIZED TRINKET SAVED THE LIFE OF ITS OWNER

Doorkeeper of New York Theatre Finds Dent in Match Box After Fight

New York, January 23rd. — Joseph Eustace, head doorkeeper at the Manhattan opera house, has bought a glass case for a small silver match safe, which he has carried for several years, and declared that he would preserve it as long as he lived, as he believed it had saved his life.

On his way to his home at 507 West One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street, he engaged in a fight with an Italian, who tripped him up as as he alighted from an Amsterdam avenue car. The two men struggled in the street for several minutes. Policemen separated them, but Eustace declined to make a complaint. He was slightly bruised and knew that he had received a severe blow on the left side of his chest.

Examining his clothes after he reached home, he found a slit through both coats, and a dent in the match safe, which he carried in his upper vest pocket, directly over his heart. He then recalled that he had seen the glint of steel during the altercation.

JOKE WHICH REACTS ON THE PERPETRATOR

A Warning to Persons Who Forge Reports of Alleged Weddings and Send Them to the Papers

The agitation over the question, "Why do men over twenty-five not marry?" is apparently forcing persons who do not want to be married, into matrimony. The Examiner today received what purported to be a report of a wedding said to have taken place in Toronto on Wednesday. Investigation followed and it was found that the reported wedding did not take place at all, a forgery having been committed since a name was signed to the report which now turns out to have been forged. Persons who send reports of this nature to the papers do not, possibly realize the seriousness of their action. Occasionally these reports get into print, and the result is very often most annoying both to the newspaper and to the parties interested. It is a very poor joke to try and load newspapers up with matter of this kind, and it is a practice which usually results in the would-be perpetrator getting the worst of it.

LARGE SUPPLY OF BEEF OFFERED THIS MORNING

Twenty-one Sleigh Loads of Beef in a Line on the Market To-day

To-day's market, although in many respects not a very large one, was featured by the great amount of beef that was offered. At one time this morning there were 21 sleighloads of beef an donly one load of pork. Even with this large quantity beef sold at 5 and 6c, some asking 5 1-2 and 6 1-2c for front and hind quarters respectively. As a meat market, that of to-day would be hard to surpass, both in quantity and quality. It was learned that most of this morning's supply was sold before the afternoon was past.

THE CLUB AND BAR ROOM INTERFERE WITH HAPPINESS

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir, — It is with deep interest that I read in your columns the letters regarding the question "Why do not men over twenty-five years of age marry?"

Well, now, I think the young men are as much to blame as the women. There are a number of happy marriages but let us examine the average one. Before the ceremony the young gentleman takes his fair one to the theatre, rink, etc. He is well dressed, and she finally consents to blend her innocent life with his. He is very kind to her for a while, but this does not last. Finally, the man does not come in at night, but can easily be found on the street corners or at the club rooms. Then his young bride has to spend her evenings alone.

Another great fault of the men is that many of them are too fond of the barroom. The majority of young women are afraid to trust themselves with a man that has no respect for himself. I think some men are afraid to pop the question. I know of an unmarried man and woman who would make a good couple and are fond of each other, only the man lacks courage and consequently has to depend on his friends for a home.

Young people should be fond of amusement and exercise. Without plenty of exercise the girls would be dull and delicate. Besides, our Canadian girls must live up to their rights, and show their skill, as well as those of other places. Each generation is becoming more skilful, and what we want is improvement in every way. Therefore, I think the men should be temperate, and improve their character, as it is sadly needed, because what will become of our children if the third is worse than the second and the second worse than the first generation.

Thanking you for your valuable space, and advising men to think on this, as I would strictly have nothing to do with a man unless he has a little moral pride in himself.

Yours, for male improvement,
KITTY.

ANNUAL TEA PARTY OF MISSION BAND

Successful Social Held Last Night in the Murray St. Baptist Church by the Mission Band.

The annual tea party given last night by the Mission Band of the Murray Street Baptist Church to the children of the Sunday School was in every sense a decided success. There were about seventy-five children present accompanied by their parents and friends and it is unnecessary to say that they enjoyed themselves immensely.

An hour or so was spent in playing games, and after refreshments had been served an impromptu concert was arranged. Instrumental and vocal music and recitations were given by the scholars, combining to form a fitting close to an evening's entertainment.

Those contributing instrumental numbers were Miss Ruby Cunningham, Miss Lily Packert, Miss Rosy Kidd and Miss Janet Titterson. Recitations were given by Misses. Bertha DeHart, Marjorie Hutchison, Norma Wilson, Marjorie Kennedy, Maud Titterson. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Martin entitled "The Dutch Dolls".

A interesting feature of the programme was an address given by Mr. Croly, secretary of the Children's House of Refuge, Randall Island, N. Y. He gave an account of his work and experience with the children in the House of Refuge. His address was greatly appreciated by the children and parents.

The results of the evening were very gratifying, both socially and financially.

In consequence of this, the old silver collection at the door has been abandoned and a straight charge of ten cents will be made for each entertainment, with reserved seats at 15 cents, the plan opening every Wednesday evening at the Y.M.C.A. building. The first pop will be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 2nd. Mr. Frank Yeigh, the popular Canadian entertainer, has been secured, and will give his newest and best panoramic travel talk, "The Twentieth Century Canada."

Following him on Saturday evening, Feb. 5th, Mr. R. M. Denniston will be special request of the committee, repeat his unexcelled lecture on the "Story of Jean Valjean."

AGREEMENT WITH BELL CO. DISCUSSED

Fire Water and Light Committee Dealt With the Matter Yesterday.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee met yesterday afternoon and went over the draft agreement between the city and the Bell Telephone Company in reference to the new fire alarm system. The City Solicitor as instructed at the last meeting had prepared an agreement, the terms of which were along the lines suggested by the council. Each clause of this agreement was discussed thoroughly by the committee.

Moved by Ald. Duncan and Leary that the clerk be instructed to write to Brantford, Woodstock, Chatham and St. Thomas and secure copies of their agreement with the Bell Telephone Co., in reference to fire alarm system.

The Bell Company will be asked what change they will make in price of their tender by substituting gravity batteries as provided in tender.

FAIRLY LARGE MARKET HELD THIS MORNING

The Prices Were Practically Unchanged —A Great Quantity of Beef For Sale

The feature of the market during the month has been the unchangeable prices that have prevailed. Potatoes have sold at $1 per bag without variation. With the exception of one-half cent fresh meat has also remained firm. Butter has not been higher than 25 or 26 cents, and eggs have been quoted from week to week in the neighbourhood of 30 cents a dozen. Thus the market has had no ups and downs; at least there are very few downs. The townspeople have rather high prices to pay for market produce.

This morning there was a re-appearance of apples selling for $1.00 per bag; otherwise everything was quiet. The prices were as follows:

Potatoes, per bag		to	1 00
Apples, per bag		to	1 00
Onions, per peck	25
Beets, per peck	15
Cabbage, per head	5
Par nips, per peck	15

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. A. G. BLAIR

Canada Startled By News of Tragedy At Fredericton, N. B.

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE

Was Chatting With Relative When He Collapsed and Passed Away Almost Instantly—Long and Distinguished Political Career — Tributes to Deceased Statesman— The Burial at Ottawa.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 26.—The death of the Hon. A. G. Blair, former Minister of Railways, yesterday, coming so suddenly in his native city, caused a great shock to the citizens generally. It was altogether unexpected and followed an illness of only a few minutes duration. Mr. Blair came to this city on Thursday afternoon from Ottawa and stopped off here to visit relatives and look after some business matters. On his arrival he was driven from the railway depot to the home of his sister-in-law, Miss Thompson, where he usually stayed when in the city.

Yesterday morning Mr. Blair met J. H. Barry, K. C., solicitor for the telephone company, by appointment. During the morning he remarked to Mr. Barry that he felt he should not have come out in such cold weather on account of his having a cold, but this was taken as a casual remark. However, on going to dinner about 1 o'clock Mr. Blair agreed to meet Mr. Barry at the telephone office at seven o'clock last evening, saying that he would stay in the house during the afternoon and see if he would not feel some better, and they could finish the business connected with the coming amalgamation of the New Brunswick and Central Telephone Companies in the evening.

After dinner Mr. Blair remained in the house and between 4 and 5 o'clock he was talking over the telephone, transacting some business, and did not seem to be in ill-health at all from outward appearance. When his sister-in-law came in between 5 and 6 o'clock she found Mr. Blair reclining on a sofa.

His Last Words.

After pleasant remarks Mr. Blair, in referring to Miss Thompson's work at the education offices, where she is employed, asked: "What progress have you made in your work to-day?"

These proved to be his last words. He soon collapsed, his head fell back and he commenced to breathe hard.

Next door lived Judge William Wilson, a former fellow-politician and a life-long friend of Mr. Blair. Miss Thompson called him in and Judge Wilson found Mr. Blair scarcely breathing. He felt for his pulse, but found that it had stopped beating. A few moments and the breathing ceased.

In less than five minutes from the time he was seized he was dead.

Death was due to heart failure.

It was a singular coincidence that Mr. Blair should have come to the city of his birth, which he had of late only visited for brief periods, when his end was to come.

His Family.

Besides his widow, a daughter of the late George Thompson, deputy superintendent of education, to whom he was married on Oct. 18, 1866, when he was but 23 years old, five daughters—Mrs. R. F. Randolph, this city; Mrs. Walter Clarke of Halifax; Mrs. D. P. Brewin of England and Mrs. Dr. McCarthy of Ottawa, and Miss Marjorie of Ottawa, and two sons, A. George Blair, Jr., of Ottawa, and Donald, also of Ottawa—survive. One sister, Mrs. J. A. Rossborough of Guysboro, N. S., and one half-sister, Mrs Amy Fenely, aged 93 years, of this city, also survive. One daughter was drowned at Ottawa some years ago while skating.

The remains of the late Mr. Blair will be taken to Ottawa by C. P. R. for interment, leaving here this evening.

Mr. Blair's Career.

Born in Fredericton, N. B., March 7, 1844.

Entered New Brunswick Assembly as member for York County in 1878.

Chosen leader of the Opposition February, 1879.

Defeated Hannington Ministry, 1883: Blair Government sustained in general elections of 1886, 1890, 1892, 1895, though he was defeated in 1892 for York County, but was returned later for Queen's.

In 1896 he was invited to enter the newly-organizing Laurier Cabinet, in which he accepted portfolio of Railways and Canals, and was returned as member for Queen's-Sudbury. In 1900 defeated Hon. G. E. Foster in St. John, N. B.

He resigned from the Government July 6, 1903, owing to difference of opinion over the policy of constructing the G. T. P. Railway.

In 1904 he was appointed chairman of the Railway Commission for Canada.

A few months later resigned, previous to the general election of November, 1904.

In 1905 accepted the position of managing director of the Toronto Roller Bearing Co.

Resigned to become connected with the legal department of the C. P. R.

His re-entry into politics had been freely spoken of within the past few weeks.

His Chief Legislature Work.

Mr. Blair's chief legislative work was the Railway Act of Canada, creating a commission for the control of the railways of the country. In guiding it through Parliament he exhibited a knowledge of railways, railway law and railway operation that showed him to have greater powers of mind than had been conceded by ordinary observers and raised him in the estimation of Parliament and the country. By common consent also he was designated as the proper person to take the chief position on the commission his bill provided for, and his successor, Mr. Justice Killam, told the Canadian Club at Ottawa the great value of his work in this respect, in these words:

"There is one thing more I ought to say; I think this country owes a deep debt of gratitude to the first chief commissioner of the board of railway commissioners, the Hon. Mr. Blair. Mr. Blair is a very able lawyer; he had much experience as Minister of Railways, and as the head of the railway committee of the Privy Council he took great part in drawing up the Railway Act under which we are working at present, and in order to frame it he must have enquired fully into the different systems in vogue elsewhere. Mr. Blair went to the board of railway commissioners with a large amount of knowledge; more than any other man could have had in undertaking such work. He did great work in establishing the Canadian railway commission; he established it upon broad lines. I very much regret, and I think the country should regret, that he saw fit to retire so soon from the work of the board.

"I can only say that it appears to me, from my experiences since I have been with the board, that any defects in the system, or in the organization of that board, are almost if not wholly in regard to matters as to which Mr. Blair's ideas were disregarded and overruled, rather than as to those matters with regard to which his ideas were carried out."

Greatest New Brunswicker.

St. John, Jan. 26.—Asked last night in reference to Mr. Blair's death, Hon. H. A. McKeown said: "A strong man has been called away while it was believed years of usefulness yet remained. Andrew G. Blair was the greatest living New Brunswicker, and for a quarter of a century the gaze of the people of the province centred upon him as upon no other public man."

Caused a Shock At Ottawa.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—The news of Mr. Blair's death created something like consternation in the lobbies of the House, and on all sides were heard expressions of regret. The deceased gentleman seemed to be the picture of health when last seen on the streets of the capital, hence the politicians were almost stunned by the suddenness of the fatal stroke. The last public function at which he appeared in Ottawa was the Canadian Club luncheon to Hon. Elihu Root. The Ministers with whom the late Mr. Blair formerly sat at the Council board manifested keen regret at his demise. Early intimation of the sad event was conveyed to the Prime Minister, who was confined to the house with a chill. Sir Wilfrid was greatly concerned over the news and made no secret of his sorrow.

Mr. Emmerson's Tribute.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson was one of the Ministers most closely identified with the late Mr. Blair in political and social life. He said last evening: "I was deeply pained to hear of the melancholy event. Mr. Blair called upon me recently and talked of the excellent state of his health, and there was some talk of his going away in connection with business matters in which we were mutually interested. Hence the shock of his death is to me all the greater." After detailing in brief his intimate political connection with Mr. Blair, the Minister concluded: "Mr. Blair was a very genial man of strong social instincts, and his presence at any gathering, especially where friends were assembled, was always of an enlivening and enriching character."

The Conservative Leader.

Mr. R. L. Borden, the Opposition leader, had words of praise for the memory of the man with whom he had many a sharp but good-natured political encounter. "The news of Mr. Blair's very sudden death has greatly shocked me," declared Mr. Borden. "On Monday last I met him, and he was then apparently in perfect health and spirits, and bright and cheery as usual. His death removes a powerful and interesting figure from the public life of this country."

In the political arena he was a strong and fearless protagonist; a man of distinguished ability and great industry, who for a long term of years overshadowed all the public men of his party within his native Province.

Killed At Level Crossing.

Arnprior, Jan. 26.—Last evening Thos. Doolan, who lives a few miles from town, and father of A. Doolan, grocer, was driving a team of horses attached to a cutter, and, in crossing the G.T.R. tracks, was struck by the express from Ottawa and killed, as were also both horses. He had been in town attending the ice races. He was somewhat hard of hearing.

THE GOVERNMENT WINS A VICTORY

German Government Is Safe In the New Reichstag.

SOCIALISTS LOSE 17 SEATS

Prince Von Buelow's Liberal, Radical and Conservative Supporters of His Colonial Policy Win 29 Seats—Clerical Centre Remains Solid—Rebalioting Probable In 175 of the Constituencies.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—The Government has won a definite victory in the general elections held yesterday for a new Reichstag. The Liberal, Radical and Conservative parties, supporting Prince Von Buelow's colonial policy, have won at least twenty seats. But more important for the Government than the success of its colonial plans, is the crushing defeat of the Socialists, who will lose a total of seventeen or eighteen seats.

This is the first election since 1887 that the Socialists have not increased their representation in the Reichstag by from five to twenty seats. They have lost especially in several large cities, among them Breslau, Halle, Madgeburg, Leipzig and Koenigsberg.

The Clerical Centre holds nearly every one of its former 100 seats. There is a possibility, however, that re-ballotings in the undecided districts may lose that party one or two more seats.

The Conservatives have won six seats, two of them from the Socialists. Re-balloting probably will be necessary in 175 constituencies, so that complete returns will not be in before Feb. 5.

Certain districts in Upper Bavaria that are snowbound have not yet been heard from, but they are considered safe for the Centre party.

POISON BOOK ITEM.

Strychnine Ostensibly Purchased By Mrs. Perkins' Brother In October.

Cayuga, Jan. 26.—"Oct. 15, 1906, R. Curry, Cayuga, W.J.Q."

The above entry, which appears on the poison book of W. J. Quinsey, druggist and stationer of this village, was discovered on Tuesday night.

Thursday the book was locked up in the safe of J. A. Murphy, the county crown attorney, pending the action of the Government in the Perkins poisoning case at Canfield on Christmas day last.

The entry means that ten grains of strychnine poison were purchased on Monday, Oct. 15, 1906. The purchase was signed for by Ralph Curry and the sale was made by J. W. Quinsey. The poison was purchased ostensibly to kill rats.

Mr. Quinsey stated that as far as he could remember the purchase was made by R. Curry, brother of Mrs. Perkins.

It is currently reported that Detective Reburn of Toronto has been detailed on the case. He is said to have called on Dr. Snider Thursday and left here for Canfield last night.

WHITELY'S MURDERER.

Identified as Former Schoolmaster—Will Probably Recover.

London, Jan. 26.—The police have identified the murderer of William Whitely, the aged merchant, who was shot Thursday, as Horace George Rayner. He is supposed to have been a schoolmaster, but recently was unemployed and lived in a cheap hotel at Bloomsbury. He told the proprietor of the place that he was the son of a wealthy London business man hailing from Yorkshire, from which part of the country the late Mr. Whitely came.

The murderer was operated upon yesterday morning. His injured eye was removed, and the bullet which he fired into his forehead was extracted. The doctors believe that Rayner will recover. The motive for the crime is still a mystery.

Ends Life With Carbolic Acid.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—James W. Hackett, an engineer on the fire department, committed suicide at his home, about 6.30 last night, by drinking carbolic acid. He spent the afternoon at a theatre with his son, aged 12. The family were at supper when he arose from the table, saying he was going to the drug store. He returned in a few minutes, and went directly upstairs, saying good-bye as he went. At the top of the stairs he drank out of a vial and threw it downstairs. Death occurred in half an hour. No reason can be given for the act, except that he has been complaining of neuralgia in the head. He leaves a widow, three daughters, one married, and two sons.

Seven Jurors In Thaw Case.

New York, Jan. 24.—Fifty-one talesmen were examined in fast time yesterday in an effort to complete the jury which is to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, and at the end of the day's session two names had been added to the jury roll, making seven in all. One hundred and one talesmen have thus far been examined, and five jurors remain to be chosen.

HON. GEORGE GRAHAM SELECTED

Liberals Unanimously Choose Him Leader At the Caucus.

BRIEF SKETCH OF HIS CAREER

More Money to Rural Schools—Government Grants to Be Largely Increased—Provincial Surplus—Balance on Right Side Will Be Over $300,000—Mr. Graham In His Place as Opposition Leader.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—At a caucus of the Legislature held yesterday Mr. George Perry Graham, the member for Brockville, and for a short time Provincial Secretary in the Ross Administration, was unanimously selected as leader of the Opposition for the present session. Mr. J. A. Auld presided at the caucus. The others nominated for the leadership in addition to Mr. Graham were Messrs. R. Harcourt, A. G. MacKay and T. H. Preston. All retired in favor of Mr. Graham, whose selection was made unanimous amidst great enthusiasm. The new leader and the other nominees made brief speeches, as did a number of the others present. All the addresses were notable for the spirit of confidence in the Liberal cause which they breathed.

Statement By Mr. Graham.

At the close of the caucus Mr. Graham made the following statement to the newspapermen: "After full consultation with the members of the Opposition, and understanding their views as well as the views of the Liberal party throughout the Province, I have accepted the leadership on the explicit understanding that neither my action nor the action of the members here in any way interferes with the freest action of the great Liberal party throughout the Province as to the question of the leadership. Personally I am in favor of, at an early date, calling together a limited number of representatives from all the constituencies in this Province to deal with this question and others affecting the interests of the party and the Province."

Mr. Graham's Career.

Born on March 31, 1869, at Egansville, Renfrew county, the new leader is the son of the late Rev. W. H. Graham, who was one of the pioneers of Methodism in this Province. He had the advantages of a collegiate education at Morrisburg and Iroquois, Ontario, and received some business training in the service of Messrs. J. A. Carman & Co., hardware merchants, of Iroquois, and later was with Messrs. M. F. Beach & Co. at Winchester.

In 1890 he entered journalism by purchasing The Morrisburg Herald, a weekly newspaper. Thirteen years later he sold this paper and became assistant editor of The Ottawa Free Press, a position he held till he became editor of The Brockville Recorder.

Mr. Graham has taken an active interest in public affairs since entering the journalistic profession, and became early identified with the Liberal party. In 1890 he was the candidate of that party for the Ontario Legislature in the county of Dundas, but was defeated by Hon. J. P. Whitney, present member for that riding. At the general election of 1898 he was nominated for the Ontario Legislature by the Liberals of Brockville and succeeded in defeating Mr. John Culbert, the Conservative candidate, who has since been elected to represent Brockville in the Dominion House of Commons.

In 1902 he again went before the electors of Brockville and defeated Mr. D. O'Brien, a strong Conservative candidate, by a majority of 376. He was re-elected in 1905 when so many of his colleagues went down to defeat. He has served as Chairman of the Printing Committee of the Legislature and as assistant Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House.

In religion Mr. Graham is a Methodist. He is a member of the A. F. and A. M. and of the A.O.U.W. Of the latter body he was for two years Grand Master of Ontario, and is still a member of the Executive and of the Finance Committees. He is also greatly interested in amateur sports.

NEW OPPOSITION LEADER.

Welcomed to His Seat In the House by Leading Opponents.

Mr. George P. Graham, the new leader of the Opposition, sat for the first time in the seat formerly occupied by Hon. Geo. W. Ross. When he entered the House Premier Whitney and several other Cabinet Ministers walked across the floor and shook hands with the new leader. Later in the afternoon the Premier, in agreeing with Mr. Graham's motion to adjourn the debate until Tuesday, made a pleasing reference to the new Opposiiton leader. "We on this side of the House," he said, "wish him every personal comfort and satisfaction in the position he occupies."

Surplus Over $300,000.

A Provincial surplus of $300,000 and a revenue exceeding $7,000,000 was foreshadowed by Mr. G. H. Ferguson, in moving the reply to the speech to the throne. Mr. Donald Sutherland seconded the reply, and the debate was adjourned on motion of Mr. Graham.

A number of petitions praying for the abolition of section 606 of the municipal act were presented. This section holds municipalities responsible for accidents caused by non-repair of highways and bridges.

The Rural Schools.

A statement by Premier Whitney as to the intention of the Government with regard to the public school act of last session was the feature of the session. The minimum salary clauses of that act have been the subject of considerable controversy, and amending legislation has of late been several times foreshadowed. The Government will not only largely increase the grants to the schools, but the new legislation will wipe out the basis of distribution as adopted last year, and specially encourage the payment to teachers of salaries above $300. It provides a new unconditional grant of $15 yearly to each school section, and substantial appropriations for equipment and accommodation. In the aggregate the Government increases its grant of last year to the rural schools by $202,000.

SPAIN'S CABINET RESIGNS.

King Alfonso Will Probably Call on the Conservatives.

Madrid, Jan. 26.—The Cabinet has resigned as a result of dissensions between the Liberals and the Radicals over the law of associations. King Alfonso is consulting with the political leaders with regard to the formation of a new Ministry.

It was announced that the Marquis de Armijo had failed to reorganize the Cabinet, and that King Alfonso had approved a Conservative Ministry headed by Senor Maura.

The present Cabinet of Spain was formed on Dec. 4 last. For some time there have been indications that it would not last long. The principal point at issue is the proposed anti-clerical associations law, similar to the French law.

Vatican Pleased.

Rome, Jan. 26.—The fall of the Spanish Cabinet caused satisfaction at the Vatican, where it is considered that the return to power of the Conservatives would be the abandonment of the anti-clerical movement in Spain.

Overcrowded Street Cars.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—As a result of the city's application yesterday to the municipal and railway board Wednesday, 30th inst., was set for filing a reply, and Monday, Feb. 4, at 2 p.m., for hearing evidence on the overcrowding of Toronto street cars. Chairman Leitch announced that under the act the sheriff would have to supply a courtroom in the city hall, with all the paraphernalia of a high court, for the board, and that counsel must be properly attired. Corporation counsel denounced the overcrowding as flagrant and indecent.

Arrested For Fraud.

Hamilton, Jan. 26.—E. J. Breheny, a well-known tailor, was arrested yesterday and taken to St. Catharines on a charge of fraud. The St. Catharines branch of his business assigned and it is charged that part of the goods from the branch were removed to Hamilton.

ALBERTA LEGISLATURE.

Opened on Thursday—Subjects Mentioned In Speech From Throne.

Edmonton, Jan. 25.—The Alberta Legislature opened yesterday.

The speech from the throne, referring to the conference of Premiers at Ottawa, said it was gratifying to observe that a fair basis of division as between the provinces and the Dominion had been arrived at.

Increased activity in railway construction made it imperative that provisions be made for a uniform law governing railways within the province. A measure providing for a complete system of administration of insolvent estates, upon the most approved lines, will be submitted, as will also an act respecting the custody of insane persons and the disposition of their property, including a scheme for the support of the insane out of their property where possible. A bill for the protection of game and game birds, and provisions for the further encouragement of secondary education are indicated; also a measure for the taxation of lands in the province outside of original school districts, for the support of education.

THE GROWTH OF CULTURE

The day is past when culture and true social enjoyment were confined to the few—to the privileged classes. We live in a day of enlightenment and democracy. Equal educational advantages, equal opportunities for culture and enjoyment of those things in life that are best worth while.

The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities of to-day, and in the musical world nothing is more noticeable than the demand of all classes for the highest possible grade of piano. The piano manufacturer who meets this demand is never slack for want of orders.

THE New Scale Williams PIANO

is Canada's greatest piano. Its improvements and latest features have gone far toward creating a better appreciation of good music all over Canada. It more nearly approaches the ideal piano than any other.

Its tone, quality, construction and architectural beauty are unexcelled. For good music, for accompanying the solo voice or chorus of song, great artists all over the world are loud in its praises. And yet it is a Canadian instrument—perhaps the highest exponent of Canadian industry.

If you will fill in the coupon below, cut it out and take to your dealer or send to the Williams Piano Co., we will send you ABSOLUTELY FREE SEVERAL BEAUTIFUL BOOKLETS, "The Making of a Great Piano," etc. We will also tell you of easy purchase plans that will interest you.

FERGUSON'S RINK IS IN SEMI-FINALS

Playing a Remarkable Game for Single Honours in Centenary Bonspiel.

The latest news from the Peterborough curlers at Montreal is encouraging. Mr. Angus McIntosh received a telegram from W. G. Dodds yesterday evening with the intelligence that W. G Ferguson had defeated a Fredericton rink and was then in the semi-finals. That means that he was one of four rinks left in the games for the granite singles for which three prizes are given.

T. Rutherford's rink, however, was defeated by the Thistles of St. John, N. B., by 14 to 7. The following despatch describes the later game:—

Skips J. F. Shaw and T. Rutherford met here at nine o'clock to battle on in the single rinks granites in the interests of the Thistle St. John and Peterborough Clubs:—

Thistle (St. John, N.B.)	Peterborough
T F Burpie	J E A Fitzgerald
F Watson	A. Blade
W. A. Shaw	D. Davidson
J F Shaw, sk. 14.	T F Rutherford, 7.

Thistle and Peterborough both got a single, then Thistle took another, and Peterborough helped themselves to 2, also another 2, and there they remained at 5 while Thistle put on a 3, a second 3, a 2, and four singles, being 14 to 5. Peterborough got 2 last end, and the game finished in the victory of Thistle by 14 to 7. J. Gould's team will play the winner at four o'clock.

MR. MATTHEWS' RINK VICTORIOUS

An Interesting Curling Match Played Last Night at the Charlotte Street Curling Rink

An interesting curling match took place yesterday afternoon when two rinks, skipped by Messrs. Matthews and McIlroy respectively played a twelve end game at the Charlotte Street rink. The interesting feature of the match was the fact that Rev. R. E. Knowles, of Galt, who lectured last night in the George Street Church, was vice skip on the rink opposed to Mr. Matthews. The score after twelve ends' play was 15-5, in favour of Mr. Matthews' rink. The personnel was:—

H P Kennedy	J Davidson
V Eastwood	J I Crane
Rev. R. E. Knowles,	C. N. Brown
W McIlroy, 5.	T F Matthews, 15.

NORWOOD WON FROM THE HAVELOCK TEAM

Defeated Them at Home by a Score of 5-2—A Rough Game

Examiner Special.

Havelock, Jan. 25.—Norwood Hockey team drove over to Havelock last night and played the locals a game, the result being 3-2 in favour of Norwood.

The game was swift from start to finish and a lot of rough playing was done on both sides. One of the locals has a badly swollen arm to-day. The referee was a boy from Norwood, who, it would seem, knew very little about hockey.

The Norwood line-up was as follows:—

Tenders for an ambulance service will be received by either managers. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Applicants for the position of referee will please report in person and submit to a vigorous medical examination. Manager Whaley is rubbing his team down with broken bottles to make them hard while Manager Fountaine is teaching his men how to body check by pushing street cars off the track with his chest. Druggists, doctors and undertakers are asked to watch for the date. Both managers are in Toronto to-night getting some pointers from the Kenora Thistles.

Last night an interesting game of hockey took place in the Brock street rink between the Independents and the All Saints brigade from six to seven o'clock. In the first half the Independents and brigades kept pretty well together, although the Independents scored one goal from an off side.

In the second half Charles Martin made the game a little faster by scoring a goal for the Independents. Martin again took the puck from the centre of the ice and rushed up with Meehan following to whom he passed it. Meehan shot, scoring another goal for the Independents. Although the Independents were short of one man they kept the game pretty speedy.

The following was the line-up.

BOOMERANG FOR BORDEN.

Sale of Lands in British Columbia—How the McBride Government Sacrificed Provincial Lands.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—An echo of the Provincial contest in British Columbia was heard in the Commons yesterday. The leader of the Opposition, following the lead of Mr. McBride in British Columbia, charged the Dominion Government with having attempted an unwarranted, impertinent and indecent interference with the rights of British Columbia in connection with the sale of the title to the Indian reserve on Kalen Island to the G. T. P. for a terminus.

Mr. Oliver and Mr. Templeman replied effectively, showing that the Dominion Government had exercised no undue influence, but as guardians of the Indian wards had simply endeavored to obtain the best figure possible for the land.

Mr. Aylesworth poured ridicule on the idea that the action of the Dominion Government could by any possibility be construed into an interference with the rights of British Columbia.

The debate proved somewhat of a boomerang, as Mr. Templeman, Mr. Galliher and Mr. R. G. Macpherson took advantage of the opportunity to contrast the sale of Indian lands by the Dominion Government to the railway company at $7.50 per acre with the sale by the British Columbia Government at $1 per acre of 10,000 acres of adjoining land to a knot of speculators, in which Mr. Green, a member of the McBride Government, was interested, who resold it to the G.T.P. for $40,000.

Sir Frederick Borden introduced a bill to amend the criminal code, 1892, the object of which is to provide for the marking of militia stores.

GROWING OLD WHILE YET YOUNG

What a number of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case.

There are thousands of females all over our land, broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with disease peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young.

From early morn till late at night they have been on the go year after year, attending to the household duties. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, weakness, dizziness, sleeplessness and many other troubles follow. What a woman wants is something to build up the system and for this purpose you cannot equal

DEATH OF MR. STOVEL.

Traders' Bank Accountant Dies In Jamaica Where He Sought Health.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—A cablegram received yesterday from Jamaica conveyed the intelligence of the death of Roger D. Stovel, for many years connected with the Traders' Bank, and who, with Mrs. Stovel, their little son and Miss Birchall, a friend of the family, left in the latter part of November for Jamaica with the hope of regaining the health of Mr. Stovel. A letter received from the party the day before the earthquake stated that Mr. Stovel was very ill, and a few days later a cable message acquainted the friends of the death of the little boy. Yesterday the simple message, "Roger dead" told the story of the doubly bereaved wife and mother.

Roger D. Stovel was born in Toronto, his mother being Mrs. A. W. Smith of 480 Jarvis street. Brothers are: C. J. of San Francisco, Roy of Seattle, and Rex, also of the U. S. Mrs. Stovel is a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Davies, who was for many years principal of the Normal School here. Mr. Stovel was only 34 years old. He had been identified with the Traders' Bank for 15 years, and had risen from a subordinate position to that of assistant accountant in the head office. In the early period of his connection with the Traders' he was stationed in Orillia. He was a noted amateur photographer, and was last year president of the Toronto Camera Club.

RIOTS AND POPULACE

Many Persons Injured During Eviction of Seminarists.

Van Ness, France, Jan. 26.—There was a fierce collision yesterday between 500 troops and the populace, led by the Marquis d'Anglade, during the eviction of the seminarists of St. Anne d'Auray.

The crowd cried: "Long live the Prussians!" and in the fight many persons were injured on both sides. The marquis knocked out the eye of a commissary of police with an umbrella. The Marquis d'Anglade was arrested.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, Jan. 26.—At the opening the stock market was depressed with a resumption of liquidation of the previous day. So little importance was attached to the rally in London that it was evident that it had been made for effect and involved no new buying.

Traders were very bearish. Reading was one of the weakest stocks on the list showing evidence of liquidation as well as pressure from traders who do not believe that all the weak bulls have liquidated. A number of floor traders are selling Copper on the idea that whatever the merits of the stock may be the Lawson following in Boston will not be allowed to make money on the bull side if 26 Broadway can prevent it.

After an hour trading the market showed support, but not much rallying power. It looked in spite of the buying as if standard Oil houses were selling stocks where they could do so unobstrusively. The bank statement was not as good as expected owing to the large increase in loans. The close was nervous and rather weak.

SCOTT'S COLLOSEUM COMING TO THE CITY

Peterborough Up-to-date—A New Class of Entertainment to be Presented

CITIZENS TO ENJOY WINTER ATTRACTION

"To entertain and amuse is good; To do both and instruct is better."

By the courtesy of the Peterborough Amusement Company, of this city, Messrs. George Scott & Co., of Toronto, are opening up in their premises, No. 432 George street, known as the Automatic Vaudeville, a series of refined, high-class and instructive moving picture exhibitions. These charming entertainments will be interlarded with admirable illustrated songs, and a versatile lecturer will interpret the views and incidents with interesting details and descriptions. It will also be of interest to our amusement-loving citizens to know that these attractive exhibitions has been arranged to continue during the balance of the winter months.

The first of these exhibitions will be presented on Tuesday evening, next, January 29th, and continuous performances will be given every evening of each week thereafter, from 7.30 p.m. to 10 p.m. Matinees every Wednesday and Saturday from 2.30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Messrs. George Scott & Co., being the pioneers of moving picture photography of Canada for Canadians, the public can be assured of a series of meritorious exhibitions worthy of the support of all classes. The pictures are the delight and delectation of children as well as of ladies, who are guaranteed that nothing will be presented that can offend the most sensitive taste. The programme for next Tuesday night will be a moving picture story depicting the heroism of the Railway Signalman's Daughter. The thrilling incidents, fascinating situations and realistic episodes, which contribute to the rescue of the Pioneer Express, and the defeat of the plans of a gang of desperate train wreckers, although at the cost of the lives of the hero and her lover, will form an evening's entertainment not soon forgotten.

PREVENT LA GRIPPE

La grippe is especially liable to occur during the winter season. The penetrating winds, the snow and slush, the changeable temperature, one day frozen and cold, the next day thawing and wet, all tend to produce this wretched disease.

The only way to guard against these dangers is to keep the body in a healthy condition. With sound mucous membranes, and a normal activity of the bodily functions, the system is fortified against any weather.

There is no better remedy for this purpose than Peruna. Peruna tones up the mucous surfaces, invigorates the whole system. It is not only a restorative, but a preventive. A few doses of it taken in time may save you many months of sickness. That Peruna has been of inestimable value to many is proven by the thousands of grateful testimonials which we have in our files.

A Significant Confession of Faith

Sir Oliver Lodge, principal of the University of Birmingham, England, is one of the highest authorities in science, a master physics, who sees as far as any man into the wonderful mechanism that links together all material things, from atoms to stars. Yet he boldly opposes all mechanical and materialistic views of life and the universe. He is equally outspoken as a Christian. He has recently formulated his creed: "I believe in one infinite and eternal being, a guiding and loving Father, in whom all things consist. I believe that the divine nature is especially revealed to man through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lived and taught and suffered in Palestine 1,900 years ago, and has since been worshipped by the Christian church as the immortal Son of God, Saviour of the world. I believe that man is privileged to understand and assist the divine purpose on this earth, that prayer is a means of communion between man and God, and that the Holy Spirit is ever ready to help us along the way toward goodness and truth, so that by unselfish service we may gradually enter into the life eternal, the communion of saints, and the peace of God."

That creed contains the essential points of the Christian faith, and as the confession of a leading scientific authority is most significant. Dr. Lodge is a powerful opponent of the materialistic teachings of Haeckel, now being translated and circulated in cheap form among workingmen. He says of Haeckel that "the progress of thought has left him, as well as his great English exemplar, Herbert Spencer, somewhat high and dry, belated and stranded by the tide of opinion which has now begun to flow in an opposite direction." This fact that "the tide of opinion has now begun to flow in an opposite direction" from that of the materialism of the last generation is what Dr. Orr regards one of the hopeful signs of our times.

Worship—A Lost Art

Strangers in the Church cannot understand why church people in their worship are constantly changing their position—standing, kneeling, sitting. They do not understand it, because they have not been accustomed to any outward bodily expression of the wroship of Almighty God. Worship is paying honour worthy of the object worshipped. Divine worship is honouring God.

In our relations to men the body is used to express honour. Would one enter a house and address the host or hostess sitting? Would he not stand? Would a committee appointed to present a petition to the president enter his presence and sit while they presented their address? Would persons having some earnest petition to present to a sovereign sit down in his presence? Never What then is fit and proper when we address the almighty, omniscient God? If we would praise Him we stand. If we would pray to him, we kneel. What are these bodies for unless they be the outward expression of a worshipful soul? If it would be disrespectful to sit in the cases we have mentioned, it would be nothing less than impious in our worship of God.

There can be no genuine worship without reverence. The Episcopal church cultivates reverence and reverential ways. The adoring soul looks up. She discourages in all coarse familiarity with the Almighty. She uses a liturgy full of dignity, chaste in expression. She makes each worshiper active rather than passive, that each one may feel a personal contact with things divine, and thoughts divine, when engaged in prayer and praise. She throws around the whole congregation the atmosphere of devotion.

Think it not strange, therefore, that we constantly change our position — sitting, standing, kneeling. There is a purpose in it. There is a reason for it, it honours God.—Rev. C. LeV. Brine.

Church Statistics

The annual statistical summary of the churches of the United States for 1905, prepared by Dr Henry K. Carroll, who had charge of the religious statistics for the eleventh national census, furnished some figures which may give "pause" to all who are interested in the cause of religious progress. Dr. Carroll's tables show that of the denominations those making the largest absolute gains in communicants are the Catholics (eight bodies) with 192,272, Methodists (17 bodies) 101,832, Baptists (13 bodies) 74,961, Lutherans (32 bodies) 51,380, Presbyterians (12 bodies) 26,740, Protestant Episcopal (two bodies) 19,103, and Congregationalists 13,321. Including these additions, the total number of ministers in the United States is now 154,390, the churches 201,608, and the communicants 31,148,445. The gain last year, it appears, was not as large as in 1904, despite the concerted and widespread efforts made during 1905 to awaken sinners to repentance. But as it stands, observes Leslie's Weekly, a total of over 200,000 churches and over 30,000,000 church members represents a power for righteousness that would work marvels in redeeming our cities from misrule and freeing the land from many public evils. If it were unitedly and wisely directed. Thirty million church members would be a mighty and irresistible host for the overcoming of the liquor traffic, the corruption of the ballot, the gambling evil, or any other foe of society, if they would march and stick together.

BOILER EXPLODED IN BIG STOCK BARN

Was Used to Steam the Cut Feed for the Cattle—Some Narrow Escapes Are Reported

STEAMING PLANT A COMPLETE WRECK

A boiler explosion, from which a couple of Otonabee men had very narrow escapes, happened in Kennedy's big stock barn on Friday of last week. A large number of cattle are being fed there and by an ingenious device an apparatus had been installed with which to steam the food for the animals.

It was constructed so that pipes leading from a boiler which formed part of the furnace, carried the steam into the bottom of a tank containing the cut feed, etc. Attached to the boiler was a steam gauge which directed the fireman who attended to the fires. The limit of steam which the apparatus was supposed to stand was 20 pounds but on Friday extra fuel was piled on which caused the dial on the gauge to quickly run up to 25 lbs.

The extra 5 lbs., however, was too much and a terrific explosion was the result. Hot water was scattered in all directions, and it was reported, some portions of the steaming plant narrowly passed by those who were watching it. The stove ropes were squeezed into a small crack in the ceiling of the room where they remained until pulled down later.

Messrs. F. Kennedy, and an employee, Jas. Shaughnessy and others were present at the time of the explosion and report narrow escapes from injury. The steaming plant was completely destroyed.

"SEMI-READY" ADHERES TO ONE PRICE

Their Suits Sold at the Exact Price Marked on Them

One Factor Which Has Established "Semi-ready" in the First Place with the People of the West

How the "Semi-ready" Company has built up an immense business in nine years, a business far exceeding in volume that of houses established fifty years ago, is being told in a series of articles in the Canadian Magazine.

With several strong and new ideas as the basis of their system, the Semi-ready Company established themselves in the confidence of the people when they placed on each garment their guarantee label and the actual selling price—the price at which the garment must be sold, no matter what part of the country their goods are sold in.

Their famous "Blunoz" serge suits are sold in Toronto at $20 and in Vancouver at $20, in Victoria at $20—in every city in Canada, in fact.

In the West, where the Dutchman's one per cent. usually prevails in the cheap clothing business, the Semi-ready suits made of high-class worsteds, tweeds and serges are sold at the same close price—the one and only price.

Knowing "Semi-ready" so well in the East, people who travel to the West always buy it, and this fact alone assures a splendid trade to the merchant fortunate enough to secure the Semiready agency for any town or city.

Cressman's have all the new Semi-ready styles, and the exclusive agency for Peterborough and district.

Forty Injured In A Big Warehouse Fire In City Of Buffalo This Morning

Two Engine Companies Were Buried Under Walls—Ten Believed to be Dead—Four Bodies Removed Already

Special wire to J. R. Heintz & Co.

Buffalo, Jan. 28.—The Columbia building at 103-107 Seneca street, extending through to Carroll street, an eight-story power building, was burned this morning. While working in the Carroll street end of The Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co.'s five-story warehouse, which adjoins the burned building on the easterly side, about 9.15 o'clock two engine companies were buried by collapsing walls. Twenty men were working on the spot that now is a mass of broken timbers, twisted metal and crumbling bricks. It is not known how many are killed.

Firemen Under Walls

The men belonged to Engine Co. 4, of Spruce street, and Engine Co. 8, of Chicago street. They were on one of the upper floors. They could not see that the towering walls of the eight-story shell next door was going to fall on the roof over their heads. Nothing warned them of danger.

Suddenly the wall crashed over onto the building in which two fire companies were working. Its impact caused the unburned warehouse building to collapse and the firemen were buried in tons upon tons of wreckage.

The Dead List.

Four dead bodies of firemen have been taken from the ruins and twelve seriously injured have been taken to hospitals. The work of rescue is now being carried on. Some estimates place the dead at ten and the injured at 40.

PETERBOROUGH RINK WON BRONZE MEDALS

Rink Skipped by W. G. Ferguson Succeeded in Gaining Third Place in the Race for Championship Honours

AUTHENTIC NEWS OF THE BIG BONSPIEL

The magnificent celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the Montreal Curling Club—the oldest in America—is now an event of the past and the Peterborough rinks which attended the great bonspeil have arrived home, one of which is the proud possessor of beautifully carved bronze medals. The rink skipped by W. G. Ferguson with R. M. Waddell as vice, won the honours for the Electric City by climbing up to third place in the Granite singles.

They played five games winning four strights from Brookline, Mass., Utica, N.Y., Fredericton, N.B., and Prescott. The game against Brookline was the easiest of them all and it easily went down to defeat against Peterborough's veterans. The Utica curlers were somewhat more experienced but did not waken up to the play until they were practically beaten. The Fredericton rink skipped by Fowler, who had the reputation for being the best at the Bonspiel, was the hardest proposition he was up against, Mr. Ferguson states. At the end of the 12th round Fowler lead but Peterborough evened up in the 13th. The tie was played leaving Mr. Ferguson 2 in the lead which brought him another notch nearer the championship.

One half hour after the Fredericton rink was defeated, Peterborough was drawn against Prescott which also met with great disappointment and and Ferguson's rink dropped into the semi-finals with Toronto. This game, says the Peterborough skip, was anybody's until the last stone was curled which declared Munts, of Toronto the winner by 2 points. Mr. Ferguson's rink was next drawn against the Thistles of St. John for third place but the latter defaulted and the medals came to Peterborough. Montreal won out against Toronto in the finals for the gold medals, while the St. John rinks won the doubles in granites.

It was a close run for the championship and the local quartette deserve great credit for the stellar variety of curling they put up throughout. They are to-day receiving the well deserved congratulations from their local brethren who are anxious that they go to Winnipeg to compete in the big western bonspiel next week.

Mr. Ferguson reports a grand time with the "scopin' fraternity," in the Canadian metropolis. With 500 curlers waiting to get on the ice it was no easy matter for the committee in charge to attend to everything correctly, but nevertheless they did their best and succeeded in giving everybody a good time. The banquet at the Windsor Hotel on Thursday night was the brilliant feature of the celebration. Mr. Ferguson was given a seat of honour at the president's tabbee, as were also representatives from the other clubs. The passing around of the loving cup was the prominent part of the supper. As each guest was given the big cup he rose and advanced to President Tyre, whom he saluted as his health was drunk. The cup began its long journey as the banquet hall was thrown open and finished two hours later, as the supper was concluded.

The irons are used almost exclusively by the Montreal curlers, but Mr. Ferguson believes they are not in it with the granites. The iron when curled is not lifted from the ice but is shoved along and is not accompanied by the music which the granites afford. The iron, too, when it strikes another, produces a dead sound and follows after.

"No," concluded Mr. Ferguson, "I'd never curl with irons when I can get the granites."

The other members of the rink who won medals were R. M. Waddell, J. Montgomery and H. Foote. Mr. Rutherford's rink also played a good game and stayed in the running for more than a single draw.

The local curlers are all proud of the work of their brethren. Many were the hearty handshakes being bestowed on them to-day.

SAM ADAMS TELLS OF AN AWFUL JOURNEY

Peterborough Man Who Was With Searching Party for Demented Rancher Describes Its Horrors

THE SNOW WAS FOUR FEET DEEP

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 27. — The Mounted Police party, bringing the body of Hornback, the crazy rancher who was shot up on the MacLeod River, arrived in town yesterday, and an inquest was commenced yesterday afternoon and adjourned until Monday morning. Sam Adams, guide for the party, reports a terrible trip, snow three to four feet deep, through which they had to break a trail for one hundred and fifty miles without snow-shoes. When they reached the big Eddy of the MacLeod they found half of Hornback's horses dead and the others in a very weak condition. They managed to get twenty-three head to Las Ste. Anne. On the way in they were joined by a Hudson's Bay party, which had been sent out to bring in the Grand Trunk Pacific band of horses, which was also wintering on the MacLeod. Over half the railroad horses were dead, and others kept dropping off along the trail as they came in.

An autopsy will be held on Hornback to-morrow.

"SITTING BULL" SEEN ON WATER STREET TO-DAY

A Bovine Who Represented the Male "And Her Name Was Maud" in the Comic Section of New York Paper

A rather amusing incident was witnessed on Water street this morning in the neighbourhood of the Post Office. A young bull was being led to the market weigh scales but refused to proceed further south than Hunter. Its actions were very characteristic of the familiar mule "and her name was Maud". The bull seemed immune to pain so blows were useless, persuasion was out of the question, so the young man in charge decided to draw it. He attached the rope to a sleigh and of course the two horses were stronger than the single bovine. However, it certainly would not walk and finally rolled over on its side. The driver for humanity's sake, loosened the rope and Mr. Bull was still in an obstinate mood. It was, however, gradually pulled, driven and led to its destination.

Sunday's Record 12 Degrees Below

The thermometer did not behave very well yesterday. In spite of the fact that it looked as if we were going to have some warmer weather the temperature went down to 12 degrees below zero for the coldest of yesterday, and during last night the lowest registration was 9 degrees below. The prospects for the immediate future are a slight moderation of the temperature, though it is not probable that the end of the month will see the "January thaw."

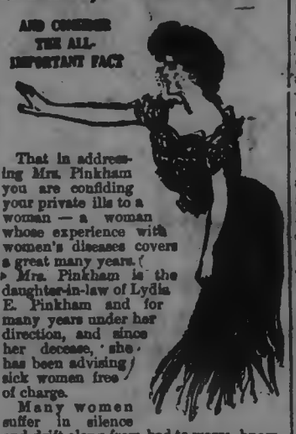
STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman — a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it "I do not believe it will help me."

BRITAIN AND CANADA AT WASHINGTON

A German newspaper, the Neueste Nachrichten, makes a singularly illtempered attack upon the British Government for appointing Right Hon. James Bryce as ambassador to the United States. This sapient journal more than hints it is part of a plot for undermining German influence at Washington by the studious selection of a statesman who will outshine Baron Speck von Sternburg in the estimation of President Roosevelt. There is no evidence that either Sir Campbell-Bannerman or any of his colleagues grudges the baron who represents Germany at Washington any "pull" he may have with Mr. Roosevelt. The President is a trifle flamboyant in his rhetoric, but everyone must give him credit for maintaining a scrupulous impartiality in international affairs. No Britisher will expect him to show any special favour to the new British ambassador, and no Canadian will desire it. Our trouble in the past has been that British statesmen in dealing with our special interests have been inclined to be too complacent. If the new British ambassador at Washington will study the Canadian point of view, it matters not to us if the baron who represents Germany in the United States has more opportunity for putting his feet under the President's mahogany. The new British ambassador in his writings has shown that he understands the American people. He should consider it one of the duties of his office to become as well acquainted with this country.—London Advertiser.

THE EAST AND THE WEST

The plucky little province of Prince Edward Island is discontented and threatening to withdraw from the Confederation. The serious consequences of such a secession may be inferred from the fact that the Island has a population of 104,000 and a territorial area of 2,184 square miles. The result of Prince Edward's withdrawal would be to so reduce the area of the Dominion, that Canada would be almost as small as the area of the United States. There is some force, however, in the contention of Prince Edward Island. It complains that the chief effort is being made to build up the west to the neglect of the Eastern provinces, Prince Edward especially. We feel that to some extent even in Ontario, thousands of our most enterprising farmers have left this province to settle in the West. The chief trend of immigration is also to the West, so that, so far as this province is concerned, there is not sufficient immigration caught and retained here to compensate for the loss. In building up the West we help the Confederation as a whole that is if we provide that the building up process shall not be made at the expense of the older provinces. We have the raw material for thousands of farms awaiting occupation in this province and the provincial government should make a special attempt to not only take liberal toll of the immigrants passing to the West, but also to bring in our own quota of immigrants. The conditions of neglect complained of by Prince Edward Island are only, it is to be hoped, temporary. The twentieth century opened with the West emerging into special prominence, and naturally for the time being especial attention is devoted to its needs. This condition will doubtless soon pass away and the country at large will resume the position it occupied before the West swung so prominently into view. The neglect of which, with some show of cause Prince Edward and other provinces complain will be repaired. While we are loyal to our several provinces we need not be provincial in our views and aspirations.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Mr. John Creighton has spent three months in an hospital, resulting he says from drinking Cobalt and Haileybury water. One would think that the water of Cobalt would be monopolized in the treatment of mining stock.

The Labour party of Great Britain has endorsed woman suffrage for women occupied with universal suffrage—for both sexes. This naturally involves the right of election of women, and we may expect, if things advance as they have done, to see petticoat government in Great Britain. We had sixty years of very successful petticoat government, under good Queen Victoria, which established a commendable precedent.

The Whitney government put through an immense amount of business during the last session of the Legislative Assembly, but, as the Brantford Expositor points out, already it has been demonstrated that it would have been better had less been attempted. Two of the acts of last year are now up for amendment, namely, those respecting public school grants, and creating a railway and municipal board, while a change of policy relating to p... labour is also announced.

The prominent, if not dominant feature of the attitude of Hon. G. W. Ross toward Canada is his large faith in its resources and future. This faith led to the exploration by his government of New Ontario, with results which are among the surprises of history. This exploration by the government and construction by the same government of the first government owned railway built by a province, has resulted in the revelation of riches beyond computation. Senator Ross still holds his faith in Canada. His first speech in the Senate was a glowing description of the still unexplored hinterland of Ontario, a great provincial asset which may hold as great possibilities as the portion already partially explored and developed.

Drunk was Discharged

Mr. Arthur Giles, a new comer to Canada, found his way to the police station through the medium of strong drink. He had been at a banquet and had imbibed too freely, the result being that he could not navigate when on the highway. Magistrate Dumble allowed him to go this time, it being his first offence, but warned him to leave Canadian whiskey alone.

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Rev. J. R. Webb Spoke for First Time Before Y. M. C. A. Men's Meeting Yesterday Afternoon

Rev. J. R. Webb made a decidedly favourable impression at the evangelistic meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday, which was well attended.

This was Mr. Webb's first talk at the Y. M. C. A. since coming to the city, and in introducing him the chairman of the meeting gave him a hearty welcome.

His subject was "Borrowed Things," and he drew many helpful lessons from the story of the borrowed axe in 2 Kings, ch. 6.

It was a world of borrowers. We were dependent on each other and on God. Your life is borrowed, for it belongs to God. The speaker then referred to borrowed companionship and borrowed hope. He closed by urging all to surrender their lives to Christ.

Mr. S. Mitchell sang a solo in his usual good style and Mr. George Schneider presided at the piano.

A notable feature of the address was Mr. Webb's strong endorsation of Y. M. C. A. work—he having been very closely associated with the work in Montreal.

MANY STRANGERS AT THE FELLOWSHIP TEA

New Comers to the City Were Pleasantly Entertained at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night

The monthly Strangers' Tea at the Y. M. C. A. last night was one of the largest and most interesting ever held in the building. The president of the club presided, and Messrs. Wm. Pringle and Wm. Madill were among the guests and gave short, helpful addresses. The majority of those present were business college students, who have recently come to the city. Men were present from Hamilton, Norval, Dummer, Bensfort, Palsover, Port Hope, Pipestone, Man.; Berlin, Westwood, Minden, Port Perry, Weymouth, Eng.; Rochester, N. Y.; Indian River, Yorkshire, Eng.; Brooklin, Ont. The tea was provided by the Ladies of St. Luke's Church, the committee being composed of Meadames Boswell, Butcher, Jameson, and W. J. Scott.

A Cold Finds Your Weak Spot
THE BRONCHIAL TUBES AND LUNGS ARE PROTECTED AGAINST THE EVIL EFFECTS OF COLDS BY
DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

You can never tell just what form a cold will take but you may be sure it will search out your weakest organ. With some it assumes a catarrhal nature, and affects the head principally; but with others it becomes bronchitis and there sets in a hard cough and severe chest pains. Then, again, it often leads to inflammation of the lungs, consumption, pneumonia or may settle on the kidneys or bowels.

Because colds do not always prove serious some people take great chances with them, but no risk is great. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is intended for people who want assurance against serious results from colds.

This great medicine has absolutely proven its extraordinary control over coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and all such ailments, and for this reason has a place in the great majority of homes.

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port Hope, Ont., writes:—"Being exposed to all sorts of weather I frequently catch cold. Last winter I was so bad with a cold that I could not speak above a whisper and had great pains in my chest. At last I feared that it would develop into consumption if I did not succeed in getting proper treatment. A friend advised me to take Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and I began to improve before I had taken half a bottle. One bottle cured my cold which I believe would have proven very serious if I had not used this medicine."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author are on every bottle.

Whooping Cough

"My three boys had the whooping cough this winter and I could get nothing to help them until I sent for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It arrested the coughs at once and they kept right on improving until they were cured at the cost of one dollar. That was not a large bill for so distressing and dangerous an ailment. — Mrs. William Ball, Bracebridge, Ont.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS
Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until twelve months ago doctors said I was suffering from 'Female Trouble.' Last November (1905), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney trouble. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking them a week, the swelling disappeared leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, tired, weary feeling gone, constipation, from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness, I have not felt since a child, took place in me.

My sister-in-law (Mrs. Bryan), seeing the action of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the change for good they accomplished in me, sent for a box and they completely cured her. When there is an opportunity of telling people what Doan's Kidney Pills did for us, we always take advantage of it, and tell them to give them a fair trial."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, for sale at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

ANNUAL REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER ADOPTED

First Meeting of the Board of Health for the Year was Held This Morning

MR. EYRES IS AGAIN THE CHAIRMAN

The Board of Health held its first meeting of the year this morning, when there were present, Dr. Burnham, the Mayor, R. Neill, Wm. Eyres and Dr. Bingham, M. H. O.

Mr. Eyres was again elected chairman of the board for the year.

The first business discussed was the appointing of a sanitary inspector. The chairman moved that Mr. Geo. Cochrane be recommended to the favourable consideration of the council for the position. There was no seconder to the motion, nor to another that advertisements should be inserted in the papers asking for applications for the position. The board decided to leave the question to the city council.

Dr. Burnham called the attention of the mayor to the fact that the plans for the Isolation Hospital had been handed over to the city council and asked that body to take action in the matter.

Dr. Bingham, the medical health officer, presented the following report, which was adopted and will be sent to the Provincial Board of Health, as the report of the board:

M. H. O. Report.

In presenting a brief annual report of the city during the year 1906 it is highly gratifying to be able to say that during the year we were exceptionally free from any epidemic scourge of infectious diseases. Only four cases of diphtheria, and ten mild cases of scarlet fever were reported during the year. The number of deaths in the city in the last year was 248, but many of these were brought to the hospitals here from outside municipalities and should not be reckoned in with the mortality of the city. And if these are deducted it will leave Peterborough with a fair average bill of mortality.

The following are the causes of the deaths which occurred in the city during the year that is past: Accident, old age, heart disease, croup, appendicitis, pneumonia, cystitis, tuberculosis, congestion of the lungs, Bright's disease, bronchitis, marasmus, diabetes, hemmorhage of the lungs, mania, anaemia, convulsions, laryngitis, apoplexy, epilepsy, meningitis, measles, inflammation of bowels, cirrhosis of the liver, cancer, paralysis, asthma, nephrites cholera infantum, hemiplegia and diphtheria.

The hearty co-operation of the citizens of Peterborough with this board has done much to increase the sanitary condition of the city. Nearly everyone now is accepting the fact that the best protection against sickness is to be found in absolute cleanliness in the home. The cellar should be kept dry and clean and should at all times be kept strictly free from decaying animal or vegetable matter. Every room in the house should be filled daily with fresh air and if possible with plenty of sunlight. No rubbish heaps or decaying matter should be suffered to remain in back yards, or any place near the dwelling house.

If these rules are faithfully observed, together with others, which will suggest themselves to all intelligent citizens, Peterborough with a thrifty and contented population will continue to rank high among the healthiest cities of the Dominion.

DR. BINGHAM,
Medical Health Officer.

The Quarterly Meeting will be held next Sunday. The Love Feast will be held before the morning service and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated after the service.

On Thursday night there will be a Sunday School entertainment in connection with Salem, Otonabee.

More Marriage Letters Tuesday

To-morrow the Examiner will publish another batch of letters on the question which seems to have aroused considerable interest in the city, viz.—"Why do men over 25 not marry?" Since Saturday some letters have been received, and there were a number in hand for which there was not room on Saturday, when the others were published.

The letters are showing great originality, and the Examiner feels certain that they will be read with deep interest.

Readers of the Examiner are advised to secure copies to-morrow's papers, and see the various views presented by the correspondents.

THE MAINTENANCE OF WATER SUPPLY ASSURED

Chief Engineer of Department of Railways and Canals so Reports as a Result of Transfer of Dams on Trent Canal

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT

The annual report issued by the Department of Railways and Canals has just been received, and contains much interesting information concerning the Trent Canal. In the report of the Chief Engineer of the Department, Mr. Butler referring to this canal says:—

On the Trent Valley Canal, 45,231 tons were moved, of which 44,058 tons were the product of the forest.

On the Trent canal, the section, 9 1-2 miles, comprising the new hydraulic lift lock at Ashburnham (Peterborough,) was formally opened for traffic in June, 1904. A second hydraulic lock to overcome a rise and fall of fifty-four feet is under construction for the Balsam-Simcoe Lake division of the canal. The work was completed during the season of 1906. The other works under contract are in a like position of advancement.

When the present contracts are completed, a six-foot navigation will be afforded from Lake Simcoe to Healy's Falls, a distance of about 160 miles, leaving the portion between Healy's Falls and Lake Ontario and the portion from the head of Lake Simcoe to Georgian bay, Lake Huron, still ot be dealt with. The total distance between the Bay of Quinte, Lake Ontario, and Georgian Bay is about 192 miles.

The transfer from the Provincial to the Dominion Government of the several works comprised in the back lakes forming the head waters of the canal system has been carried out under a provincial order in council of the 22nd of July, 1905, and a Dominion order of the 16th of February, 1906; the maintenance of the water supply to the canal is thus assured.

During the year, the surveys carried on with a view to determining the most desirable route for those portions of the projected work that still remain to be constructed in order to give communication between Lake Ontario and Georgian Bay were completed. The report of the engineer in charge will be found in the appendices. The surveys cover the northerly district between Lake Couchiching and Georgian Bay, also the district to the south between Rice Lake and Lake Ontario, having in view as the possible terminal point on the latter lake Trenton, Cobourg, or Port Hope, all three places having urged claims for that distinction.

The final report of the engineer with plans and estimates, has not yet been received.

MANY CHURCHES ARE LIKE ICE BOXES; TOO COLD

Rev. A. Bright, in St. Paul's Church, Gives Members of That Congregation Some Good Advice—Prayer Meeting Neglected

MORE PROGRESSIVE WORK IS NEEDED

In St. Paul's church yesterday morning, Rev. A. Bright, the assistant pastor, preached a timely and impressive sermon on "Going Forward," basing his remarks on the words, "And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore Criest Thou unto Me? Speak unto the Children of Isreal, that they go forward." Exodus 14th chap. and 15th verse.

Mr. Bright referred particularly to the work of the past year, and spoke of the necessity of going forward. The church should not rely on the pastor to do all the work and carry on its various activities. When asked by the pastor to do certain work how many persons often replied "Oh, get Mr. or Mrs. So and So to do that. I have not the time to spare and besides, I haven't the talent."

Every church member could and should do something in helping along the progress of God's kingdom. St. Paul's church had nearly 800 members, and yet the liquor traffic, that arch monster, which was the ante room to hell, and the cause of nine-tenths of the poverty, distress and misery in the world, was allowed to flourish. The secularization of the Sabbath, was another grave danger of to-day, and its sanctity was being undermined by grasping, greedy corporations and business concerns, who if they had their way, would not allow God to have one day in seven. Too many churches were like ice boxes. What was needed was more enthusiasm. Enthusiasm was often like the measles, it was catching. John Knox, the great Scottish reformer, and General Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, when they first began their great works had been called insane, and were taunted and coldy treated. Yet look upon the great things they had accomplished. Enthusiasm, co-operation and unity were needed in order to advance. How many persons in St. Paul's church prayed daily for the success of the pastor and of the church. Little or nothing could be accomplished without daily earnest intercession to the throne of Grace. It had been said that the weekly prayer meeting of a church was its spiritual thermometer. And yet, out of 800 members of St. Paul's church, how many attended the regular Wednesday evening service? Sometimes ten, sometimes twenty, but scarcely ever more than thirty or forty. Assuredly more could be present at the prayer service and devote at least one night of the week to the worship of God, and the advancement of His kingdom.

In closing the speaker urged upon his hearers the great necessity of going forward and by prayer and work, making the coming year the most active and fruitful in results in Christian grace, knowledge and culture, and winning souls for Him in the great movement of "Going Forward."

OBITUARY

JOHN CARROLL

The death occurred last night of John, the four months old child of Mr. Mark Carroll, at the family residence at 394 Sherbrooke street. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9.30 to the R. C. cemetery.

JOHN HUTCHISON

The funeral of the late Mr. John Hutchison, a former resident of this city whose death occurred in Norwich, Conn., was held on Saturday afternoon on the arrival of the 5.30 p.m. G.T.R. train. The remains were brought to the undertaking establishment of Mr. D. Belleghem, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. G. Lewis. The body was later conveyed to the Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES PETERS

A very sad death was that of Mrs. Charles Peters who passed away at an early hour this morning at the age of 39 years. The deceased is the wife of Mr. Charles Peters, Sergt.-Major of the 57th Regiment Band. Her demise is particularly untimely, leaving the bereaved husband in sole charge of a rather large family of young boys. As yet no funeral arrangements have been made.

DANIEL FOLEY

The death of Mr. Daniel Foley came as a very sudden shock to his many friends in this city. The late Mr. Foley passed away this morning at seven o'clock, his death being due to heart disease. The deceased was a former resident of Whitby and for a number of years past has been a resident of Peterborough. During his residence here he has made a large number of friends who will regret to learn of his sudden demise. When going to press no arrangements have been made for the funeral.

DAVID McGREGOR

Death claimed another of the old residents of this country who, fifty or more years ago came to Canada from the mother country. The latest of those veteran settlers to be called away was Mr. David McGregor, whose death occurred on Saturday evening at 7.30.

The deceased was over seventy years of age and was the last of a large family. He was born in Paisley, Scotland, and when about fourteen years of age left the land of his birth for Canada, the baby colony of the empire. The late Mr. McGregor was a cooper by trade, in politics a staunch Reformer and in religion a member of the Methodist church. He has been ill for the past two years suffering from cancer, which finally carried him off.

His bereaved wife, four daughters and two sons remain to mourn his loss. The daughters are Mrs. Monroe, Toronto; Mrs. Fox, Chicago and Miss Annie and Elizabeth at home. The sons are, David and William, both of Peterborough.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 from the family residence, 139 Douro street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

JOHN MANN

The death occurred on Saturday afternoon of an old and very highly esteemed resident of Peterborough in the person of Mr. John Mann. He had been ill for over a year, suffering from stomach trouble.

The deceased was born in Otonabee seventy-two years ago, and has lived in the county of Peterborough all his life, save a few years he lived in Port Perry. The late Mr. Mann was a blacksmith by trade, but owing to ill health he had to give it up and for the past thirteen years he has conducted a bakery business. He was married forty-four years ago to Miss Elizabeth Down, who with one son and one daughter survive him. Mr. E. H. Mann, of this city is the son, and Miss Clotilda Mann who resides at home, is the only daughter. Mr. David Mann of this city and Mrs. J. Hare, of Thornbuty are brother and sister respectively, of the deceased. The late Mr. Mann was a loyal member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and in politics he was a staunch Liberal. He was a member of the Port Perry I.O.O.F. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 from the family residence, 643 George street to the Little Lake cemetery.

A SUCCESSGUL YEAR REPORTED FOR ST. PAUL'S

Financial Statement for the Past Year Shows Receipts of $5,769.39, with Expenditures Slightly Exceeding Them

THE DETAILS OF THE STATEMENT

At St. Paul's Church yesterday the financial statement for the last year was distributed to the members of the congregation. The statement shows a most satisfactory year, receipts being $5,769.39. The overdraft at the bank at the close of the year, amounting to $780.19, is explainable by the fact that during the year there were two items of expenditure which had not been anticipated, $415.00 for special repairs to the roof of the school and $330.21 for ordinary repairs. These two items about balance the bank overdraft.

The $1,000 due on Mortgage account is in reality provided for by subscriptions which are not yet due.

FOUR RACOONS CAUGHT IN ONE TREE

Douro Farmer's Dog Was Responsible for the Fortunate Find

On Friday of last week Mr. Jas. Moore, a Douro farmer residing near Lakefield, captured four racoons in one tree. The lucky find was made through Mr. Moore's dog, which had discovered the animals the day before and had spent a considerable portion of two days barking at the tree in which they were abiding.

Mr. Moore thinking the dog treed a lynx, as one had been shot there some time ago, went down with the gun on Friday afternoon and was able to secure the four racoons from a hollow tree without firing a shot.

DEER WAS SEEN A SHORT DISTANCE NORTH OF CITY

The Lonely Animal Crossed Mr. Stothard's Farm Towards the River

It is seldom in these days of advanced civilization that the resident animals of the northern woods migrate so far south as Peterborough or within a few miles of its limits. Nevertheless last week a deer was seen by Thos. Stothart of Smith township, walking across his farm towards the river near Nassau.

The antlered monarch had evidently been separated from the rest of its tribe during the hunt and had wandered south within about three miles of the city. So far as has been heard no trace of the lonely animal is reported.

REPORTS OF GAME IN KINGSTON

Special Telegraphic Reports of Next Senior Game at Brock Street Rink on Wednesday

The senior hockey team plays its next game on Wednesday night, when the fast 14th Regiment team, of Kingston is met on Kingston ice, and the game will in all probability be the hardest the locals will have in this district. Arrangements have made by the management of the Brock street rink by which full reports of the game as it progresses will be given at the rink. A special wire has been installed permanently in the rink, and reports will be received direct from the Kingston rink. The 57th Band has also been engaged for the night, and in view of the fact that the game will, in all probability not be concluded by ten o'clock, it has been decided to allow skating until the last report of the game has been received.

REMIT ALL TAXES AND RATES

Kingston People Will Thus Be Encouraged to Rebuild, and Express Great Pleasure at Governor Swettenham's Anhouncement—It Is Understood That the Governor Will Resign His Post There.

Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 28.—It is understood that Governor Swettenham tendered his resignation to Lord Elgin, Secretary for the Colonies, a few days ago in consequence of the Admiral Davis' incident and his inability to solve the problem created by the earthquake.

On Saturday the Governor visited the temporary offices of the municipal council and informed the vice-chairman, who is acting in the absence of Mayor Tait, who is injured, that the Government had decided to relieve the people of Kingston from all rates and taxes for fifteen months, beginning Jan. 1.

This announcement has been received with pleasure by the residents of the city, who will be encouraged to start the work of rebuilding as early as possible.

Americans Were Welcomed.

The correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday went on board the Port Kingston to interview her commander, Capt. Parsons, and Sir Alfred Jones, regarding the complaint made by the Americans who returned to New York from Kingston by the Hamburg-American steamer Prinz Eitel Frederich of the alleged ill-treatment accorded them in Kingston between Jan. 14 and 17 by certain Jamaican officials of rank, and specifically Captain Parsons.

The correspondent was told that Americans as well as all other refugees had been welcomed the night of the earthquake, Jan. 14, on board the Kingston. The refugees were put off the steamer the afternoon of the fifteenth, as she was filled to her utmost capacity. Sir Alfred Jones enquired if any among the refugees were destitute. He suggested that the American refugees go over to Port Antonio or Mandeville, the railroad to these points being in operation.

Deny Ill-Treatment of Americans.

At luncheon on board the steamer on Jan. 21, Sir Thomas Hughes, Sir Alfred Jones and Capt. Parsons gave emphatic denial to the statements that Americans had been ill-treated, and Viscount Mountmorris also declared that these complaints were baseless.

Christopher Boylan of 116 Lincoln Palace, Brooklyn, N.Y., and William J. Thompson, who is traveling in the interests of an American packing house, both expressed satisfaction with the treatment accorded them on board the Port Kingston.

The incident is deeply regretted by Sir Alfred Jones, Capt. Parsons and the passengers on the steamer. The Earl and Countess of Dudley, and Arnold Forrester, who came in on the Port Kingston, will leave here for Trinidad next Tuesday.

SHOULD IMPOSE TRUST IN EACH OTHER

Mr. Bryce Mentions the Fresh Incident With Moral In It.

ILLUSTRATES TIE THAT BINDS

United States and Great Britain In Close Sympathy—Speaks of Secretary Root's Speech as Admirable Omen For the Future—Reform the House of Lords; Solve the Irish Question, Says Bryce.

Manchester, Eng., Jan. 28.—James Bryce, the ambassador to the United States, and Mrs. Bryce, were given a farewell dinner at the Reform Club here Saturday evening. A large company was present.

Mr. Bryce, replying, to a toast to his health, referred to Great Britain's good relations with all the powers, and added:

"There is one friendship which is of especial value to all of us; I refer to the United States. I am happy to think our relations with that country never have been better. Never, indeed, do I think they have been so good as they are at this moment. The incident fresh in your memory need be referred to only for the sake of saying that the moral of it was 'This is how different things are now, happily, from those times when an incident like that would have been the signal of cries of defiance in the press of both countries.' Fortunately in both countries no one took this matter as any but an occasion wherein we could show our trust in one another."

Root's Visit.

"Even more significant was the recent visit of Secretary Root to Canada. I hope you all read the speech of Mr. Root. I never remember any deliverance of a responsible statesman uttered in a higher or broader spirit, and nothing more calculated by its recognition for good feeling between Canada and the United States, to promote friendship and good will between Canada and the United States, and ourselves and the United States. This speech is an admirable omen for the future. It is an admirable sign of the new spirit of relation of these three peoples, or rather these two peoples, for we and the Canadians are, after all, part of the British people, that such a visit has been paid and such a speech made. There is nothing that ought to be dearer to us than the maintenance of the most friendly and the most intimate relations with the great republic across the Atlantic."

Interrupted With Cheers.

The guests of the evening here interrupted Mr. Bryce with cheers.

"There is no higher task to which anyone can be called," Mr. Bryce continued, "than trying, in however small a degree, to contribute to the drawing closer of these ties, not only of interest, but what is higher and greater, of sympathy, ties that rest in community of language and in the possession of the same literature and the same political institutions and traditions."

At this point Mr. Bryce was again interrupted by cheers.

"I have had the honor of being selected to represent this Government in the United States," the speaker continued, "but not only this Government, but the English people, desire the closest friendship with the United States."

The assembled company here interrupted Mr. Bryce with cheers for the third time.

Reform the Lords.

Mr. Bryce concluded his speech with emphasizing the necessity of introducting radical reforms in the House of Lords. He referred also to Ireland, saying he left that country peaceful and tranquil. He deprecated the publication of false reports concerning disturbances in Ireland when he was administering the country.

Mr. Bryce reminded his hearers that they must bear in mind the past centuries of misgovernment and misunderstanding, the results of which could not be abolished in a few years.

He exhorted those present to remember how much better things had become since Mr. Gladstone's message of peace and friendliness. Mr. Bryce said he was confident the Irish problem would be solved, and that he trusted most of those present would live to see the solution.

DODDER ALSO IS EXPORTED

Dominion Law Charged With Encouraging the Exportation of Worst and Commonest of Clover Weeds—Catchfly Sent Into Republic Under the Name of Red Clover Seed—Mr. Mann's Speech.

Washington, Jan. 28.—With a score of small bottles before him, containing seeds of various grasses, Representative Mann of Illinois made a speech in the House Saturday about "Seed Adulterations."

He said that the Canadian Government permitted the exportation of two of the best known adulterants, dodder and catchfly, and dilated upon their characteristics.

He said that of 352 samples of alfalfa seed purchased in the open market, 160, or nearly one-half, were found to contain dodder seed. Of 521 samples of red clover seed obtained in the same way, 116, or over 22 per cent., contained dodder seed.

Mr. Mann said that two samples of red clover seed, representing about 10,000 pounds, recently imported from Canada, were all practically the seed of catchfly, one of the commonest and worst clover weeds in the Dominion.

He made the direct charge that a large proportion of the low grade seed, containing weed seeds and dead seed, offered for sale in the United States, is imported from Europe and Canada. "Canada," he said, "has a very strict seed inspection law preventing the sale in that country of seed containing any of a long list of prohibited weed seeds. That law, however, contains a clause encouraging the exportation of these prohibited seeds. If a law could be framed which will prohibit the importation of and interstate commerce in seed containing weed seeds and dead seed, much good can be done."

Peterborough Defeated Argos In Loose Game In Toronto

The Oarsmen Were Outplayed Throughout Although the Score Was Close—Not a Good Exhibition of Hockey

THE SPECIAL TRAIN CARRIED VERY MANY SUPPORTERS

Special Staff Correspondence

Peterborough completed the first half of their games in this district of the O.H.A. by defeating the Argonauts in Toronto by 4 goals to 2 on Saturday night. The half time score was 3-0 in favour of Peterborough who had much the better of the play at all stages.

The team was accompanied to Toronto by about 175 supporters who left here on a special C.P.R. train at 4.30 p. m. They with a large contingent of Peterborough old boys and girls in Toronto comprised a goodly proportion of the crowd that was present at the Mutuual street rink for the contest.

The game was far from being a good exhibition of hockey and only in occasional flashes was it of anything like senior calibre. Outside of these periods the game was uninteresting. Perhaps because there was never any doubt of the result. Peterborough contented themselves with holding the Argonauts and did not play the aggressive hockey they generally display, chiefly because there was no need of them doing so. They waltzed away with two goals in the opening minutes of the contest and after securing that lead settled down to hold the Argonauts until the end of the half. Early in the second half the Oarsmen came to life and scored two goals, but it was but a flash in the pan. Peterborcame right back at them with two counters in quick succession and once more dropped back on the defensive contented to hold their lead until the end of the contest which they did without trouble.

Peterborough did not perform as brilliantly as they have done this season for the simple reason that they did not have to in order to win. Even at that it must not be supposed that the Argos have a weak team. Although they are not as speedy as Peterborough they check well and have a happy knack of doing the right thing at the right time, but in the case of some of the players particularly Morrow at point it is pretty hard to figure out just how they accomplish it.

The Peterborough line played good combination but they did not go in as close as they usually do. In many cases they contented themselves with shooting from outside the defence instead of beating them with combination, this style of game being responsible for the fact that they did not score more often than they did. There were times in which their playing was all to the merry, but for the most part the usual vim and aggressiveness was lacking.

The work of the defence was as effective as usual. With the forwards not checking with their customary closeness, the rear guard was given considerable work to do and they did it brilliantly. The Argonaut rushes were handled in such a manner that only very seldom did they get in close. Their passes were gobbled up time after time by the defence who almost invariably played the puck and not the man. And where their combination failed so also did the individual work of Hamilton and Toms who did the most effective playing for the sailors.

Crowley's work at cover point was one of the few features of a rather featureless game. He was of the greatest assistance not only on the defence, but on the attack. His repeated rushing kept the Argonaut defence busy and he came to his place quickly, ready for a counter rush. On numerous occasions he nipped in between two of the Argo forwards and got away with the gypsum and it seemed almost impossible to evade him.

Whitcroft seldom let himself out, but when he did his skating and stick-handling completely baffled the Oaremen. At times he squirmed around four or five men in a manner that electrified the crowd. Harry Morgan went on the ice under a big handicap. He was suffering from a bad cold, and it was feared at first that he would be unable to play. Despite his condition, however, he was as brilliant and effective as ever and never let up for a minute. The wing men were shifted around. Chris. Graham, who has been out of the game for several weeks was at right wing and Moore was transferred to left, where he did splendid work, putting it all over his check.

Glover played his usual effective game at point, handling rushes effectively and frequently taking a little jaunt himself that was decidedly useful in clearing the atmosphere in the vicinity of the Peterborough net.

Lang was of decided assistance in the flags, nailing some difficult shots in good style.

The Argonauts are heavy and although not extraordinarily fast play hockey all the time. Although outplayed and out generalled from start to finish there was no sign of backing up. Hamilton at left was the pick of the bunch doing a lot of brilliant rushing that was wasted, owing to no support. Toms was about the best of the remainder. Higganbotham was not all averse to mixing it up and slashing was the principal thing in his repertoire When he got going though he was a hard man to stop.

Cochrane is a goal-keeper of the finest quality and stopped scores of shots sent from all sides and at all ranges. There were times in which there was a continuous fusilade on the Argonauts, but Cochrane managed to turn the puck aside. The four that beat him were from close in side. Morrow the big point man was an erratic performer. He was not very sure on his skates, but generally managed to fall on the man or the puck at the right time to save a goal.

The referee, E. S. Allen, of Toronto, was a new man to handle the bell, a fact that was easily apparent. He tried to be impartial, but made some bad mistakes.

COVER POINT CROWLEY

Whose work was one of the few features of Saturday's rather featureless game

The teams lined up as follows:—

ARGONAUTS.		PETERBOROUGH
Cochrane
Morrow
Wyndham
Clewlo
Higganbotham	Toms	Hamilton
Moore	Morgan	Graham
	Whitcroft
	Crowley
	Glover
	Lang

Peterborough's superiority was demonstrated in the first few minutes. The play was all in Argo territory and only very rarely did it drift Longwards. The Oaremen's line-up did not seem able to break away while the blue and white forwards were outskating their checks. Hamilton was hurt and had to go off for a few minutes with Moore to keep him company. Whitcroft and Morgan got away together but the shot went wide. Whitcroft scored a moment later.

Moore and Hamilton came back into the game shortly after. Crowley was penalized for bodying Hamilton. Higganbotham got too lavish in the use of his stick and likewise sought the haven of the timers' box.

Peterborough were having the best of the play and several good opportunities were thrown away. Whitcroft skated around the whole team with the exception of Morrow, who managed to fall on him at the right time and saved a goal. Morrow was penalized a moment after for tripping. After six minutes playing Morgan made it 3- 0for Peterborough, after Crowley had carried the puck up nicely.

This ended the scoring for the half and the remaining 20 minutes were marked by listless playing. The Peterborough team was not trying to get in close and the Argos couldn't when they did try.

The play in the early part of the second half was the fastest of the game. Argos were playing with determination to score and score they did after 8 minutes' playing, Toms doing the trick from a mix up in front of the Peterborough goal. Score 3-1.

During the next period Whitcroft was sent to the boards and while he was off Toms scored in 2 1-2 mintes, putting the teams on an even footing.

Peterborough then let loose a notch or two and attacked the Argo goal fiercely. In three minutes Moore shoved one past Cochrane after a shot by Whitcroft had been blocked. Score 3-2.

The next and last score came in lightning order. Morgan and Whitcroft carried the puck from the face off through the whole Argonaut team for a score, Whitcroft beating Cochrane after the most brilliant piece of combination of the game. Score 4-2.

The balance of the game was much like the first half. Peterborough with a safe lead of two goals did not exert themselves quite satisfied to hold the Argonauts away until time was called. The Oarsmen worked hard but failed to find the nets and the game ended with Peterborough still two in the lead.

TWO C. G. E. TEAMS PLAY A TIE GAME

A Fast Exhibition of Hockey in Brock Street Rink Saturday Night—Score 3-3

On Saturday evening between six and seven o'clock an electric game of hockey was pulled off in Brock street rink when the Production Department "Stars" went up against the fast septette representing the general office. This is the first year the Production Department have been able to get together a team and their showing against their fast opponents gladdened the hearts of their supporters.

The play was replete with sensational features, but was comparatively free from roughness, only one lemon being handed out and that went to "Jigger" Jobbitt who was benched for falling down, and he was thankful for the rest.

The first half was all for the office men by a score of 3-1, but the Stars gained confidence in the next and but for the strong defence game put up by their opponents would have nosed them out. Both teams were pegging away harder than ever when the gong sounded and the score board read 3 all.

It was impossible to play extra time to break the score and another game will likely be pulled off to decide the championship.

Considering lack of condition of the players the hockey was good. On the forward line Stone, Breckenridge and Elliott shone while Cooke and Shirley put up stellar games. The teams:—

Referee—F. Pakenham.

Timers—Messrs. Cottrell and Sommerville.

Goal umpires—Misses Powers and Chambers; Misses Huffman and Tovey.

Kendry of Peterborough, refereed to the satisfaction of both teams. The Peterborough bunch were:—

Point—W. Weatherston.
Cover point—White.
Rover—Curtis.

NORWOOD'S VERSION OF LAST MATCH

Correspondent Describes Game With —Havelock in That Town as Very Brutal Final Score 4-2 in Norwood's Favour

A correspondent from Norwood gives the following description of a hockey match in Havelock:

The return game between Havelock and Norwood was played at the former's rink on the 24th. The Norwood boys were minus the services of Kempt, who is their best man. Nevertheless the boys were confident that Havelock could not overcome the former score of 15 to 1. The game was late starting, but when it did start excitement ran high. Evidently the Havelockers were for laying Doherty out, but it was soon shown that they were not able to do it. The first goal was scored by Robson, on a pass from Doherty. From then Havelock went in for dirty work, and a game ensued which had many of the features of the Ottawa-Wanderers game. Havelock secured the next two goals. Thus the score stood at half time.

On resuming play the puck travelled to Havelock territory. Norwood secured a goal, but for some reason it was not allowed. Doherty secured the puck in front of the Norwood goal and went through the entire hockey team of Havelock, making the score 2—2. Scott, who played well all the entire game, secured the next, while the honour of scoring the last fell to Hendren. The score ended 4—2 in Norwood's favour.

The Norwood team played a good game. They were smaller than the Havelock boys, the largest of the Norwood boys being about the same size as the smallest Havelock man. Hard feeling evidently existed between the players. Many were the threas the Havelock men made against the Norwood boys, Morrison in goal being so intent on watching Doherty that he did nothing to amount to anything towards winning the game. Stibbs did considerable slugging that was anything but gentlemanly. Matheson was the heaviest man on the ice, and he evidently thought he could play hockey but it must have been the effects of a dream in his childhood. One man of the Havelock team played a good clean game and that was Pearce, an old Norwood player.

For Norwood much praise was merited. They were playing against players who did not know anything about hockey except shopping. Doherty, Kempt, Robson and Scott played an excellent game, while the defence Cumming, Huycke and Smith were as solid as a stone wall. Blood covered Doherty's face, from a cut near the eye, while Scott and Hendren both limped painfully. This is likely Norwood's last game in Havelock.

HOCKEY

The standing of this district of the O.H.A. senior series is as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.	To play.
Peterborough	4	0	4
Kingston	2	1	4
Midland	2	2	3
Marlboros	1	3	4
Argonauts	1	4	3

Peterborough this year have won six out of seven games and have scored 46 goals to their opponents 42.

The Peterborough team will practice to-night at 7 o'clock in preparation for the big game at Kingston on Wednesday night. A win for Peterborough will practically give them the championship of the district and they are going to try hard for a victory.

The City League teams are asked to remember the meeting of the Executive to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in the Oriental. The trouble over the granting of certificates to Miller and Lang will, it is hoped, be satisfactorily smoothed out.

The puck chasers of Fanning's boarding house, Hunter street, will be out in full force to-night to do battle against a picked team from a similar Water street house. The game will be played between 10 and 11 o'clock and promises to be a tight race as both teams will make a strong bid to carry off the honours. The play will be conducted under the vigilant eye of Ernie Reid and it is expected the fans will be numerous. Fanning's boarding house will line-up like this:—

Rich. Hall & Sons' hockey team accept the challenge from A. W. Cressman's and will play that team next tweek. The challengers are to make arrangements for the game.

LATE SENATOR DOBSON RELATED HERE

Lindsay Member of the Upper Chamber Who Passed Away Yesterday

Lindsay, Jan. 28.—Senator John Dobson of Lindsay died at his residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock after a long illness.

Senator Dobson was born in Fermanagh, Ireland, in 1824. He came to America in 1852 and lived for several years at Rochester, N.Y. He moved to Toronto, but in 1862 took up residence in Lindsay, Ont., where he built up a successful grocery and liquor business, and for several terms was mayor of that town. He had been president of the Mechanics Institute, president of the board of trade; and chairman of the board of education. For years a prominent Conservative organizer in his district he was called to the Senate by the Earl of Derby in 1868.

He was a member of the Church of England, and married in 1846 Miss Catharine Graham, who died ten years ago.

The late Senator Dobson was quite well known in this city, and was an uncle of ex-Ald. James Graham and Mrs. Alex. Fitzgerald.

TWO-FOLD TRAGEDY.

Wm. Whitely, London's Famous Shopman, Killed by Man Who Claimed Him Father—Assassin Will Die.

London, Eng., Jan. 25.—William Whitely, founder of the first big department store in London, was shot and killed yesterday by a young man, who afterwards attempted to commit suicide.

Mr. Whitely was about to leave his store, when his assailant rushed up to him and fired several shots. The merchant fell dead where he stood. The assassin then emptied the revolver into his own body, inflicting what are believed to be mortal wounds.

The store was crowded with shoppers, and a selm-panic followed. A force of police was quickly on the scene, the public were ejected from the building and the doors were closed.

No reason for the act has been learned.

It appears that the murderer had been conversing with Mr. Whitely, and the latter was overheard to say as he walked away: "If you do not go, I shall call the police."

Mr. Whitely's murderer cannot recover. He gave the name of Cecil Whitely, and said he was a son of the murdered man. Relatives of the late Mr. Whitely who have seen the assassin say that they do not recognize him.

Persons who overheard Mr. Whitely and his visitor conversing declare that there was no quarrel.

The following pencilled statement was found on Mr. Whitely's assailant: "To whom it may concern,—William Whitely is my father. This two-fold tragedy is due to his refusal of a request which is perfectly reasonable. —R.I.P."

There was only a small sum of money in the man's pockets and other indications that he had come to the end of his resources.

William Whitely, from a small beginning, built up the largest departmental store in England, and this fact gave him the designation of "Universal Provider." He was 76 years old.

Five Thaw Jurors Now.

New York, Jan. 25.—After more than four hours of yesterday's morning and afternoon sessions of the court had been spent in vain efforts to obtain a single juror for the trial of Harry K. Thaw, for having killed Stanford White, there was a sudden change and within the last three-quarters of an hour three new jurors were accepted and sworn in. Thus when court adjourned for the day five jurors had been accepted.

Senator Alger Dies Suddenly.

Washington, Jan. 25.—United States Senator Russell A. Alger of Michigan, died suddenly at his home here at 6.45 o'clock yesterday morning. There were practically no premonitory symptoms that the end was near. Mr. Alger had suffered for years from chronic vulvular disease of the heart. The Senate adjourned at 12.17 p.m. out of respect to the memory of Senator Alger. Senator Alger is survived by his widow and five children. The body will be taken to Detroit for

ANOTHER STEAMER FOR THE OTONABEE

Reported That Wilbert Harris Has Purchased Georgian Bay Steamer

A report which appears to be from an authentic source, is circulating to the effect that still another boat in addition to that being built by the Otonabee Navigation Company, will ply on the Otonabee River and Rice Lake during the coming season. It is stated that Wilbert Harris, one of the proprietors of the Monarch, has purchased a large Georgian Bay steamer which will be brought down to Peterborough in a short time. It is also reported that Daniel McAllister has become the sole owner of the Monarch.

If the Georgian Bay steamer is brought to Otonabee waters there theres will certainly be no lack of steamboat accommodation for the lower summer resorts.

SPECIAL REQUESTS CONFIRMED BY COUNCIL

Deputation of Representatives From Peterborough Industrial Ask Council for Assistance

DEPUTATIONS HEARD AT NINE O'CLOCK

For the purpose of passing and confirming the special legislation to be asked for from the Legislature a special meeting of the council was held last night before the Committee of the Whole. A couple of deputations were present, one on behalf of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition, which addressed the council.

Present at the meeting were His Worship the Mayor, Ald. Tovey, Elliott, Leary, Johnston, Bradburn, Ball, Duncan, Wilson, Morrow, Phelan and McIntyre.

After the minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed a number of communications were read and referred to the respective committees.

In respect to the special legislation question it was moved by Ald. Johnston and Tovey, that the mayor and clerk sign and seal petition to the Legislature of Ontario and the Lieut.-Governor of Ontario now submitted to the council, asking for legislation to confirm an agreement with the Coates Company; to authorize the council to purchase land for a firm of English manufacturers; to acquire the plant of the Peterborough Light and Power Company; to transmit, use and dispose of electric energy and power; to issue debentures to build granolithic crossings; to constitute the Peterborough Water Commissioners a corporate body; to enable the commissioners to levy and collect a water rate upon all properties fronting on streets along which water mains are laid; to confirm the following by-laws: Nos. 1215, 1221, 1223, 1269, 1270, 1271, 1272, 1228 and 1232 and to authorize the council to pass a by-law to aid the Rapid Tool Company and that they be forwarded by the city solicitor, and also that the treasurer issue a cheque for $100 to the city solicitor to be forwarded to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, as required by the rules of that assembly.

Mr. Porter addressed the council requesting a granolithic sidewalk on King street, past his property. This was left to the Board of Works.

Assistance for the Fair

A deputation representing the Industrial Fair was present, the first spokesman being Mr. Dawson Kennedy. The fair, he stated, has been in a sickly condition for some time; in fact last year it was at death's door, but was finally resuscitated. The fair was held and it was a fairly good one, too. He believed, however, that the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition might be made one of the best of the province. He referred to the fact that half the members of the board elected last week were from the city and the other half from the country. He asked that the city council assist the exhibition in all possible ways. He believed that every citizen of Peterborough should take as much interest in the exhibition as the country and exhorted all to talk up the show during the coming months and they would make the show the best in the district.

Mr. J. J. Turner stated that the exhibition was a great help to Peterborough and he hoped the council would give a good grant to aid the exhibition. He explained that the county council had promised to help and he considered the city should do the same. As a location Peterborough was certainly a good one, but it was the fault of the citizens that the show has not been as good as it should be because many are continually running it down.

Mr. Samuel Redmond, of Otonabee, was the third speaker, and hoped that when subscriptions were asked for the council would do all in their power to assist.

The mayor assured the deputation that when the question came up the council would consider it seriously.

Moved by Ald. Morrow and Phelan that 9 o'clock be the hour set for the hearing of deputations, and that the clerk be asked to notify the deputations to this effect.—Carried.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE HELD SUNDAY

Rev. A. H. Brace Preached Memorial Service for Late John Montgomery at Park Street Baptist Church

There was a great gathering of Orangemen, True Blues and Apprentice Boys Sunday night at the Park Street Baptist Church. The vestry and schoolroom were thrown open and quickly filled. The occasion was the funeral sermon of the late Bro. John Montgomery. The mourners were reserved seats to the right of the preacher, and the Worshipful Masters of each of the societies named took seats on the platform. The text was taken from Job 16: 22, "When a few more years are come then I shall go the way whence I shall not return." The preacher said we are forcibly reminded that a brother beloved has fallen at our side. They were met to honour and improve his memory. The late Bro. John Montgomery, as soon as he was old enough, took the obligation of an Orangeman. He was a member of the Bridgenorth Lodge and a charter member of the L. O. L. of Smith, being present at its organization. He loved his country, was a loyal subject of the king. His last word was to be laid in the grave by the loving hands of his Orange brethren. This was in keeping with his strong attachment to the order. On Tuesday last his brethren were summoned to the funeral, and with all the honours of the Orange brotherhood, the beauty of the paraphanialia and exquisite ritual he was buried. With clasped hands his brethren surrounded the casket and dropped the emblem upon his breast.

The preacher said the words of the text would be very appropriate upon the life of each brother. "I shall go the way whence I shall not return."

It is a much travelled way. Abel was the first lone traveller. Since then millions have entered. Nero and all his victims, Caesar and all his subjects. One each moment enters the ceaseless stream.

This way meets the gaze of every traveller and compels him to enter. 'Tis like a serpent's charm.

'Tis a common way. All grades of society travel on it. Skulls are not entwined with wreaths, neither do they wear diadems. Upon death's highway are strewn the crowns of kings, the robes of patriarchs, the rolls of the prophets, the swords of warriors, the staffs of the aged pilgrims and the little shoes of the infant child.

The way in which every traveller faces the same point. "I shall not return." Are you ready to enter. Here the preacher paused and made clear the indispensible. Preparation was the new birth, showing the snare of forms and ceremonies and beautiful ritual. The folly of trusting in them, in the face of the words of Jesus, "Ye must be born again." Quoting the Orange ritual the preacher made clear that life in the soul, the changed heart could only be affected by contact with Jesus. To as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the Sons of God, even to them who believed on His name. "Jesus can make a dying bed feel soft as downy pillows are while on His breast I lean my head and breathe my life out sweetly there."

The Sanitary Inspector's Duties Clearly Defined

Some Modification of the Arranged Schedule of Duties as Outlined by Committee—Seven Applicants for the Position—The Question of Permanent Assessor Discussed

At the conclusion of the special council meeting last night the Committee of the Whole held a session dealing in particular with the various clauses in the bylaw defining the duties of the Sanitary Inspector which will be appointed next Monday night. The committee decided to strike out the clause referring to duties as Truant Officer as this it was believed, was a matter for the Police Commissioners to deal with. The Sanitary Inspector's duties are, therefore, that much less than first proposed.

The salary of this official was agreed upon at a past meeting to be $700.00 and already half a dozen applications are awaiting consideration. The appointment will be dealt with next Monday night in Committee of the Whole at 7.30 o'clock previous to the regular monthly council meeting. The appointment of assessors and auditors will also be made next Monday.

The question of whether there

ALD. GEO. BALL
An Applicant for the position of Sanitary Inspector should be one assessor or two also caused some discussion, but it was finally left over.

The bylaw defining the duties of the inspector was read by the Mayor and each clause was separately discussed. Ald. Elliott believed that some of the duties might be struck out as he did not think one man could attend to them all. He suggested that the clauses referring to the duties of Truant Officer and of the pollution of waters be omitted. A motion by Ald. Elliott that the duties of Truant Officer be not imposed upon the Sanitary Inspector, was carried. Ald. Elliott also moved that the pollution of the water clause be struck out. Ald. Johnston thought that this was one of the most important clauses of the bylaw and that it should stand.

Ald. Bradburn considered that the duties of looking after the water pollution should be left exclusively to another inspector as the Sanitary Inspector would be needed to look after yards, etc. in the spring when his services would also be required to look after the water north of the city.

Ald. Duncan suggested that with a slight extra salary to one of the present fishery officials, he would be willing to also look after the water supply. The Mayor thought that when the inspector would have to look after the inspection of the water supply, which would be particularly in the summer season, his duties in the city would be slight.

The committee decided to leave this clause in and if the inspector's duties were found to be too onerous, a change could then be made.

The applications for the positions of Sanitary Inspector, Assessor, and Auditor, a number of which were in, were left over until next Monday night at the regular meeting.

The following are the applications already received:

For Sanitary Inspector.—Wm. Gray, Chas. Stenton, Stanley Rightmyer, Jas. Crowe, R. H. Adams, A. E. Hutchinson, Ald. Ball.

For Permanent Auditor. — G. K. Martin, T. O. Quartermaine, Jas. A. Hall, F. E. Bell.

For Assessor.—Dawson Kennedy, H. Thompson, T. B. McGrath.

Ald. Johnston believed that the assessor appointed should be a permanent one. His attention, he thought, would be centred more on his work than if he were only appointed yearly.

Ald. Elliott considered it was a question as to whether two men's opinions were better than one in the valuation of property. There was no difference, he said, between the salaries of the two and one alone and two heads were always better than one. Ald. Phelan concurred in Ald. Elliott's opinion. He considered that the work of the assessors during the past year was very satisfactory as few appeals have been made. This question will also come up next Monday night.

Dam No. 4 Lease

Messrs. Meldrum and R. R. Hall, M.P., waited upon the Council with a draft agreement as to terms upon which the Otonabee Power Co. shall supply 500 electrical horse power to the city for manufacturing purposes in event of said company securing the lease of No. 4 dam from the Dominion Government. This is with a view to the council recommending the Government to lease No. 4 dam to the Otonabee Power Co. on such terms as shall assure a supply of cheaper power. This matter was referred to a special committee.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR ANNUAL CARNIVAL

A Mile Race for Amateur Skaters Will Be One of the Features

The carnival committee of the Foresters met last night to make preparation for the annual carnival, which they decided will be held this year on February 12th. Owing to the fact that the 57th Band has another engagement for that night, the Foresters will not be able to secure their services, but they will make arrangements to obtain a band even if they have to go outside the city for one.

A feature of the carnival this year will be a mile race for amateur skaters, which will be put on before the skating, and which should prove decidedly interesting. Valuable prizes are being offered this year, as usual.

The Use of Malt Extract in Food

Cooked Wheat Treated With It and Then Baked Crisp and Brown Is Nutritious and Delicious.

Remarkable results are secured by treating whole wheat with malt extract, as is illustrated by that widely known food product, Malta-Vita, sometimes called "The Perfect Food."

In the preparation of Malta-Vita we have these two factors,—(a) the whole wheat, steamed and cooked in absolute cleanliness and containing every food element necessary to the sustenance of the human body, (b) pure malt extract containing all the nutrition of best selected barley in a readily digestible form, so nutritious and strengthening that doctors everywhere recommend it.

The malt extract, mixed with the cooked wheat, converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, an active digestive agent. The result is a perfect food, rich in all the nutrition that builds up bone and blood, brain and muscle, healthy tissue and nerve force.

And Malta-Vita is good to eat. There's nothing like it, nothing that can take its place. After being mixed with the malt, the wheat is rolled into wafer-like flakes,—every grain a little flake—and then baked in great, clean ovens under most intense heat. From the ovens Malta-Vita comes crisp and brown, "done to a turn," the most delicious, the most healthful food in the world. All grocers, 10 cents.

MRS. W. CHAMBERLAIN

THE COMPANIES ACTS

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF INCORPORATION IS TO BE PROVIDED.

Directors Must Accept the Responsibility for Prospectus Statements—Provincial Secretary Has Power to Have an Audit Made of the Books of Any Company Operating a Public Utility.

Hon. Mr. Hanna, the Provincial Secretary, will introduce at the coming session of the Legislature a measure consolidating and amending the Ontario companies acts, which in many respects is of a most sweeping character. Draft copies of the act are to be distributed at once with the object of inviting discussion and comment from all interested. Opinions on the measure, from whatever source, will be carefully weighed, but it is understood that the principles of the act as now drawn will not be departed from, and that any changes adopted before it is passed by the Legislature will be only such as in the view of the Government strengthen the bill.

Mr. Thomas Mulvey, K.C., Assistant Provincial Secretary, who assisted Hon. Mr. Hanna in drawing up the new bill, went over some of the principal sections of the measure, says The Globe, in response to the requests of the newspapermen at the Parliament Buildings. He pointed out that the bill is divided into distinct portions, each relating to a branch of company law, and it is expected that this will be a decided benefit to legal pactitioners and others having to peruse or refer to the act in the course of their business. It provides for the incorporation not only of joint stock companies, but of corporations not having capital divided into shares, including many companies which had formerly to seek incorporation in the shape of private bills passed by the Legislature. A uniform system of incorporation is also provided for.

Where Charters Are Obtained.

Under the present law joint stock companies are incorporated under the Ontario companies act by the machinery of the Provincial Secretary's Department; provident and benevolent societies are incorporated after a reference to the county judge by filing papers with the Clerk of the Peace; butter and cheese companies are incorporated by filing a declaration with the registrar of deeds, and other acts make provision for the incorporation of other classes of companies. These acts are all swept away by the new measure, and companies and corporations of all kinds will be incorporated by the machinery of the Provincial Secretary's Department alone.

One very important clause which will be embodied in the new measure as it is introduced to the House, but is not in the draft because it was not framed in time to be included, will provide that any company getting from a municipality a public utility franchise, must lay its scheme before and secure for it the approval of the Railway and Municipal Board before a provincial charter will be granted. This is aimed principally to prevent the giving of perpetual franchises or other improvident bargains by municipalities.

Another advanced step is the empowering of the Provincial Secretary to have an investigation made at any time of the books of any company operating a public utility, with the exception of street railway companies, which come under the jurisdiction of the Railway and Municipal Board.

What the New Bill Embodies.

There is another sweeping change relating to companies incorporated to operate municipal franchises and public utilities, including river improvements, pier and harbor companies, as well as lighting and water companies. The statutes at present provide a separate act for each of these classes of companies. The new bill embodies all the provisions of all of the acts which relate to a company as a company. It is suggested that the other sections should be introduced in their proper places in other statutes, and this, it is understood, is being carried out by the Statute Revision Commission.

Every company incorporated in Ontario will have to make an annual return of the most extensive nature to the Provincial Secretary's Department. These must show, for instance, what shares are issued for cash and what for property, details of preference stock and the amount of bonds and debentures. Every company issuing debentures and giving a mortgage to secure them must file the mortgage in the Department. The part of the act which relates to the issue of preference shares, bonds and debentures is almost wholly new. The allowing of the conversion of preference shares into bonds or into common stock is an innovation in Ontario, as is also the section which enables the curtailment of the rights of preference shareholders as well as the extension of them.

Report to the Shareholders.

The annual report of the meeting of shareholders must be of a more definite nature than now. It is required to show to the shareholders the standing of the company with regard to the following items: Cash debts owing to the company from its customers, debts owing to the company from its directors or officers, stock in trade expenditures made on account of future business; land, buildings and plant, good-will, franchise, patents and copyrights, trade-marks, leases, contracts and licenses; debts owing by the company secured by mortgage or other lien upon the property of the company; debts owing by the company but not secured; amount received on common shares; amount received on preferred shares, and indirect and contingent liabilities.

It is also provided that every shareholder attending a meeting and asking for a copy of this statement shall be entitled to receive one. The bill further enacts that the books of every company must be audited annually, in addition to the audit by those appointed in the usual way, by an auditor appointed by the shareholders. If no auditor is appointed the Provincial Secretary on the application of any shareholders may appoint one.

Share Warrant Provisions.

The provisions of the Imperial companies act relating to share warrants are adopted in the bill. While this form of security is little dealt with on the exchanges of this continent it is a favorite security in Europe, and these provisions may enable many Ontario companies to procure capital in European countries.

The provisions of Mr. Hoyle's bill of last session are inserted in the new act, and also the other sections of the Imperial act of 1900 laying restrictions upon companies allotting shares to the public for subscription or going into business until certain specified conditions are fulfilled.

Provision is made with a view to attempting to prevent what is now one of the most fruitful sources of loss in company formations, namely, the launching of concerns without adequate capital, often a result of bad management, and sometimes a condition deliberately sought. The prospectuses which all companies offering shares to the public must file with the department shall set out the minimum subscription upon which the company may be launched, and no allotment of shares can be made until that subscription has been reached. The company cannot enter into a contract, or if it does, the contract is only provisional, and the company cannot do business until the Provincial Secretary gives a certificate that it is entitled to commence business.

Responsibility of Directors.

The new act wipes out the exceptions to the responsibility of directors of companies for untrue statements made in prospectuses of companies, and makes them liable for all statements so made, whether true or false, and from whatever source obtained.

There are considerable and important changes in the winding-up portions of the act. These enable the voluntary winding-up of a company in a most economical manner. Shareholders or creditors who think the proceedings are not to the advantage of all concerned may appeal to the High Court, and not to the County Court, as at present.

The four different sets of expropriation proceedings set forth in the existing acts are done away with in favor of one method of procedure, and that is the same as in the railway act. In regard to mining companies the clauses of the new bill simply put in better shape than is now the case the meaning which it was sought to express in the existing act.

Here's the Cure for Sick Kidneys

TEST THEM FREE

Perhaps you are skeptical about GIN PILLS. So was Mr. Brown. He had tried so many things for his kidneys, without getting any better, that he had just about made up his mind that he couldn't get well.

When he first read about GIN PILLS he laughed. The second time, he thought. The third time, he said "he would write for a sample just to see if there was any chance of getting well."

He was pretty nearly tickled to death over that box of GIN PILLS. They did him so much good that he would have paid $5 a box for the second, if necessary. The dizziness, headaches and backaches stopped. Those shooting pains in hips and legs died away. Urine lost its high color. He slept through the night without being disturbed by bladder trouble. His appetite began to pick up and he felt better than he had been for years.

BILEANS
CONSTIPATION & INDIGESTION ENDED

WORK A WONDERFUL CURE

Are you a sufferer from Liver Complaint, Constipation or Indigestion? Do you have frequent Headaches, Dizziness, Pains in the Chest or Wind Spasms? If you do, depend upon it, these ailments will not "get better of themselves." Nature has provided a remedy in Bileans, and on every hand proofs are forthcoming of the power of this herbal remedy. Just note the experience of Mrs. F. Greene, of Kingston (Ont.), she says:—A sluggish liver in my case led to acute indigestion and Constipation. I felt dull and sleepy, had no energy whatever for work and every now and again had a bad attack of biliousness. The food I ate seemed to lie heavy on my stomach and caused wind and cramps in stomach and bowels by its decomposing. The constipation was so bad that my bowels had to be forced at each passage. All kinds of medicines, I tried, but nothing did me any lasting good until I got Bileans. I have never found anything to equal them for constipation, liver and stomach troubles. They soon began to do me good and in the end cured me completely. Since then I have felt like a different woman. I am bright and buoyant in spirits, not dull and sleepy as I used to be, I have got back my energy and activity; and, in fact, seem re-made by Bileans."

Is Your Ailment in This List?

Bileans are a herbal cure for Indigestion, Biliousness, Wind, Belching, Headache, Constipation, Piles, Female Ailments and Irregularities, Anæmia, Dizziness, Rheumatism, Blood Impurities, Colds and Chills, Loss of Tone, Debility and all Liver and Stomach disorders.

HUMOR

AT THE SYMPHONY.

It Really Was Her Turn to Ask a Question, and So She Did.

The great orchestra was playing its most compelling number. She sat as one enwrapped in an ecstatic dream.

He sat beside her. It was he who had bought the tickets.

"Perfectly grand!" he whispered in her ear.

She remained silent, drinking in the divine melody.

"Don't you think so?" he added a moment later.

A faint sign of distress passed over her beautiful features. "Yes," she breathed so faintly that she hoped it would not disturb her blissful enchantment.

A moment of heavenly hush, and then, "What marvelous phrasing!"

She said nothing. She was far away in a realm of delight so delicious, so delicate, the faintest breath of discord would alarm and destroy it. She sought to deaden her organ of hearing to his rasping words and to make herself believe he had not spoken.

But he had, and he followed his previous remark with, "Did you ever hear it done better?"

She very nearly succeeded in giving him a mere mechanical lip formed "No" without vexing her transported consciouaness.

For a full moment he remained speechless, forgetting to bruise the tender blossom of melody with his harsh bludgeon of words. His eyes were closed. How heavenly it all seemed! She was drifting in an ethereal sea of harmonic bliss when there came crushing into the charmed audience chamber of her dreams the question, "Have you ever tried listening to music with your eyes closed?"

The crisis had come. She uttered a faint gasp of starless despair, like one bidding farewell to a dear, divine hope. Looking her devilish tormentor full in the eyes, she said sweetly, as only a thrice imbittered woman can: "Oh, yes, and I think it heightens the pleasurable effect. But did you ever try listening to music with the mouth shut?"

And the flutes and the oboes and the violins played on.

A BAD COLD SETTLED ON THE LUNGS

All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs, and the bronchial tubes, are, in the beginning, but coughs and colds, and failure to take hold at once and get rid of them will cause many years of suffering.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree and will certainly cure all coughs colds and lung troubles.

Mrs. Jas. McDowell, Langton, Ont., writes: "In November, 1905, I caught a bad cold that settled on my lungs, so I got two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and used one and a half of them and by that time I was cured. I laid the balance of the bottle away for future use. A few days after our eight months' old baby took the whooping cough.

He was so bad we had to call the family physician, but he said he could do but little.

I commenced using the Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and to my great satisfaction the baby was cured. I only used four 25 cent bottles; a small doctor bill.

I believe there is no other remedy for coughs, colds, etc.

For no amount of talk about "Daisy" Rubbers tells so much as a season's wear of the rubbers themselves. But even that test doesn't tell why there's double wear in every pair—though it proves there is. It's a simple matter of using toughened honest rubber in the right way, in a factory that's as modern as the idea of honest quality is ancient.

SMART CLOTHES.

Dress Successfully Regardless of the Prevailing Styles.

It is generally acknowledged that there is at present a noticeable freedom of style and styles in all departments of the outfit and that to look smart a tea gown or suit must first be becoming. For example, the empire gown is unquestionably fashionable, but if not good for the lines of a certain figure there is the princess dress, which very nearly if not equally popular, while the dress that is made with separate bodice and skirt, with any width belt desired, is perfectly in vogue. Even the all prevailing short sleeve may be abandoned for any costume with which gloves are not always worn, for many women do not care to wear short sleeves in the morning, neither for the street or in the house. Extremely high collars are certainly one of the fads of the moment, but this fad is only followed by those who have unusually long and slender throats. For the evening a square cut decollete, either square or shaped in a deep V in back, is said to be the favorite model, but there are to be seen numberless handsome and expensive costumes of the latest designs that are either round or slightly V shaped both front and back. Examples like the above could be given in countless number, and they all prove that today, while there may be certain standard fashions, the standard may be limited and modified rather than directly aimed at for a exact copy. Some little detail that will be intensely becoming to one woman will be quite the reverse to another and vice versa, so that in a large gathering there may be many smartly gowned, but few who have followed out every one of Dame Fashion's dictes.

An Unhappy Experience.

"Of all the weird looking creatures you ever laid your eyes on I certainly was the 'weirdest,'" said Mrs. K. in relating her experiences in the shampooing line recently. "You know, ma cherie, how I adore white hair and how persistently my fast silvering locks incline to yellow streaks, just as though they had been dyed. Well, I met a friend the other day and in telling her my woes remarked on the beauty of Mrs. B.'s gray hair, which, you know, is of that most fascinating shade that leans to white and silver. 'Would you know the reason of Mrs. B.'s lovely hair?' my friend asked. 'Why she has it rinsed in bluing water.' Receiving full instructions how Mrs. B.'s hair was laundered, I promptly proceeded to impart my knowledge to my maid. Whether Marie used a different brand of ball blue or too much I don't know, but, oh, my hair looked like peacock feathers, blue and green, and I thought that I would have to have every spear shaved off. We washed it in ammonia, in borax water, in everything we could think of, scrubbed it with soap, and my experience left me with such an aching scalp that I had to wear my hair in pigtails for two days, finding pins impossible."

London Shivers, Coal Costly.

London, Jan. 28.—The cold is severe, and, to increase the sufferings of the very poor, coal has risen to a price higher than has been known since 1880. Indeed, for coal sold in the streets in small quantities of a quarter and half hundredweight, poor people have to pay at the rate of $11.04 a ton.

NERVOUS and WEAK

COULD NOT SLEEP AT NIGHT

To the thousands of people all over this land who are tossing on sleepless pillows night after night, or who pass the bedroom hour with nerves unstrung, and to whose breakfast will not come, offer the blessing of sound, refreshing slumber.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres, and bring back the shattered nervous system to perfect condition.

Mrs. Wm. Richardson, Pontypool, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled at times with my heart, felt weak and nervous and could not sleep at night. I have taken several bottles of the pills and am wonderfully improved.

I have recommended them to others and they have found them just what they needed."

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LIMITING WARSHIP TONNAGE.

Italy Will Be Supported By Britain and United States.

Brussels, Jan. 28.—According to a special despatch received here from Rome, the Italian Cabinet has decided to introduce at the next peace conference at The Hague a proposal to fix a maximum limit on the tonnage of warships at 16,000, this being the tonnage of the new battleships which Italy is about to lay down.

This proposal, according to this special despatch, is to be supported by Great Britain and the United States, the matter having been arranged between Foreign Minister Tittoni and the Ambassadors at Rome of the two powers in question.

DEATH BY FREEZING.

Port Hope Resident Victim of Cold While Intoxicated.

Port Hope, Jan. 28.—A deplorable case was brought to the attention of the authorities Saturday night, when the body of Robert Ferguson, a lifelong resident of Port Hope, about 40 years of age, was discovered frozen to death in his miserable shack.

The unfortunate man was a victim of drink, and evidently retired some time Friday night in an intoxicated condition. The shack was shared by a companion named Hill, who did not discover the body until early in the evening. It was lying partly out of bed, as if the unfortunate fellow had been trying to get up.

Killed While Drunk.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 28.—J. Crozier, an Englishman, an employe of the Starr Coal Co., was killed Saturday night. He knocked off work at noon, got drunk, and in the evening returned to the wharf at which a coal steamer was lying. Shortly after he fell over and struck the ship's fender, 20 feet below. He was only in the water two minutes, but the blow on the fender crushed his skull.

BY THE KING'S DECREE.

Early Submission of Issue Between Church and State.

Madrid, Jan. 28.—King Alfonso Saturday issued a decree suspending the sessions of Parliament, as it had become evident that Senor Maura, the Conservative leader, who found a Cabinet Friday, with himself as Premier, could not command a majority in the chambers.

An early submission of the issue between church and state to the people, through a dissolution of Parliament and new elections, is the only means of clearing up the situation. The Clericals and Reactionists are jubilant, as the mere fact of the Conservatives being in power will give them a great advantage at the polls.

12 KILLED BY FIREDAMP.

Cave-In Follows Explosion and Many Others Narrowly Escape.

Weston, W. Va., Jan. 28.—Five American and seven Italian miners are known to be dead as the result of an explosion of fire-damp in the Pennsylvania Co. Mine at Lorentz, W. Va., near Buckhannon, W. Va.

Immediately following the explosion, the mine caved in, almost causing the entombment of all the other miners, estimated at one hundred. The bodies of the 12 dead men have been recovered.

AWFUL SIGHT FOR FATHER.

Lorry Upsets and Boy Is Crushed Beneath Packing Case.

St. Catharines, Jan. 28.—A lorry while descending the Western Hill with a heavy load of freight, Saturday afternoon, capsized and a lad named Prince Hallett, about 10 years of age, who was riding on the load, was crushed to death by a packing case which fell upon him.

Howard Phills, the driver, was badly hurt.

Henry Hallett, father of the lad killed, was following with another lorry, and witnessed the accident.

Schooner Crushed by Icefloes.

St. John's, Nfld., Jan. 28.—The British schooner Robin, laden with fish for Lisbon, Portugal, was crushed by the icefloes off the northern coast of Newfoundland Friday night. The crew of the Robin were saved.

The mailboat Portia was obliged to abandon all efforts to reach ports on the northern seaboard because of the ice-pack.

The west coast of Newfoundland also is blockaded with ice from the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Robbed at Bank Door.

Toronto, Jan. 28.—H. J. Parsons, a pork dealer of Guelph, reported to the police that he was robbed of $200 in cash and cheques as he was leaving the Imperial Bank, Wellington street and Leader lane, at noon Saturday. He drew some money and placed it in his pocketbook, which he put in his inside coat pocket. At the door of the bank he was jostled by two men; when he felt for the pocketbook it had vanished. The only description he can give of the men is that they wore long black overcoats. The missing cheques are on the Toronto, Dominion and Standard banks.

Tariff May Teach.

London, Jan. 28.—(C. A. P.)—The Financial News lengthily discusses the Canadian tariff and says the most important change is the introduction of the intermediate scale. History shows that the operation of tariffs is a singularly uncertain quantity, and the changes made in the new tariff may therefore result in a good many things of which there is yet no inkling.

Dropped Dead In Hamilton.

Hamilton, Jan. 28.—Phillip Ewart, Cobourg, dropped dead Saturday evening while visiting his sister, Mrs. E. J. Wilson, here. The remains were forwarded to Cobourg last evening.

Wheat As a Dairy Feed.

While wheat is excellent to make cows give a large mess of milk, care should be taken not to feed to excess, as the cream will rise slowly and will be hard to churn, and the butter will be pale rather than a golden yellow. Feed in connection with cornmeal it can always be used in the butter dairy to an advantage.

BETTER UNDERWEAR

CUT OFF BY FLAMES.

Five Mill Operatives Dead—Employes Jump From Windows.

Dover, N. H., Jan. 28.—A fire which occurred here Saturday cost the lives of five young mill operatives, and caused a property loss of half a million dollars. The fire destroyed Dover's largest factory building, known as Mill No. 1 of the Cocheco Manufacturing Co.

The bodies of four of the boys, charred beyond all hope of identification, were found in the smoking ruins.

Six operatives were injured. Several of these were hurt while saving their lives by climbing down ropes, one end of which they had tied to machinery.

The fire broke out not long after the 500 or more operatives had assembled for their day's work.

The exits presently became blocked by a struggling mass of mill hands. On the fifth or top floor the operatives were mostly boys. It was there undoubtedly that those whose bodies were found lost their lives.

The flames spread so rapidly that several jumped without hesitation from the windows, and suffered broken limbs.

Bad Attack of La Grippe

"A year ago I had a bad attack of la grippe and all the doctors' prescriptions proved of no avail. I was told to try Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and found it a great blessing, as it thoroughly cured me. I told the doctor that I intended to recommend it to all my friends." — Mrs. R. Hutton, 12 Claremont street, Toronto.

Two Men Suffocated.

Montreal, Jan. 28.—John C. Cromier, coachman, of Amherst, N. S., and William Douglass, stable boy, of Cheshire, England, were smothered to death early yesterday morning from a fire which broke out in the stables of Wm. Cook, 400 Elm avenue, Westmount. Four horses were also suffocated.

Boy Killed At His Play.

Rodney, Jan. 28.—About 12.30 p.m. Saturday, George, youngest son of George H. Katzenmeir of Rodney was killed while crawling underneath an M. C. R. train which was standing at the station. Being unnoticed by the crew, the train was backed down over him, almost cutting off both his legs. He died almost instantly.

National Church a Failure.

Paris, Jan. 28.—The clerical newspapers predict the failure of the attempt to organize a national French Catholic Church. Archbishop Vilatte yesterday announced that after consecrating several bishops of the new church he would retire from the movement.

Winnipeg Gets Coal.

Winnipeg, Jan. 28.—With fairly large receipts of fuel on both railways the local fuel crisis is not so critical, and if the present shipments are kept up for the next two or three weeks the city will be entirely free from any danger of shortage for the time being.

Three Years For a Brute.

Niagara Falls, Jan. 28.—Donato Francesco, an Italian, who slashed his fiancee, Mame Conti, in the face with a razor a week ago, received his sentence from Police Magistrate Cruickshank Saturday evening, being three years in Kingston Penitentiary. The cutting was the result of a quarrel over ten dollars that Francesco had advanced the girl for wedding preparations, so said Francesco, though the girl told a different story, and said the man made an improper demand upon her.

Burnham at Sing Sing.

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 28.—George Burnham, jr., former vice-president of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Co., is in Sing Sing Prison, but has not yet been booked. Warden Johnston said yesterday he did not know what work Burnham would be put at.

Miss Beecher Stowe Dead.

Simsbury, Conn., Jan. 28.—Miss Harriet Beecher Stowe, daughter of the famous writer of that name, died here Saturday night, aged 70 years.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

Socialism Stricken, and Kaiser's Ambition May Mount Again.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—According to the latest returns of the Reichstag election, held Friday, received by the Wolff Bureau, the Socialists have gained one and lost 20 seats. The clericals have gained two and lost four, the National Liberals have gained nine and lost an equal number, the Radical groups have gained five and lost two seats, the Poles have gained two, the Guelphs have lost three, and the Agrarian and Anti-Semitic groups have gained two and lost five seats each.

The Socialists have entered demands for 75 re-ballots. From these they are not likely to elect 19 members, hence their strength in the new Reichstag probably will be below 50.

The Clericals have demanded about 30 re-ballots and have chances of winning enough seats to retain their full strength in the new House.

The two Conservative parties have demanded 41 re-ballots, the National Liberals more than 50, the Radical groups 45 and the Anti-Semites, the Agrarians, the Poles, the Alsatians, etc., a total of 23. The Socialists probably have increased their total vote nearly from 10 to 15 per cent.

Paris Gloats Over It.

Paris, Jan. 28.—The Waterloo of the German Socialists in the Reichstag elections Friday was quite a surprise to France, and, while Emperor William's victory was not particularly welcome, some of the serious French papers manifest gratification at the check administered to Socialism.

The semi-official Temps regards the elections as evidence that the working classes of Germany are at last turning from the idealism of the Marxists and dogmatic collectivism, with the inevitable class war, toward the attainment of realizable reforms, through the Liberal parties.

The Liberte says: "The defeat of the best organized Socialists in Europe marks an interesting step, the defiance of the extreme parties by the people, who are awakening to their true interests."

WITH RED-HOT STOVE LIFTER.

Young Stepmother Brands Two Girls, Who Made Too Much Noise.

New York, Jan. 28.—Two little children, Nellie, aged 7 years, and Jennie, two years younger, told Magistrate House in the Harlem Police Court Saturday how their mother, Mrs. Kate Gravius, had branded them on the hands with a red-hot stove lifter because, in playing, they made too much noise.

Twice during the recital, the prisoner, a woman of intelligent and pleasant appearance, not more than 20 years of age, fainted. When restored, she admitted that she had burned the children, but said that at the time she was possessed by an unaccountable mania.

The two girls, she said, had been playing with their dolls until the noise and confusion robbed her of her reason. Seizing the stove lid lifter, she pressed the glowing red on the back of the right hand of each child, causing scars that the little ones will carry to their graves.

A peculiar feature of the case was the apparent affection for the children felt by the prisoner. That the attachment was reciprocated was repeatedly demonstrated in court. When Mrs. Gravins lost consciousness, the children wailed in unison.

THE KAISER'S BIRTHDAY.

Pope Pius Orders Ceremony For Protestant Ruler Without Precedent.

Rome, Jan. 28.—Vatican authorities expressed the opinion yesterday that the assumption of power in Spain by Premier Maura at the head of the Conservative ministry, the success of the Centre party in Germany, and the failure of the anti-clerical movement in Italy were significant of the attitude on religious matters of the countries surrounding France, where the anti-clerical movement is triumphant.

It is significant also that the Pope has ordered the celebration of a te deum next Sunday in the Austrian Church here, in honor of the anniversary of the birthday of Emperor William of Germany. Such a ceremony for a Protestant ruler is without precedent, te deums having been sung in the past only on the occasion of the birthdays of Catholic sovereigns.

To Annul a Railway Charter.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—Attorney-General Young began mandamus proceedings Saturday in the Supreme Court to compel the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad Co. to show cause why its charter should not be forfeited. This company, formerly known as the Minnesota & Pacific Co. is the parent company of the Great Northern Railway Co., and the Great Northern is joined in this issue, as it is the owner of the Manitoba Co.'s stock. Chief Justice Start ordered the writ to be issued, and directed that a return be made on April 2 next.

Killed by a Train.

Chatham, Jan. 28.—Early yesterday morning members of a section gang found the mangled body of Joseph Deary, about 40 years of age, beside the Grank Trunk tracks about five miles west of this city. He was a sailor on lake boats, but during this winter lived with a farmer about a half dozen miles from here.

An Embarrassing Present.

Dr. W. G. Grace, the famous English cricketer, has been the recipient of many gifts from lovers of cricket as tangible proofs of their admiration of his prowess. Some of them have been remarkable in character, but perhaps the most embarrassing gift he ever received was one of three young pigs which a Worcestershire farmer sent to him in recognition of a great batting feat which he had witnessed.

Declines a Pension.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 28.—Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson has declined to accept a pension of $100 a month from the Legislature and a resolution to that effect has been withdrawn.

"Dominion" Is All Right."

London, Jan. 28.—(C. A. P.)—The Admiralty denies the statements regarding the battleship Dominion's alleged instability.

Every Nurse will tell you "Invalids require nourishment that's easily digested, for in cases of sickness the gastric juices are so weakened they cannot act properly on ordinary foods."

Some stimulation is also required, but it must be stimulation without reaction. Tea, coffee, spiritous drinks and similar preparations, are stimulants —stimulants that react.

Beef tea and meat extracts are also stimulants, but with this difference, they don't react. Yet while they have stimulating properties, they are practically devoid of nourishment.

"Bovril" not only stimulates but nourishes as well, for in it the nourishing qualities of beef, fibrine and albumen are fully preserved.

BOVRIL IS A TRUE FOOD Not merely a stimulant.

THE HIDDEN TREASURE

SUNKEN WEALTH BENEATH WATERS OF THE GREAT LAKES.

Treasure Hunting Expeditions Usually Only Business-like Ventures, But Occasionally Some of Them Have a Tinge of Romance or Adventure In Them—The Tragic Story of the "Erie"—Whiskey Lost.

While the oceans and islands in them undoubtedly contain the greater part of the hidden treasure of the world, there are other places which are beginning to attract those infested by the germ of "treasureitis," and among these are the Great Lakes. From time to time treasure hunting expeditions have been fitted out at various ports, but they have been generally regarded as such business-like ventures that only now and then has one seen much of romance or adventure in them. The majority of these expeditions were unsuccessful in their efforts, but a few of them have reaped rich rewards.

Probably no similar area of any ocean, if suddenly robbed of its waters, would expose to human eyes more sunken ships or more valuable cargoes than would the five Great Lakes. This is easily understood, says The Detroit News-Tribune, when one knows that during the twenty years between 1878 and 1898 only one less than 6,000 vessels were wrecked on the inland seas, and that 1,083 of these were total losses. The loss of cargo during those years, which represent but a little more than one-fourth of the years of navigation on the Lakes, was 6,548,900, and from this it is quite safe to reason that the total amount of property which has gone to the bottom of the Lakes, counting only cargoes, would make the enormous total of at least $12,000,000.

Of course, the greater part of all this sunken property has been destroyed by time and water, but much of it was indestructible, and is as good to-day as when it was lost. It is also true that at the bottom of the Lakes would be found valuables of less romantic interest than the gold and plate of Spanish galleons and the riches of pirate chests. There is little doubt but that there are large sums of money hidden in the inland seas, but most of their lost treasure is made up of copper, steel, iron, coal, machinery and other practically indestructible things which go to make up Lake cargoes.

Tragic Story of the "Erie."

How a ship may lose herself in the Great Lakes and for years, perhaps forever, defy all attempts to discovering her is illustrated in the tragic story of the Erie, a treasure ship which was lost in Lake Erie during the season of 1841. This vessel, under the command of Capt. T. J. Titus, left Buffalo for Chicago on the afternoon of Aug. 9. When about 33 miles from Buffalo, off Silver Creek, a slight explosion was heard and almost immediately the whole vessel was enveloped in flames. On board the Erie were scores of immigrants bound for the West and specie amounting to $180,000, but in the excitement and appalling loss of life which followed, no thought was given to the treasure.

The steamer De Witt Clinton came up in time to save many lives, but in going down the Erie carried 100 souls with her. For years after this the treasure ship lay half buried in the sand 70 feet under water. Not until 14 years later in 1855, was a successful attempt made to raise her. In that year a treasure seeking party left Buffalo and towed the hull into shallow water. A fortune in foreign money was secured, mostly in five franc pieces.

Other stories of treasure recovered from the bottom of the lakes are quite numerous. In 1902 the steamer William H. Stevens, loaded with $101,880 worth of copper, caught fire and sank between Conneaut, Ohio, and Port Burwell, Ont. Underwriters worked on her all one autumn, securing only 19 tons of copper. Then Capt. Baker, of Detroit, began operations which resulted in the recovery of nearly $100,000 worth of property. In 1895 the William Home, loaded with $20,000 worth of steel billets, sank in 96 feet of water off Swishwah Point, Lake Michigan. In 1901 she was raised, one diver being killed in the work and another paralyzed. Capt. Baker also recovered treasure in steel billets amounting to $31,000 from the Alva Bradley, which sank in deep water off North Manitou Island. Capt. Quinn, of Detroit, has also recovered many valuable cargoes.

Sunken Treasure Cargoes.

Somewhere along the south shore of Lake Erie between Dunkirk and Erie lies a treasure ship which will bring a fortune to her lucky discoverer, if she is ever found. One night the Dean Richmond, with $50,000 worth of pig zinc on board, mysteriously disappeared between those two places. Every hand aboard was lost and their bodies were picked up ashore. In vain have searching parties spent much time and money in the hunt for the lost vessel. The last attempt was made by the Murphy wrecking Co. of Buffalo, which had a vessel and several divers searching all one year without success.

Somewhere in the deep water of Saginaw Bay lies the steamer Fay which went down with $20,000 worth of steel billets. Efforts have been made to locate her, but like many other treasure ships in the Great Lakes she is so deep down that no diver can live to reach her. Under sea workers cannot go deeper than 100 feet and work, for, while they can descend to 130 feet they must rise immediately or suffer a terrible death.

Near Walnut Creek, in Lake Erie lies the Young Scion, with a valuable cargo of railway iron. In the deep cold water off Point Pelee is also the Kent, with a small treasure in money in her hulk and the skeletons of eight human beings in her cabins. Somewhere between Cleveland and the Detroit River are a deckload of locomotives, lost from the Clarion in 1851. In Lake Huron, in the neighborhood of Saginaw Bay, are said to be more lost ships than in any other part of the Great Lakes, and for that reason Huron has frequently been referred to as the "Lake of Sunken Treasure." In the days when the country along the bay was filled with lumber camps, large sums of money were brought up in small vessels, and many of these vessels were lost. In the deep water of Saginaw Bay, it is believed, lies the City of Detroit, which went down in 1873 with about $50,000 worth of copper aboard. All hands were lost and no wreckage of the vessel was ever found. The R. G. Coburn, also laden with copper, sank in the bay in 1871, with a loss of thirty lives. Although searches have been made for her, the location of the Coburn is still one of the unsolved mysteries of the Lakes.

Whiskey Cargoes Lost.

Of the treasure which is awaiting discovery in the inland seas, whiskey forms quite a part. Scores of vessels with cargoes of this liquor, have been lost, and while whiskey does not age under water, it would be fully as good as when it went down.

In 1846 the Lexington, commanded by Capt. Peer, cleared from Cleveland for Port Huron, freighted with 110 barrels of whiskey. In midlake the vessel foundered with all on board, and though sixty years have passed since then she has never been located. Today her cargo of whiskey would be worth $115 a barrel. In 1850 the Anthony Wayne went down in Lake Erie with 300 barrels of wine and whiskey, and five years later the Westmoreland sank near Manitou Island with a similar cargo. These are only a few of the many cargoes of whiskies and wines which are now at the bottom of the Great Lakes.

It is estimated that at the present time there are several hundred thousand dollars worth of coal at the bottom of the Lakes, and that the day is approaching when modern invention will make it possible to recover much of this there is little doubt. In Tobermory Bay a device is now being used which, according to the description of its work, might be employed successfully to bring up cargoes of coal. This invention is a long pipe which can be thrust down deeper than divers can work, and which, by means of powerful suction apparatus, draws up sand, stones and articles small enough to find passage through it.

Of treasure in lost coal, that of the Gilcher and Ostrich, a steamer and tow that disappeared in Lake Michigan, is one of the largest. The two vessels carried 3,000 tons, and as yet they have not been located. In 1895 the steamer Africa went down in a gale on Lake Huron, carrying 2,000 tons of coal with her, and in 1898 the St. Peter sank in Lake Ontario with a valuable cargo of fuel. These big cargoes are only a few of the many which may some day be recovered.

Romance of Treasure Hunting.

The history of Lake treasure hunting is not without its romance. In 1865 the Pewabic was lost with a fortune in copper aboard. She disappeared as completely as though she had been lifted above the clouds. Expedition after expedition was fitted out to search for her—a search which continued over a period of 30 years. In 1897 a party of fortune seekers from Milwaukee were successful, and located the long lost ship six miles southeast from Thunder Bay. As yet, on account of the depth of the water in which she lies, only $7,000 worth of copper has been recovered from her.

One of the most terrible events in Lake history was the loss of the Atlantic, with 300 lives, off Long Point, Lake Erie, in 1852. She went down with a valuable cargo, and for many years searches for her were made from time to time. She was not found until a few years ago, when cargo to the value of $30,000 was raised.

H. P. DWIGHT'S CAREER

LONG KNOWN AS "THE FATHER OF CANADIAN TELEGRAPHY."

Entered Upon His 79th Year on Sunday, Dec. 23, 1906—Career in Which the Community Was Interested by His Devoted Service—What He Did at the Time of the Fenian Raid—President G.N.W. Telegraph Co.

Sunday, Dec. 23, 1906, the many friends of Mr. H. P. Dwight of Toronto were able to congratulate that gentleman upon having reached another milestone in a life many years of which have been devoted to the service of the community in a variety of ways. Mr. Dwight has for long been known as "the father of Canadian telegraphy." Born at Belleville, Jefferson County, in the States of New York, on Dec. 23, 1828, he came to Canada when a youth of 19, and entered the service of the Montreal Telegraph Co. as an operator. By a strange coincidence his first appointment was held at the Canadian town of Belleville, and he enjoys the distinction of having been the first knight of the key to follow the telegraphists's vocation in that city.

It was not long, however, before the second step was made in what became a most successful career. Mr. Dwight was first promoted to Montreal, and three years later, in 1850, to Toronto, where he has made his home ever since. In a comparatively short time after coming to this city Mr. Dwight was appointed superintendent of the company's western service, and in 1881, when the Dominion and Montreal Telegraph Companies were merged under the charter of the G.N.W., he was appointed to the important position of general manager. No doubt it was his successful work in carrying out a scheme of organization which led to his election first as vice-president and then, in 1893, as president, an office which he continues to hold at the present time. Mr. Dwight, with 56 years of active service to his credit, retired from the general managership of the company three years ago, and was succeeded by Mr. Isaac McMichael.

Not only did Mr. Dwight play a prominent part in the building up of a great Canadian telegraphic service, but on more than one occasion he rendered notable service in the public interest. In the eventful days of the Fenian raid the Government entrusted to him the work of distributing operators along the frontier where there seemed danger of an outbreak, and it was largely due to his foresight and completeness of arrangements that the Government were enabled to act with a promptness and exactitude that would otherwise have been impossible, and on that occasion his services were acknowledge in Parliament by the then Minister of Militia.

Again in 1885 he rendered similarly effective assistance in respect of the Northwest rebellion. Always taking a keen interest in the affairs of civic government, Mr. Dwight was among the pioneers of the movement which led to Toronto being lighted by electricity, and when the telephone was in its early and experimental days the first telephonic wire used in the city connected his residence and the testing station. Mr. Dwight has been for a number of years chairman of the investigating governors of the Royal Canadian Humane Association, president of the Canadian Birkbeck Investment & Savings Co., and was one of the original members of the Ontario Fish and Game Commission.

Declare Tea and Coffee Nerve Foods.

At the hygienic conference which recently sat in Paris the question of the value of tea and coffee as a nerve food has been discussed with much warmth.

M. A. Gautier said that, although tea, coffee and wine were of no value whatever as nourishment, they were valuable as nerve food, as they helped quickly to dispel the sense of bodily fatigue.

On the other hand, N. Charles Fere contended that the use of stimulants should not be encouraged at all, as the effect they gave was not lasting, and after the first excitement had passed away the patient felt more fatigued and depressed than before. People should be taught to do without stimulants, and should so manage themselves that they could do the greatest amount of work with little expenditure of their energy.

STAINED GLASS WINDOWS.

Colors Are Burned In—Artists and Craftsman Combine In the Production of Intricate Mosaic.

To use the term stained glass is really to employ a misnomer. In the whole art of preparing colored windows one stain alone is used—a transparent yellow deduced from silver. Three varieties of glass meet the requirements of the designer.

The first is known as pot-metal—glass that is colored while in a state of fusion, and in which the coloring matter forms an integral part; secondly, the "flashed" glass, which has a thin film of a powerful color spread over a paler shade; and, thirdly, the yellow or stained glass.

The modifications in the direction of shading are made with a grey or a brownish tint; those of color are got by adding the flesh tint to white glass, the yellow stain to blue producing green.

A stained-glass window is an elaborate mosaic rather than a picture. The artist paints a little on glass, and for the most part with glass.

The work from the first has been in the hands of craftsmen rather than artists. It has never reached the high state of perfection which, from its unrivalled power of color, might by this time have left nothing to be wished for.

The artist has produced his water-color sketch. It is enlarged in pencil outlined on heavy Manilla paper. From this a kind of map is made. The various parts are cut out by shears with double edges. In this the object is to cut away the exact breadth of paper that will compensate for the thickness of the leads which will presently be used to join each piece together.

Then to the glazier. The pattern is laid upon the glass. The various colors—red, blue, green or purple—are cut with a little diamond wheel. From the glazier back to the studio.

Now the painter sets to work on the figures and animals, and other portions of the design which call for special treatment, painting the leading lines with a solid opaque enamel. These metallic colors are now burned in—an operation requiring the utmost care and judgment.

Wax is now used to fix the pieces together temporarily on an easel of glass and the painter slightly shades his outlines. Two or three more firings are necessary during the process. The painting finished, the mosaic goes back once more to the glazier's bench, and lead is substituted for the wax.

There is to the observer one perplexing element in the appearance of a stained-glass window, accidental leads. The network of metal not only follows the outline of the faces, of drapery, but the outline of the faces, hands, and feet, and the folds and twists of drapery, but must needs go across the design. This is done to lend additional elasticity and strength.

Finally, a stiff cement or putty is rubbed into the leaf of the leads, and the exquisite mosaic is complete.

CANADIAN IN CABINET.

Chances of Thomas J. Macnamara, M.P., LL.D., In British Politics.

It is possible that a second Canadian will be added to the membership of the Campbell-Bannerman Government, in the person of Dr. Macnamara. We must not be too proud of the part Canada is taking in the Government of the Empire, for although Lord Elgin and Dr. Macnamara are glad to own Canada as their place of birth, both were taken back to the motherland at a very early age and grew up there. Lord Elgin is a Canadian because his father was Governor-General almost sixty years ago. Dr. Macnamara is a Canadian because his father, a soldier of the 47th Foot, was ordered out to Canada on military duty. The coming Minister was born in Montreal in 1861, but was educated at Exeter, England, and as a teacher and writer on educational subjects holds a very high place in Great Britain. He has been editor of The Schoolmaster since 1892, and a member of Parliament since 1900.

He took the leading place in the last debate in the Commons on the educational bill, and strongly denounced the Lords.

High Finance.

"Say," began Burroughs, "lend me a five, will you?"

"See here," replied Markley. "If you'd only save your own money you wouldn't have to borrow from your friends."

"But by borrowing from my friends I do save my own money."

Profitable Municipal Ownership.

The report of the Waterloo, Ont., Water Commission shows that that body closes the year with a profit of $1,041, after allowance has been made for interest, sinking fund, repairs and depreciation. The plant represents an investment of $78,000.

MARVELLOUS — FOR MAN AND WOMAN

WEST GOES IN FOR YACHTING.

Marvellous Boat By Mysterious Designer At Wonderful Price.

They must go it steep in the yachting line out west, if what the Vancouver Province says is right. A 29-footer here, designed by Mr. Fife, the Scotch designer we do know about, says the Toronto Telegram, would cost $5,000, but it is otherwise in Vancouver. This is what the Province says:—

"Mr. J. H. Fife, a Scotch yacht designer and naval architect, has been cabled instructions to design an international cup challenger for a syndicate of Vancouver yachtsmen. Carte blanche has been given the celebrated designer in the construction of the cup challenger, which is to be built next spring, and will sail in the 29-foot class at the international regatta at Seattle next year for the coveted Mackie trophy, emblematic of the yachting championship of the Pacific coast.

"Arrangements for the formation of the syndicate among the members of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club and local sportsmen have been in progress for some time, and have now reached such a stage that a cable was sent to Fife yesterday. The cost of the new boat, which is to be built under the new international rating rule, will be in the neighborhood of $25,000. While the cup challenger will be designed to lift the cup if speed and seamanship will do the trick, she will not by any means be a freak racing machine. The new rules prohibit that class of craft. Therefore the value of the cup challenger, aside from her racing qualities, will not be dependent entirely on her ability to bring the cup to Vancouver, for, unlike the racing machines on which millions have been spent in an effort to lift the America Cup, the projected new craft will be a fair sea boat and a wholesome cruiser.

"The plan by which Canada will be represented in the coming international regatta is by the formation of a syndicate of local yachtsmen who will each subscribe $1,000. The yacht will be entered and sail under the colors of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, which organization will select a crew to sail the yacht in the cup races. Then, after the races are over, some 450 tickets at $5 each will be sold among local yachtsmen and the yacht raffled. The lucky winner will take the yacht, and the proceeds will reimburse the syndicate."

Canada's Indian Population.

The Indian population of Canada at the end of the last fiscal year amounted to 109,394, a net increase of 1,757 compared with the previous year. Ontario is set down as having an increase of 2,878, but this is largely owing to gain by transfer of Indians formerly shown in Keewatin and of Indians hitherto not shown at all. The total number of births was 2,511 and of deaths 2,329, the net gain from natural increase being 182, or 91 less from the same source than a year ago. The income derived exclusively through the exertions of the Indians themselves has passed the five million mark and exceeded that of the previous year by over half a million dollars. The mortality, which was rather heavy last year, is attributed in part to the mildness of the winter, which is a questionable benefit to a people who have to struggle for existence and are subject to pulmonary and more or less kindred diseases. The tendency to traffic in the sale of liquor to the Indians is noted in the annual report, and this warning is issued:—"Indications have been observed during the year that a salutary lesson taught those concerned in this traffic along the lower St. Lawrence a few years ago is fast fading from memory, and apparently will have to be repeated before long. Among the somewhat kindred class of Indians inhabiting the district immediately west of Lake Superior there is ground to fear that the traffic has been making headway, and proximity to the international boundary line adds to the difficulty in repressing it." However, signs are not wanting in other directions of success in combating the evil.

Forestry Education.

Canadian newspapers and public men are beginning to preach forestry, but as yet we have not begun to do very much. In the United States considerable progress is being made, and the new forestry course at Yale has grown more rapidly than any other department ever started. In calling attention to this, The Yale Alumni Weekly says: "In the historical ups and downs of other and older departments of Yale the record, the work, and the prosperity of the Forest School call for special attention. It has endowment funds of $300,000, with the lumbermen's professorship funds of $150,000 in sight, and an annual income of about $20,000. Its courses of instruction already number 31, in charge of 26 teachers, including lecturers; and its steadily waxing registration of students now amounts to 59 in the two regular classes, besides 27 students in the nature of 'specials.' In the regular lists of students one finds, besides Yale, some 28 universities and colleges represented by graduates, two of those institutions foreign. In the departments of Yale, during her history, no branch has been able to show in so limited a time such a ratio of material growth."

Dr. Osler continues to be epigrammatic and to utter sayings which please the temperance people. Speaking recently at the London Workingmen's College, he said: "If all the beer and spirit were dumped into the sea, for a year, the people of England would be infinitely better off. And if all the tobacco were also dumped into the sea, it would be a good thing for the people, but hard on the fish."

UNDER THE ICE.

Sympathetic and Well-Posted Writer Tells of Plants, Animals and Fishes That Thrive There.

When the sensitive marsh puts on her first coat of glistening armor against the threatenings of encroaching winter the life that has remained concealed through the more open days awakens to a new activtiy. The new ice is clear and honest, and will sound abundant warnings before giving way—quite unlike the thick, deceptive, spongy ice of spring, that breaks when it seems most firm. The first coating will crack noisily and bend ominously, and echo a warning with almost a musical cadence, writes S. T. Wood in The Globe. Sometimes where a more venturesome step makes a deeper indentation the water oozes up to protest against the dangerous liberties that have been taken. The fascination of the smooth, undulating, and cracking surface is soon lost in contemplating the beauties of a dim and indistinct landscape in the translucent medium beneath. A close concentrated gaze brings out a varied panorama that the darkness is striving to hide. The long, jointed, and tufted stems of the white buttercup hang in the water with a profusion suggesting tropical vegetation. These aquatic growths, that send up from the marshy surface in summer ridiculously small stems bearing white insignificant flowers, are now the trailing and entangled features of a scene where the rich greens turn to black as the shadows deepen into the perpetual night of the deep, weedy bottom. The floating roots of the bladderwort that send up their stems of yellow flowers in summer help to make the crowding vegetation more dense, and there are a few twining and circling stems of the waterlilies to give distinction and character to the submerged landscape.

The still weeds are pushed aside by a slender, cruel-jawed pike, who pauses a moment with leisurely undulating gills and moves stiffly away on his destructive mission. There is life in the lower depths where the weeds slowly move and a form like a mudcat is barely distinguishable for a moment in the surrounding black water. A shoal of mud-minnows scatter with nervous haste, and down in the middle depth some small, nondescript fish seem almost transparent in the dim light as they dart restlessly here and there. A small sunfish, proud of his bright colors, passes so close that his spiny fin seems almost to touch the ice. As he glides out of sight there is a commotion among the hanging weeds, and the long, dark form of a muskrat moves past with his back flattened against the under surface of the glassy covering. He is trailing some bright green herbage from his mouth, and is in haste to reach one of the neighboring houses and enjoy a meal. He can do almost anything under the water. Even breathing is not impossible, for he will exhale a spreading bubble of air, give it time to absorb a supply of oxygen from the water, breathe it in again and continue his journey. But he cannot eat under water, and so must rise in one of the ice-lined houses built during the comfortable summer night. Away he goes through the branching and entangled weeds, more black than the water through which he moves, a great hurrying disturber of the silent life in the imprisoned landscape.

Found In the Ruins.

In the work of removing the debris from the site of the burned Transportation building on the Exhibition grounds, Toronto, the box containing the usual documents generally put in a corner-stone was discovered. These documents were all put in the box when the corner-stone of the enlargements to the buildings was laid in 1880, when the Transportation building was the main building of the Fair. There were found in the box a copy of The Globe, The Leader, and some other newspaper of that day, copies of the first prize list issued by the Exhibition authorities, a prize list for 1880 and several other documents and a group photograph of Mr. J. J. Withrow, president, Capt. McMaster, Mr. Wm. Rennie, James McGee, manager and treasurer; Mr. J. Hallam, chairman of the Exhibition Committee, and Mr. H. J. Hill, secretary. Capt. McMaster and Mr. Wm. Rennie are now the only survivors of the group. Mr. Chambers, Park Commissioner, is having all the documents carefully dried and he expects they will be enclosed in the corner-stone of the new building to be erected on the site of the one which was burned.

TWO VERY DISASTROUS EXPLOSIONS

Fire Damp Explosion In German Mine Kills Hundreds.

812 FRENCH MINERS ESCAPE

One Hundred and Sixty-Four Bodies Recovered In German Accident—600 Men Working In Mine at Moment of Explosion, But Half of Them Not In Galleries That Were Wrecked—Awful Scenes.

Saarbrucken, Jan. 29.—A fire-damp explosion occurred yesterday morning in the Bildstock shaft of the Reden Mine at Saint Johann-On-Saar, opposite here.

Yesterday afternoon the bodies of 164 miners had been found, 17 men dangerously injured had been rescued and more than a hundred miners were missing. The number of dead is estimated at 200.

There were about 600 men working in the shaft when the explosion occurred, but half of them were not in the galleries which were wrecked.

Forty Still In the Pit.

The rescue corps was working desperately to reach the entombed men, when the party was driven out by an outbreak of fire. Forty men probably are still in the pit.

The scenes at the pit-mouth, where the families of the miners gathered, were most distressing.

The disaster occurred 2,300 feet under ground and is one and one-quarter miles from the floor shaft. It is the greatest mine catastrophe ever known in the Saar region.

At a late hour last night it was still uncertain how many workmen still were in the mine, the reports being divergent. The entrance to the gallery underground is blocked with dead horses.

Heartrending Scenes.

Heart-rending scenes are witnessed among the thousands of persons, mostly members of the families of the miners, who are gathered about the mouth of the shaft. Most of the bodies brought to the surface are mangled beyond recognition.

The mine inspectors last evening ordered the rescuers to return to their homes, but to hold themselves in readiness for further orders.

Emperor William has ordered that a full report of the disaster be sent to him.

Experts calculate that the rescue work will take one week.

Three Dead In French Explosion.

Lens, France, Jan. 29.—An explosion occurred in a coal mine at Lievin, in the Courrieres district, due to an explosion of fire-damp in one of the pits.

It is believed that the only victims were the chief engineer and his two assistants.

A panic followed the explosion and most of the population of the town rushed to the mouths of the pits, preventing the work of the rescue until the gendarmie restored order.

Of the 812 miners who descended into the pits 680 had been rescued at 2 p. m. and the rest were ascertained to be safe. A declaration to this effect has been posted. The crowd, however, continues to show excitement, and when this poster was read there were cries of "They said the same thing at Courrieres."

Big Fire In Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—With the thermometer between 30 and 40 below zero, the firemen last night had a most trying task on their hands fighting a fire at 143 Bannatyne street, in a big warehouse owned by Bright & Johnson. Only the charred walls remain. The fire broke out in the flat rented by the Pulford Leonard Drug Co., and their loss is $60,000. J. D. King Co. of Toronto, William Patterson, Sons & Co.; Rattray, Cameron & Co.; Lyon, Taylor & Co., and Copeland-Chatterson Co. of Toronto were the other losers. The total loss will be about $250,000. The building was valued at $40,000.

A Dangerous Lunatic.

North Bay, Jan. 29.—J. McKee, a young man about twenty-five years of age, was arrested as a lunatic yesterday afternoon. While being searched at police headquarters by P. C. Lefebre, a revolver was found concealed in his boot top. One of Lefebre's fingers was shattered by a bullet while wrestling with the prisoner. The latter's hand was also damaged. McKee was taken to Brockville Asylum last night.

Salt Agency Discontinued.

Sarnia, Jan. 29.—The Dominion Salt Agency of London, Ont., which was organized two years ago, will be discontinued. The Dominion Salt Agency has been marketing over 90 per cent. of the salt made annually in Canada. The dissolution is due to the fact that no benefits have been derived by selling through an agency.

Disastrous Fire At Caron.

Caron, Sask., Jan. 29.—A disastrous fire broke out in Stewart and Brown's general store last night. This building and contents, The Enterprise Printing Co., and the building of the Caron Drug and Stationery Co., Limited, and Beresford Sproule, butcher, were burned to the ground. The loss exceeds $20,000.

$750,000 Fire Loss.

New York, Jan. 29.—Loss roughly estimated at three quarters of a million dollars resulted from a fire which started just before midnight and burned out the garage of the New York Transportation Co. at Eighth avenue and Ninety-ninth street. Over one hundred automobiles were ruined.

Fast Line to Labrador.

London, Jan. 29.—(C. A. P.)—A Newfoundland correspondent of The Evening Globe says an English promoter has signed contracts for steamers for a proposed fast line between Galway or Berehaven and some point on the east coast of Labrador.

4,000,000 "CHINKS" ARE STARVING

6,000,000 More Chinese Are Affected By the Famine.

PARENTS SELLING CHILDREN

Daily Offer Their Little Ones at From $2 to $4 Each—500,000 Refugees Huddled In Mat Sheds at Tsingkiangpu — Brigandage Is Rife Everywhere — Provinces on the Verge of Revolt.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Mail reports from American consular officers in China, which reached the State Department yesterday regarding the famine and the resulting conditions, still further confirm the stories of suffering and hardship among the people in the districts affected.

Consul Haynes at Nanking says that the famine is ten times worse than anything known in that part of the empire for the past 40 years. The Chinese officials, he says, upon information given him by the viceroy, admit their inability to cope with the situation. The Government is trying to help the starving people to keep their cattle, and to this end is taking their oxen and buffaloes in pawn for two taels each, keeping them thus until next spring, when it will return them.

Humane For Quid Pro Quo.

Consul-General Haynes declares that whatever aid may be extended by this Government in the present crisis will certainly do much to dispel the ill-feeling recently aroused by the boycott, the Exclusion Act, etc.

Consul-General Rodgers at Shanghai says an enquiry which he has made through private sources affords the general conclusions that the famine will, by March 1, be regarded as severe and perhaps more so than that of 1878, by which it is thought 10,000,000 lives were lost.

The report of Mr. Rodgers is accompanied by a statement by Dr. Henry M. Woods of the Southern Presbyterian Mission at Hwaianfu, who estimates that 10,000,000 are affected by the famine, four millions of whom are starving. He says that at present more than 500,000 refugees are at Tsingkiangpu huddled in mat sheds, and that the pitiful sight is daily witnessed of parents offering their children for sale at from $2 to $4 each. Brigandage and robbery, he adds, are everywhere rife.

Border On Actual Rebellion.

Mr. Rodgers declares that the influence of the famine conditions upon current affairs can now be plainly seen in the unrest and discontent of the people. From many places, he says, comes news of riots of greater or less degree, while in Ksangsi, a state bordering on actual rebellion, is on. So serious has the situation become that a goodly portion of the available military force is now in the field.

Mr. Rodgers concludes: "My deliberate opinion is that the next few months will see the development of dangerous things in this part of China, and that such conditions and circumstances will have a great effect upon foreign interests, political as well as commercial."

"China's new year, which, luckily, falls late this year, being in the second week of February, is watched with no small degree of uneasiness."

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PROVINCES

Claims of Prince Edward Island Presented In House.

CHANGE OF ACT PROPOSED

Number of Representatives at Confederation to Be Minimum—Sir Wilfrid Laurier Hopes That Growth of Maritime Provinces May Soon Restore Them to Former Position—Aylesworth's Argument.

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—A resolution was submitted to the House yesterday by Mr. Hughes (Prince Edward Island), praying for an amendment to the British North America act, providing that the Maritime Provinces, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, shall not at any time have fewer representatives in the House of Commons than the number that was assigned to each when it entered confederation.

An interesting debate followed, which was, after the House divided upon the question, adjourned until some future date.

Giving Some Concern.

The situation which has developed in the working out of the terms of confederation is one which is giving the people of the Provinces on the Atlantic coast some concern. The Maritime Provinces have in recent years fallen somewhat behind the phenomenal development and growth of population of the other Provinces in confederation. The rapid increase of population in Quebec, which has a fixed representation in the Commons, has raised the unit of population, and as the Maritime Provinces have not kept pace in regard to population with the pivotal Province of confederation and the other Provinces, the number of representatives which they send has been diminishing instead of increasing.

Strictly Judicial.

Mr. Aylesworth, while sympathizing with the aspirations of Prince Edward Island, gave a strictly judicial interpretation to the agreements under which the three Provinces named in the resolution entered confederation, and held that they had been given the full representation to which under the pact entered into they were entitled. The loss of one or two members was not, he contended, sufficient ground upon which to appeal for an amendment to the B. N. A. act.

The Premier's View.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a speech which was cordially received by both sides of the House, contended that the principle upon which confederation was formed was undoubtedly that of representation by population, and after forty years of experience everyone would agree that the principle must be maintained. At the same time no one would wish to carry the principle to the extreme of committing an injustice to any member of confederation. Although the Maritime Provinces had fallen behind a little in the race, he had confidence they would regain the lost ground in the near future. At all events, he was satisfied the other Provinces could be relied upon to deal fairly with them, and no ground had been shown for the serious step of seeking at this stage an amendment to the terms of confederation.

BIG BUSINESS IN YOUNG HANDS

New Officers of Peterborough Hardware Company Young Men Who Have Demonstrated Their Business Ability

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE

Peterborough furnishes many evidences of the truth of the statement that this is the age of the young man in business. It is doubtful if in Eastern Canada there is a city of a size approaching that of Peterborough in which there is such a large proportion of the business men and heads of mercantile and commercial institutions still in young manhood.

A Young Man's Business

Perhaps one of the most striking of the successes of business establishments managed by young men is that of the Peterborough Hardware Company, Limited, in the ownership of which a change has recently been made. This business is the largest of its kind between Montreal and Toronto, and, indeed there are few concerns in either of these cities that do the volume of business which this concern does.

A Good Record

The excellent business built up by this company is largely the result of the work of the young men who have been associated with it during the past. Since Mr. W. Eastwood, who is now retiring from the Company, became the managing director the volume of business has grown greatly, each year showing an improvement over its predecessor, until it has reached its present splendid proportions. With Mr. Eastwood in the business have been associated for a number of years three young men who are now taking over the active management and control of the business, as a result of Mr. Eastwood's retirement.

The New Officers

While Mr. Eastwood will retain the office of President, and will lend his name to the company to this extent, he has disposed of his financial interest in it, and will leave the management to the new officers, the reorganization of the Company having been effected with the following officers:—

Managing Director—M. Comstock.
Vice-President—H. Morgan.
Sec.-Treasurer—C M Blewett.

Mr. M. Comstock

All of these young men have been associated with the business for a number of years, and are all thoroughly familiar with their respective branches of it. Mr. Comstock has been with the Company for eleven years, and has thoroughly acquainted himself with the practical end of the hardware business. He understands the particular business of which he is now the Managing Director as well as it is possible for one man to familiarize himself with any business, and there will be no doubt in the mind of anyone as to his ability to successfully fill the responsibility to which the directors and his fellow associates have elected him. Mr. Comstock has been a director for the last two years, and assumes the managing directorship with the full assurance on the part of those who know his capabilities that he will make a success of it. He is a Peterborough boy, a son of Mr. Aaron Comstock, and besides being a capable business man is popular, socially. He holds a commission as Lieutenant in the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers.

Mr. H. Morgan

Mr. Harry Morgan, who now assumes the office of Vice-President, and who will be associated with Mr. Comstock, in the active management of the business is also a young man, and one who is known to the great majority of the people of the city. In the seven years during which he has been with the Company of which he now assumes the vice-presidency he has demonstrated that he is a hardware man of experience, his knowledge of the business extending into all its branches. Evidence of the truth of this statement has been furnished those who have had dealings with him. At the time of the re-organization of the company, following the death of Mr. R. B. McKee, Mr. Morgan was placed on the directorate two years ago, and his course, both as an employee of the firm and in the more responsible connection, as a director has been such as to warrant the confidence in his ability as a result of which he is now given the office of vice-president. an office which he will most assuredly fill with acceptance and success.

Mr. Morgan is also a Peterborough boy, and one who has demonstrated that it is not necessary for a young man to leave his native town to have his ability recognized, and his industry rewarded. He is very popular with his business asso-

BRANTFORD LOOKS GOOD TO MR. SMALL

He and Mr. Bradburn Were in That City Recently Looking for Available Site for New Opera House

MAY SPEND ABOUT $50,000 THERE

The Brantford Courier of yesterday said:

Mr. A. J. Small, the well known theatrical manager of the Grand and Majestic theatres, Toronto, and the Canadian representative of one of the big American theatrical trusts, was in the city on Saturday, and in company with Mr. R. H. Bradburn, the manager of the Peterborough theatre, spent several hours in looking over available sites for a proposed new theatre in Brantford.

Mr. Small has for some years been of the opinion that this city could support a new and larger theatre, and it is understood that he and his friends will be willing to assume a fair share of the cost. It is thought that a suitable site can be secured and a first class up-to-date theatre erected for about $50,000.

Mr. Small left on an afternoon train for Toronto. To a Courier representative he declined to give out any definite statement as to the result of his visit. He reiterated his belief, however, that a rich city like Brantford, with a population of 20,000, was admirably situated and able to support a first class theatre in every particular and that before the advent of another season he looked to see the scheme successfully launched.

Mr. Small is one of the most successful theatre managers on the continent and has any amount of financial backing. He controls the majority of theatres and their bookings in Canada.

In the recent Christmas examinations at the Ontario Law School the results of which are now published, H. S. Wood, eldest son of Mr. R. E. Wood, passed with honours in his first year, taking over 75 per cent. of marks in the subjects. Mr. Wood is to be congratulated upon his brilliant commencement upon his legal career. Mr. Basil Hall son of Mr. E. H. D. Hall, also of this city, was also successful in his first year's examinations, these two young Peterborough boys making good records.

DEATH CAUSED BY SWALLOWING HIS BRAINS, IS VERDICT

Examiner Special.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 29.—"Death from swallowing his own brains" was the verdic rendered yesterday at the inquest over the body of George E. Thomas, an Illinois Central brakeman, who was injured by falling into some pumping machinery.

The base of Thomas' skull was broken in such a way that the man's brains oozed down into his throat and he swallowed them. After repeating the swallowing at intervals, for several hours, during which nearly all his brains had oozed through the aperture in the skull, Thomas died.

MACCABEES TO HOLD BIG CONVENTION TO-MORROW

Important Questions will be Discussed by Half a Hundred Delegates

A GRAND BANQUET TO-MORROW NIGHT

The District Convention of Knights of the Maccabees opens in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street to-morrow morning at 10 o'cock. The important question to come up for discussion will be the proposal to constitute a Provincial Supreme Office in Ontario, at which the business in Ontario will be transacted instead of having it done in Port Huron, U.S.A. The question of an annual Provincial convention instead of one every three years will also be on the list for consideration and delegates will be appointed to attend the Provincial Convention which will be held in Brantford next March.

There will be two sessions to-morrow, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. In the evening a grand banquet will be held in the Foresters' Hall at which Mr. Joseph Jenkin, Assistant Supreme Commander, representing the Supreme Camp, will deliver an address. Mr. E. W. Trussler, of Camlachie, Prov. Com.; Mr. C. A. Yule, District Deputy, of Colbourne, and also a number of other Provincial officers will be present. Mr. Walter Trussler, of Camlachie will assist in the programme with solos. Some local talent has also been secured.

Every member of the Peterborough Tent is especially requested to be present at the Convention if possible, and if not, at the banquet to-morrow night, to meet the Supreme officers.

A special meeting of the local K. O.T.M. will be held to-night in the Foresters' Hall, George street, when a large number of initiations will be made.

A PLEASANT EVENING IN NORTH MONAGHAN

Miss Ina Spilsbury's Birthday Was Celebrated

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Spilsbury was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Thursday evening, January 24th, in honour of their daughter, Miss Ina G. Spilsbury, when they celebrated her birthday. A jolly sleigh load of young people drove out from town and were entertained with games, music and dancing.

A most elaborate supper was served by the hostess and all returned home in the morning very highly pleased with the night's enjoyment, as it was quite the jolliest party ever held in North Monaghan.

DIED SUDDENLY AT WORK IN THE BUSH

One of the Best Known Residents of the County Died Yesterday in Smith Township in Person of Thos. Heard

HEART FAILURE WAS THE CAUSE

Yesterday afternoon a very sudden death occurred under peculiarly distressing circumstances in Smith township, on the farm of Mr. William Linster, the victim being Mr. Thomas Heard, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the County. Mr. Heard, who lives with his son, W. A., in Ennismore yesterday went across the lake into Smith township to help Mr. Linster with some work in the bush, and was apparently feeling in the best of health. During the afternoon he and Mr. Linster were cutting a piece of timber, and the latter noticed Mr. Heard, as he thought, looking under the log, but upon going closer he saw that he was dead. A physician was called at once, and investigation proved that death was due to heart failure.

The deceased was 68 years of age, and had never been sick in his life to require the services of a doctor. He had been a singularly rugged man, and a hard worker. The late Mr. Heard was born in the township of Hope, and lived in that township until about twenty-five years ago, when he removed to this county and had lived here ever since, in Smith for a number of years and later removing to Ennismore, where he lived until the time of his death. He was a son of the late John Heard, whose death occurred six years ago at the advanced age of 82 years. Mr. Heard leaves two sons and one daughter the sons being R. C. of Bridgenorth and W. A., of Ennismore, and the daughter, Mrs. Killenbeck, of Peterborough. One brother, Richard, of Swinton Park, Bruce County and five sisters, Mrs. Geo. Kinsman, and Mrs. Richard Kinsman, of Hamilton township; Mrs. Jos. Peacock, Aurora; Mrs. Wm. Scott and Mrs. Jas. Kinsman, of Swinton Park, also survive him. His brother has just returned home after having spent some time visiting the deceased, and while he was here, together they visited a number of their friends in this and other counties. Mrs. Heard died about nineteen years ago.

The fnuefal will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his son, R. C. Heard, Bridgenorth, to the Bridgenorth Cemetery.

INSANITY SHOWS GREAT INCREASE

New York State Commission Reports That There Were More Than 5,000 Cases in That State in 1906—No Less Than 28,302 Insane in State Last Year

A VERY ALARMING INCREASE

Special to The Examiner.

Albany, Jan. 29.—A steady increase of insanity in this state is reported by the state commission in lunacy in its eighteenth annual report made public to-night. The net increase for the past year of cases in all institutions was 895. In the state hospitals alone it was 839. The whole number of new cases developed during the year was 5,761, slightly more than during the preceding year. The total of insane in all institutions at the close of the year was 28,302, of whom 960 were classed as criminals, 1,468 were discharged as recovered, 1,142 improved sufficiently to permit them to live permanently in the community, and 74 temporarily insane were discharged.

WAS DOUBLE SUICIDE

With Arms Entwined They Allowed Trrain to Run Them Down on Pennsylvania Electric Railway

NO IDENTIFICATION AS YET

Special to The Examiner

Campden, N. J., Jan. 29.—With arms entwined, an unknown young man and a young woman stood on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Electric Railroad, over Newton Creek, early yesterday, and waited until an electric train ran them down. Both were killed and their bodies were hurled into the water. The motorman of the train, Brulien by name, saw the pair but not until he was close upon them. He blew the whistle, but the couple made no move to escape, and the motorman could not get the train under control until he struck them. The body of the young woman, who was about twenty-five years old, was recovered and brought to the morgue here. The clothing was of fine texture, and she was of fine appearance. The only mark that may lead to identification is the letters "W. C." on a gold watch found on the body. The body of the man has not yet been recovered.

The couple had not been seen by anyone in the neighbourhood of where they were killed, and the authorities have not been able to trace them prior to the moment they appeared before Brulien on the bridge.

Brulien is not able to give a description of the man. The woman had blonde hair and was quite pretty. On the left hand was a plain ring. She wore a dark red velvet hat with ostrich plumes, and a dark red plaid dress.

BOARD OF WORKS WILL MEET TO-MORROW NIGHT

The Board of Works of the City Council will meet to-morrow night when it is expected that considerable business will be transacted. With two meetings a week assured and the probability of others the aldermen will have no easy time for the next few months at any rate.

MR. F. L. SOMERVILLE RESIGNED

Chief Engineer of Grand Trunk, well Known in This City Leaves the Employ of That Company

A London despatch to the Examiner to-day says:

Mr. F. L. Somerville, who has been for some time chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway system, with offices in Toronto, has resigned. Mr. Somerville is well known through his connections with the improvements made by the company between London and Hyde Park. He is a man of very wide experience and his resignation at this time comes as a very great surprise.

Mr. Somerville's successor has not yet been appointed.

Mr. Somerville is quite well known in this city, where he formerly resided, and where his ability as an engineer is recognized. Before going with the Grand Trunk Mr. Somerville was on the staff of the Trent Canal.

BRANDED THE CHILDREN

Inhuman Act of a Grandmother Who Punished Children Because They Annoyed Her While Playing

WILL CARRY SCARS TO GRAVE

Special to The Examiner.

New York, Jan. 29.—Two little children, Nellie, aged seven years, and Jennie, two years younger, told Magistrate House, in Harlem Police Court, how their stepmother, Mrs. Kate Gravius, had branded them with a red hot stove lifter because in playing they made too much noise. Twice during the recital, the prisoner, a woman of intelligent and pleasing appearance, not more than twenty years of age, fainted. When restored she admitted that she had burned the children, but said that at the time she was possessed by an unaccountable mania. The two girls, she said, had been playing with their dolls until the noise and confusion robbed her of her reason. Seizing the stove lid lifter she pressed the glowing red on the back of the right hand of each child, causing scars that the little ones will carry to the grave. The case was continued.

WEIGHT OF LOAD OF HAY BROKE ALL RECORDS

The heaviest load of hay in the history of the local market was weighed there yesterday afternoon by market clerk Lee. The load tipped the scales at 5,350 lbs.—that is 2 tons and 1,350 lbs.—which is almost equal to any three ordinary loads. The hay was brought to market by Jas. Northey, of Smith township and sold to Geo. White, who lives a short distance beyond Jackson Park. So far as is known the annals of market history fail to unearth the fact that a heavier load of hay has never been weighed here than that which was sold yesterday.

O.H.A. WILL CONSIDER CHARGES ON THURSDAY

Players Named Will be Cited to Attend the Meeting

A meeting of the Ontario Hockey Association Executive has been called for Thursday night to act on the statement received from Secretary N. E. Irving, of the Guelph club, to consider the Copper Cliff-North Bay protest over a disputed goal, and for other business.

Mr. Irving's statement is not one embodying charges in very definite form, except some cases said to have occurred some years ago in the defunct Western Ontario Hockey Association, and the likewise defunct Niagara League. The bulk of the communication is made up of guesses, surmises and conjectures, without definite information, but it is sufficient for the association to take cognisance of, and the players named in it, with Mr. Irving, will be cited to attend Thursday's meeting.

President Darroch said last night that he had instructed Acting Secretary Fitzgerald to write the Guelph Club, thanking them for their information, and assuring them that the matter would be gone into thoroughly. There was no intention or desire to retain any player or club in the association that was not entitled to its privileges, and all the players and clubs against whom anything could be established would receive the same treatment as Guelph. The matteer would receive the earnest attention of the association, and if anybody else had any information of value it would be welcomed.

INTERESTING LECTURE AT ST. JOHN'S Y.P.A.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun Gave His Lecture on "Jean Valjean" Last Night

Last night St. John's A. Y. P. A. held an open meeting which was attended by a fairly large crowd of the young people of the congregation, who, no doubt, were chiefly attracted by the announcement which had been made to the effect that Mr. R. M. Dennistoun would deliver his most popular and entertaining address entitled "Jean Valjean".

The rector, Canon Davidson, had been asked to take the chair and accordingly opened the programme. The lecture was preceded by a most enjoyable instrumental duet by Miss Margaret English and Mr. R. J. Dewey, which was heartily applauded.

Mr. Dennistoun then "took the stand" and for about an hour held the attention of the deeply interested audience, while he depicted in his masterly and impressive manner the life of the much tortured but ever Christlike Jean Valjean as he interpreted it from Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables".

At the conclusion of the lecture a vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. R. J. Dewey, and seconded by Mr. Jos Haipany, which was most enthusiastically carried. Mr. Dennistoun acknowledged the appreciation of the audience and urged all the young people present to interest themselves in the work of the church.

A quartette composed of Mrs. Seward, Mrs. Dewey, Mr. Chandler and Mr. Haipany then rendered an exceedingly beautiful arrangement of "Lead Kindly Light."

After the president of the A.Y.P.A. had invited everybody present to attend the regular meetings of the association, which are held on alternate Monday evenings, the programme was concluded by the singing of the National Anthem.

Next Monday evening will be the regularly scheduled Dramatic evening and an amusing programme is being prepared by the Dramatic Committee of which Mr. M. H. Drysdale is convenor.

Where He Stood Out.

One day at a dinner party, Thomas Raikes tells us in his diary, John Wilson Croker, who was nothing if not dogmatic, flatly contradicted the old Duke of Wellington about some incident in the Waterloo campaign. The duke gave up the point courteously. Shortly after the discussion fell upon percussion caps, and Croker again flatly contradicted the hero of Waterloo. "My dear Croker," said the duke, "I can yield to your superior information on most points, and you may perhaps know a great deal more of what passed at Waterloo than myself, but as a sportsman I will maintain my point about the percussion caps."

ONTARIO FINANCES

Every resident of Ontario rejoices that the finances of the province are in so thrifty a condition—with an ever-flowing treasury. The government of the day is not to be blamed for exultation over the matter. But the government deserves little credit for all this. It is due to the splendid management of our finances by Liberal governments and to their foresight. No small part of the increased revenue comes from Succession Dues which the Conservatives opposed or at least, denounced as an oppressive measure, and demanded a reduction of half the duty imposed. Another great slice of the improved revenue comes from the district known as New Ontario. The present government deserves little credit for this. The Ross Government's proposal to explore New Ontario, which now is yielding wealth in fabulous quantity, was scouted in good set terms as mere show and waste of public money, as the country was not worth the expenditure. Hon. Mr. Whitney, went so far in a speesch in Massey Hall as to declare the value of New Ontario to be represented by the title he contemptuously bestowed upon it on that occasion—"The Land of the Stunted Poplar." If the Ross Government had not led the way in building the Temiscamingue Railway, the immense wealth of the region it traverses and taps, would not now be available. The increase of Dominion subsidy, representing an enlarged revenue of about $800,000 is not entirely due to the brilliant financial administration of the Whitney Government. We have to go back of the present government to get at the true causes of the financial prosperity of Ontario.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

And Mr. Graham, being a journalist enough, the Toronto Star thinks, to make a good leader, seeing he has to write one every day for his newspaper.

Controller Hooken, of Toronto, is trying to make the Street Railway Company "sit up," but what is really wanted is some controller who will make the public sit down—on the cars.

Port Hope is quite ambitious. It modestly demands the southern outlet of the Trent Canal, and now it has formed a club to increase its population to ten thousand. With its ambition and good idea of itself, words cannot picture the attitude of the lakeside town if it could count ten thousand noses. The Port Hope Guides symbol of rejoicing, the crowing chicken, would be worked over time.

The dismissal of Sheriff Gillespie, of Prince Edward county, for alleged offensive partisanship, says the Hamilton Times, places Mr. Whitney in a very bad light again and shows that he has no scruples about violating his solemn pledges. He publicly pledged himself in all such cases to grant full investigation. Now he absolutely refuses it, saying in reply to a request for a chance to defend himself: "He, however, asked for an investigation and was informed that, as the letter to him intimated a decision had been reached when it was written, and he was merely given an opportunity to resign." There spoke the thorough sportsman.

A MAN OF PRIVILEGE

LONDON'S LORD MAYOR A PERSONAGE OF POMP AND POWER.

The First Holder of the High and Mighty Office Was Elected in 1189 and Proved Popular—Dick Whittington and Other Ancient Worthies—How Self-Made Lord Mayor Gave Charles II. a Taste of His Quality.

The most impressive thing about the mayoralty of London is its great antiquity. In Saxon and Norman times London was an independent state, and the chief magistrate—the portreeve, or the bailiff—was an absolute ruler. The first mayor was elected in 1189, and he was so popular that he retained the office for 24 years. The first lord mayor's pageant was in the reign of Henry VIII., and in it he figured as chief butler to Anne Boleyn.

Through the long intervening years the lord mayor has retained many of his prerogatives as a ruler. Most people have no idea how extensive his privileges are.

He has his own chaplain (in olden days, like the monarch, he had his jester, too), and badges of royalty are attached to his office—the scepter, the swords of justice and mercy and the mace. He has right of precedence in the city before all the royal family. Soldiers in any number cannot march through the city without his consent.

He has the right of private audience with the King. He has the privilege of direct entrance without question at royal levees. He can at any time dissolve the city courts, even that of the common council, by removing the sword and mace from the table. He is lord of the river Thames, of the conservancy, and he controls the city purse.

The majesty of his state is pretty considerable too. The city gives him a sum of £10,000 to expend. His palace, the Mansion House, is furnished with plate and ornaments worth £100,000. He has a splendid retinue of servants, including a sword-bearer, mace-bearer and seven trumpeters, whose liveries cost some £1,000 annually. He gives a yearly banquet, which costs thousands of pounds, and employs an army of 150 waiters, cooks and carvers.

Best of all, he has the power to raise vast sums of money for charitable purposes. In the last quarter of a century the lord mayors of London have raised nearly £6,000,000 for the relief of various people in distress.

Another feature which makes the lord mayoralty attractive is its glamour of romance. More often than not the king of the city is a self-made man. Dick Whittington started out as an apprentice, as many other lord mayors have done. The mayor of 1611 came to London in rags in a carrier's cart. The wealthy mayor of 1418 had been a foundling. As recently as 1800 we had a lord mayor of London who began life as a bricklayer's laborer.

When men of this character are exalted to the seats of the mighty they are apt to do freakish things at times.

The laborer mayor instanced above had a son who fell from a high ladder and was killed, and the mayor on being brought to the spot broke through the crowd, exclaiming, "See that the poor fellow's watch is safe!"

Another self-made lord mayor gave Charles II. a taste of his quality. Charles dined with him in the city, and the wine passed so freely that the guests grew noisy and the mayor familiar. Charles therefore stole away to his coach in Guildhall yard, but the bibulous mayor pursued his majesty and, catching him by the hand, cried out, with a monstrous oath, "Sir, you shall stay and tak' t'other bottle!" And the merry monarch actually turned back and saw the fun to a finish.

The temerity of this mayor seems all the more remarkable in view of the Stuart king's tyrannous dealings with the city. He imprisoned twenty of the principal citizens because they refused him a loan on bad security. He fined the mayor and aldermen £6.000 on the pretext of a trifling city riot and £50,000 for pretended mismanagement of estates.

The mayors, themselves, however, could fine readily enough on occasion. For example, his worship of the year 1479 had one of his sheriffs fined £50 (about £1,000 of our money) for kneeling too close to him while at prayers in St. Paul's.

Yet another lord mayor (1832) made an amusing blunder of speech at a dinner to judges and leaders of the Bar. "See before you," he exclaimed magniloquently, "the examples of myself, the chief magistrate of this great empire, and the chief justice of England sitting at my right hand, both now in the highest offices of the state and both sprung from the very dregs of the people!"

These mayoral banquets, by the way, have always been wonderful affairs. In the year of George III.'s marriage there were placed on the tables 414 different dishes, excluding dessert. Forty-five years later (1806) no fewer than seven of this monarch's sons were guests at a mayoral dinner. The Guildhall banquet to the prince regent and the allied sovereigns before the battle of Waterloo was served on plate valued at over £200,000 and cost £25,000.

All this, however, is hardly romance. We must revert to Sir Richard Whittington for that. Sir Richard really did hear the bells of Bow telling him to "turn again," and he did marry his wealthy master's daughter, and he did become thrice lord mayor of London. But, alas, he had no cat!

There is a story of Sir Richard which makes a good foil to the above of the laborer mayor. King Henry V. was dining with him in the city when Sir Richard caused a fire to be lighted of and threw into it bonds to the value of £60,000 given him by the King for money lent, thereby freeing his majesty from debt. The gratified monarch exclaimed, "Surely never had king such a subject!" To which the courtly Whittington replied, "Surely, sire, never had subject such a king!"

Still prettier is the history of Lord Mayor Osborne (1583). Osborne was the apprentice of a mayor who lived on London bridge, and one day he dived into the river and rescued his master's little daughter, who had fallen through a lattice window. Years after the girl was a rich heiress, courted by earls and knights, but her father said to them all, "No, Osborne saved her, and Osborne shall have her." And Osborne, the hero apprentice, did have her and became lord mayor as well. His great-grandson was subsequently created Duke of Leeds.

Such stories read like fiction, but they are perfectly true. The city archives preserve them, with many more.—Keith Hunter in London Express.

PLENTY OF CHALK.

A Block That Was Once as Large as the Continent of Europe.

The small piece of chalk which is in constant use in the schoolroom, the lecture room, the billiard room and the workshop has a strange history, the unraveling of which through all its complexities is one of the most difficult problems with which the science of the present day is called upon to deal. This piece is in reality a chip of an immense block of chalk that once filled an area the size of the continent of Europe and of which even yet several gigantic fragments remain, each hundreds of square miles in extent. These patches are scattered over the region lying between Ireland on the west and China on the east and extend in the other direction from Sweden in the north to Portugal in the south.

In the British Isles the chalk is found in greatest perfection and continuity in the east and southeast of England. A sheet of chalk more than a thousand feet in thickness underlies all that portion of England which is situated to the southeast of a line crossing the island diagonally from the North Sea at Flamborough Head to the coast on the English Channel in Dorset. This enormous sheet of chalk is tilted up slightly on the west, and its depressed eastern portions that dip toward the waters of the North Sea are usually buried from sight by means of overlying sands and clays. Where the edges of the chalk floor come upon the sea the cliff scenery is strikingly grand and beautiful. Any one who has once seen the magnificent rocks of Flamborough and Beachy Head, the jagged stacks of the Needles, or the dizzy mass of Shakespeare's cliff, near Dover, can understand why "the white cliffs of Albion" has grown into a stock phrase.

This massive sheet of chalk appears again in France, in many parts of Europe as far east as the Crimea and even in Central Asia beyond the sea of Aral. How far it stretched westward into what is now the Atlantic may never be known, but chalk cliffs of at least 200 feet in thickness are seen at Antrim, in Ireland, and less conspicuous formations are found in Scotland, in Argyll and Aberdeen. There can be little question that all these now isolated patches were once connected in a continuous sheet, which must therefore have occupied a superficial area about 3,000 miles long by nearly 1,000 broad, an extent larger than that of the present continent of Europe.

Unnecessary Hurry.

You have promised, let us say, to call for a friend at his office, so as to go down into the country together. He is a stockbroker, merchant, what you will. His place of business being ten minutes' walk from the station, you call after business hours, about a quarter of an hour before the train starts. You find him cheerfully doing nothing unless a cigarette counts for work. He absolutely declines to start yet. It is too absurdly early. After five minutes you suggest departure. By no means will he move. It never takes him more than seven minutes at the utmost. Knowing his walking capacities, you doubt, but acquiesce. At last you are off, and halfway to the train he says: "By Jove, old man, we must hurry up. My watch is slow." So you run—ignominiously you run. If luck befriend you, you just catch the moving train, and as you sink perspiring and breathless into your seat he says: "You see, we were in plenty of time. Never missed a train in my life." Plenty of time, indeed! And all this hurry for nothing. If he had been doing anything—had a letter to write or the like—in those wasted eight minutes, you could forgive him, but he hadn't, or at all events he didn't. You mop your brow and, though he is your very good friend, remember with complacency that this "just catching trains leads to many coroner's inquests.—London Saturday Review.

A Lucky Chance.

A family living in Essex County found it something of a strain upon their ideas of hospitality to be obliged every day to entertain a tedious woman of 80. The favorite book or the necessary piece of work had to be put aside in order to shout bits of conversation in her ear.

At last the father, in desperation, planned to go into a sudden fit of temper in the presence of the obnoxious caller in the hope of convincing her that they were not pleasant people to visit.

Accordingly, one evening, when he returned from business and found the old lady present as usual, he began to talk loudly and in an irritated voice. Then, growing more excited he stamped about the room, knocking furniture right and left, and ended by going out and banging the door after him.

The old lady knitted away quietly through the confusion, and when the man was gone she turned to the family, and said in a comforting voice:

"I reckon it was mighty lucky I was here, or you'd had to take it. But you needn't be frightened, I'll stay right here with you till he gets

RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.

All Provinces of Canada Share in Sixty Million Dollar Development—Thousands of Miles of Steel.

The year 1906 will go on record as one of extraordinary expansion in railroad building. Without taking electric roads into account, it is estimated that 3,314 miles of new railway are under construction in Canada, at an approximate cost of 62 millions. The actual construction of these lines will probably cost forty-four millions, the other eighteen millions being spent in equipment.

James J. Hill is building lines in British Columbia in connection with the Great Northern system, aggregating 419 miles, and as he is building in a mountainous country his operations are likely to cost a round ten millions.

The new lines of the Canadian Pacific, including a hundred miles of double tracking between Winnipeg and Fort William, total 850 miles. The 750 miles of extensions will cost fifteen millions, and the increase in rolling stock will amount to eight millions.

The Canadian Northern is building 660 miles of new road at a cost this year of ten millions, and is spending five millions on equipment.

Another five millions for rolling stock will be spent by the Grand Trunk in Ontario. The Grand Trunk Pacific has 990 miles under construction in the west, the expenditure on the work this year totalling six millions. The eastern section of this transcontinental line, which the Dominion Government is building, will cost a million dollars this year, there being under construction 385 miles in two sections.

The expenditure on new track and rolling stock on the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway this year will total up in the neighborhood of two millions.

These great railway strides are not confined to the more recently settled parts of Canada. Ontario has a generous share and the Eastern Provinces have not been forgotten. Half a century ago they were less than 60 miles of railway in British America.

Canadian Artist Abroad.

One of the best known of Canadian artists is Mr. Henry Sandham, who, although he has lived for the past six years in England, and previous to that for some time in Boston, is still proud to call himself a son of Canada. Mr. Sandham was born at Montreal in 1842. From his earliest years he was fond of drawing, and did such excellent work in the studio of the late William Notman that he was given a partnership in the firm. His first artistic tuition was received from Mr. J. A. Fraser, who has since won distinction as an original painter. Vogt, Way and Jacobi also gave personal instruction, and all joined in advising the young man to pursue his studies in Europe. He took their advice, and spent some time in study, returning to Canada in 1880, when he was chosen as one of the eight charter members of the Royal Canadian Academy. In Boston, where he settled, he quickly won a reputation as one of the foremost artists on the continent, became widely known as a magazine illustrator. His sketches in The Century representing Canadian sport are still remembered.

Mr. Sandham's most famous work is the historical piece, "The Dawn of Liberty," or "The Battle of Lexington." This occupied his time for four years, and is a model of care and exactness in detail. In Canada Mr. Sandham's best known painting is the portrait of Sir John A. Macdonald which hangs in the Senate Chamber at Ottawa, and which has been pronounced the best likeness existing of the famous statesman. But this versatile artist does not confine himself to historic pieces and portrait-painting. He is at home in almost any line, and has done excellent work in landscape painting, in oil and color, in etching, and in black and white illustrating. At present he has paintings on exhibition at several of the leading centres in Britain.

WRITERS IN DEFENCE OF THE WOMEN'S SIDE OF THE CASE

Another Batch of Letters Answering the Question "Why Do Men Over 25 Years of Age Not Marry?"--Some Unique Answers Given

Writers Hold the Opinion That Men Are to Blame for the Present Condition of Affairs--They Expect Too Much of Their Wives

Ladies Write in Their Own Behalf Now --The Poet Again Enters Controversy, This Time in Defence of the Women's Side

There seems to be a great source of poetic inspiration in the marriage question. On Saturday the Examiner published a poem written by some young bachelors, and yesterday another poetic contribution was received and is published to-day. The letters are still coming in, and the question of matrimony appears to be one of peculiar interest to the readers of this paper. In order to set the minds of a number of persons at rest, as to the authorship of the letters which have been published in these columns on this question, The Examiner wishes to state that they are all bona fide letters, none of them being written in this office, everyone having been received from readers of this paper. The staff of this paper has remained religiously out of the controversy, leaving it to the public to fight it out for themselves.

There has been no dearth of letters, and even after the publication of those to-day there are others for which a place has not yet been found. They will, however, be published in due course. By the way, it may be mentioned that letters are growing too long. Letters hereafter to ensure consideration must be short and to the point.

POET COMES TO THE DEFENCE OF THE MISJUDGED GIRLS

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Mr. Editor,—This marriage question has been interesting me and I have enjoyed the letters that have been written by some of our bachelors.

I think that they have been a little hard on our fair sex and that some of the bachelors have formed very poor opinions about the girls. I do not know what has made them so narrow-minded and so prejudiced against them. They certainly have not given us any good reasons to warrant such an estimation.

One friend tells us they won't do housework. Another takes exception on account of their attending the opera, and still another says the present generation is too extravagant. I think what the majority of the bachelors, who have contributed to these columns, wants is not a wife but a housekeeper—a slave who will cook his meals, split the wood, carry in the coal, while he goes to the lodge or opera or else sits in the easy chair enjoying his cigar and evening paper.

Man must be getting exceedingly selfish when he gives such foolish reasons for not marrying. There must be a terrible lack of love and sympathy amongst such men. I would pity the girl that would marry such a man, she would be a thousand times better off single, for she could work and receive her pay, when, if she was married to one of these men, she would receive nothing but abuse.

I think that the "Steady Reader" of the Examiner" must have lived before Abraham Lincoln, for he would like to have the girls all placed on the market and figured up on a cash basis, and knocked down to the highest bidder. I don't think he recognizes woman as his equal. He doesn't realize what he would be asking for if he proposed to marry some sensible girl.

These verses will express my sentiments:

Do you know you have asked for the costliest thing
Ever made by the hand above—
A woman's heart and a woman's life,
And a woman's wonderful love?

Do you know you have asked for this priceless thing
As a child might ask for a toy,
Demanding what others have died to win
With the reckless dash of a boy?

You have written my lesson of duty out—
Man-like you have questioned me—
Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul
While I shall question thee.

You require your mutton shall always be hot,
Your socks and your shirts be whole;
I require your heart to be true as God's stars,
And as pure as is heaven your soul.

You require a cook for your mutton and beef
I require a much greater thing,
A seamstress you're wanting for your socks and shirts;
I for a man and a king.

A king for the beautiful realm called Home
And a man that his maker God,
Shall look upon as He did the first,
And say, "It is very good!"

I am fair and young, but the rose will fade,
From my soft young cheek some day;
Will you love me then, 'mid the falling leaves
As you did 'mid the blossoms of May.

Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep
I may launch my all on its tide?
A loving woman finds heaven or hell
The day she becomes a bride.

Require all things that are grand and true
All things that a man should be;
If you give all this, I would stake my life
To be all you demand of me.

If you cannot be this, a laundress and cook,
You can hire and little to pay
But a woman's heart and a woman's life
Are not to be won that way.

I hope that some of my bachelor friends will profit by this and be less selfish. Maybe they will find the good points and not the weaknesses of their fair friends. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I remain

LAST ROSE OF SUMMER.

THINK A WOMAN'S PLACE IN THE KITCHEN WITH THE DRUDGERY

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I am getting real interested in the matrimonial question so with your kind permission, I think I shall express my opinion. First of all, the young men who have been writing to the Examiner are all too much of the same mind, they write the same, and all have the one complaint, viz: that the girls of to-day do not know enough about housework. In a past letter one of the "Fair Sex" told these young men, what they wanted was a housekeeper, not a wife, and if they would put an ad. in any newspaper they would get one. I am of the same opinion, these young men do not know the real meaning of wife. In one of Saturday's letters signed "Stewart Street" there were some pretty hard things said to the girls, for one thing they were humbugs. Still that young man may have sisters and he would be mighty sore if any one should call one of his sisters a humbug. There, too, he thinks the young men would rarely have have a good time, if they waited for the girls to give it, well "Stewart St." is wrong there; girls can and do give the young men many a good evening's enjoyment. It is the man's place to give the girl a good time, but there are a few young men like Stewart St. who are afraid to spend a few dollars on a girl. Well the girls don't want to have anything to do with such young men.

Now the young men in this town that been writing, all seem to want the girls that work. Is there no young man in Peterborough that can keep a servant for his wife? Or do they all want to make a slave out of her. A man's wife should be his best friend and constant companion. The greatest and most learned men, even kings asked advice from their wives before anyone else. In time of great war many a king had as his councillor, his wife. Take for instance, Friedrick Wilhelm III., of Prussia, it was to his wife Louise, that the Prussian king would send his first messages, and it was the wife of the Prussian king went to Napoleon and begged him to be generous to Prussia. Now if kings and great men looked on their wives as councillors. Why have the young men in everyday life such a different opinion and think their wives should do nothing but housework. We have prominent man to-day who would rather talk over their business and financial matters with their wives than with men. These are the men that succeed. The young men in Peterborough seem to be too narrow minded, they think a wife's position, is in the kitchen drudging from one end of the week to the other. Be a little more broad-minded young men, don't look for the girl that can only make bread and scrub, — look for the girl that can give you advice in your business. Bring your wife to the front, and you will see what position a woman holds. Remember "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world". "Now about the amusements. For my part I would want to go to see all the good operas and dramas and hockey matches that came to town. I feel I could go to the theatre and attend to my religion just as well as those that never go, and there are a great many girls like me. Every man should take his wife to the theatre and other places of amusement if she cares to go, the men will go anyway, so why can't the married ones take their wives. I'll tell you right here any time my husband (?) goes. I'll be right there. In Saturday's paper "A Christian Young Man" does not think it proper for a young lady to go to the theatre, unless the play is religious. Just imagine!!! He certainly is a Christian. He should be out in the Mission Fields of China. I would like to meet that very Christian-like young man. A few minutes would do me. No doubt that same young man will go and sit for a couple of hours every evening in some young lady's parlour, and before he goes he will not refuse the refreshments she offers him, But oh, my, he is afraid to spend a couple of dollars on a theatre ticket. Then his excuse for not taking his lady friend to the theatre although he goes himself, is, it is not the proper place for a young lady. That Christian young man is a "poor one."

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space and hoping the young men of Peterborough get over their bad habit of always wanting the girls to work, work, work, I am

Yours truly,
"ENGAGED".

MEN SHOULD TAKE A DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSE, SAYS ONE

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I have been reading the letters that have been sent to your paper on the marriage question.

I have been studying them very closely, and it seems to me that the chief reason why the young men over twenty-five do not marry is because they cannot get girls who know how to keep house. I think, since these young men are so hard to suit on this line, that it would be a good idea if some of them instead of wasting so much time on the street corner, would take a course in domestic science. They would then be placed in a position to help their young wives instead of grumbling and finding fault.

One young man seems very much afraid if he should get married that his wife would burn his porridge. I trust if this young man went out to dinner and the meat was slightly burnt he would never think of saying anything about it. But! because it was his wife! Yes his wife! he must scold about it. But if the wife cooks the meals real nice the husband would eat it and never so much as says its nice. O! no! he never noticed that.

Then another reason offered: The girls walk the streets too much. If they can beat the young men I must be asleep. But, of course, that is all right for the men to go out. The wife can stay in week in and week out, and her husband never thinks she ought to go out. The girls have as much right to the sidewalk as the young men. Another young man wants a girl who will put the mother in the easy chair while she does the work. He thinks a girl will treat her husband just as she treats her mother. I should judge from what that young man states, that he wants a wife who will put him in the easy chair while she does the work. He will amuse himself smoking and dreaming himself in bliss while his wife is

If this man does not smoke, perhaps he would like to amuse himself (while his wife is busy), by whistling the air of this little song. If he will say so through the columns of this paper I will send the music to him.

A young man who spends all he makes on a girl would not make a good husband, for a girl who is a good housekeeper. Other young men thinks girls too extravagant. I wander where they draw the line.

A young man should not think of marrying until he can furnish a home. Some one said the young men had to do it all. Almost every girl is willing to do her part, but if she is inclined to be industrious she will have the most of it to do, or else the furniture has to be got on payments.

I think if the young men of to-day would study to make themselves fit for a wife instead of looking up all their faults you would find the young woman would set to work to think more seriously about housekeeping.

MINNEHAHA.

FACTORY GIRLS ARE DEFENDED; CREDIT TO PARENTS

To the Editor of the Examiner,

Dear Sir, — Kindly allow me to express my opinion on the subject which is so interesting to a great number of your paper readers, and scribers.

"Why do young men over 25 not marry?" Because they have not met the right one yet; or, perhaps, perhaps, because their means are not large enough to allow them; and I think those sufficient to excuse any honest young man who would wish to use a young lady as a gentleman would. Many a young man would if he could, for the sole excuse to say he is married, but a man who will consider the matter seriously and knows his means will not allow him to marry, and therefore does not marry, is "A wise man." But as for the girls, not being qualified for housekeepers, that is all bosh, for a girl is never too old to learn. And as for running down the factory girls, I say "Shame!" on anyone who would do it. I admire a girl who is willing to work, even in a factory, for small wages, rather than gad the streets, or sit with her arms folded, for she is a credit to her relatives and parents. I say "God bless her!" for she will always be depended on. As for amusements which have been spoken of, the girls should have some, for "All work and no play makes dull boys"—and girls. So now, girls go on and help father and mother as best you can, and do not heed those who would run you down, for they are alone to blame if the truth were only known.

Yours very truly,
C. B. A.

"WEAK-KNEED" AND "BEFUDDLED" ARE THE MEN, SAYS THIS GIRL

Editor Examiner—

It seems to me that many of the young men who have expressed their opinions on the question of marrying, in your paper, are weak in the knees and badly "befuddled."

In the first place, they don't seem to realize that this is an age of independent thought and action, and that no sensible girl wishes to become either the slave or wall flower of any man.

We, the sensible girls, think marriage a contract entered into for the mutual benefit of husband and wife. Any young man who does not think that it would be a pleasure to him to forsake his erring ways simply for his own good and the pleasure such a course would afford his wife, should not think of marrying; and any young woman who is too crazy on the subject of dress and too indolent to perform useful tasks, and who would not deem it a supreme pleasure to make home the most attractive place her husband could find, has no right to think of marrying.

We, the "Modern Century Girls," do not wish to be represented by husbands who are so easily "befuddled" or so weak-kneed as "Anti-Fickle."

I will finish with these words of encouragement to "Sparkling" — "There are as good, or better, fish in the sea than ever were caught."

CHOSE WORKING GIRL AND IS GLAD OF IT; SHE MADE A GOOD WIFE

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Sir,—As one of who is a reader of the Examiner I have taken a great interest in the discussion on "Why men do not get married over twenty-five." I am one in double harness and I am not near twenty-five yet. Neither do I regret the step I have taken. I sincerely think that many would follow my example if there were not so many unjust young men with fickle minds and unbelievers in factory girls.

I am one that thinks the fair sex is right in justifying themselves in saying that just as many good wives come from the factory as from the houseworking class. I think if young men would not think so harshly of the working girls that they would get a wife that would surprise them. I am one that never thought about this subject until I saw it in print. And I, for one, am very proud to think that I chose a working girl for a wife. But I do not blame either sex for being very careful in their choice for it is not for a week or so but for a lifetime.

Yours,
MARRIED AND STILL ALIVE.

MAN'S INHUMANITY TO MAN.

Many and sharp the num'rous ills
Inwoven with our frame!
More pointed still we make ourselves
Regret, remorse and shame!
And man, whose heaven-erected face
The smiles of love adorn—
Man's inhumanity to man
Makes countless thousands mourn.

See yonder poor o'erlabored wight,
So abject, mean and vile.
Who begs a brother of the earth
To give him leave to toil;
And see his lordly fellow-worm
The poor petition spurn,
Unmindful though a weeping wife
And helpless offspring mourn.

If I'm designed yon lordling's slave,
By Nature's law designed.
Why was an independent wish
E'er planted in my mind?
If not, why am I subject to
His cruelty or scorn?
Or why has man the will and power
To make his fellow mourn?

Yet, let not this too much, my son,
Disturb thy youthful breast;
This partial view of human kind
Is surely not the last!
The poor oppressed honest man
Had never, sure, been born.
Had there not been some recompense
To comfort those that mourn!

A boy aged five years, on entering a barber's shop, laid down twopence and asked for a haircut. Whether it was that the boy had an extra large growth of hair on this occasion, or that the price of a crop had increased, is not known. At any rate, the barber coolly remarked that the price was threepence. The child, undaunted, replied: "Tak tuppence worth off the noo, an' I'll get t'other pennyworth aff sifter."

The municipal election was over, and the magisterial vacancies had been filled up. The Monday following was one of the new bailies' first day on the bench. When the first prisoner was brought before him, he asked: "Are you guilty or not guilty?" "Not guilty," replied the man, promptly. "Then what are ye daein' here? Take that man awa, polisman, an' bring in ane that's guilty, an' I'll gie him saxty days."

The minister of a country parish lately preached a charity sermon, and the collection taken subsequently amounted to £23 7s 4 1-2d. In the vestry, after the sermon, the elders counted it out, and mentioned the result. "Well," said the reverend gentleman, "the congregation must have appreciated my sermon very much to have given so liberally." "Nae doot they did, sir," replied one of the collectors, "but the laird himself put in a £20 note, an' ye ken he's deaf!"

A good story is told of an inquisitive man. One day not long ago he saw a furniture removal van being loaded at the close opposite his house. His curiosity got the better of him, so he slipped across the street when no one was about and said: "I say, carter, are the people upstairs removing?" The carter looked at him with amused amazement, and answered: "Naw, naw, we are jist takin' the furniture oot for a drive."

In certain parts of England, the word "putten" is erroneously used for "put." A teacher, giving a grammar lesson, explained the mistake. Soon afterwards he tested the children's knowledge by giving them three sentences in which they had to write the word "put" correctly. One boy, glancing at another boy's exercise, found he had made a mistake, so he stood up and exclaimed, "Please, teacher, "Jones has putten 'putten' where he ought to have putten 'put!'"

A fashionably dressed young lady, who was visiting some friends in Scotland recently, stalked proudly into one of the private pews of a little church. The beadle, an old fellow, whose caustic remarks sometimes got him into trouble, immediately bustled up to the visitor and said: "I am afraid miss, you'll hae to come oot o' that. This is a private pew, ye ken." "What do you mean, sir?" replied the lady irritably. "Do you know who I am? I beg to inform you, my good man, that I am one of the Fyfes." "I dinna care if ye are the big drum," retorted the beadle; "ye'll hae tae come oot o' that."

"John."
"Yes, dear."
"Did you lock the basement door?"
"Yes."
"Are you sure the gas is turned off in the kitchen range?"
"Uh huh."
"I don't believe you looked at the dining room windows."
"Yes, I did. Now keep quiet. I want to go to sleep."
"It seems to me I smell gas. I'm afraid you didn't open the damper in the furnace pipe."
"The furnace is all right. I fixed it the last thing."
"Well, I have a queer feeling that something is the matter. Are you sure the front door is bolted?"
"Yes, yes, yes! Confound it, give me a chance to go to sleep! I need rest!"
"John."
"Oomph."
"John, are you asleep?"
"Oomph."
"John, wake up and answer me. You forgot to lock the library window. The girl was dusting today and had it open."
"Oomph."
"John, stop that pretending and get up. I can't go to sleep tonight unless you go and lock that window."
"Oh, Lord, why can't you let a fellow alone? I fixed all the windows. All of them—every window in the house—kitchen, dining room, library—all of 'em! All of 'em, can you understand that? The doors are all bolted. The furnace is as it should be. The gas is turned off in the kitchen. Now let me alone, will you?"
"John."
"Oomph."
"John, wake up and listen to what I say."
"Great heavens, are you talking yet or again?"

A Cold Finds Your Weak Spot

THE BRONCHIAL TUBES AND LUNGS ARE PROTECTED AGAINST THE EVIL EFFECTS OF COLDS BY

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

You can never tell just what form a cold will take but you may be sure it will search out your wekest organ. With some it assumes a catarrhal nature, and affects the head principally; but with others it becomes bronchitis and there sets in a hard cough and severe chest pains. Then, again, it often leads to inflammation of the lungs, consumption, pneumonia or may settle on the kidneys or bowels.

Because colds do not always prove serious some people take great chances with them, but the risk is great. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is intended for people who want assurance against serious results from colds.

This great medicine has absolutely proven its extraordinary control over coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and all such ailments, and for this reason has a place in the great majority of homes.

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port Hope, Ont., writes:—"Being exposed to all sorts of weather I frequently catch cold. Last winter I was so bad with a cold that I could not speak above a whisper and had great pains in my chest. At last I feared that it would develop into consumption if I did not succeed in getting proper treatment. A friend advised me to take Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and I began to improve before I had taken half a bottle. One bottle cured my cold which I believe would have proven very serious if I had not used this medicine."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author are on every bottle.

INSTITUTE SITE WAS AGAIN UNDER DISCUSSION

Ald. Morrow Produced Copies of Agreement Between School Board and City Council

MAYOR THINKS CITY SHOULD DETERMINE

The oft. discussed problem as to the lots upon which the new Collegiate Institute will be erected on Central Park came up again before the Committee of the Whole Council last night with the result that nothing further has been accomplished. The School Board which has paid over $10,000 as its share of the money, think that it should be given the deed of the four lots—3, 4, 5 and 6—on the north side of the Park. This the Mayor does not wish to do unless the Board agrees to erect the Collegiate on the lots named by the city.

Ald. Morrow produced copies of reports and agreements between the school and council on this question, the last document being an agreement by which the School Board should be deeded lots 8, 4, 5 and 6 on the north-western section of what was the old Separate school ground. The School Board want to have the four northern lots deeded them, leaving them a free hand as to on which lots they shall build. But his worship and others of the council, seem to suspect that if given four lots the Board will erect their building in the middle of their grounds, thus cutting up the proposed parade ground, and marring the park's beauty. Ald. Morrow argued that the Board was composed of intelligent and representative men, who should not be dictated to; he had every confidence in the School Board acting in the interests of all conerned when building the institute, if deeded the four lots, and allowed to exercise their own judgment in this matter.

Ald. Morrow moved, seconded by Ald. Tovey, that the Board of Education be deeded lots three, four, five and six, for a site for the Collegiate Institute on condition that they put the building on two lots only.

Ald. Morrow thought on which lots the building is erected should be left to the discretion of the School Board, who were quite capable of entering into an agreement with the military men not to mar the beauty of the park.

Ald. Leary remarked that in 1905 a meeting of the Council, School Board and Military, was called to settle this vexed question. At that time the council and military authorities were a unit that the institute should be built on an eastern line with the armouries. The School Board then declared that they would build only on lots three and four, and all hope of agreement was abandoned.

Ald. Morrow argued that the council entered last year into an agreement to deed the board lots three and four; then if council will not now consent to deed them five and six with a provision to build on two lots only, leaving it to their honour not to build so as to destroy the grounds, why let the council stick to the letter of their agreement as to three and four.

Ald. Bradburn believed it would be better to put both buildings forward on lots three and four, leaving the parade ground at the back.

Considerable discussion here arose on the advisability of referring the question to a committee to confer with the School Board.

Ald. Duncan moved, seconded by Ald. Leary, in amendment, that a bylaw be prepared conveying lots three, four five and six on Central Park to the School Board on condition that the building be erected on a line with eastern boundary of new armouries, and that property east of said line be left vacant.

Ald. Bath moved, seconded by Ald. Elliott, in amendment to the amendment, that the Mayor and Aldermen Leary, Elliott and Morrow be a committee to confer with the School Board.—Carried.

The committee then adjourned.

GUELPH'S CHARGES NOT WORRYING LOCALS

The Peterborough Team Are Home Brews and Their Standing Has Never Been Questioned

WHAT WILL THE O.H.A. DO NOW?

Our old friend Buck Irving, erstwhile of the Lindsay intermediates, and latterly of Guelph, has at last filed charges against the other senior clubs after a week of threatening talk from the Royal City. Of course Peterborough being a winning team is mentioned in the sweeping indictment which includes nearly all the clubs in the senior series. The local management and players are not losing any sleep over the charges. If there is a team of home-brews anywhere in the O.H.A., it is right here in Peterborough. Every man on the team has lived here all his life with the exception of Lang who came to Peterborough four years ago. Their amateur standing has never been questioned by any body under which they have played, and most of the team have been playing lacrosse and rugby for years without a breath of suspicion against their status.

The Peterborough hockey club has never had to defend a protest. Surely a vindication of the fact that the amateur standing of the players has been accepted without hesitation by the teams against whom they have played. They won the championship of the intermediate O.H.A. last year with almost the same team, the only difference being that two City League men have replaced two seniors, and yet there was not a word of any protest against them. Most of the men played on the team that put Buck Irving's Lindsay team out of the running, but that gentleman had nothing to say about their amateur standing. And now we have charges against them as well as all the other senior clubs.

The action of the O. H. A. will be awaited with interest here. Either the charges will be shelved altogether as being too vague and indefinite as most of them appear or else a most searching investigation will have to be made. And it should not be confined to the senior series either. There is as much ground for believing the junior and intermediate series honeycombed with professionalism as there is connection with the "big ten". If there is to be an investigation let it be as sweeping as it can be made. The O.H.A. should follow its usual practice of investigating the status of winning teams. Every club in the business should be examined, if any at all are brought on the carpet.

THE TORONTO B.A.C. TO PLAY HOCKEY HERE

Will Meet the Local Members of the Club in the Near Future at the Brock Street Rink

A great game of hockey is on the tapis for the near future. The Toronto section of the B.A.C. intends to pay a fraternal visit to the parent club in Peterborough shortly, and one of the incidents of that visit will be a game of hockey between the Toronto and Peterborough representatives. It is understood that Sam Moore, whose associations with hockey as a member of the Review team is well known is training for a place on the Toronto B.A.C. team, and Norman Jolliffe will play rover. They claim that there are some dark horses on the Toronto team who will show the Peterborough bunch a thing or two about hockey, and the game will be worth while seeing. Ernie Best is captaining the local team, and is considering the advisability of bringing Will Cochrane up from Montreal for the game, since it is believed that he will have learned the fine points of the game as played by the Ottawa Butchering Association in the game with the Wanderers.

HOCKEY

The hockey match next Wednesday evening here, between the 14th Regiment and Peterborough, promises to be interesting. Upon it depends the district championship. Peterborough beat the 14th in Peterborough, but the Kingston team is out to win here on Wednesday. Vanhorn will again play cover-point for the locals. For the other three matches, in February, the 14th team will have Knight at centre, and thus be further strengthened. There should be a record crowd present, as next Wednesday's match will be ahead of the hockey the senior college teams are playing. The 14th management is behind financially, and the public owes a duty to its representative senior team in giving it better support in the way of attendance.—Kingston Whig.

WANT PETERBOROUGH MEN.

It will be seen that Kenora wants more men and wants them badly. Young Phillips has been tried and found wanting; Hall, their other spare man, was also a loan. So, having worn out the team winning the cup, Kenora must find another to help them hold it. They are said to be hankering for Whitcroft and Crowley, of the Peterborough team. Will they get them? Who can tell. Peterborough people say "No." So do the players themselves. But from another quarter comes a report that Whitcroft intends to jump to the "pro" ranks next year anyway, and that he may take the present year. Of course, it is well not to believe all you hear. Hockey nowadays is so mixed up with "pro" tales and jumping records that you can't always tell where you are at.—Toronto Telegram.

The hockey players sojourning at Fanning's Boarding House, Hunter street, administered a signal defeat to a similar septette at Anderson's boarding house on Water street last night at the Brock street rink. The return of the half and full time scores indicate a most peculiar game. The Hunter street hockeyists in the first half notched 11 goals to their opponents' 3, but notwithstanding that fact, the final score remained the same. For the winners Bruce in goal was a wonder and got into the way of several dangerous looking shots. Stratton and Heard did the most of the scoring, getting 5 each while Ray Best was responsible for the eleventh. Myers shone for the losers, scoring the three goals.

Adams refereed and penalized a few for minor offences. The line-up was:

The secretary of the B. A. C., Mr. J. W. Wood, has received from Mr. R. N. Jolliffe, temporary secretary of the Toronto branch of the club, the following challenge, which, needless to say the parent club will accept:

"On behalf of the Toronto branch of the B. A. C. I hereby jointly and severally challenge the members of the Peterborough Club to a game of hockey, to be played at the Brock street rink at an early a date as possible. Our contempt for the hockey playing ability of the Peterborough section of the club is represented by the fact that Sam Moore, known to the hockey-loving public of your city as the Spittal-Smith exemplification of Western Ontario hockey, will play on the Toronto team, as well as Maurice Van der Water, one of the original players on the old Frontenac, Kingston, hockey team, will figure on the Toronto aggregation. That we expect to wipe the ice with the home aggregation of mis-fit hockey players goes without saying, and our advice to the unfortunates who play on the Peterborough representation is to bid farewell to their friends before leaving for the carnage.

An early reply will greatly oblige."

It is understood that the local club will accept this challenge and that the game will be played in the near future. On the Toronto team will be Norman Jolliffe, Sam Moore, Maurice Van der Water, Dr. Bagshaw, Rollie Merrell and other members of the club, who will, no doubt do their best to uphold the reputation of the Toronto section.

Carpet Cleaning Concern To Open Business In City

Mr. Babcock, of the firm of W. F. Babcock & Son, was in the city yesterday and arranged to open a carpet cleaning establishment about the first of March in the building formerly occupied by Messrs. T. Kinnear & C. The machinery for the equipment is already under order and will arrive in a short time, and will be at one installed. It is the intention of the company to be in a position to commence business in time for spring house-cleaning. The cleaning process to which the carpets are subjected is one which thoroughly cleanses them in a short time. A current of air is passed through the fabric removing the accumulation of dust which gathers. It is represented that no injury is wrought the carpet too, and the company state that they will be in a position to take a whole house, lift the carpets, clean them and have them laid again the same day, a convenience which the ladies will no doubt appreciate, since it will obviate the necessity of laborious work beating carpets.

The cleaning machines are operated by electric power, and Mr. Babcock states that a thoroughly satisfactory job is guaranteed, with no wear on the carpet.

Another important consideration is the fact that during the cleaning process the carpets are disinfected, an advantage which will appeal favourably to careful housewives, in this age when the importance of the health is being more fully appreciated. Speaking on this point, Mr. Babcock said:

CARPET CLEANING MACHINE

The process of disinfecting is accomplished during the last half-hour's run of the fan. A gas is generated and circulated through the carpets by the action of the fan. This gas, while in no sense injurious to the finest fabrics will effectually destroy all disease germs.

The Peterborough-Kingston Contest at the Latter City To-morrow, in the Brock Street Rink

To-morrow night's game between Peterborough and Kingston in the latter city will be one of the best of the season. Reports of the game, as it progresses will be received at the Brock Street Rink, the management having made arrangements with the telegraph company to give a running summary of the game, and it will be bulletined at the Rink. The 57th Band will also be in attendance, and skaters will be allowed on the ice until the final reports of the game are received, the usual closing hour of ten o'clock being extended for to-morrow night.

MAN SERVED TO THE POLICE STATION 'EN CARTE'

Was Found on Water Street Unable to Walk and Had to be Drawn to the Police Station

Another case of the necessity of having a police patrol wagon was evidenced this afternoon. This is not the first time that the services of such a vehicle have been required, and it would certainly be more becoming than a carter's ordinary dray. This afternoon a man was lying on the sidewalk in an intoxicated condition and the police were summoned to remove him. P. C. Meharry was quickly on the scene and had him placed on a carter's sleigh and taken to the police station. He had been seen on the streets earlier in the day and gradually became very drunk with the above result.

ciates and with the public, who have become quite well acquainted with him by reason of the fact that he has been for a number of years a member of the Peterborough hockey team and has figured on both and junior and intermediate championship teams representing Peterborough.

Mr. C. M. Blewett

Mr. C. M. Blewett, the secretary-treasurer of the company, has occupied that position for the last two years, and has been associated with the company for about six years, succeeding to the secretaryship upon the resignation of Mr. R. H. Fortye, prior to which time he was the accountant. Mr. Blewett is practically a native of the County of Peterborough, coming to the Township of Smith from Huron County when he was about two years old with his parents. He came to Peterborough about eight years ago, and has made his home here ever since. In the office work in connection with the Peterborough Hardware Company Mr. Blewett has proven himself most efficient, his two years occupancy of the office of secretary-treasurer having been ample to give evidence of his ability in this particular line.

Change February 1st.

The new officers will take over the business on February 1st, when Mr. Eastwood will leave the company to take up the duties of his new position as manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada.

Business Will Prosper

The company, as it is now constituted, will doubtless continue to grow, and under the new management will retain all the prestige which it gained under their predecessors as well as additional importance which the new management will give it.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

A THOROUGHBRED TRAMP

ELMER WALTERS' western comedy drama, "A Thoroughbred Tramp," which appears at the Grand Opera House, carries a thorough equipment for the production of the play. Much pains have been taken to make the original third act natural and picturesque. "A Thoroughbred Tramp" is said to excell all other dramas of this class and certain it is that the comedy element is more hilarious. T. Rugh Thompson, promises to be one of the most humorous character parts ever conceived and though but a vagabond, the character carries prestige with the refined theatre-goer. This season the third act shows the ever popular train effect used in the original production but elaborated with an electrical storm effect which promises to be sensational in the extreme.

Facts About the American Indian's Healthy Hair

The American Indian accustomed from time immemorial to go bare-headed in all kinds of weather is never troubled with falling hair or baldness.

The close atmosphere caused by our "civilized" head-gear is conducive to the breeding of infinitesimal germs which dig into the scalp and thrive on the sap of the hair-root.

This true cause of baldness is of recent discovery and explains the non-success of all hair-vigors which treated baldness as a functional disorder.

Newbro's Herpicide is a direct exterminator of the germ. "It destroys the cause and permits the hair to grow as nature intended.

NEW COMPANIES' ACT.

First Government Bill of the Session Introduced by the Premier—Banquet to Hon. G. W. Ross.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—During the brief sitting of the Legislature yesterday afternoon Premier Whitney, in the absence of Hon. Mr. Hanna, to whose department it belongs, introduced the first Government measure of the session, namely, "An act respecting joint stock and other companies."

It is a consolidation and revision of the many companies acts now in existence, and in addition embodies a number of clauses designed to protect the investing public. It is stated to be the intention of the Government to ask that the House refer the bill to a special committee, where it will be thoroughly discussed, and where any amendments to it in its present shape will be made.

The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne will be continued this afternoon. Mr. Graham, the leader of the Opposition, and Premier Whitney will speak this afternoon, and probably the debate will be closed by 6 o'clock.

Mr. G. P. Graham, leader of the Opposition, was one of the earliest arrivals at the Parliament buildings yesterday morning. His letter-box in the buildings' postoffice contained a large number of congratulatory letters on his selection as leader of the Liberals in the House.

The Liberal members of the House will shortly tender a banquet to Hon. Geo. W. Ross, as a mark of appreciation of their esteem, and in recognition of his appointment to the Senate.

Toronto Junction, Jan. 28.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards at Toronto Junction were 104 car loads, composed of 2221 cattle, 30 hogs, 141 sheep and 13 calves. Trade was brisk. Prices in all classes were generally firm.

Exporters.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Cable advices from Liverpool and London were strong, and prices show an advance of ⅝c to 1¼c per lb. for Canadian cattle with sales at 12¾c. Exports from Portland and St. John, N.B., last week were 2270 cattle, 1397 sheep. Receipts were 1300 cattle, 100 calves, 25 sheep and lambs and 1000 hogs. The butchers were out strong and trade in cattle was active, but owing to supplies being heavier prices weakened fully ¼c per lb. Choice beaves sold at 4¾c to 5c; good at 4¼c to 4½c; fair at 3¾c to 4c; common at 3c to 3½c, and inferior at 2¼c to 2¾c per lb. Sheep and lambs were scarce and firm; lambs brought 5¾c to 6¼c; sheep, 4c to 4½c per lb., and calves, $3 to $8 each.

The weaker feeling which developed in the hog situation in the middle of last week was the main feature of the market again this morning, and prices scored a further decline of 5c to 15c per 100 lbs. This to some extent was due to the increased supplies, but more so to the fact that buyers were not so keen for supplies, and trade was slow, with sales of selected lots at $7.20 to $7.25 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars.

Foreign advices on Canadian bacon were weak again and noted a decline of 1s to 2s in prices in Liverpool, London and Bristol; but at the same time they stated that there was a steadier feeling in the markets at the reduction and more business was passing.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, Jan. 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 5000; active, generally steady; prime steers, $5.50 to $6.15; shipping, $5 to $5.75; butchers', $4.50 to $5.40; heifers, $3.25 to $5.25; cows, $3 to $4.80; bulls, $3 to $4.75; stockers and feeders, $3 to $4.35; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3; fresh cows and springers, $2 to $3 per head lower, $18 to $48.

Veals—Receipts, 1000 head; active, 25c higher, $4.25 to $6.75.

HIS HOLINESS CHANGES FRONT.

Towards Anti-Church Law In France —Possible to Organize Worship.

Paris, Jan. 29.—It is learned that as a result of the advice tendered to the Pope by French prelates, the Pontiff has changed his position towards the church and state separation question in France and will issue new instructions under which it is believed it will be possible to organize public worship under the supplementary church and state separation law introduced by M. Briand, the Minister of Education.

Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, has sent telegrams to the members of the French episcopate, requesting them to attend another meeting here. A preliminary assemblage of bishops, at which 30 were present, took place yesterday.

MAILS FOR NEW ZEALAND.

Canadian Route Should Be Supplemented, Says Writer.

London, Jan. 29.—(C. A. P.)—A Wellington, New Zealand, correspondent, discussing the imperial mail service, says that the "all red" route, via Vancouver and the Dominion, supplemented by a regular connection, with improved federal service via Suez, which will shortly be in operation, is what New Zealand really wants.

The Morning Post editorially says that if Canada and New Zealand can co-operate effectively to stimulate reciprocal trade, they should have no difficulty about the increasing mail subsidy, as may be necessary to secure British service.

Thaw Jurors Now Number Nine.

New York, Jan. 29.—The jury which is to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White is rapidly nearing completion. When court adjourned last evening there were nine men in the jury box, one having been added during the morning session and a second just before the hour of adjournment, 5 o'clock. It is thought that the taking of testimony may be begun Wednesday afternoon.

Willful Murder the Verdict.

London, Jan. 29.—A verdict of "wilful murder" was rendered by a coroner's jury yesterday morning against Horace George Raynor, the man who shot and killed William Whitely, the well-known Westbourne Grove merchant, Jan. 24. The motive of the crime remains a mystery unless, as the police assert, it was the failure of an attempt to blackmail the merchant.

The Cockburn Case.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—The G. R. R. Cockburn case was yesterday postponed until to-morrow, when Crown-Attorney Corley expects to put Charles McGill in the box. Frank Arnoldi, K.C., thought it unfair to his client to have so many adjournments.

Committed For Forgery.

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—Paul Schultz, ex-Dominion policeman, accused of forging a cheque for $62 on the Bank of Montreal, was committed for trial at police court.

HONG KONG STRUCK BY GALE.

Sank Over 50 Chinese Craft and Drowned 100 Chinese.

Hong Kong, Jan. 29.—A terrific rain squall broke over Hong Kong yesterday morning, and in the space of ten minutes sank over 50 Chinese craft in the harbor, more than 100 natives being drowned. There were no casualties among the white population. Launches from the shore rescued many occupants of the swamped boats.

The harbor was littered with the wreckage from the sunken junks. During the squall the river steamer Paul Bean broke adrift, but she was brought to anchor without sustaining any damage.

Orders Mixed; Trains Collide.

Dickinson, N. D., Jan. 29.—A mix-up of orders, it is alleged, caused a collision between Northern Pacific passenger train No. 4, eastbound, and No. 5 westbound, four miles east of Dickinson, early yesterday morning. Both trains were pulled by two locomotives.

Andrew Thomson, a fireman, was killed. Several other trainmen were hurt, none seriously.

BULLET FOR JOE ROBERTSON.

Friend's Gun Went Off and Bullet Passed Through Hand.

St. Catharines, Jan. 29.—A distressing accident occurred on Read's Island, near Port Dalhousie, yesterday afternoon. As a result Joseph Robertson, son of Councillor Robertson of Port Dalhousie, is confined to his home from the effects of a shell of No. 6 rabbit shot discharged into his body from a double-barreled shotgun by a companion, Basil Howe, also a resident of the village.

The young men went on a rabbit shoot, and while Robertson was digging a rabbit out of a hole, the gun accidentally went off. The shot passed through Robertson's right hand and entered his thigh. The young fellow walked home, some two miles away. He will recover.

Adrift At Sea In Open Boat.

New York, Jan. 29.—George Williams of East Boston, a fisherman, was brought here yesterday on a schooner, which picked him up on Jan. 23. He had gone adrift in his lorry and had drifted about for 36 hours without food or water in a severe gale, and with the temperature ten degrees below zero. Both of Williams' hands were badly frozen.

AID MORE THAN AMPLE.

Governor of Jamaica Cables Thanks For Contribution.

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—The Dominion Government has received a cablegram from the Governor of Jamaica, thanking Canada for its contribution and stating that no aid is required except for rebuilding.

The Dominion Government is replying that the balance of the money voted will be sent for building material instead.

Refugees From Jamaica.

Boston, Jan. 29.—The steamer Admiral Dewey arrived here yesterday from Jamaica, with 49 passengers, mainly from Kingston. The passengers include Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Taylor, Toronto; Charles W. and Frank A. Vipond, Montreal.

More Thanks.

Washington, Jan. 29.—In a cablegram received here yesterday Vice-Consul Orrett at Kingston, Ja., advises the State Department that the American Red Cross contribution had been "gratefully received by the Government."

Kept Cool.

Paris, Jan. 29.—In an article on the Swettenham-Davis incident yesterday, the semi-official Temps congratulates Great Britain and the United States on keeping their heads and not allowing the incident to "disturb relations which are so potent for the good of the world."

WINNIPEG'S FEARS OVER.

Lots of Coal and Wood From South —Saskatchewan Still Suffers.

Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—The fuel situation, as far as Winnipeg is concerned, seems about over, as yesterday 4,000 tons of coal arrived from the south, while 4,000 cords of wood also reached the city. The shipping of coal from Duluth will, it is hoped, avert actual suffering. At Fort William and Port Arthur there was only 13,000 tons of coal.

The situation in many of the Saskatchewan towns, though, is still desperate. The branch lines of both C. P. R. and C.N.R. are completely tied up, and no trains have been in many points for a week, with the result that fuel and provisions are running short.

Railway men never go out without taking supplies with them sufficient to last for days.

HON. A. G. BLAIR'S FUNERAL.

Semi-Private, But a Large Attendance At Last Obsequies.

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—The funeral of the late Hon. A. G. Blair took place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his residence on O'Connor street, to Beechwood Cemetery.

It was semi-private, but there was a large attendance, including most of the Cabinet Ministers, Premier Tweedie of New Brunswick, James Robinson, ex-M.P. for Northumberland; many members of Parliament, the whole of the staff of the Department of Railways and Canals, and the staff of the Railway Commission.

The chief mourners were: A. G. Blair jr. and Donald Blair, sons; R. F. Randolph, W. C. Clark and Dr. G. S. McCarthy, sons-in-law; Slosson Thompson, brother-in-law; Senator Thompson and W. T. Whitehead, Fredericton.

CHIEF JUSTICE TASCHEREAU.

Government Fills Several Vacancies on the Quebec Bench.

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—Yesterday the chief justiceship of the Court of King's Bench, Montreal, vacated by the resignation of Sir Alexander Lacoste, was filled by the promotion of Judge Henri T. Taschereau.

Judge Charbonneau was appointed to succeed Judge Taschereau at Montreal, Mr. Bruneau, M. P., to succeed Judge Charbonneau in Richelieu, and Mr. P. Gedeon Marlineau to succeed the late Judge Madore in St. Hyacinthe.

TRIAL OF MRS. MILLER.

Crown Uses Bridant as a Witness Against the Woman.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Lillian Miller was placed on trial yesterday before Justice Clute and a jury in the Assize Court. She is charged with furnishing the drugs and instruments which caused the death of Mrs. Agnes Bridant. The evidence for the prosecution is all in with the exception of that of Dr. Rose, who will be called this morning. The verdict will be reached to-night.

A similar charge against Edward Bridant, the husband of the deceased, was withdrawn, and he was used as a witness for the crown. Mr. Godfrey is defending Mrs. Miller, and Mr. Lynch-Staunton is prosecuting.

Bridant told of visiting with his wife the place supposed to be kept by "Dr. De Voss" and meeting Mrs. Miller there. Mrs. Miller told Mrs. Bridant "if you follow my treatment I can cure you" and handed three boxes of pills, instructing her how to use them. The price was $7. Mrs. Miller asked Mrs. Bridant if she expected confinement, "because," she said, "if you are I cannot do anything for you."

Mrs. Bridant took ill on the following Tuesday at midnight and died Friday morning.

Dr. A. J. Johnston testified that drugs which these pills were composed of were prescribed to women for certain purposes by reputable physicians.

Sergt. Duncon identified a number of letters addressed to "Dr. De Voss," which were found in the Miller rooms.

The London election trials have been traversed to the May Assizes.

HAD A MOMENT OF CHOICE.

Jail or Wedding Presented to Belleville Farmer—Chose to Wed.

Port Huron, Mich., Jan. 29.—Given the alternative of marrying the young widow of his brother, or of spending 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction, Fred Rushnell, a farmer residing near Belleville, Ont., chose the former course this afternoon.

Sheriff Davidson was informed of the situation of the woman, who wished to know if a man could be forced to marry a girl whom he had ruined. She told the sheriff a pitiful story of a wrecked life, in which she implicated her brother-in-law. Although only 21 years old, the woman is the mother of a three-year-old child. Shortly after the death of her husband, she began going with her brother-in-law. The girl was afraid to return to her parents.

When Rushnell, who had been enticed to this city by the woman, was confronted with the situation, he broke down and wept like a child. When asked whether he would marry the girl or go to prison, he replied: "Yes, I'll marry her."

The couple were taken over to the parsonage of Rev. Abner Bowling, where the ceremony was performed. They returned to Belleville yesterday afternoon.

EMBARGO AND ERIN.

Present Policy, If Continued, Will Mean Ruin of the Traders.

London, Jan. 29.—(C. A. P.)—Addressing the committee of the Irish Cattle Traders' Association, William Field, M.P., said he was convinced that a continuation of the present policy meant an elimination of the native meat traders. Under present conditions, Ireland could not hope to cope with the ever-growing foreign competition.

Mr. Field also writes The Freeman's Journal, denying the statement made by Morrison of Liverpool, that 40 per cent. of the imported Irish cattle had tuberculosis. The Journal editorially again discusses the "very grave results that would necessarily accrue from a removal of the restrictions of the importation of Canadian cattle."

Million Dollar Fire.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 29.—The plant of the Phelps Publishing Co. here was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The loss is estimated to approach $1,000,000.

Brantford's Sensational Case.

Brantford, Jan. 29.—Mayor Bowlby yesterday got a remand until Thursday on the charge of defamatory libel preferred by A. G. Montgomery.

Flattery.

Governor Frank Frantz of Oklahoma tells the following story of camp life with the rough riders before they were transported to Cuba:

"Before we were shipped to Cuba time dragged heavily on our hands, and even those who left home well supplied with funds found themselves absolutely broke before the transport sailed. Everybody borrowed from the other fellow.

"I was standing near an Irish sergeant one day when a member of our troop approached him and asked to borrow a dime.

"The Irish sergeant looked at him a moment. Then a queer smile lit up his face and he replied in his rich brogue:

"'Ah, ye flatthererr!'"—Ridgway's.

Radium Clinic a Possibility.

There seems to be a chance of a radium clinic or special hospital for the use of radium being opened before long in Austria, according to a special cable dispatch from Vienna to the Chicago News. For months the Joachimsthal mines have been sending uranium ore to a firm of light works at Vienna, amounting to 20,000 pounds, which has been treated by chemical experts in charge of Dr. Hietzinger. The result has been the acquisition of some $200,000 worth of pure radium, which will be given to various hospitals and scientific laboratories.

The Physical institute of Vienna, in view of this experiment, proposes to set up a laboratory at the Joachimsthal mines for the manufacture of radium salts. From this has sprung the idea that the radio active springs, which abound in the mines, might be used for drinking purposes. Samples of the water are undergoing analysis in Vienna and if the results come up to expectations a bath establishment probably will be immediately called into existence. The question is exciting widespread interest in medical circles and among people generally.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED JOYOUSLY

Mr. and Mrs Geo. Young Commemorated the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Marriage Last Night

MANY RELATIVES WERE PRESENT

That interesting and rarely occurring event, a golden wedding was the occasion of a joyous gathering last night at the residence of Mr. George Young, Park street, when he and Mrs. Young celebrated the culmination of fifty years of married life. A large number of guests were present for the occasion, the majority being relatives of the "Young" couple, and the latter were made the recipients of many congratulatory references to their long years of wedlock, with the hope that they might both be spared for years to come to live together.

Mr. Young has lived almost his whole life in Peterborough County and is widely known and generally respected by the people of the district who will unite in congratulating him and his better half upon the anniversary which was celebrated last evening. He was born in Edinborough, Scotland, in 1830 and when he was but four years old, his parents left the land o' cakes and came to Canada and settled in Douro. In that township Mr. Young lived until 26 years ago when he moved to North Monaghan, coming to the city from that township a year ago. He has since resided on Park street. Mr. Young was married in 1857 to Miss Mary Davidson, of South Monaghan.

Their family consisted of seven daughters and three sons, of which two boys have passed away. The remainder of the family, with the exception of one daughter, were present at the celebration last night. They are Mrs. John Robson, city; Mrs. Davidson, Otonabee; Mrs. Bert Middleton, Smith; Mrs. Bralley, Otonabee; Misses Lizzie and Jennie Young and Mr. George Young, city.

One daughter, Mrs. Wm. Robson, of Yellow Grass, Sask., was unable to be present.

An interesting fact in connection with the event is that the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davidson, of Collingwood, who themselves celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage two years ago. Mr. Davidson is a brother of Mrs. Young. Among the guests also was Mrs. Young's neice, Mrs. Tully, of Iowa, and her two daughters. Many grand children were present and the occasion constituted a notable family gathering.

The party enjoyed a sumptuous repast. During the evening Mr. Young was presented with a very handsome gold-headed cane, while Mrs. Young was made the recipient of a purse of gold. Many other presents were received, showing the popularity and esteem in which they are held by the friends who have been associated with them in their years of married life.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. DANIEL FOLEY

Was Held This Morning and Was Largely Attended—Interment in St. Peter's Cemetery

The funeral of the late Daniel Foley was held this morning from the family residence, Simcoe street, and was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. Ald. Phelan, R. Sheehy, Gus White, Elrick White, T. Hanrahan and Albert Weatherhead. A requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father Galvin at the cathedral and the service at the grave, at the Roman Catholic Cemetery, was conducted by Rev. Father O'Leary.

FLOOR GAVE WAY AND SIX COWS WERE HANGED

Cornwall, Jan. 29.—The death of cows by hanging is rather an unusual occurrence, yet this was the fate of six valuable bovines owned by a farmer named Henry Hullis, who resides on the banks of the Grasse River, in St. Lawrence County, across the river from here.

The floor of the cow stable gave way the other night, and as the stanchions held firm, the animals were all found dead in the morning.

MANY MACCABEES ARE CONVENING HERE TO-DAY

Several Important Questions to be Considered by the Visiting Representatives

SUPREME OFFICERS TO GIVE ADDRESSES

The District Convention of the Knights of Maccabees opened in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. A large number were present, considering that this was the first convention of the kind held in this district. The various camps were scarcely acquainted with the importance of the gathering and the supreme officers believe that should they have been, the hall would not have been adequate to contain the delegates.

The prominent representatives of the K. O. T. M. present included Assistant Supreme Commander Joseph Jenkin, of Port Huron, Michigan; Provincial Commander S. W. Trussler, Camaiochie; Deputy Supreme Commander C. A. Yule, Colborne, and G. W. Townsend, Provincial Record Keeper, of Smithville, Ont.

Among the many delegates present were: G. H. Sarles, Trenton; J. J. Knight, Bala; Chas. Cavanagh, Sowerby; Thos. H. Barnes, Lorneville; Malcolm McDonald, Lindsay; W. L. Mitchell, Peterborough; E. W. Sheriff, Picton; Geo. Bradshaw, North Bay; J. J. Minehinton, Napanee.

Provincial Commander S. W. Trussler presided. Among the business problems in connection with the order discussed was the adoption of by-laws governing the future business of the district camps; the election of a number of delegates to attend the Provincial Convention to be held in Brantford in March 6th and 7th. The consideration of the advisability of holding an annual provincial convention was also among the prominent questions.

Mr. Trussler addressed the convention concerning the general work done since the last triennial convention. The usual committees were appointed to consider the actions to be taken with regard to the various questions under discussion.

The grand banquet in the Foresters' Hall to-night will be the prominent feature of the convention. Addresses will be delivered by the supreme officers here and in addition to these a splendid musical programme has been provided for.

WRECK AT SMITH'S FALLS DELAYS TRAIN

Early Morning C. P. R. Train Was Six Hours Late—Second From East Was on Time

Travellers from points east of Tweed on the C.P.R. had long delays this morning before they reached Peterborough. The early morning train which is due here about 5 o'clock, was over 6 hours late and did not arrive in the city until after eleven o'clock.

The cause of the long delay was a freight wreck near Smith's Falls. It was reported here that an axle broke, dumping a number of cars into the ditch and blocking the eastern traffic. A number of the Maccabees, who attended the Smith's Falls District Convention last night were unable to get here until noon and on this account the morning session of the convention here was postponed.

The 8 o'clock train which starts at Tweed ran its regular trip, but all passengers east of that point were delayed about 6 hours.

THE ORIENTAL HOTEL TO GIVE REPORTS

The Oriental has made arrangements with the C. P. R. Telegraph Company for a wire to report the progress of the Kingston-Peterborough hockey game. The wire will be installed in the office and reports of the game will be announced in the rotunda as received. This will be a convenient place to drop in and learn the success or otherwise of the local team in its struggle to-night.

ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING MANY TEACHERS

Higher Salaries Paid in Toronto Are Attracting a Number of Members of Peterborough Teaching Staff

A REMEDY HAS BEEN SUGGESTED

A gentleman who is interested in educational matters in the city pointed out to the Examiner to-day that Peterborough was in danger of losing a number of teachers from the Public Schools and Collegiate Institute, because of the fact that they were being offered higher salaries to go elsewhere, and referred to the fact that already the higher salaries which were being paid in the Toronto schools had attracted a number of the teachers from Peterborough, and others were contemplating taking a similar step. Recently the Board of Education of Toronto had increased the salary limit, raising the maximum salary for female teachers there $850, a year, and providing that the teachers who had been on the staff for a stated number of years should have their salaries increased one hundred dollars instead of fifty dollars, as was the case with those who had served a shorter period.

He was of the opinion that unless the salaries of the teachers here were increased there would be other resignations from the staff, and, past experience had proven that the supply of competent teachers was limited.

DELIGHTFUL AT HOME LAST NIGHT

Knights of Columbus Entertained Their Ladies Last Night In Their Rooms on Hunter Street

The Knights of Columbus held their annual "At Home" in their rooms on Hunter street last night, which, from general reports, was a decided success. About seventy couples were in attendance and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The Knights have a reputation of being excellent hosts and they certainly lived up to past records on this occasion.

Progressive euchre formed the entertainment of the fore part of the evening and was very delightful. The winners of the prizes were Mrs. Kahn, Mr. W. Crowley and Mr. J. T. O'Connel, the latter winning the consolation prize.

Dainty refreshments were supplied by Mr. T. Hooper, but were served by the gentlemen of the society. "Les gallants" were capital waiters and acted to the satisfaction of everyone.

Miss McCabe presided at the piano in her usual efficient manner.

MADE MEN'S FASHIONS UNIFORM

One Other Achievement of an International Tailoring System

In days gone by the man who went from Canada to New York found that his clothes were "passe"—were not in good style on Fifth Avenue. The man who travelled from the west to Montreal also felt distinctly "outre" in matters of dress.

The establishment of Semi-ready Wardrobes in all the chief towns and cities of Canada has made men's fashions uniform throughout Canada. The frequent visits of the Semi-ready chief designer to New York has also conquered the first mentioned disadvantage for the traveller. When about to travel one can visit a Semi-ready Wardrobe and have a suit delivered finished in two hours. It is in correct style wherever he may go.

Cressman's have all the new Semi-ready styles, and the exclusive agency for Peterborough and district.

A SLIGHT ACCIDENT ON THE G. T. R.

Truck on One of the Cars of a Freight Train Broke and Caused Some Delay

An accident to a freight train on the Port Hope division of the G.T.R. was caused this morning by the breaking of one of the trucks on which a box car rests. It happened near Fraserville and obstructed the tracks thus preventing the morning express from reaching Peterborough. The engine of the freight train came on to this city for assistance and the services of the Lindsay auxiliary were also required. The work was rapidly pushed and the track cleared about noon.

The officials of the G.T.R. made immediate arrangements to bring the passengers on the Port Hope train to their destinations. The train from Belleville arrived at the station at 8.30 and was immediately dispatched to Omemee where the Port Hope train for this city had gone via Millbrook. The latter express proceeded to Lindsay while the Belleville train returned with the passengers whose destination was this city. Thus a delay of only two hours resulted to the latter and the line suffered no other inconvenience.

MANY AUCTION SALES; MR. HAGGART'S LIST

A Number of Farmers will Come to This City to Live During Next Few Months

Mr. John Haggart has already booked a large number of auction sales for the present season, and, judging by the number already announced the coming spring will see more than any spring in a long time. A great many of those who are selling out are coming to the city to live, having made a competence on the farm, and as a result, it is probable that during the next few months the population of Peterborough will be materially augmented from this source.

The list of sales, as announced for the immediate future by Mr. Haggart, is as follows:—

Tuesday, February 5—Auction sale of farm stock and implements of Mr. Jos. H. Bell, North Monaghan.

Wednesday, February 6—Farm stock and implements of Mr. Levi Bowles, Cavan.

Saturday, February 9—Auction sale of house and lot at the Munro House.

Wednesday, February 13—Sale of farm stock and implements of Mr. Stanley Rightmyer, Downer's Corners.

Tuesday, February 19—Sale of farm stock and implements of Mr. Fred. Stewart, O'connbee.

Thursday, February 21—Sale of farm stock and implements of Mr. Adam King, North Monaghan.

Tuesday, February 26—Sale of farm stock and implements of Mr. Fred. Weir, Emily.

Headaches Mean Your Blood is Poisoned

If your bowels, kidneys or skin are not ridding the system of waste-matter, the blood is laden with impurities, which inflame the nerves. It is these irritated nerves that make the head ache.

Powders and pills won't cure, they merely drug the nerves into unconciousness and relieve for a short time.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Headaches, Neuralgia and Nerve Pains because they purify the blood. They act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Bowels, Kidneys and Skin—and restore them to healthy action, thus ridding the system of all poisons.

"Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices—chemically changed, by the process of combining them, into a far more effective medicinal compound than the natural juices. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. At all dealers' or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PROTECTING LABOUR

The legislation proposed in Parliament by the Minister of Justice to make Government regulation in regard to the payment of wages of employees in public works contracts on construction of the Trans-Continental Railway is only a proper deference to the claims to just treatment of the labourers who will be employed. This in line with the attitude of the Liberal Government of the Dominion which inaugurated the introduction of the fair wage system in connection with government contracts in Public Works. Labour does not covet any special favours but it deserves a fair field and an assurance that it will be paid what it earns. To this extent the government, where it has the power as in contracts on government works, is the natural guardian of the rights of labour. In extending is guardianship to employees in connection with the construction of the practically national railway, the Grand Trunk Pacific, it does a commendable action.

MY LADY NICOTINE

My Lady Nicotine must be very popular in Canada. Last year tobacco factories imported 8,809,808 pounds of raw tobacco leaf and the cigar manufacturers 3,728,815 pounds. This is a total of over twelve and a half million of pounds or over two pounds per head. And this does not represent the total consumption. According to the census returns of 1901, six years ago, there was grown in Canada 11,266,732 pounds of tobacco, of which 7,655,975 pounds were grown in the Province of Quebec. Add to this 500,000 pounds of tobacco imported in a manufactured state and we have twelve million pounds, which added to the one hundred and twelve and a half millions imported in the raw leaf for tobacco and cigar manufacture, makes a grand total of over twenty-four millions of pounds of tobacco used in Canada in a year of four pounds for every man, woman and child in the Dominion.

DEAL GENTLY WITH THE GIRLS

The plea of the telephone girls that eight hours is too long a time to work on such nerve-racking work as theirs is strengthened by some statistics as the railway accidents and their causes. During the first three months of 1906, 1,126 persons were killed and 17,170 injured on American railways. These frightful losses were almost wholly due to preventible causes. One of the chief causes was found in the fact that many railway employees are compelled to work for such long periods without rest, that the mind becomes incapable of performing its proper functions. As a means of removing this cause of loss, the United States Senate has, by a vote of seventy to one, passed a bill declaring that no railway employee shall be allowed to work over sixteen hours at a stretch, and that after working for that length of time ten full hours must be allowed for rest. Railway work may be more physically exhausting but it is nothing compared to the soul-wearing, nerve-tearing work of the telephone girl. Any person who has stood in central telephone exchange and noted the demands made upon the operators can form some faint idea. The heads of the girls are in the grip of a mechanical contrivance that binds them to their work like a victim to the wheel. And there is as much nervous pressure inside the skull as there is physical pressure outside of it. Eight hours of such work at a time would drive one unaccustomed to it stark mad. The terrible monotony of the work is enough in itself to bear. It is to be hoped that the telephone company will not insist upon overworking the animate machinery of its central exchanges.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Toronto doctor summoned as a witness was late in court, and the court fined him $25. The judge concluded that as the profession seldom kept the undertakers waiting, they had no right to use the court as a precedent.

Dr. Willoughby has recovered from a slight disposition. But that need not alarm any of his constituents who hold office in his riding; there are no more "Grit" heads to be lopped off. The Doctor made a thorough job of it while he was at it.

Emperor William of Germany, has won his elections, and his hatter has received an order for a larger sized crown. William is ambitious and the kindness of his subjects, who don't seem to mind being walked upon, will fire his ambition to a white heat. He may ride the high horse at home but his outside ambition will be looked after by the other powers.

La Presse, Montreal, recites an example of shrewd guessing or sapient calculation. It says that during the debate in 1903 on the Grand Trunk Pacific Bill, Mr. J. B. P. Casgrain estimated that the length of the railway from Quebec to Winnipeg was 1,350 miles. The exact distance between these two points as demonstrated by actual surveys is 1,349 1-2 miles.

It is announced that the Whitney Government will back down on its compulsory salary to teachers, and repeal the measure, agreeing instead, to pay 40 per cent. of the amount of any rural teacher's salary over $300. Thus if a rural teacher is paid $500, the Government will pay $80 thereof. Concerning this change the Hamilton Times says:—

That is better than the invidious coercion of the rural trustees, even if it shows the capacity for stupid blundering and half-baked law-making possessed by the Government.

The recent immense development of the West and the consequent congestion and inadequacy of transportation facilities, have removed all point from the contention that a second transcontinental railway was unnecessary. The necessity of further transportation facilities is emphasized by the fact that the Grand Trunk Pacific has given a contract for the erection of a grain elevator at Fort William, which, it is said, will be of the largest capacity of any elevator now in existence. It will hold ten million bushels.

FOUND A SIX FOOT SNAKE IN THE CELLAR

A Startling Discovery Made by a Montreal Man—Had Immigrated Secreted in Case of Foreign Fruit

TERRIER "FLEA" GAVE THE ALARM

La Presse, Montreal, of Jan. 28, has the following mid-winter snake story:

"It isn't every day that a snake is found in the cellar of a hotel in Montreal. That, however, was the terrifying discovery made this very morning by Mr. Onesime Octeau, in his establishment, St. Lawrence street. The snake discovered was not a reptile of this country. It is, without doubt, a European or other foreign snake which traversed the ocean on a steamer, in a bale of merchandise or in a case of fruit. Its scaly skin does not, the least in the world, resemble any reptiles known in Canada and looks like a phyton of small dimensions. It was George Young, an employee, who made the terrifying discovery about 9 o'clock this morning when he went to the cellar to look after the furnace. He noticed that the little terrier "Flea" which had its kennel in the cellar, an excellent ratter, acted as if possessed (comme un diable) right before his kennel. On turning about Young found himself facing a huge serpent which coiled upon itself, hissing and threatening to strike the dog. Young struck it two or three blows on the head with his coal shovel, stunning but not killing it. He called the proprietor, who with two or three others came upon the scene, and with a stick broke the reptile's back. The proprietor has decided to cement his cellar to prevent a repetition of this morning's experience, for his employees are afraid to go into the cellar. It is supposed that the snake got into the cellar through a drain tile or rat hole, attracted by the warmth of the cellar. The snake, which is mounted on a board and is nearly six feet long is now on exhibition Ocleau's hotel, where anybody who chooses may see it."

If La Presse had told of the discovery of a snake in a boot in connection with a hotel, the affair wouldn't have been so very wonderful.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

Mrs Albert Mann Mrs Chester Curry

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues" sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the abdominal region, and between the shoulders; bearing-down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga St., East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights. I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well, and all nervousness has disappeared."

The following letter is from Mrs. Albert Mann, 154 Gore Vale Ave., Toronto, Ont:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered a long time with serious female trouble having intense pains in the back and abdomen and very sick headaches every month. I was tired and nervous all the time and life looked very dreary to me and I had no desire to live until I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to get some relief. My recovery was slow but it was sure and I have never regretted the money spent for the Compound as it brought back my good health."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

Free Advice to Women.

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write to her for advice. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with female troubles enables her to advise you wisely, and she will charge you nothing for her advice.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

NOT HEREDITARY

Baldness Due to a Living Minute Germ

Many people, even unto the present day of grace, consider baldness due to hereditary influence.

Nothing is further from the truth—Baldness is caused by the onslaught of a minute organism which secretes itself beneath the scalp and attacks the roots of the hair—causing it to to lose its life and fall out.

This organism cannot be got rid of except by the free and persevering use of Newbro's Herpicide.

No matter how badly the scalp is affected the dandruff surely disappears and hair health is restored when Herpicide is applied.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF ELECTRIC POWER DISCUSSED

At Meeting of Board of Trade Last Night —No Quorum, Consequently No Real Business Done

SHOULD SECURE NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held last night in the Council Chambers when further discussion was held on the question of public ownership of electric power. The discussion was along similar lines to that of last Tuesday night, when the meeting on that occasion adjourned for fuller consideration. There was not a quorum but a little informal discussion was had.

Mr. J. Coyle Brown was, on motion, appointed chairman. In opening his remarks he stated that the general movement to-day was for public ownership, and that this was the outcome of the wrongful use of power which had been developed and supplied by corporations. Some of these, he said, burdened the people more than necessary and municipalities had stepped in and bought up their plants and let the service at rates more advantageous to the people.

Mr. E. G. Patterson said that the statements made by the chairman were not based on fact and that corporations owning power plants had generally been a great boon to cities and he thought that Peterborough was no exception to the rule. Many cities, he said, had flourished through the progressiveness of corporations that had developed power, which had been of great benefit to those cities.

Mr. Larmonth made statements to the same effect, saying that the general result of the development of power by corporations had been almost universally beneficial to the cities in which they were located.

A gentleman said that he had in communication with Mr. J. A. Culverwell, Cobourg, who stated that he had an important proposition to make to the Board and would be present at the next meeting. Mr. Van Blaricom stated that Mr. Culverwell's communication was in reference to the Burleigh power, which if refused by Peterborough he would take to Oshawa.

Mr. W. S. Robinson gave his opinion of municipal ownership, saying that he favoured it, if it was to benefit the municipality, but also said that his ideas of electrical development by corporations were similar to those expressed by Mr. Larmonth and Mr. Patterson. Mr. R. J. Todd and Mr. Adam Dawson also spoke along similar lines. This concluded the discussion of the main subject of the evening. A committee was then appointed to act jointly with committees from the County and City Councils in an endeavour to secure the National Dairy Show for Peterborough. The following gentlemen were chosen: Messrs. D. Hughes Charles, Downham, Switzer and Kerr.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Quarterly Board of the Simcoe street Methodist church, Oshawa has extended an invitation to Rev. H. T. Lewis, of Cobourg, brother of Rev. J. Lewis, of the Mark street Methodist church to accept the pastorate of that church at the close of this conference year. Rev. Dr. Shorey, the present pastor of Simcoe street church, has been invited to Cobourg, and both will be accepted subject, of course, to the consent of the Stationing Committee of the Conference which meets this year in Bowmanville. Rev. Mr. Lewis is quite well known in Peterborough, and the recognition of his ability, of which this is the evidence will be learned with pleasure here.

FROST GETS A PLACE AMONG GOOD ADVERTISERS

Criticism of Some Jewellers' Advertisements by "The Canadian Jeweller"

Among a dozen examples of good advertisements of jewellers, which have been selected from all over Canada, by "The Trade and Canadian Jeweller," one of Mr. Frost's of this city, is among the number as it appeared in the Examiner of a few weeks ago. The ad. critic in his complimentary reference thereto says: "The Frost example is neatness itself. The border would carry a very inferior ad. The talk of the ad. does not, however, specialize sufficiently. Here again are no prices." The ad. critic is evidently in favour of giving prices and says: "It should be remembered that where possible prices should always be given."

Mc'Dermid & Jury, our Well Known Druggists, Make a Proposition to the People of Peterborough

All Interested Are Advised to Accept

Know, therefore, that we, McDermid & Jury, druggists, of this city, do hereby agree to furnish all the medicine necessary to restore to health any sick persons in Peterborough. Should the medicine fail to accomplish what we guarantee, it will be absolutely free.

Let every person who is run down, weakened from any cause, sickness, or pulmonary disease—old people—nursing mothers—pale, debilitated women and children, or those troubled with hard colds, hacking coughs, or incipient consumption, come to our store, and get a bottle of Vinol, yes, two or three bottles, and if it does not accomplish what we guarantee it will, we will without question refund every dollar they pay us for it. We have seen such wonderful results from Vinol and have received so many unsolicited testimonials that we know what it will do.

This is a fair and square offer, honourably made, and with the expectation that it will be accepted by all people in ill health in Peterborough.

If you don't already know what Vinol is let us tell you. Vinol is the modernized preparation of cod liver oil. It does not contain a drop of oil, yet it positively does—mind you. We give you our word for this—it positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements which are taken from fresh cod's livers. We have now been selling and recommending Vinol for some time, and without hesitation we say it is the grandest and best rebuilder of bodily strength and health we ever had in our store.

Don't you think you had better accept our offer? McDermid & Jury.

Vinol is also sold at The Market Drug Store, The Ormond & Walsh old stand.

A SPLENDID CONCERT BY SANS SOUCI COMPANY

New Organization Composed of Local Talent Gave Entertainment in Town Hall, North Monaghan

CONCERT CO. WITH A BRIGHT FUTURE

A most creditable musical and literary programme was presented in the Town Hall, North Monaghan, last night by the Sans Souci Concert Company. This company is a new organization composed entirely of some of the best Peterborough talent and from the high class character of the concert which it presented to the North Monaghan public last night, it is worthy of more than a passing recognition. The management of the company have endeavoured in its organization to select the cast with a view to being able to place before their audiences entertainments above the ordinary in quality and undoubtedly some very intelligent selections have been made. The cast includes a violinist, pianist, soloists and elocutionists of rare ability, as well as an orchestra and male quartettes that would do justice to any platform.

Judging from the reception with which the Sans Souci Company was greeted last night, it has no reason to feel discouraged. A large audience, part of which was from Peterborough, was present and certainly was well pleased with the capable manner in which the delightful function was conducted.

The orchestra is composed of Miss Julia Choate, violinist; Mrs. Norman E. Bell, pianist, and Mr. Arthur Seward, cornetist. Last evening it was heard three times during the programme and was very much appreciated. Two solos, "Dearie," "The Isle of Dreams," were excellently rendered by Mr. Duncan C. Campbell, the possessor of strong baritone voice of rare calibre. His singing last night was greatly enjoyed. Little Miss Greta Lellar, a youthful elocutionist, who needs no introduction to Peterborough people, was another of the talented entertainers. Her recitations were a feature of the evening; they were clearly and gracefully given and received due recognition from the audience.

Miss Julia Choate, a talented violinist and a pupil of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, has also appeared before Peterborough audiences. Her rendering of "Home Sweet Home" was splendidly performed and highly appreciated. A character song, entitled "Why Can't a Girl be a Soldier," by Mr. Walter G. Conway, and a comic song, "Travelling," by Mr. Leonard Paterson were two warmly received numbers and both were called upon to duplicate.

Mrs. A. Paterson-Mowry, an elocutionist of ability, is another of the cast. Her selections last night were very creditable rendered and in such a splendid manner as only can be perfected after careful training. The male quartettes is composed of Messrs. Arthur Seward, Walter Conway, Geo. Buchannan and Leonard Paterson. Their voices blend agreeably and were heard to the best advantage last night.

A vocal solo was also rendered by Miss Julia Choate, who possesses a soprano voice of exceptional quality. Mr. Arthur Seward gave a fine cornet solo with appropriate distinction of expression which was received with much favour. The concert closed with a selection by the orchestra, and the singing of "God Save the King." But even after the programme was concluded many lingered long in the hall in the hope that some of the numbers might be informally duplicated and they were not disappointed. In a word, the first concert given by the Sans Souci Company was a splendid success and would undoubtedly be favoured with a well-filled house should it ever again be presented to a North Monaghan audience.

The chairman of the evening was Mr. Wm. Potter, who, with his great fund of humourous stories, occupied that position very acceptably. The company intend reproducing their concert next Tuesday night in the Warsaw Town Hall and are assured of a warm reception.

PORK-PACKERS WANT PURE BRED SWINE SALES

A Deputation of Packing House Men Waited on the Minister of Agriculture in Reference to the Matter

A proposition is on foot, says the Canadian Dairyman, among pork-packers for the inauguration of a regular series of sales of pure-bred swine, with the purpose of encouraging farmers to a more general consideration of the question of raising fine hogs. Dr. Smale, representing Wm. Davies Company, and Messrs. Laing of the Laing Packing Company of Montreal, and Matthews, of the Matthews Packing Company, of Peterborough, waited upon the Hon. Nelson Monteith recently, in behalf of the Pork Packers' Association, to get the feeling of the government upon the matter. The deputation was favourably received. The Government is in sympathy with the pork packers in their endeavour to improve the hog industry of Eastern Ontario, and is willing to co-operate with the association in carrying out the proposed scheme.

TWO DRUNKS BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE TO-DAY

Two drunks faced Magistrate Dumble this morning on the charge of disorderly conduct on the public thoroughfare. One of them was found helpless yesterday afternoon on Hunter street and as a result was fined the usual $2, to be paid in ten days. The other young man with a number of friends were raising it high last night when P. C. Newhall placed the one in question under arrest. In bringing the man to the police station the policeman received a blow in the face which, however, was not charged against him in court. P. C. Mcberry was also on hand to give assistance. A fine of $2.00 and costs amounting to $3.75 was paid by the accused in court.

WEDDING BELLS

MILBURN--BAPTIE

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Baptie, Springville, was the scene of an interesting event last night, when their daughter, Annie, was married to Mr. Smith D. Milburn, of Smith Township, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties, numbering about thirty. Promptly at 5.30 to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Ida Sanderson, the bride, dressed in white chiffon taffeta with tulle veil and sprays of valley lilies and carrying a shower bouquet of brides' roses, ferns and lilies, entered the drawing room on her father's arm. The bride and groom were unattended, and, during the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of the Springville Presbyterian Church, stood under an arch of white and green, with palms and cut flowers.

The ceremony concluded, an adjournment was made to the spacious dining room the tables in which were decorated with sprays of smilax, pink and white carnations, and these, with the soft glow of the candles, presented a pretty picture. After justice had been done the good things provided, and congratulations extended the young bride and groom, a pleasant evening was spent and Mr. and Mrs. Milburn later left for their new home in Smith Township, followed by the heartiest good wishes of their assembled friends. The bride, who was one of the most popular young ladies in her home community, will be much missed in church and social circles.

COWAN--WRIGHT

A very pretty wedding took place in the Presbyterian Church, Omemee, on January 23rd, when Miss Sadie Wright, only daughter of the late Gordon Wright, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Cowan, of Fraserburg, Muskoka, by the Rev. W. M. Kaunawin, of Woodville.

Long before the hour appointed the beautiful little church was crowded to the doors by those eager to witness the ceremony. Promptly at one o'clock the bride entered, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. G. McNeil Wright, and marched up the aisle to the strains of Handel's beautiful wedding march, played by Miss Annie Ivory, of Omemee.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Lena Tully, and Mr. Sherman Everitt supported the groom. The ushers were Mr. Harry Lamb and Mr. Jack Blaylock.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white organdy with a long train trimmed with allover lace and white satin ribbon, with a long veil with orange blossoms in her hair and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in cream cashmere trimmed with allover lace and cream satin ribbon with hat to match and carried pink roses.

After the ceremony the bride's brother, Mr. G. McNeil Wright, sang that beautiful wedding solo, "O, Promise Me," after which the guests, numbering about thirty-five, repaired to the home of the bride's mother and after congratulations had been extended to the happy pair all sat down to a bountiful repast, and after justice had been done to the good things provided Mr. Kannawin proposed the health of the bride, speaking in complimentary terms of her usefulness, both as a church worker and a member of society. The groom, in a few well chosen words, made a suitable reply. The health of the bridesmaid was then drunk and responded to by the groomsman, Mr. Everitt.

The presents were valuable and numerous, showing the high esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends. The groom's gift to the bride was a Persian lamb collar, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch and to the best man a gold stick pin.

The bride's going-away gown was a plaid with a wine coloured coat and hat to match. The happy couple left on the 5.30 train for Toronto, and Niagara before going to their home in Fraserburg.

NORTHEY--BELL

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening, January 16th, at Poplar Grove, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bell, when their third daughter, Bertha L., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Whitfield Northey, youngest son of Mr. Solomon Northey, of Bridgenorth. The ceremony, which took place at five o'clock, was performed by Rev. (Dr.) Metzler, of Bridgenorth. The bride looked charming in a costume of cream chiffon taffeta, trimmed with silk insertion and wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms and entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch, while Lohengrin wedding march was being played by Miss Auzonette Nelson, of Lakefield, cousin of the bride. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida, sister of the bride, was attired in a dress of cream brocade toile de lane. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Harold Lawrence, of Lakefield.

After the ceremony and congratulations had been tendered the happy couple, the guests to the number of about forty, sat down to a sumptuous dejeuner. A few hours were then spent in social intercourse. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold brooch, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. The popularity of the young couple was evidenced by the number of many costly gifts received, among which was a beautiful piano cased organ, the gift of the bride's father. The bride's going-away dress was brown broadcloth— Mr. and Mrs. Northey have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for their future happiness and prosperity and will now take up their residence near Bridgenorth.

Miss Dertha Bell Honoured by the Congregation of the Fairview Methodist Church

Miss Bartha Bell, who for some time has most acceptably filled the position of organist of the Fairview Methodist church was recently presented by the congregation with a handsome Morris chair, accompanied by the following address:—

To Miss Bertha Bell:

We, the members of the congregation of the Fairview Methodist church desire to express our appreciation of your faithful services as organist. We assure you that we are truly thankful and know full well that such service is never fully paid by man; but He who bade us deny ourselves for His sake will most abundantly reward all who serve Him in love. We hope you will remember us kindly and we have great pleasure in presenting to you this Morris chair as a small token of our appreciation of you as organist, a friend and a Christian. We wish you a happy New Year and a long and joyous life wherever in the Providence of God you may choose to live.

On Thursday evening, Jan. 24th, upon Mr. Wm. Lowes, Reeve of Emily, return from attending the county council, a large number of his friends assembled at his home and spent a very pleasant evening, the amusements being dancing, singing, and card playing. Each one thoroughly enjoyed himself until 12 o'clock, when a sumptuous supper was served to all, after which Mr. Lowes was presented with a very handsome Morris chair. The following address was read by Mr. John Sullivan and the presentation made by Mr. G. C. Franks to the reeve:

To Mr. Wm. Lowes, Reeve of Emily Township:

Dear Mr. Lowes,—We, some of your supporters take this opportunity to express in a few words to you our sincere pleasure over your being raised to the high dignity of reeveship in the Township of Emily. We assure you it was a great source of delight to us all when the report of the election stated that you were returned the successful candidate. As a slight token of our gratitude towards you, we ask you to accept this chair, and trust that you shall be preserved to not alone serve this year as our reeve, but that you may enjoy many such years bearing the same title.

BANQUET BY SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER TO HIS CLASS

Pleasant Evening at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robertson, Aylmer Street, Last Night

MR. E. M. BEST WAS TOAST MASTER

About thirty guests enjoyed the banquet given last night by Mr. Geo. Robertson at his residence on Aylmer street, to the members of his Sunday School class. This banquet is an annual event, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson's hospitality is always very highly appreciated.

After the Company had enjoyed an excellent supper, Mr. E. M. Best, who acted as toast master began his duties in that capacity. The King was first honoured after which Mr. Gordon Miller proposed the health of the host and hostess with a few complimentary remarks. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson's health and happiness were heartily drunk, the toast being responded to by Mr. Robertson.

The Class was next proposed by Mr. O. R. Mann and responded to by Messrs. Maxwell Dobbin, I. Ivey and Roy Powell. The Sunday School was honoured by Mr. Harry Cressman in an appropriate speech and was responded to by the superintendent, Mr. S. R. Armstrong.

The important toast to the ladies was undertaken by Messrs. R. Dobbin and P. Hetherington. Miss E. Miller replied.

Interspersing the various toasts the company were favoured with vocal solos by Miss C. Recsor and readings by Mr. E. A. Mann, which were very heartily received.

The pleasant evening was brought to a close by the siongoing of "For He's a Jolly, Good Fellow," and God Save the King.

THE KINGSTON TEAM EXPECTS A VICTORY

14th Will Have Same Team as Played Against the Locals Here

The Peterborough team, according to the Kingston press reports, will be up against a hard proposition to-night, when they meet the 14th Team. The Limestone City team's supporters look to the home team to pull out with a win, the Whig, referring to the game saying:—

The 14th hockey team had a good practice at the rink last night, after the Cadet-Queen's game. The boys are in good condition for to-morrow night's game, and expect to trim the Peterborough men. The 14th officers are behind, financially, on the season so far, and expect a large turn-out on Wednesday night. The team to face Peterborough, will likely be: Hiscock, goal; J. Richardson, point; Vanhorn, cover point; Pottel, rover; Bernier, centre; G. Richardson, left wing; Powell, right wing.

HOCKEY

The Charlotte Street team of the City League are indignant over the manner in which they were treated by that body at the meeting held last night. They point out that at a meeting held some weeks ago a change was made in the constitution of the league by which Miller and Lang of the Charlotte Street team were allowed to play four games with the seniors, before they would be barred from playing in the City League. The Charlotte Street team, acting under this rule, played the two men in the games that have been played since that time and now not only has the rule been rescinded but the two games that the Methodists have won have been thrown out and will have to be played over according to the ruling of the league last night. The Charlotte Stroet team will finish the schedule as originally drawn up and then will ask that the matter be referred to an arbitration board to settle.

The Peterborough team accompanied by a handful of supporters left on the 8.20 G.T.R. train for Kingston this morning. The boys expected a hard game but were confident of winning. Whitcroft is suffering from an attack of lagrippe but beyond that the team was never in better condition. The line-up will be:—

The Oriental has installed a special wire to receive the returns from Kingston of the Peterborough-Kingston game to-night.

The City League games to-morrow night promise to be of more than usual interest. The Charlotte Street team will play the Orphans in the first contest and as the Methodists will be without the services of Lang and Miller, they will have to go the limit to meet the Orphans. The Strathconas and Lakefields who meet in the second contest are very evenly matched and they will put up a battle royal.

Whitcroft, the artful dodger of the Peterborough team, played two positions against the Argos Saturday in Toronto and got away with them both. He is about the best forward in the association.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

RUNAWAY RESPONSIBLE FOR SOME EXCITEMENT

Horses Took the Pavement and Pedestrians Had to Dodge

A team of horses belonging to J. Manley of Monaghan were the central figures in an exciting runaway on George street this afternoon. They were tied to a post in front of Cottingham's barber shop, near the corner of Brock and frightened by a street car broke away, leaving the cutter behind them. Near Howdon's butcher shop the flying horses took to the pavement and pedestrians had a narrow escape. One young man eluded them by getting behind a telegraph pole and the horses dashed by one on each side. They were captured farther up the street. The cutter which was jammed against the post to which the horses had been tied, was considerably damaged.

Best Winter for Many Years for Prosecution of Lumbering Operations—Oyster Supper at Young's Point on Friday

Examiner Special.

Young's Point, Jan. 29.—An oyster supper and entertainment in aid of the English church was held here on Friday, 25th. The supper was partaken of in the basement of the church and everyone was well satisfied with the menu. The entertainment was held in Mr. Heard's Hall and the programme was a delightful one which was rendered by some local talent also a number from Lakefield taking part. The Rev. Mr. Battersby is to be congratulated on the success of the evening.

Almost everyone has put in their annual supply of ice here, and it is of the best quality. On Clear Lake the average thickness of clear ice was 15 inches.

The sleighing this winter has been the best in a number of years. No deep snow and no pitch holes and splendid for the lumbermen.

Mrs. Robert Plymouth, Sr., is confined to her bed with lagrippe.

Mrs. Peter Ayotte, sr., is ill at present.

The boys have worked faithfully in keeping a skating rink cleaned off this winter, and there has been first-class skating all winter.

CHARLOTTE STREET TEAM LOSES TWO GAMES

Games in Which Lang and Miller Played Were Thrown Out by City League Executive

AN INTERESTING MEETING WAS HELD

A meeting of the city league was held last evening in the Oriental hotel, to consider matters of great importance to the league. Each team in the league was represented. Mr. F. A. Clarke, the president, was in the chair.

Mr. Ira Moore read the minutes of the last meeting, which was held on Jan. 15th. The minutes were adopted with the exception of one clause which was, That the senior hockey team, might have the power to take players from the city league, and that any player might play four senior O.H.A. games, before he is barred from the city league matches. Considerable discussion took place on this cause.

Mr. M. J. Maher, vice-president of the league, thought the senior team should have the right to take players from the league. Each team ought to be willing to make a sacrifice, in case the seniors needed players.

Mr. Shaw of the Auburns was agreeable to a man playing two senior games, before being barred from the city league.

Another representative thought it was a pity that a player would not be able to play in city league games, after engaging in two senior games. He probably would not play another one during the season.

Dr. Gibson of Lakefield expressed his opinion that they should abide by the constitution, which was that any player who played one senior game could not play in the city league.

Mr. Williams moved that they abide by the motion of last meeting. This motion was seconded by Mr. F. Whitecroft.

Dr. Gibson moved in amendment, that they abide by the constitution, that is any player who has played one senior game be barred from city league hockey, and the two last games of Charlotte street team be thrown out. This was seconded by Mr Maher.

Mr. Shaw moved in amendment to the amendment, that two senior games might be played before a player is barred from the city league. When the motions were put to a vote the amendment of Dr. Gibson was carried.

Lang and Miller will not be eligible to play in city league hockey, and Charlotte street's last two games have been thrown out, and will have to be fought over again.

It was moved by Mr. Shaw, and seconded by Mr. Whitecroft, that the first game between the Auburns and Strathconas be thrown out owing to Parnell playing on the Strathconas, he having played in intermediate O.H.A. games last year. This motion was carried, and the game will be played over.

Owing to the condition of affairs which have arisen in the city league, the juvenile series will have to be abandoned for this year, as there will not be sufficient time to play all the games.

The meeting then adjourned.

CHIEFTAINS WON FROM A COMBINATION TEAM

Defeated a Joint Invincible-Royal Team From the City League in a Fast Game Last Night

The Chieftians of the Junior City League defeated a picked team from the Royals and Invincibles to the tune of 10-5. The winners were much superior in their combination than their opponents and were more accurate in their shooting. The Chieftians forwards were equally speedy while Heffernan was the shining light for the losers. The Chiefs' defence was a regular stone wall while Lees in goal stopped many hot ones. The teams lined up as follows:—

Chieftains.		Royals-Invincibles.
	Goal.
Lees	Point	Giroux
Munroe	Cover Point	Hickey
Fortye	Rover.	Clancy
Crane	Centre.	Fitzgerald
Hall	Right Wing	Halpany

Gordon Long gave good satisfaction as referee.

AGREEMENT ARRIVED AT WITHOUT ANY TROUBLE

Board of Education Will Build the Institute on Line with the Armouries

JOINT COMMITTEE MET LAST NIGHT

The difficulty between the Board of Education and the City Council in reference to the location of the new Collegiate Institute, was amicably settled at a meeting of the committees appointed by the two bodies to deal with the matter. The joint Committee of the Board of Education held a meeting before they met the Council committee so that at the joint meting they were ready to make a definite statement of their position. They announced that they were prepared to have the Collegiate Institute built on a line with the armouries as required provided they were given the deed of lots 2, 4, 5, and 6. This was perfectly satisfactory to the aldermen and a bylaw covering i twill be passed at the meeting of the council on Monday night next.

There were present Messrs. Robt. Fair, W. Pringle, W. H. Hill, W. S. Robertson, D. W. Dumble, L. M. Hayes, Dr. M. A. Morrison, of the Board of Education and the Mayor, Ald. Morrow and Elliott. Mr. Fair at the request of the Mayor, acted as chairman.

Mr. Fair said the object of the meeting was to arrive at an understanding in regard to the lots to be given to the School Board. He thought that there would be no trouble in settling the matter. All the Board asked was that they should receive deeds for lots 3, 4, 5, and 6, and the Collegiate Institute would be built on a line with the eastern end of the armouries. This was what had been given to the government.

The Mayor said that no one on the council had any desire to do anything that would appear like dictating to the Board. It was very desirable that both buildings should be built in a line. He did not think that it mattered whether the deed of lots 3, 4, 5, and 6 was in the hands of the Council or Board. There was no necessity of tying the Board down to any written agreement. The members of the council wished to have an understanding from the Board that the two buildings would be on a line.

Ald. Elliott said that he was very pleased to hear the remarks of the chairman of the Board of Education. He explained that the armoury was larger than had been intended, which would not make it necessary to keep so much ground in order.

Mr. Hill said that he did not altogether like some of the remarks made by the council the night before. He did not think it right on the part of the council to do so, seeing that both bodies were elected by the people. He referred to the course adopted by the Board in reference to the location of the building from which he said, they had never deviated. He felt that the Council should not dictate to them as to where the school was to be built. He was quite agreeable to having the Institute built in line with the armouries on condition that the Board receive lots 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Mr. Dumble expressed himself as being pleased that an amicable arrangement had been arrived at. He referred to the negotiations that had taken place in reference to the lots. The Board had come to the conclusion that they couldn't, in fairness, put their building anywhere else than in line with the armouries, if it was at all justifiable. The school building would not give as deep as the armouries and there would therefore be left a good play ground for the boys. The Government would, no doubt keep up their part of their ground and the city would do the same.

The meeting then adjourned with both sides well pleased that an amicable arrangement had been arrived at.

The minutes of the meeting which were agreed to by all present were as follows:—

The chairman of the Board explained the position of the Board in regard to the site of the Collegiate Institute. The Board wishes to have a deed of lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, south of McDonel street, and are prepared to undertake that if given such deed, the Board will build the new Collegiate Institute with its face in line with the eastern face of the new armouries as shown in the plans now shown. The ground in front to be kept clean of all obstructions and for the common use of all three parties, so long as the Government keeps their lots the same.

LEARN RESULTS OF THE HOCKEY GAME TO-NIGHT

To-night the returns of the Kingston-Peterborough game in the Limestone city will be bulletined at the Brock street rink, to which a special wire has been connected direct with the rink in Kingston. This game will be one of the hardest of the whole season, and deep interest is being taken in it here. The enterprise of the rink management will be appreciated by those who will want to learn the progress the team is making in a game which will in all probability mean the winning or losing of the district championship.

The 57th Band will be in attendance at the rink to-night, and the hour for skating will be extended, allowing the patrons to remain on the ice until the final reports of the game have been received and bulletined.

Was $100,000.00 Offered Talesman To Qualify?

A Sensational Story Coming From Scene of Thaw Murder Trial —An Exciting Incident of the Celebrated Case—Juror May Demand Explanation

Examiner Special

New York, Jan. 31.—At the Thaw trial to-day, there was a wild story going the rounds of the criminal courts building to the effect that $100,000 might begiven to any talesman who could qualify as a juror. Where the rumour came from no one could say, but it was given no credence whatever in any quarter. It was also stated that the talesman who are yet to be examined are under the surveillance of county detectives, but this could not be verified.

Faire May Demand Reason

The statement of Harold R. Faire, one of the jurors excused yesterday, that he could offer no explanation as to why he was replaced in the jury box was repeated on many sides today, and it was rumoured that he might demand in court an explanation of the action taken in his case.

Asphodel Farmer Assaults Son For Chewing Tobacco

Chased Him From the Woods to the Barn But Was Driven Off With a Pitchfork by Other Son

THE YOUTH IS NOW UNDERGOING MEDICAL TREATMENT

An assault case, accompanied by rather sensational circumstances, is reported from the township of Asphodel, where a father beat and, it is stated, almost killed, his son for chewing tobacco. William Dickson is now charged with assault upon his son, and will be arraigned before County Magistrate Edmison next Tuesday to answer the accusations.

From the yet meagre reports received here, it appears that the father went out to the woods on Tuesday, Jan. 21st, where the two sons were chopping, and found one of them chewing tobacco. It is said he began pounding the boy, who escaped as quickly as possible to the barn, and concealed himself. The youth was followed up, however, and the assault was continued.

It is reported that the other son then considered the old gentleman had gone far enough and drove his father off with a pitchfork. The victim of the assault left for Westwood but was overtaken on the road by a cutter and given a ride. He soon after became unconscious and was given medical aid at Westwood. He is now under medical treatment at his uncle's in Otonabee.

County Constable Cochrane left to-day for Asphodel to summons Dickson, and the date of the trial has been fixed for next Tuesday.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane Is Named As The City's Truant Officer

At a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners held yesterday afternoon the appointment of a Truant Officer for the city was considered and Mr. George Cochrane was given the position, his duties commencing to-day, and the salary attached to the position will be $100 per year. Mr. Cochrane's peculiar fitness for this office was recognized by the Commissioners, to whom his work in connection with the Children's Aid Society appealed as an indication of his special capacity for work of this character. In the past the need of an official of this kind has been severely felt, and with the appointment of Mr. Cochrane it is expected that a solution of a difficult problem is in sight.

WEDDING BELLS

KENNEDY--HUTCHINSON

Yesterday afternoon an interesting wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Henry Hutchinson, Bethany, when his daughter Ida was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Kennedy, also of that village. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of the Springville Presbyterian church, in the presence of a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was dressed very prettily in white mull, with the usual veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Laura Hutchinson, who was similarly attired and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Lloyd Kennedy, his brother. After the wedding the usual dejeuner was served in the dining room, and congratulations were extended the happy couple and audibly acknowledged.

The presents, of which there were many, bore eloquent testimony to the popularity of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will reside at Bethany.

McCOLLOUGH--EGAAR

The wedding was solemnized in Ottawa on Tuesday last of Miss Egaar of that city and Dr. J. Malcolm McCullough, of Peterborough.

BUCK ESTATE CASE IN OSGOODE HALL

The Toronto papers to-day have the following reference to a legal case of interest here:—

Re Buck Estate.—G. J. Sherry, Norwood, for the executors, moved for order declaring the construction of the will of Charles Buck, late of the village of Norwood, under rule 938, and to have it declared whether Marjorie Buck is entitled to the use and benefit of the whole of the income of the estate of the testator by way of interest that may be derived from the estate from time to time, and if not entitled to the whole income to what part or proportion of such income she is entitled. W. H. Blake, K.C., for Wallington Buck, a nephew and remainderman. F. D. Kerr, Peterborough, for Marjorie Buck, the wife. M. C. Cameron for infant beneficiaries. Reserved.

TORONTO TELEPHONE GIRLS WENT OUT ON STRIKE AT 1 O'CLOCK

Practical Protest Made Against the Eight Hour Shift

Examiner Special

Toronto, Jan. 31. — The girls in the main office of the Bell Telephone Company, went out on strike at one o'clock this afternoon refusing to conform to the new 8 hour schedule put in force by the company. They marched out of the building in a body. The company has still some operators at work, and are gradually getting in operators who have been on the waiting list, but the service is pretty badly demoralized.

OBITUARY

JOHN SIM

General regret is being expressed at the sad death of Mr. John Sim, which occurred at the Nicholls Hospital at eight o'clock last night. The deceased was very well known in this city, being for about thirty years a driver for the Canadian Express Co. In this position he met with a large number of people and formed many friendships.

The deceased was born in Peterborough 65 years ago; his parents have both predeceased him, his father, the late John Sim, having passed away about eight years ago. His was a quiet, unostentatious disposition and very reliable at his work. It is said that other than allotted holidays he never missed a day, during his long service with the Express Co. He was taken ill two weeks ago, his condition becoming serious nearly a week ago.

Three sisters remain to mourn his untimely demise. They are Mrs. Wm. Turnbull, of Brandon; Mrs. Hamilton, of Campbellford, and Miss Ellen, of this city.

PRESENTATION TO A S. S. TEACHER

Miss Julia Gillespie, Secretary of Cold Springs' Union Sadday School, Given Gold Locket

A pleasant social event at the residence of Miss Laura Bennett, of Otonabee, was made the occasion of a presentation of a gold bracelet to Miss Julia Gillespie, who has for the past six years been secretary-treasurer of the Cold Springs Union Sunday School. Miss Gillespie, besides being the secretary of the school is and has been for some time a teacher of a class. Her devotion to her work in these capacities has been recognized by the members of the Sunday School who made the presentation last night.

Miss Bennett, the superintendent of the school, in a brief address referred to the services of Miss Gillespie while connected with the Sunday school and the presentation of the bracelet was made by Miss May Smith. Miss Gillespie was taken completely by surprise and responded to the kindness which the members of the school had expressed in the gift.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music, and shortly after a midnight supper the guests dispersed.

MR. TIMOTHY EATON'S SUDDEN DEATH RECORDED

Head of Greatest Departmental Store in Canada Passed Away in Toronto This Morning

HIS RECORD WAS REMARKABLE ONE

A despatch was received this morning by Messrs. J. R. Heintz & Co., stating that Timothy Eaton, the head of the great departmental store in Toronto, had died suddenly at 10.30 this forenoon. No details were forthcoming as to the cause of his death or the duration of his fatal illness.

Probably few business men in Canada are better known by reputation, than the late Mr. Eaton. His remarkable progress from the proprietorship of a small country store, to the ownership of the largest business of its kind in Canada, if not the largest on the continent, reads like a romance.

CONTRIBUTIONS WERE SQUANDERED

Money Given for Charitable Purposes Spent in Manner Wholly Different From Purpose Intended

The Examiner is advised that a resident of the city who some time ago met with a serious loss, has been circulating a petition for financial assistance, and a number of charitably disposed persons have contributed varying sums towards what they believed to be a worthy cause. It now transpires that the money contributed has been spent in a manner totally different from that for which it was given, and in a way which indicates that the recipient is unworthy of help. The Examiner has been asked to call the attention of the public to the fact.

BUSINESS SYSTEMS, LIMITED

Now Spending $50,000 in Building—This Concern, Starting Less Than Two Years Ago, Erecting a Large Plant in Toronto

The people of Toronto, and in fact all the country, have been interested in watching the progress of Business Systems, Limited, from the inception of the business up to the present time—and it has certainly been a period of great progress.

Starting in rented premises at 93 Spadina avenue, they gradually outgrew their first quarters and in June last year expanded further by taking in a second factory at 52 Spadina, turning the old McMahon residence into a factory. Even this has proved inadequate and the McMahon property has now been purchased and plans are completed for the erection of a five story factory building, 60 x 130, to be completed by August 1, 1907.

Business Systems paid during 1906 over $40,000.00 to the wage earners of Toronto, and deserve all commendation for retaining in Toronto many skilled workmen who would have taken situations elsewhere, and now by further showing confidence in the city by erecting a plant at a cost of $50,000.00, and permanently establishing themselves in the heart of our best and steadily growing factory district — Spadina and King streets.

This company attributes the steady increase in their business not only to the energy which has been put into the business, but the steady growth of Canada and the natural inclination for up-to-date business methods has created a demand which has been taken advantage of and this company are now building up a business which during 1907, will expend $75,000 in wages alone.

THE LEADER MAKES GOOD

The first speech of Hon. G. P. Graham, the new leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Legislature, would indicate that a wise choice has been made, and that he will admirably fill the position to which he has been elevated. It strikes the true keynote of Liberal principles, and his address was so reasonably conceived and courteously delivered, as to win the approval of his Conservative opponents. While he gently touched the shortcomings of the Government party, and exposed their errors of policy, he was not merely denunciatory, but constructive, in announcing a policy, which had the ring of Liberalism and, what naturally follows, progressiveness. His declaration for a progressive forestry policy, is only a reaffirmation of the policy of the late Liberal Government, that had taken practical steps to establish a system of forestry, which on their retiring from office was abandoned by the present Government, and, so far as practical system was concerned, our woods and forests were left to the wolves. Mr. Graham touched on the raw, when, in dealing with educational matters, he said, "There is no one near the top of the department, who is in sympathy with the needs of the public school" — a self-evident proposition, when it is remembered that the interests of education are in the hands of a minister who knows more about squills than schools, assisted by a deputy and superintendent of education, who are absolutely without experience in regard to public schools. Hon. Mr. Graham, it is generally conceded, delivered a good speech, both in form and matter, and made a very graceful and effective entry upon the dignity and duties of Liberal leadership. The platform to which he has committed the Liberal policy, as given below, in crystallised form, is a broad one, and affords room for the great Liberal party of Ontario, and all other citizens who desire to see progressive and sound administration of our affairs:

"We stand for a practical and progressive forestry policy, now and for the future;

"For the abolition of contract labour at the Central Prison on any terms;

"For fair play to legitimate investment, but not one cent for watered stock;

"For the rational capitalization and limitations of the powers of such corporations as the Standard Oil and other companies that are endeavouring to take money out of Canada;

"For absolute and unassailable mining titles by the Government;

"For free school books, as part of the equipment of the Public and Separate schools;

"For cheap power, for the municipalities and the people;

"For the economical management of the provincial business, notwithstanding the buoyancy of the revenue;

"For absolute control by the municipalities of their own streets and every encouragement to the ownership of their own utilities;

"And for the management of the Public school system by a head experienced in, and conversant with, that system."

It is mildly urged in criticism that Mr. Graham omitted to refer to such matters as civil service reform, and temperance matters. This was, perhaps, an inadvertance. Only a few hours had elapsed between Mr. Graham's appointment and the delivery of his address, in which was outlined his policy, and, obviously, time for the maturest consideration was lacking. If he had wished to take the Government at a disadvantage he could have employed the two subjects he omitted to specifically refer to, for they are two subjects upon which the Government by its record is particularly vulnerable, and open to hostile criticism. "Altogether," as the Toronto News, a Conservative Government organ says, "Mr. Graham has made a deliverance in consonance with the traditions and the aspirations of Liberals, and if he perseveres in the policy upon which he has entered, we shall have, instead of the partizan rubbish of recent years, eager, intelligent and patriotic discussion of the vital questions, which concern modern communities."

A GOOD APPOINTMENT

The Police Commissioners have made an excellent choice in appointing Mr. Geo. Cochrane Truant Officer for the city. Mr. Cochrane possesses special qualifications for the important office. He has had a large experience in dealing with offenders against the law, great and small, he has sound judgment, good common sense and is reliable. His connection with the Children's Aid Society especially fits him for dealing with children who need firm but kindly looking after. Truancy is hardly a crime but an evidence of a mental and moral condition, which demands judicious handling. The object of the work of a truant officer is not to bring punishment so much as reclamation. Saving a child from wayward ways is not only a moral and social gain, but a saving of money. If a boy can be saved from the Industrial School, the city is saved an outlay of from $250 to $300, and besides a good citizen is gained. There is a certainty that Mr. Cochrane will fill his new office with efficiency and satisfaction.

NOMINATIONS FEB. 13. VOTING IS ON FEB. 20.

Date of the West Middlesex Bye-Election Set—Mr. Hoyle Gets Order For an Important Return.

Toronto, Jan. 31.—W. H. Hoyle, M. P. P., got an order of the Legislature yesterday for a return giving certain information about the Toronto Electric Light Co., Ltd.

West Middlesex Election.

Feb 13 is the date for nominations in West Middlesex and Feb. 20 for the election. Stephen Blackwood is the returning officer. This was announced after the adjournment of the House, in which a resolution was adopted declaring the seat vacant and ordering a writ to issue forthwith.

Mr. Speaker read a notification he had received based on an announcement in The Canada Gazette of 19th inst., that Hon. G. W. Ross had gone to another place, and that the seat he had occupied was vacant.

Hon. Mr. Foy explained that the statute in section 6 referred to members of the Legislature becoming members of the House of Commons, but no provision was made for the translation of Senators. The motion might not be necessary, but was expedient.

Mr. Harcourt Demurred.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, who had demurred at first, on this explanation admitted that it could do no harm and suggested that the commission consolidating the statutes should rectify the omission.

Premier Whitney said it was only when their attention was called by circumstances that such omissions became evident. He thought it astonishing that the Senators had not been thought of.

Replying to the question by T. H. Preston (Brant) Hon. Frank Cochrane said it was not the intention of the Government to permit persons who have made locations under the Veteran Lands Grant Act, to surrender the same and obtain the cash equivalent of $50.

Redistribution.

Premier Whitney, replying to Mr. Preston, stated that the Government had not yet considered the question of redistribution of seats in the local House.

Hon. Frank Cochrane got a first reading for a bill to amend the Veterans' Land Grant Act by an extension of six months in the time for making applications.

BIRTH.

OVEREND. — At Peterborough, on Wednesday, January 30th, 1907, at 547 Downie street, to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Overend, a daughter.

THE MISSION SOCIETY'S NEW OFFICERS

Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Society of St. Paul's Mission was Held Yesterday Afternoon

The annual meeting of the Home Mission Auxiliary of St. Paul's Mission was held yesterday afternoon in Knox Church, when the reports on the work of the society for the past year were presented, and the officers elected. An interesting programme was also given. The officers who were chosen for the year 1907 at the meeting yesterday were:

President—Mrs. John McPherson,
1st Vice-President — Mrs. Robt. Hall.
2nd Vice-President—Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Torrance.
Rec.-Sec.—Miss Cameron.
Cor.-Sec.—Miss Amy K. Bennett.
Lit.-Sec.—Miss Nina Davidson.
Treasurer—Mrs. Allin.
Organist—Mrs. R. E. Wood.

During the afternoon Miss Beatty gave vocal solos which were greatly appreciated, and Mrs. Robt. Hall read a paper on the work of the Home Missionary Society, while Mrs. R. E. Wood contributed an interesting paper on Mission Work among the Mormons in the North-west.

In view of the separation of Knox and St. Paul churches the name of the society was changed to the Home Missionary Society of St. Paul's and Knox Churches, and it was decided to continue the society jointly for at least one year. The reports of the work presented yesterday indicate a prosperous year and the prospects for the future are very bright.

THE EVILS OF CONSTIPATION

Specialist Says Women in Particular Are Sufferers—Why Bileans Prove So Beneficial

A medical specialist states that eight out of ten cases of headache, dizziness, sallow complexion, and various ailments peculiar to women for which he is consulted have their origin in constipation. Although this ailment is very common amongst both sexes, women appear to be the greater sufferers. Bileans cure constipation by stimulating the liver and regulating the bile flow. Bile is the natural purgative of the body. Bileans regulate its secretion.

Mrs. E. E. Baldwin, of 38 St. Paul street, Toronto, says: "I have taken Bileans for constipation and dizziness and found most satisfactory results. Bileans do not cause any griping, and not only cure constipation but also improve the general health."

Mr. A. Monaghan, of Berlin, recently proved this vegetable remedy in a similar way. He says: "For many years I suffered from both constipation and piles. Nothing I have ever tried is to be compared for beneficial result to Bileans. They have made me a different man, and if any sufferer would like to ask me any question on their operation and their value I will be glad to give all the information I can."

Such is the result of exhaustive tests of Bileans. This great vegetable remedy is invaluable also for sallow complexions (due to bile in the blood), pimples, greasy, sallow skin, and blood impurities generally. Bileans also cure indigestion, debility, rheumatism, anaemia, female ailments and irregularities, "run-down feelings," liver and kidney complaint, headache, sleeplessness, wind spasms, palpitation, etc. All druggists sell at 50c. a box, or obtainable post-free from the Bilean Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Six boxes for $2.50.

Undigested Food

When any portion of food remains in the stomach and refuses to digest, it causes the torments of indigestion. This undigested food rapidly ferments, irritating the sensitive coating of the stomach, while other parts of the body, particularly the head, suffer in consequence.

So long as this undigested food remains in the stomach, the discomfort continues. A few doses of stop all fermentation, sweeten the contents of the stomach and give natural assistance that relieves the stomach of its burden. The use of Beecham's Pills gradually strengthens the stomach nerves and soon restores them to a normal, healthy condition.

Beecham's Pills have been used and recommended by the general public for over fifty years.

Liver Trouble From Overeating

THE KIDNEYS AND BOWELS ALSO DERANGED AND CURE ONLY OBTAINED BY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Hurried eating and lack of proper mastication of the food are among the most common causes of indigestion, and overeating is undoubtedly the beginning of trouble with the liver and kidneys.

Kidney disease and rheumatism are not usually the first indication of a deranged system, but these troubles follow unheeded headaches, constipation and bilious attacks.

Because of that direct and combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are effective in whatever stage of such derangements they may be used, except when the structure of the kidneys has been wasted away by Bright's disease.

What we would emphasize, however, is the advantage of beginning this treatment at the first indication of trouble with the liver. It is the liver which first feels the result of overeating because of its difficulty in filtering the blood. Keep the liver right by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you not only prevent headaches, biliousness and constipation, but entirely escape derangements of the kidneys, which are at once so dreadfully painful and fatal.

Mrs. E. Husband, Moore street, St. Catharines, Ont., states: "I was seriously afflicted with indigestion and stomach trouble for sixteen years. Finally I became so bad that I could scarcely eat anything without suffering terrible distress. Gradually I grew weaker and more emaciated, and though treated by three doctors and a specialist, I received no benefit.

"After a time a pain began in my right side, which medical men said was liver trouble. I never got relief until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and they helped me at once. By using about a dozen boxes I was entirely cured. I owe my cure entirely to this treatment, and make this statement with the hope that some poor sufferer may benefit by my experience."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.—11.

FRATERNAL VISIT WAS PAID TO ST. MARTIN'S

Members of St. Peter's T.A.S. Visited Ennismore Abstainers and Lost at 45's by 161-137

And still they come!

The social relations existing betiting between the Total Abstinence Societies of Ennismore and St. Peter's was further strengthened by the visit of the latter club last night. About forty of the members of the social club of the local society drove to Ennismore and were the guests of the social club of St. Martin's T. A. S. Three busses were required to convey the jolly crowd who greatly enjoyed the moonlight drive.

The home club vanquished the visitors in a game of forty-fives by the score of 161 to 137. This practically obliterates the beating the Ennismore people received here a few weeks ago. The affair was held in St. Martin's Hall where a delightful repast was served by the ladies after the gentlemen had finished at cards. Everyone speaks highly of the kindness with which they were treated, but especially did they appreciate the dainty refreshments that were provided.

The evening was brought to a close by speeches, songs and music which was very much enjoyed. Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Rev. Fathers Galvin, Kelly and Brethertion, representing the clergy were some of those who spoke, expressing their pleasure with the entertainment that had been given and with the good will and friendship which existed between the parishes.

A violin solo by Miss Scollard was thoroughly appreciated. The hit of the evening, however, was a step dance by Messrs. P. Kane and Wm. Crough, who as they say, brought down the house. The trip was a most enjoyable one and will be long remembered by those who were fortunate in being present.

Miraculous Escape of Imperial Limited Passengers—Two of Crew Hurt.

Renfrew, Jan. 31.—The west-bound imperial limited on the C.P.R. crashed into a standing train at the depot here at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and that many lives were not lost seems almost miraculous. As it was the casualties were confined to John Ryan, engineer of the standing train, badly scalded, and Fireman McKnight, of the west bound train, broken leg.

The east-bound train had taken the siding and was waiting for the west-bound train to pass. A brakeman is blamed for leaving the switch open, and when the train for Winnipeg arrived under a good head of steam it was locked with the standing train before it could be stopped.

Both engines are badly wrecked. The mail coaches on both trains were splintered to kindling wood. The express car on the standing train was also wrecked.

The fireman on the standing train jumped in time to get clear of the wreck.

Engineer Wilson of the west-bound train and McKnight, the fireman, whose leg was broken, stuck to their posts and applied the emergency brakes, which probably accounts for the fact that no lives were lost.

None of the passengers were injured, and were able to continue their journey by 8 o'clock.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CONGREGATION OF ST. PAUL'S

Various Reports Were Presented, Discussed and Adopted—Good Progress Was Made

BOARD OF MANAGERS WAS RE-ELECTED

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian church was held last night in the Sunday School room when the reports of the different auxiliaries to the church were presented and adopted. A large number were present who took a deep interest in the progress of the year's work in connection with the church.

Mr. R. E. Wood was appointed chairman after which the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mr. John Crane, acting secretary in place of Mr. Wood, and approved.

Report of Session

The report of the session which was read by Rev. Dr. Torrance, showed that in April of last year Rev. Mr. McKay, who had been assistant pastor for a year resigned and that Rev. Mr. Bright was appointed in his place. An application for the ordination of Mr. Bright was presented to the Presbytery at its meeting in October, from the joint sessions of St. Paul's and Knox churches. The Presbytery did not grant the application but expressed the judgment that in order to have more effectual work in the south part of the city there should be a complete separation between St. Paul's and Knox churches. Separation was afterwards decided upon provided a sufficient sum of money could be secured. At the meeting of the Presbytery in December Knox church was recognized as an independent congregation. There are sixty-five families which have more or less close connection with Knox church, and of these 30 were connected with St. Paul's. The addition to the membership was 47; 26 on profession of faith and 21 by certificate. There were 9 removals by death and 30 by certificate. Nine names of persons who have left town have been taken off the roll so that the membership remains about the same as it was at the end of the previous year. There are now 400 families and 780 members.

Missionary Association

The report of the Missionary Association was read by the Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Robert Harrison, the financial statement of which showed a small balance to be carried forward. The number of contributors for 1906 was 228, an increase of 45 over the number of 1905. The report also showed that the total contributions to the schemes of the church for the past year were $1596.49. After deducting $178.85 expenses, from the total receipts, there was $1417.64 available for allocation to schemes of the church. Out of this amount $1415.76 was paid out in aid of missions, etc., leaving a balance of $1.88. From four friends there was given $700 in support of three missionaries in the Northwest during the year.

The financial report was read by Mr. John Crane, and has previously been published.

Mr. William Madill presented the Sunday School report, which has also been published.

Ladies' Aid

The Financial Statement of the Ladies' Aid, showed that the total receipts, including interest, was $447.37, and the total expenses were $74.88, leaving the substantial balance of $372.49.

W. F. M. Society

The financial report of the W. F. M. S. showed the receipts to total $511.97. The expenses were $39.40, leaving a balance of $472.57 in the bank.

Home Missionary Auxiliary

The report of the Home Missionary Auxiliary was read by Rev. Dr. Torrance, and showed that the average attendance during the year was 20, and that 11 meetings were held. There were 49 members on the roll, 19 of whom belong to the general society. The largest offering during the year was taken in October, and amounted to $78.77; the total receipts were $136.

A vote of thanks was moved by Sheriff Hall and Mr. G. M. Rogers, to Mr. Crane, the choir master and organist, the choir as a whole, and the ushers of the church. Both the mover and seconder complimented the organist and choir on the excellent services they had rendered during the year. Mr. Crane responded, thanking the congregation for the expression of their appreciation.

Election of Managers

The election of members of the Board of Management followed the reading of the various reports. The retiring members of the Board were Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, Adam Hall, T. A. S. Hay, J. H. Connal. These four were all re-elected and the Board of Management will be the same as last year.

Mr. Jas. H. Connal was appointed representative to the Half Poor Trust in place of Mr. MacDonald who resigned.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Doxology and prayer.

THE WEATHER

Though the weather to-day is not excessively cold, the thermometer last night took a drop, and went down to 15 below. At seven o'clock it was at 5 below. For eleven consecutive nights (with the exception of Tuesday night) the registration has been below zero, generally quite a low figure. While the first half of January proved to be quite mild, with many bright warm days, the latter half went to the other extreme.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT CONDUCTED BY CONSERVATORY

Conservatory of Music Gave a Concert in Methodist Church in Omemee—Mr. R. Gliddon, Director

AUDIENCE LARGE AND APPRECIATIVE

The Conservatory of Music, under the management of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gliddon, gained new laurels by the splendid concert which was produced in Omemee last night, under its auspices.

The concert was held in the Methodist church, where an appreciative audience gathered to hear some of the artists of the Conservatory. Besides the teaching which the pupils receive, they are also given opportunities to appear in public recitals, thus providing for one of the most important features of the study of music.

The concert of last night was a decided success, and Mr. Gliddon should feel grateful that his efforts were so well received by the audience.

The programme was most comprehensive and was by no means stinted in quantity, and certainly not in quality. It is hardly possible to detail the programme, the fact that it was given by pupils and members of the staff of the Conservatory being sufficient indication of its worth. The audience did not fail to show their appreciation, many recalls being demanded. Perhaps the most pleasing number was a vocal solo, entitled, "Happy Days," sung by Miss Reesor, with violin obligato by Miss Kathleen Wallis, and piano accompaniment by Miss Pollock.

Rev. Mr. McCulloch acted as chairman in a most satisfactory manner.

The following is a copy of the programme:—

We are privileged this week to welcome back J. W. BROWETT, Doctor of Optics, who did such excellent work here last Fall. Progressive Opticians in Bolton, Collingwood, Brussels and Toronto have been pleased by his services during the past few months, and he has been most successful. Dr. Browett has had such a thorough training in Optical work and such an extensive practise that he is admitted to be one of the best Opticians in Ontario. The Specialist will be at McDermid & Jury's Drug Store, where free examinations will be conducted

WILL DISCUSS THE NEW ARMOURY

Question of Furnishings Will Probably be Considered at Annual Meeting of the Officers of the 57th

The annual meeting of the officers of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers will be held on Wednesday, night, Feb. 6th, when the reports for the year will be presented and other business incidental to the annual meeting transacted. It is probable that at this meeting the question of the annual trip of the regiment will be discussed, and a decision arrived at as to whether a trip will be made this year or not. It is considered probable that the regiment will decide to dispense with the trips for a year or two in order to use the money usually spent on the trips to provide furnishings for the new armouries. The practice has been for the local regiments to furnish their own quarters, the Government providing simply the building. It is desired to make the building as comfortable as possible, and a credit of the regiment and to the city, and in order to do this considerable money will be required in the furnishings. It is likely that the men will fall into line with a suggestion of this kind if it is made, and that they will be willing to do their share to make the new armouries as creditable as possible.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is in Giving it a Thorough Trial

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair Vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

Stormy Weather Predicted For Month Of February

The weather during the month which commences to-morrow, according to the predictions of Dr. Hicks, will be a continuation of the winter we have been experiencing for the past six weeks. In the last issue of Words and Works, he says of the weather for February:—

A reactionary storm period is central, Sunday the 3rd to Tuesday the 5th. This is in a Mercury period, at the centre of the Venus period, with the combined periods of Jupiter and Saturn within a month or two of their centres. Prolonged cloudiness and marked storm conditions will be the order through all the opening days of February, but these conditions will culminate in general storms of rain, sleet and snow on and touching the 3rd 4th and 5th. High temperature, with lightning and thunder, will mark these disturbances, over central to southern parts of the country at first, but sudden and severe change to blizzardous storms and sleet and snow will strike, followed between the 4th and 7th by a severe cold wave for February. Have your affairs well in hand for these storms, and for the cold wave to follow.

A regular storm period is central, coincident with the Mercury period, on the 9th. Look for a prolonged and greatly intensified storm period between the 7th and the 13th. The 10th, 11th and 12th will probably bring the culmination of what we will call a series of danger days in this period. Low barometer, with warm humid conditions, will be admonitions of violent storms, especially in sections to the southward. Torrential rains will fill the streams and rivers, in all probability precipitating ice gorges and dangerous overflows and floods during and following this period. Many sections northward will suffer from blizzards, sleet storms and blockades at this time, and a general cold wave will reach most parts of the country from about the 13th to the 15th. The 13th is the central day of a period of five to seven days in which many earthquake shivers will be reported in extremes of the globe.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 15th and 18th. On and next to these dates the elements will react to much warmer, the barometer will show a wave of marked depression, and decided storms of rain and snow will pass in regular order from west to east. Within twenty-four hours of noon on the 16th look for a sudden revulsion from high temperatures, and possibly electrical storms, to a sweeping and severe cold wave, sleet and snow.

A regular storm period covers the 19th to the 23rd, being central on the 20th. This period is clearly within the brace of the Verna' Equinox, indicated by the brace marked "Earth" in the storm diagram. Heavy equinoctial storms in the southern coast regions, with general storminess and heavy rains and snow northward, may in reason be anticipated at this time. Consult your barometer constantly, note all changes that go with fluctuations of its readings—shiftings of wind currents, changes of temperature and hygrometric readings—and no serious storms or changes can come upon you unawares at this or any other time. Watch, of course, for change to much colder between the 22nd and 24th, progressively from the northwest to the east and south.

A reactionary storm period is central on the last day of February, covering the 28th into March. The full Moon, near its passage of the celestial equator, falls on the 28th. This will greatly increase the probability of general and furious snow storms not far from February the 28th. Another seismic period lies within two to three days before and after sunrise the 28th. We close these forecasts for February by repeating our belief that the month will be filled with many mingled tropical and boreal storms, making it, upon the whole, the most severe and disagreeable month of the winter. Study our forecasts with care. Both here and in our 1907 Almanac, deciding for yourself how far you will be guided by them.

Thursday, January 17th.—On account of wrecks and break downs by the awful storms of the past week, this last form of February Word and Works was not completed until to-day. We are thus enabled to report further concerning the earthquakes that have girdled the earth, "within a period of six to seven days, taking January the 13th as the central day". We have no room for particulars, the whole globe having felt seismic shocks, beginning on the 10th and continuing up to the 15th. On Monday the 14th, the city of Kingston, Jamaica, was destroyed by an earthquake, causing the loss of probably one thousand lives and ten millions in buildings and other property. Necessarily the reports of devastation, death and suffering beggar all description. The great volcanoes of the Earth are disturbed simultaneously with the earthquakes. Read pages 17 to 20 of our 1907 Almanac and say whether we forecasted these things correctly.

This was our prediction:—"Seismic disturbances will be natural and almost necessary within a period of six to seven days, taking the 13th as the central day. Watch the world's telegraphic news and see."—Dr. R. Hicks.

ENJOYABLE BANQUET CONCLUDED THE CONVENTION

Maccabees Held a Brilliant Function Last Night—Much Business Was Done

THE NEW OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

The district Camp meeting of the Knights of the Maccabees for the Seventh District of Ontario was brought to a fitting close last night when a grand banquet was held in the Foresters' Hall. The affair must be characterized as a brilliant success. Bright speeches and an enjoyable musical programme made the evening a most enjoyable one. About one hundred sat down including all the visiting Supreme officers and delegates as well as a large representation of Knights and Ladies of the Peterborough Tent.

Mr. W. J. McCallum was the caterer for the occasion and justice was heartily done to the array of good things he had provided in usual acceptable style. The menu was as follows:—

ROASTS.
Turkey, Cranberry Sauce, Goose. Apple Sauce.
COLD MEATS.
Ham Tongue.
RELISHES.
California Celery Mixed Pickles
Tomato Catsup Worchestershire Sauce.
SALADS.
Cabbage, Lettuce, Creamed Potatoes.
DESERT.
Fruit Salad Whipped Cream
Chocolate Cake
Layer Cake Mixed Cake
FRUITS.
California Oranges, Bananas, Apples.
Tea Coffee.

The toast list that followed was an enjoyable event. Dr. J. A. Morgan, Physician and Financier of Peterborough Tent, gracefully acted as toast master.

The first toast, that to the King was honoured in the usual way, the gathering heartily singing the National Anthem.

The next toast was that to the Supreme Tent and Supreme Commander which was ably proposed by Sir Kt. S. W. Trussler, Provincial Commander, Camlachie. An eloquent response was made by Sir Kt. Joseph Jenkins, of Port Huron, Mich. the Assistant Supreme Commander, who was greeted with enthusiastic applause as he rose to his feet to reply to the toast. In beginning he referred to the loyalty he had found in the people of Ontario. On all his travels he had never met more loyal people than in this province. Referring to his reception by them he said that he had everywhere been received with open arms, and smiling faces.

A solo by Miss Maud Titterson was warmly applauded by the gathering. The little girl sang in splendid voice and her singing was a delightful treat. Mr. Harry Dunslow gave a clever recitation that was received with applause.

The next toast was that to the Ontario Maccabees which was proposed by Sir Kt. W. W. White, of Trenton, and replied to by Sir Kt. S. W. Trussler, P.C., who referred to the pleasure he felt at being present with the members of Peterborough.

A solo by Mr. Barber of the George street eMthodist choir was greatly enjoyed.

The toast to the visiting Sir Knights was proposed by Sir Knight W. L. Mitchell, of Peterborough Tent, who expressed the pleasure of the local Maccabees at having the convention meet here. The toast was replied to by Sir Kt. W. W. White, of Trenton and T. H. Barnes of Woodville. The latter referred to a previous visit to Peterborough and recommended all Tents intending to run an excursion to go to Peterborough.

A recitation by Miss Maud Titterson entitled the "Dying Confession of Paddy McCabe," was greatly enjoyed and warmly applauded. A solo by Sir Kt. Walter Trussler was received with much applause. Mr. Trussler has a splendid voice which was displayed to great advantage last night.

The last toast, that to the Ladies was ably proposed by Sir Kt. Jas. R. Bell, of Peterborough Tent, and was responded to by Sir Kt. G. H. Townsend, Provincial Recorder Keeper of Smithville, who made an eloquent reply on behalf of the ladies.

Sir Kt. Trussler contributed another solo "Asleep in the Deep" and had to respond to an encore rendering "Three for Jack" in splendid fashion.

The banquet was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," after which three cheers were given for the King, the K.O.T.M. and the Knights and Ladies of Peterborough.

Miss Janet Titterson played some difficult piano selections during the banquet. Her playing was remarkably brilliant for so young a performer.

During the evening a number of most enjoyable phonograph selections was given by Sir Kt. Sherwood.

The members of Peterborough Tent are to be congratulated upon the successful manner in which the banquet was conducted.

The business session of the convention was held in the afternoon when some important matters in connection with the district camp were taken up. How Athletes Keep Strong and Healthy

Their Diet Should Be a Revelation To All Men and Women.

Physical perfection, great endurance and unfailing health are positively essential in severe athletic work and great attention is given to the diet.

In schools where a "training table" is provided for the athlete, only the most nutritious food is served, and in cases where there is no training table the athlete is advised to eat the most healthful food only. Whether or not he follows such advice is soon shown by his physical condition. If the average man—the business man—the lawyer, the teacher, the clerk, the mechanic, the laborer—took such care as to the food he eats as the athlete does, there would be far less of sickness and suffering in this world.

Among athletes the food value of whole wheat is recognized. They have demonstrated what scientists have long declared to be true: that the various food elements found in wheat are the food elements with which the blood and muscle, the tissues and cells, the bone and brain of the human body must be replenished if life and perfect strength are to be sustained.

Every nutritive element of the best white wheat grown is found in Malta-Vita, and it is fast becoming as popular among other people as it long has been among athletes.

And Malta-Vita is so good to eat! Always crisp! All grocers, 10 cents.

CITY WILL COMPLETE CEDAR STREET SEWER

And the Cost will be Charged Against Contractor Sheehy, was Board of Works' Decision

A PROBABLE WRIT FOR DAMAGES

A busy, although uninteresting session of the Board of Works was held last night. The whole evening was spent in endeavouring to settle up matters, which are before the committee, including Mr. Sheehy's unfinished contract, a claim for $8, on account of the stoppage of a sewer on Gilmour street, and a notice of a writ for damages from Mr. J. L. Hughes as well as a few other little matters.

Members present were,—Ald. Duncan, chairman; Ald. McIntyre, Johnston and Wilson, City Engineer T.A. S. Hay, Street Commissioner Harry Evans, City Solicitor E. H. D. Hall, Mayor McWilliams.

A letter was received from E. C. Frigley, complaining that a stream of water was flowing across the sidewalk near his place. This was, on motion of Ald. Johnston and Wilson, referred to the city engineer to report on or to repair at once, if possible.

Damage Suit.

A letter was received from Messrs. Roger, Bennett and Goodwill, notifying the board that unless a settlement was made a writ for damages on behalf of Mr. J. L. Hughes for the new turnout built by the Street Railway Company last fall, would be issued.

The City Solicitor wrote the chairman that as far as he could make out the city was not at all liable. The city is not responsible for the action of the Street Railway Company.

It was moved by the Mayor, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that the Street Railway Company be informed of the complaint of Mr. Hughes and state that in view of action being taken against the city, the city will hold the street Railway Company liable.—Carried.

Sewer Blocked

Mr. Coughlin of the marble works was present and addressed the Board. He said that he had been put to the expense of eight dollars owing to the blocking of the Gilmour street sewer, last December. The sewer was blocked all right, but Mr. Evans flushed it out, as soon as he heard of it. The sewage matter, however, backed up into Mr. Coughlin's cellar.

On motion of Ald. Johnston and the Mayor, the matter was referred to the plumbing inspector to report on.

A communication was received from the City Engineer enclosing the plan of the siding into the Fuel and Cartage Company's property.

Sheehy's Contract.

Mr. R. Sheehy was present and addressed the board on the Cedar street sewer, which was not completed last fall. Mr. Sheehy said he had no great complaint to make. He had put in an application for an extension of time to complete his work. He had finished this year 12,800 feet of twelve inch and nine inch pipe and a total of six hundred feet over four miles of sewer, including a lot of six inch pipe. As a matter of fact he had done already between four hundred and five hundred feet of sewer which was not in the contract. He then explained why he stopped the sewer on Cedar street. It was stopped mainly in the interests of the people, because the weather turned suddenly cold, and he was afraid the material might freeze, so he could not get it back into the trench. He did not think there was anything serious in stopping work, although he may have made a mistake in doing so. He had no particular object in discontinuing work, except to protect the people, and to protect the water pipe.

City Solicitor E. H. D. Hall, said that Mr. Sheehy was certainly liable to a fine of $5 per day or the city could take over the work and do it. But this had never been done, and he recommended that Mr. Sheehy be allowed to finish his work.

The board discussed the matter for some time. They did not want to impose any penalty upon Mr. Sheehy, and blamed the Board of Works of last year, and the city engineer for the sewer not being completed. Some of the aldermen wanted Cedar street sewer done by day labour, while others said Mr. Sheehy should finish it. The mayor thought that in view of Mr. Sheehy's conduct last year in quitting work without the consent of any officer of the city, and in face of the fact that the Board of Works notified him last year that he must finish the work, that the city take the work out of his hands and do it by day labour, and charge him with the cost. The mayor moved a motion to that effect, and Ald. Wilson seconded it. It was carried. The matter of paying the 15 per cent. will be settled at a later date.

Bad Sewer

A complaint was received from the Peterborough Cordage Co., about the Perry street sewer. The letter stated the company had already been put to the expense of $100. The company also asked that the matter be attended to at once.

The city engineer also wrote the board that there was evidently a break in the sewer under the railway track. He said it should be attended to at once. He estimated the cost at $21.

On motion of Ald. Wilson and Johnston, the engineer was instructed to proceed with the work.

NEW SENATOR GIVEN A HEARTY WELCOME

Banquet At Ottawa to Hon. G. W. Ross a Great Success.

MINISTERS DO HIM HONOR

Ex-Premier of Ontario Delivers an Inspiring Canadian Speech—Reviews the Progress of Canada Since Confederation—Predicts That Liberal Party in Ontario Will Resume the Reins of Power.

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—The return of Hon. Geo. W. Ross to the larger field of the Federal arena after an absence of twenty-five years was marked last night in a manner commensurate with his national reputation as a statesman, orator and administrator. One hundred of the leading Liberal members of the Senate and Commons, representing all the Provinces of the Dominion, tendered him a banquet in the Senate restaurant and expressed in an enthusiastic manner their deep appreciation of his long and fruitful services in the cause of the Liberal party and for the upbuilding of his native Province and of the country as a whole. It was a unique and splendid tribute to Mr. Ross' broad and sturdy Canadianism, as exemplified in over thirty years of public life, and an auspicious welcome to his new sphere of political achievement.

Seven Ministers Present.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was unfortunately unable to be present in consequence of a slight cold, but seven of his colleagues, Hon. Messrs. Scott, Fielding, Paterson, Brodeur, Lemieux, Aylesworth and Oliver, attended, and spoke in reply to the toast to "The Dominion." Hon. Mr. Scott declared that few men in Canadian history could boast of a more useful or valuable public career than could Mr. Ross, who had continuously represented one constituency for the record period of thirty-five years. Hon. Mr. Fielding eloquently paid tribute to Mr. Ross' services to the party and the State. Hon. Mr. Lemieux and Hon. Mr. Brodeur declared that Quebec had always recognized in Mr. Ross a party leader who maintained the highest ideals of Liberalism. Hon. Messrs. Paterson, Aylesworth and Oliver spoke in similar terms of the new Senator.

A Splendid Tribute.

Hon. Mr. Ross was given a most enthusiastic reception when he rose to reply to the toast in his honor, the members and Senators rising and cheering again and again. The high expectations of a speech full of inspiring and optimistic Canadianism, rich in historical reference and poetic quotation, apt in diction and thought, illuminated by dryly humorous touches, and marked by the spirit of sturdy national optimism and self-reliance characteristic of all Mr. Ross' speeches, were amply borne out by his half-hour address. After feelingly expressing his deep appreciation of the honor done him by such a gathering, he noted that it was now twenty-four years since he had left the Commons to enter the Provincial Legislature. He modestly referred to his long connection with the Ontario Government, and predicted that the Liberal party in that Province would soon, after a brief period of comparative quiescence, follow the example of six of the other Provinces of the Dominion and again resume the reins of power.

Reviewed Progress of Canada.

In an eloquent review of the progress of Canada since he first entered the Commons, a quarter of a century ago, he contrasted the confusion and national timidity of the newly constituted confederation with the buoyant, united, reliant and optimistic spirit which now characterized this young and puissant nation. Then the construction of the Intercolonial Railway was undertaken with fear and trembling; now the expenditure of many millions on a transcontinental railway was undertaken with the confidence that the nation's credit could easily provide the means. Then Canada held small place among the nations of the world and took no place in the councils of the empire; now the Dominion was everywhere recognized as the right arm of the greatest of world powers, and was consulted in every matter affecting the destinies of the empire as a whole. In conclusion, he appealed to all members of the Canadian Parliament to grapple with the great problems of national development in a spirit worthy of a nation of such splendid potentialities.

PETERBOROUGH LOST FIRST O. H. A. MATCH

Soldiers Won After a Hard Fought Contest Last Night by Four Goals to Two

THE PETERBOROUGH TEAM HANDCAPPED

Beaten by 4 goals to 2, the Peterborough senior team lost its first O.H.A. game of the season last night in Kingston in a match in which they had all the best of the playing although severely handicapped. Morgan and Whitcroft the chief factors in Peterborough's scoring division, were in no condition to play last night. Both were suffering from a bad attack of lagrippe and Trainer Breen states that they should have been under a doctor's care rather than playing hockey. At that both men played phenomenal hockey, never letting up for a minute in their efforts to win out. To make matters worse Crowley broke his skate in the first half and had to play in a pair that do not fit him, which impaired his speed.

Even under these handicaps Peterborough had the best of the play. After Kingston had scored the first two goals there was a continuous bombardment on the Soldiers' goal. Peterborough had five shots to the home team's one, but it seemed impossible to net the rubber. Hiscock turned off all kinds of shots, with his stick, with his hands and with his body.

The Peterborough team, considering its condition played good hockey and even the Kingston players themselves admitted that they had horse shoe luck last night. They certainly gave Kingston a run for their money and undoubtedly would have won if luck had been with them.

A despatch from Kingston gives the following one-sided account of the game:—

Kingston, Jan. 30.—The 14th Regiment team put a stop to Peterborough's line of victories by defeating them here tonight in the senior O.H.A. series by four goals to two. The victors seemed confident of winning, while the 14th were uncertain. Peterborough, however, were not very dangerous, for Referee Waghorne of Toronto conducted the play according to O.H.A. principles, and the visiting team, which is noted for rough tactics, had to behave itself, in spite of the vigorous protests of Capt. Whitcroft, who was several times sent to the fence for illegal tactics. The play of neither team was good senior hockey, the checking being too close for combination work. The Kingston team scored two goals in each half. Bernier got the first and J. Richardson, the 14th point player, the second. The half-time score was two to nothing in favour of the 14th.

After five minutes' play in the second half George Richardson scored the third goal for the 14th on a clear side shot. Shortly afterwards he carried in another when the whole Peterborough defence had made a rush out to intercept Van Horne. Peterborough's two goals were scored from two scrimmages in front of Kingston's goal. Whitcroft poking in the first and Morgan the second. Referee Waghorne penalized about twenty-five times, Peterborough suffering more than their opponents in this respect. The attendance at the game was 1,700. The teams were:—

Referee—F. C. Waghorne, Toronto.

HOCKEY

The City League games to-night will no doubt attract a large crowd. The Charlotte Street team and the Orphan's meet in the first game and all indications point to a decidedly interesting contest. The Orphans although light are fast and as Charlotte Street will be without Lang and Miller, the champions will have no easy task. The Strathconas and Lakefield will be the contestants in the second exhibition. The former will have "Bill" Meagher the old T.A.S. player at point and he will undoubtedly strengthen their team. Both outfits are hopeful of a victory and will play hockey from the first toot of the whistle.

* * * *

The result of last night's game leaves the standing of the clubs in this district as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.	To play.
Peterborough	4	1	2
Kingston	3	1	2
Midland	3	3	2
Marlboros	1	4	2
Argonauts	1	4	2

Peterborough have to play Midland in Midland and the Argonauts and Marlboros here while Kingston have yet to meet the two Toronto teams in the Queen City and Midland here.

* * * *

The Independents will go to Keene on Saturday to play a friendly game of hockey with a junior team of that village.

* * * *

The Toronto Telegram, of last night gives a forecast of the situation in the senior O.H.A. ranks, and looks to Peterborough to win the eastern district. The sporting writer on that sheet says:—

In the senior districts Peterborough has the call from here, with Kingston and Midland still having a chance, though to-night's game at Kingston, if a win for the Petes, will pretty well decide it with only an off chance of the Argos or Marlboros winning in Peterborough, and with the latter having the call against Midland in Midland.

In the second district St. Georges and Stratford and Berlin are all in the running and to-night's game here between the two first named will pretty well decide the question between the two, particularly if the Saints win. However, the race is still very open, except for Galt, and they are liable to put a crimp in any of the others, as last night's defeat of Berlin 12 to 3 shows.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I am more and more impressed with the necessity for the formation of a society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in this city. I see every day boys who should know better, abusing dogs attached to sleighs, racing them up and down hill, often over bare walks, and inhumane teamsters who load horses with more than they are able to haul. I hope that some one will take steps to organize a society of this kind in Peterborough.

HUMANITARIAN.

WEAK HEART

SYSTEM WAS RUN DOWN

When the heart is healthy and performing its functions naturally, it should beat regularly seventy-two times a minute without causing its owner the slightest inconvenience or distress.

When it begins to beat irregularly or intermittently, palpitate and throb, skip beats, beat fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, it causes great anxiety and alarm.

The least excitement or exertion seems to affect it.

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social or business duties, through unnatural action of their heart.

To all such sufferers

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

can give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. F. Fletcher, Sault Ste. Marie, West, Ont., says: "I have been troubled for four or five years with weakness, and run down system. My feet were always cold and I felt almost dead. My heart was weak and I was so nervous I could hardly walk across the street. I started taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using three boxes I felt much better. I continued their use until I had taken twelve boxes and I am now well."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FOR THE AGED POOR.

Wm. Whitely, Who Was Killed On Jan. 24, Is Generous—Thousands At Funeral.

London, Jan. 31.—Unusual public interest in the tragic death of William Whitely, who was shot and killed in his great department store Jan. 24 by Horace George Rayner, was shown by the scenes at the funeral of the merchant yesterday morning.

Long before the hour for the ceremony thousands of persons gathered about the Whitely residence and dense masses lined the streets leading to the church. Most of the shops in the Westbourne Grove district kept their shutters up and over a hundred carriages followed the hearse to the cemetery. Four of these were laden with floral wreaths.

According to the newspapers, Mr. Whitely bequeathed $5,000,000 to provide almshouses and homes for the aged and deserving poor.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 31.—Last week a delegation appeared before the agriculture committee of the Legislature and asked that amendments be made to the charter of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Flynn was dragged nearly three blocks. He is at present in the Ross Hospital.

AN AMERICAN BOOKIE WHO HAD COLD FEET HERE

Homer Dunn Tells His Columbus, Ohio, Friends Some Things About the Winter in Canada

PETERBOROUGH GREAT SPORTING TOWN

The American bookmakers, who attended the recent races, under the auspices of the Peterborough Turf Club, have been loading up their home papers about the weather and other conditions in Peterborough. He is a little out in his record of the temperature, twelve below zero being the lowest during the race meet, instead of twenty-four, as he states. The hockey games in Canada seem to have impressed these gentlemen, too. Mr. Dunn refers to the Midland-Peterborough game, which they saw while in the city. A despatch from Columbus, says:

Columbus, January 30. — Homer J. Dunn, the well-known bookmaker, is back from a two weeks' trip over the Canadian ice circuit, where he has been giving the Canucks a run for their money.

Racing on the ice is almost unknown in this part of the country, but in Canada it divides with hockey and curling the attention of the sport-loving public. The rigors of the weather have no terror for the residents up there, and this week Mr. Dunn attended the Peterborough race meeting of two days, with the thermometer 24 below zero. At Lindsay the thermometer was about the same. The ice-racing circuit is a regular institution in Canada, beginning at Port Hope, and closing at Montreal and Ottawa, the last two places furnishing the great events of the season.

Mr. Dunn, speaking of the trip, said, "Gee Whiz! but it was cold at Peterborough when the sun went down. Our party was compelled to hire buffalo coats and toques to keep out the cold. We got the coats for 75 cents a day, and the toques were head affairs that covered our heads and ears completely. Double suits of underclothing were also necessary. The Canadians, however, paid no attention to the weather. They wore fur coats, of course, but their faces and ears were exposed.

"The races consisted of trotting, pacing and mixed—both trot and pace events—the purses being $200 and the course half a mile. I saw several of the grand circuit ponies at Peterborough and Lindsay, among others the black horse, Jubilee, with record of 2.06 on the Columbus track. He lost his race in Peterborough in 2.14, pretty good going on the ice, and on a half mile track.

"The track is prepared by covering it with water from great sprinkling carts, and the water freezes as fast as it falls, and the result is a surface as smooth as glass, and perfectly safe. The horses are shod sharp and but few accidents occur. The attendance at Peteerborough was about 1000 daily, and at Lindsay about 700. The population of Peterborough is 11,0000, and of Lindsay about 700. The Canadians are free with their money, and will put it up if they see a chance to win. The racing begins immediately after dinner and continues until nightfall. Mercy how cold it gets when the sun goes down!

"But the big sport in the Canadian country is hockey. I attended a game in Peterborough with one of the crack Dominion teams when over 4000 people crowded into the rink — nearly half the population of the town. I saw thousands of dollars wagered on the result of that game in the office of the hotel where I was stopping, before the match."

Note. — All the statements of Mr. Dunn are correct, with the exception of the most of them.

CHURCH RECEIVED MANY PLUGGED COINS

Would-be Helpers Place Valueless Money on Collection Plates

A rather startling announcement was made last night by Mr. Robert Harrison at the annual meeting of St. Paul's church in reference to the coins which he had received during his term of office as financial secretary. From his statement it appears that the spurious coins which owners could not dispose of on the street were placed on the collection plates, some being in envelopes, and thus the church was practically robbed.

All the money that is received in collections for any purposes passes through Mr. Harrison's hands and he has a wonderful array of flattened nickels, plugged, clipped and lead quarters and numerous other coins which will not be received by any financial institution. He has many Straits Settlement 50 cent pieces, for which the giver has received full credit, which are only worth about 38 cents in Canada.

Mr. Harrison quoted Old Testament Scripture about the blemished animals given for sacrifice which he likened unto the actions of those who gave valueless pieces of money to the church. He remarked that if ever he got an opportunity he would sell his wonderful collection of plugged coins and assist the church with the proceeds and hoped in future that all those who wished to assist financially the good work of the church would see that their assistance was of value.

UNUSUAL CASE AT THE POLICE COURT TO-DAY

Woman Found Drunk Last Night on the Streets and Was Arrested

Jane Naugon appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning on the charge of having been found drunk in a public place. She came to the city yesterday from Bridgenorth and procured whiskey in some manner or other with the above results. It has been mentioned that it is a good thing that the police find the "fallen by the wayside" otherwise there might be a few more obituaries. Magistrate Dumble allowed her to go free but promised to be more severe if the act was repeated.

A GLORIOUS SALE OF WHITE LINGERIE UNDERWEAR

Our White Underwear did not need the excuse of a "Sale" to sell them—they would sell readily at the usual prices to a descriminating public; but we wanted more than a business that sold "Readily," we wanted business that sold "Remarkably," and that accounts for the drops in prices. THE HEADQUARTERS STAFF HERE

Major Young, Next in Point of Seniority for Command of Field Battery Brigade—Important Military Change is Contemplated

24TH CAMP AT PETEWAWA

Instead of at Kingston This Year—Will Spend Sixteen Days There—A Change Which Will Meet With Approval

It is considered probable that this summer the 24th Midland Field Battery will not go for its annual drill to Kingston, where the camp in all probability for this district will be held, but with all the other artillery will go into camp for sixteen days at the ranges at Petewawa. Last year, it will be remembered the Battery was in camp at Cobourg for twelve days and later went to the Petewawa Camp for four days' firing drill. It is likely that the whole sixteen days will be spent at the latter camp this year, this course being considered preferable to that purchased in previous years. Some of the men experience difficulty in getting away twice during the summer, but could easily arrange to remain away a few days longer, which will be done in case the proposal now made is carried into effect.

Peterborough is likely in the near future to take on additional importance so far as artillery matters are concerned, and this city will be the location of the headquarters staff for this brigade. Col. McNaughton, the present officer commanding, will have served his term in two years, and it would not be surprising if he were appointed to a staff position in the interval, since his superior technical knowledge of military matters would make him a valuable man on the staff. In this event the command would go to Major Young, who is in line of seniority, and the headquarters would be thus transferred from Cobourg to Peterborough. With the new armouries erected, the staff quarters will be located in it, and will, no doubt be in keeping with the importance of the command.

FROM COAST TO COAST

Semi-ready Styles Have Made Fashions Uniform Throughout Canada

Men's dress does not permit of much variation, and the desire for change is helped by new shapes, colours and patterns as they appear. Fashion supposed by many to veer about suddenly and whimsically, really changes gradually. The variations are caused by the desire for something different.

Because they have exclusive access to many of the best British mills the Semi-ready tailoring is always distinctive and different. For this fall the Semi-ready sack suit is an ideal garment. The day of the exaggerated long coat has passed, and with it all the vents which were a distinguishing mark last year have disappeared. Semi-ready sack suits in Blunoz serge, blacks and blues, are sold in the new style at $20. The same price prevails from Coast to Coast.

Cressman's have all the new Semi-ready styles, and the exclusive agency for Peterborough and district.

Charles McGill Sentenced To 5 Years In The Penitentary

Former General Manager of Ontario Bank, Pleaded Guilty to Charge of Making False Returns to the Government and is Given Maximum Penalty for That Offence

G. N. W. Special Press Despatch.

Toronto, Feb. 1st. — Charles McGill, late General Manager of the Ontario Bank, pleaded guilty this morning to making and signing false returns to the Government, and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Mr. Charles McGill's counsel, Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, made a strong plea for leniency. In passing sentence Justice Clute referred to the seriousness of the offence. The other charges against Mr. McGill, of stealing $125,000 and $115,000 from the Ontario Bank, were traversed to the next session.

In a consultation between Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, K. C., McGill's counsel, and Mr. George Lynch-Staunton, K. C., of Hamilton, who was appointed by the Ontario Government as Crown prosecutor of the January assizes here, it was practically agreed that should Mr. McGill plead guilty of this charge, all other charges, involving theft and fraud, would not be prosecuted. The maximum penalty for making false returns is five years. On the other charges which were lodged against Mr. McGill, by direction of Col. Dennison, the police magistrate, during the hearing in the police court, the maximum penalty is a life sentence. By pleading guilty to the minor charge on these conditions, Mr. McGill assures to himself a certain span of liberty, should he retain his health and strength. It is understood that the Canadian Bankers' Association are consenting parties to the entering of nulli prosequi with regard to the more serious charges.

Severe Winter Handicaps Local Manufacturing Works

Because of Storms Railways Are Unable to Handle Traffic—Orders on Hand Which Cannot be Filled Because of Lack of Raw Material

"It's pretty hard to have orders on hand, and not be able to fill them," remarked the head of one of the large local manufacturing establishments to the Examiner to-day. The reason for this state of affairs was the fact that the railways were unable to supply the raw material rapidly enough to keep the works in continuous operation. The snow storms and severity of the winter had prevented the railways from handling the traffic quickly enough, the result being that hundreds of carloads are standing on sidings waiting to be moved. It is anticipated that with the return of normal conditions the difficulty will be removed, and the works resume running at their full capacity. The condition in Peterborough is by no means peculiar to this city. Manufacturers in all parts of the country under similar circumstances, are labouring under the same difficulty, and the only thing to do is to make the best of a condition which is not pleasant, but impossible of prevention.

THE TORONTO STRIKE HAS NO EFFECT LOCALLY

Telephone Operators, if They Have Been Asked to Fill Strikers' Places, Will Not Go—Manager Says Everything is All Right Here

HAVE PLENTY OF OPERATORS TO-DAY

The strike among the operators in the main office of the Bell Telephone Company, in Toronto, according to the statement of Mr. F. W. Doan, the local manager, will have no effect upon the Peterborough office, the conditions in which are quite satisfactory.

Mr. Doan was in communication with the superintendent of the Toronto office this morning, and was advised by him that he had plenty of operators to fill the places of those who had gone on strike. A number of girls have been taken to the Toronto office from the offices in Montreal and Ottawa, and it was stated that some of the members of the Peterborough staff had been asked to go to Toronto, as well. The operators do not deny or confirm this report, the statement of Mr. Doan in answer to a question, being that he did not know of a request having been made to the members of the local staff to fill the strikers' places.

If they have been asked they are not going, at any rate, the information given out at the local office being positively that the strike would have no effect upon the staff here.

TO ADVERTISERS.

As announced, copy for changes of advertisements MUST BE in this office before 5 o'clock of the day preceding the intended publication. It is in your interest as well as the publisher's that all mails be caught by the Examiner and to do this the above rule MUST BE enforced.

TOOK OINTMENT IN MISTAKE; THE RESULT

An Almost Fatal Error Made by Young Man in the City—Took Internally Remedy Intended for External Application

HAD A HARD JOB TO SAVE HIS LIFE

Because he took internally a dose of medicine which was intended for external application, a young man employed in the Canadian Canoe Company's works, had a very narrow escape from death on Wednesday. He was suffering from a rash on his body, and a friend advised him to procure a box of a certain kind of ointment. He followed the advice but instead of rubbing it on mixed it with water and swallowed a dose of it. He had not taken it long when he became very ill, and told the family with whom he had boarded what he had done. They at once recognized the seriousness of the mistake and a doctor was immediately called. With great difficulty, the poison which he had taken was removed from his stomach, by, it is said, pumping thirty gallons of water into his stomach in the course of two hours, and, although, it is not anticipated that serious results will follow, he is still a very sick man, and the adventure will be a lesson to him.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so sly that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse monthly periods, accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice if you will write her about yourself. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation.

"Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around once more, and I am entirely well."—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street Bradford, Pa.

AN EXAMPLE TO YOUNG MEN

The death of Mr. Timothy Eaton, the merchant monarch of Toronto, is, in one sense, merely the passing away of a prominent and respected citizen. But Mr. Eaton was more than that. He was the type of the man the world loves and admires, the man who succeeds. Mr. Eaton was not born in the commercial purple. He, however, grew to it or rather he worked his way into, being one of the greatest merchants on the continent. In the earliest stages of his business he was a merchant of the corner store variety. But from this humble beginning sprung one of the greatest, if not the greatest, departmental stores business on the continent. If his life, in which were also exemplified the activities of a good citizen, did no more it will do much to teach young men that the pathway of success is open to all by the exercise of patient endeavour, energy and intelligently applied thought and system. He did not get success by luck: he hewed his way through the difficulties that beset every business man to the success he achieved. He worked hard, he attended to business, and like the great painter he mixed his activities with brains. Apart from a general equipment of business aptitude and innate ability to read human nature, Mr. Eaton's success was very largely due to system, the most powerful factor in success in any sphere of human activity. His business was thoroughly organized and his three thousand employees were individual operators of an immense mercantile machine.

THE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

The meeting of those interested in promoting the success of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition, held yesterday, was very encouraging. Those present themselves made a good exhibition of the qualities necessary to the production of a successful show—earnestness, energy, alertness and above all enthusiasm. The meeting evidently profited by a practical realization of the knowledge that an exhibition, no more than any other enterprise, will not run itself—anywhere but into the ground. The spirit shown at the meeting should prove infectious and stimulate the citizens of Peterborough, and especially the farmers throughout the county, to heartily, actively and systematically co-operate with the new President and Board of Directors. If this is done there is no reason why the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition should not be made the largest and most successful exhibition in Canada, outside the large cities. Our central position in relation to a surrounding agricultural country the best and most advanced in Canada, furnishes the raw material. It only needs energetic endeavours to work this raw material into productive shape.

A LIVE SENATOR

The Senate is no longer to bear the reputation of being a political cemetery. Hon. G. W. Ross has removed that. As far as he is concerned, and there are many like him in the second chamber, he is a live factor in the management of Canadian affairs. The speech he made at the great complimentary banquet given him in Ottawa shows that he has not lost his grip, lost none of the noble optimism which has resulted in such fruitful service to the country in the thirty-five years in which he has been in public life. A few more appointments to the Senate like that of Mr. Ross—men in the full vigour of intellectual activity—will subject the Senate to the charge of taking stimulants. Hon. G. W. Ross is a live Senator.

MR. WHITNEY PERFORMS THE FUNERAL RITES

No man is a hypocrite in his fears, and yesterday Premier Whitney betrayed this obsession that the dead may come back unless one weights them down.

Senator Ross, an everyone will agree, is not dead. What we call the Senate is but the portal to the life Elysian. Besides, we have it on good authority that what is sown in weakness is raised in power, and recent events at Ottawa tend to confirm the notion that Senator Ross, instead of resting weary limbs on beds of asphodel, has been called to pursue a higher course of glory in a starrier sphere than the one he left. Else what do those banquets and sounding praises mean.

At the same time Senator Ross is dead and buried so far as Premier Whitney is concerned, and Premier Whitney is not ashamed to confess one way and another, that he is determined to make a good job of it. It will not satisfy the good, fat, ancient grudge of Premier Whitney to have the earth rest lightly on Senator Ross' bosom. Only the largest, heaviest clods, packed tight, the whole anchored with a massy slab, will quiet Premier Whitney's fears that the Scarlet Sarcophagus may open and give up its distinguished contents.

Dual representation has been abolished and a member of the Legislature, who becomes a Senator is, ipso facto, no longer a member of the Legislature. This is law, but the law is not enough for Premier Whitney, who is a lawyer and knows its weaknesses. So yesterday the law was strengthened by a resolution moved by the Attorney-General and seconded by the Prime Minister—a resolution confirming the vacancy in West Middlesex and shutting the door in Senator Ross' face forever. When shall this resolution be put asked Mr. Speaker. Forthwith, replied Premier Whitney. And what does forthwith mean? persisted the Man in the Three-Cornered Hat. This afternoon, responded the Premier, who is not the man to allow himself to be haunted. So the resolution was passed and a great stone rolled in front of the tomb.—Toronto Star.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The new leader of the Ontario opposition is a newspaper man. Take the journalists out of the House—Graham, Preston, Clarke, Auld, Pense, Downie, Boyer and Smith—and it would be appreciably poorer.—London Advertiser.

One can get some slight idea of the dizzy progress of railway development—meaning development in all other interests—in the Canadian west, when it is stated that when the season opens 60,000 labourers will be required for railway construction work in the Northwest. High wages will be paid. These labourers themselves will constitute an important item in the settlement of the country. Those who are steady, industrious and saving will gain enough money to set them up in farming. There is no excuse for an idler in busy Canada.

The explosion in a German mine, which caused the death and injury of two hundred persons, was caused by the carelessness of a pipe smoker. This will be used as an argument to justify the condemnation of smoking. It does not follow. The fact of a man overeating himself to illness instead o using food properly is no argument against eating. There is nothing in the world intrinsically bad—the evil lies in the improper use. If the smoker in a German mine had used a match to light a cesser in an underground chapel in the mine he would have wrought as great destruction as he did in lighting his pipe.

It is stated that Mr. Armand Lavergne, M.P. for Montmagny, Quebec has been read out of the Liberal party. This does not seem to be the case. He has, rather, read himself out of the party. A petition is to be presented to him by his constituents asking him to resign on the grounds that he is not the man—does not stand for the principles of the man—they elected. He has ceased to be a Liberal in the sense in which he was accepted as such by his constituents and does not therefore represent them. If a man is elected as representing certain political principles, and if in the opinion of those who elected him, he no longer represents them it is not unreasonable to demand that he no longer occupy an equivocal position.

BUT SERIOUS RESULTS CAN BE AVOIDED BY THE TIMELY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

With the return of wintry weather there comes again mother's anxiety for the health of her little ones—wet feet and chilled bodies, and then croup or severe colds. And what is to be done to prevent serious trouble?

Because it is pleasant to the taste, composed of simple ingredients of proven value, and positively free from anything of an injurious nature, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is especially suitable as a treatment for children, and its popularity is due to its wonderful success in the prevention and cure of croup, chest colds and bronchitis.

In the hour of emergency you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, aid expectorstion, allay inflammation and bring speedy relief and cure.

This well-known preparation is not a mere cough mixture, but a medicine having thorough and far-reaching action on the whole system, and hence its remarkable success.

Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "There is no remedy, in my opinion, that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face from choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."

Don't take anything said to be "just as good." There is no throat and lung medicine just as good as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Remember this when buying, and insist on having Dr. Chase's: the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle. 25 cents a bottle. DOURO OCTOGENARIAN DIED THIS MORNING

John Kemp, Aged 83, Passed Away at 10 o'clock—Familiar Figure Gone

There passed away this morning in Douro township one of its oldest residents in the person of John Kemp, who, had he lived until the 10th of March would have been three years past the four score mark. The late Mr. Kemp was a man known to everybody throughout the township and to many in the county and was much respected. He died this morning at 10 o'clock at his residence about four miles from the city. His health has been gradually failing for some time but his death was scarcely expected so soon and he was apparently in good health. He was born in the village of Rainam, in the county of Kent, England, but has spent a considerable portion of his lengthy life in Canada. For a number of years he was proprietor of a brick yard in Douro as well as being a prominent farmer. Last fall his house was burned down and at that time he had a very narrow escape from the flames. Since then his health has not been as good as before.

A widow survives as well as 5 sons and 2 daughters. The sons are, Edward, Lemuel and Tom, of Douro; John C. of Otonabee, and William, of Bethune street, Peterborough, and his daughters are Mrs. Hamilton, of Peterborough and Mrs. Stanson of Michigan. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, lot 2, concession 11, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

ASPHODEL YOUTH COULD NOT REMEMBER

Report That Father was Driven Off by Pitchfork Unfounded

County Constable Cochrane returned from Asphodel last night where he made some inquiries into the assault case reported from that township. He found that the family was very reticient in speaking of the affair and that the youth was unable to remember anything at all about the circumstances. He complained of injuries about the head but had no recollections as to how they were received.

With regard to the pitch fork episode which was mentioned yesterday, Mr. Cochrane could find nothing to substantiate the report that the father was beaten off by his other son with that weapon. The remainder of the report, so far as the constable could discover, was correct. The brother of the one believed to be assaulted was in bed yesterday with an injured knee, when the constable called.

Mr. Dickson was summoned to appear before County Magistrate Edmison next Tuesday.

GIGANTIC DRY GOODS SALE AT B. Y. MOYES STORE

Perhaps the most startling, and certainly the most striking, advertisement of a George street business firm to-day, is the re-lettered announcements of a 'Gigantic sale at the B. Y. Moyes' Store, 408 George street."

This unique sale begins to-morrow and continues for ten days. The sale is under the management of an expert selling manager, who has the knack of selling goods at prices that makes one wonder how they were originally bought for the money. See large advertisement in another column of the Examiner.

PILES

To get relief from the agonising pain of piles just take this simple course. Apply a little Zam-Buk balm, either with the hand direct or on clean lint, and lie down for a short spell. Do it at night! You will be amazed at the ease which follows! Zam-Buk stops bleeding, allays pain, soothes the aching, and stops the irritating itching so common in this ailment.

The cure of piles is only one of the many uses to which Zam-Buk may be put. For all inflamed places, for cuts, bruises and skin diseases it is on a plane by itself. There is absolutely nothing to equal it. Good for the tender skin of children. Doctors recommend it. Nurses daily use it. Ask your friends who have tried it.

GRATEFUL FOR RELIEF.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of 477 Greenwood Avenue, Toronto, says:—"For four years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on "remedies" and doctors' prescriptions but I got no ease. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried and it cured me. I am grateful for the cure, and as I have never had piles once since, I know the cure is permanent."

CURED AFTER 8 YEARS.

Mr. Neil Devoe, of Webbwood (Ont.), says:—"I was bothered for eight years with piles and nobody knows what I have suffered. I tried a sample of Zam-Buk and the result was so pleasing that I secured a good supply. Zam-Buk eased the piles from the first and now I am cured. I am thankful, indeed, for my cure and gladly give you permission to publish my case."

DIRECTORS WORKING HARD FOR FAIR'S SUCCESS

Exhibition Will be Held on Sept. 26, 27 and 28—Sub-Committee for Prize List Revision Appointed

1,500 MEMBERS MUST BE SECURED

A most enthusiastic meeting of the Directors of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chambers, when the fourteen members spent almost three hours of solid work in preparation for what promises to be the best Industrial in the history of Peterborough. The dates for the exhibition have already been arranged, committees have been appointed and it was also decided to return to three day duration plan of former years. Mr. Johnston Ellis, the president of the Lindsay Industrial Fair was present at the meeting and answered numerous questions from the eager workers.

Ald. R. H. Leary, the President, occupied the chair and conducted the business. Those present besides Mr. Johnston Ellis who happened to be visiting in the city and who was requested by Mr. Leary to attend, were Messrs. Samuel Redmond, W. E. Conway, W B Stewart, Samuel Deyell, Jno. Brown, J H Garbutt, J J Turner, Wm Switzer, Geo A Gillespie, Jas A Bell, J M Brooks, Dawson Kennedy, William Collins and Secretary F J A Hall.

Some very valuable information was gotten from Mr. Ellis as to how the Lindsay Fair had gained the success it is noted for. He advised the directors to see where the mistakes of the past had been and to make a strong effort to remedy them. Exhibitors and visitors, he believed, should be made to feel at home and not be looked after like an adopted child. The Lindsay Fair is always concluded on a Saturday, and, Mr. Ellis explained, was the best day of the three. The farmers from every direction come to town on the last day of the week and all attend the fair. The directors were very anxious that they should get as much information as possible and questions were fired from all directions and readily answered by the visitor.

Dates of Exhibition

In the discussion over the days upon which the exhibition should be held, it was unanimously decided to have the last day a Saturday and that it extend over three days instead of two as last year. The dates were fixed to be Sept. 26, 27 and 28, which are in the week following that of the Lindsay Fair.

The directors believe that Saturday should attract the mechanics and employees from the various factories of the city in the afternoon as these institutions are then closed. The school children will also have an opportunity to spend a whole day at the Fair. The farmers, too, will remain over Saturday it being the last day of the week. It was these considerations together with Mr. Ellis' advice that lead the Directors to take this step which apparently is a very reasonable one.

1,500 Members Wanted

The directors want and are bound to have 1,500 members before the Exhibition is held. For this purpose they appointed Mr. Dawson Kennedy, well known throughout the city and county, to solicit subscriptions and he was given orders not to cease his labours until the required number are secured. To become a member a fee of only $1.00 is necessary. This entitles the holder to four passes to the exhibition together with the right to enter free exhibits of anything outside of the live stock line. The directors hope that the people of the county will respond readily to the call and assist in making the Fair what it should be—the best between Toronto and Ottawa.

Sub-committees Wanted

The meeting also dealt with the appointment of sub-committees to begin immediately the work of the revision of the prize lists. These committees were as follows—:

Horses.—W B Stewart, Samuel Deyell, J H Garbutt, J M Brooks and Ald R H. Leary.

Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Poultry—Wm. Collins, Jno. Brown, Samuel Redmond, and Dawson Kennedy.

Dairy Products, Grains, Vegetables—Geo. A Gillespie, Jas. A. Bell, J J Turner.

Fine Arts—W E Conway, Ald. Geo. E. Elliott, J. M. Brooks.

These committees will convene and report to the President in a couple of weeks time. A general meeting will again be held on Thursday, Feb. 14th at which all interested are requested to attend.

Some Good Attractions

Although the directors have not yet decided on the special attractions, they will no doubt be of a superior quality. Peterborough will have the same as Barrie, Orillia and Lindsay and in this way considerable expense is saved in getting into a particular circuit. The above mentioned places are all noted for having good attractions and Peterborough will work in harmony with them to secure the same.

In fact the directors spent no idle moments at their three hour meeting yesterday afternoon and have demonstraetd that they mean business. They are greatly indebted to Mr. Ellis for his valuable information and, as the President stated, they are open for any advice bearing on the future success of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition.

COMMON SENSE IS THE KEYNOTE OF THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST CONSUMPTION

"Good food, fresh air and rest; keep your windows open winter and summer."

So we are told by the great scientists, who are certainly doing wonders in reducing the death rate from Tuberculosis. They also warn us not not to neglect a cold or cough, and it is most important that this advice be followed. While the cough or cold may not bring consumption, it is better to be on the safe side and take no chances.

Here is a simple remedy that will break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable: Glycerine, two ounces. Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), one-half ounce: good Whisky, a half pint. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours. The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription druggist at small cost, but must be pure to effect the desired results. For this reason it is always best to purchase the ingredients separately and prepare the mixture at home.

Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) should be purchased only in the original half-ounce vials, put up for druggists to dispense. Each vial is enclosed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), prepared only by Leach Chemical Co.,—plainly printed thereon. There are many rank imitations of Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), which are put out under similar name and style of package. Never accept these as a substitute for the Pure Virgin Oil of Pine, as they will invariably produce nausea and never effect the desired result. It is always well to remember that the object of an imitator is to deceive.

THE CARPENTERS AND JOINERS UNITE IN AT HOME

Most Enjoyable Time Spent Last Night in Foresters' Hall on Simcoe Street—About 125 in Attendance

DAINTY REFRESHMENTS AND CONCERT

The "at home" held in the Foresters' Hall on Simcoe street, last night, under the auspices of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, was to use that much used, but most appropriate expression, a great success.

The members of the society, more especially the "joiners," are accompanied by their wives at this annual event, and they have made no mistake in inaugurating this custom. All the parties concerned have come to look upon this at home as an occasion for social intercourse between the ladies as well as between the men, and from a much deeper interest is shown from year to year. This may partially account for the large attendance upon the occasion of the social this year, which will long be remembered, and may be put on record as the most successful in the history of the local brotherhood.

The membership is now in the neighbourhood of 75, and the Union is enjoying its share of the general prosperity of the city. The minimum price that carpenters receive per hour now is 25 cents, and all agree that the union has assisted the individual members beyond expectations.

The at home of last night was under the immediate supervision of a committee composed of the following gentlemen: Mr. J. Alexander, chairman; Messrs. Geo. Sloan, Napoleon Trombley, and Thomas Hoolihan. They certainly deserve great credit for the efficient manner in which they prepared the evening's entertainment, everything running smoothly, without the slightest hitch.

Mr. W. J. McCallum provided the supper, which was served in a hall adjoining the music room. Mine Host won the unstinted praise of the wood-workers by the sumptuous feast which he prepared.

The form of the entertainment was a concert divided into two parts and during the interval between these the repast was partaken of. The programme was too long to particularize, but special mention might be made of Mr. McClaren and Mr. Garvin's vocal solos, Mr. J. O'Brien's song, "Slide, Kelly, Slide," and the phonographic selections, which were much enjoyed.

Mr. J. Alexander presided as chairman to the entire satisfaction of all. The following is a copy of the programme:

Address by chairman, John Alexander.
Mr. J. Bennett, instrumental selection.
Mr. A. Lucas, comic song.
Mr. J. Garside, phonograph selection.
Mr. G. Allen, vocal selection.
Mr. A. Kingscote, song.
Mr. Sam Hoolihan, dance.
Mr. George Dickson, song.
Mr. D. B. Webster, violin selection.
Miss M. Edwards, solo.
Mr. A. Kingscote, vocal solo.
Mr. C. P. Murty, address.
Mr. J. O'Brien, "Slide, Kelly, Slide."
Mr. J. Garside, reading.
Mr. McClaren, comic song, encored
Mr. J. Garside, phonograph selection.
Intermission for supper.
Address by Mayor McWilliams.
Misses B. Garside and Irene Edwards, duet.
Mr. J. W. Miller, address.
Mr. G. Dickson, vocal selection.
Mr. G. Allen, song.
Mr. D. B. Webster, violin selection.
Mr. A. Lucas, instrumental selection.
Mr. McClaren and Mr. Garvin, humourous duet.
Mr. Bennet, instrumental selection.
God Save the King.

The accompanists were Mr. Bennett and Mr. J. E. Dickinson.

Mayor McWilliams' address was listened to with marked attention, everyone being interested in his remarks about the prospects for the coming year. His Worship's views seemed to present a very roseate aspect for the carpenters, as well as the general community.

Col. J. W. Miller also gave a splendid address briefly reviewing the evolution of the conflict between labour and capital. He outlined the growth of unions and the protection they offered the individual and his family.

Mr. C. P. Murty also gave an address, of a humorous character, dealing as it did, with a union in which lovers are joined together by bonds of love and devotion.

A vote of thanks was tendered the committee in charge of the at home; also to the press, and to those who otherwise assisted.

The social was brought to a pleasant close by a little hop in which many of the members participated.

How Mr. McDermid Showed the Difference to a Reporter

A reporter was talking with Mr. McDermid, of the firm of McDermid & Jury, lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. McDermid, said:

"See, here; I'll show you now just what I mean."

He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. McDermid took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of a clear, delicious, dark red liquid. The drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. McDermid, "is the old fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of the trouble and corrects the trouble by recreating an appetite and building up the strength and general health.

"Vinol, you know, is a cod liver preparation and, while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee, and see." McDermid & Jury, druggists. Vinol is also sold at the Market Drug Store—The Ormond & Walsh old stand.

STRUCK IN ABDOMEN BY DOUBLETREE

Otonabee Youth Had Very Narrow Escape—Bolt Slipped From Its Place

On Wednesday afternoon the son of Mr. Joseph Manly, an Otonabee farmer, met with a serious accident while unloading hay at McCollum's livery stable. He brought in a load of hay for the McCollum Bros., which was unloaded with a hayfork. The young fellow, who is only about sixteen years of age, was driving his team on the fork, when the accident occurred.

The bolt holding the clevis, which attaches the whiffletree to the doubletree slipped out through a crack in the end of the latter, caused by one of the horses being somewhat in advance of the other. The boy was violently struck in the abdomen by the doubletree, which flew swiftly back, and he had to be taken in an unconscious condition to the Nicholls Hospital, where he is rapidly recovering.

POLICEMAN AND SCRIBE HAVE CHANCE TO DINE

Restaurant Door Left Open, Leaving the Two the Right of Way

As one of the Examiner scribes was wending homeward after the the midnight hour last night, he was hailed by Policeman McGinty, and invited to dine at one of the local restaurants, the proprietor of which had apparently taken pity on the two hungry "night owls," and left the street door open. The two wandered about a few minutes, during which time the scribe, at least, had his eyes fastened upon delicacies which he longed to purchase, had there been a clerk to accept the money.

The officer showed no inclination to fulfill his invitation, but began hammering around the door until finally a gentleman in the third flat, and several doors away, ventured to the window, to find the cause of the disturbance. A few questions were fired at the two below, but the man above soon drew in his head in disgust when he discovered he had unnecessarily been aroused from his pleasant dreams.

Presently a lady appeared in night robes at another window and upon her, the information furnished by the policeman and reporter had good effect—and the chance of a lifetime to the wanderers had passed.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION OF Y.W.C.A.

Miss Mayneord, the Local Secretary of the Association, Gives an Interview Describing the Recent Gathering in Montreal

A GREAT IMPETUOUS TO THE WORK

Miss Mayneord, the local secretary of the Y.W.C.A., has recently returned from Montreal, where she attended the annual convention of the Young Women's Associations of Canada, and, in response to a request gave the Examiner an interview on the incidents in connection with the convention, which was a gratifying success in every way. Referring to it Miss Mayneord said:—

"The sixth national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, held in Montreal, closed on Monday. Nearly one hundred delegates attended and although the weather was bitterly cold we found that it was by no means typical of the feeling of the Montreal people's hearts, for the welcome afforded us was a very warm one. We were entertained for luncheon each day by the different churches, and the friendly spirit manifested made us wonder if church union was very far off.

"The meeting were of exceptional interest and power amongst those taking part were,—Rev. Herbert Symonds D.D., formerly of Peterborough, Rev. Dr. Potts, of Toronto; Rev. J. Douglas Adam, of Brooklyn, N.Y.; Miss H. Barnes, National Industrial Secretary for U.S.A.; Miss Ruth Paxon, of New York; Rev. Dr. Johnson and Rev. Dr. Young, both of Montreal and many others.

"Mrs. Robt. Kilgour, Dominion President, delivered the opening address and seemed to strike the key note of the whole convention as she spoke from the word 'Faithful,' and her message came with power. Dr. Symonds spoke on 'The Association in Relation to the Nation"s Welfare.' He remarked how good it was to have institutions where people coming to the country as strangers, on those needing help, would find there help and light. He thought the Y.W.C.A. could teach the womanhood of Canada the great responsibility that rested with them as the trainers of the young and the future rulers of Canada especially pointing out their duties with respect to building up the Northwest.

"Prof. Scrimger spoke on 'The Value of the Y.W.C.A. to the University.' Rev. Dr. Young's theme was 'The Y.W.C.A. as a Supplementary Agency of the Church.' He said he thought it should be considered as an integral part of the church rather rather than an auxiliary. He said the Y.W.C.A. was touching the social, physical and educational sides of life as never before. The moral standard of any nation, he declared could be fixed by the women.

"Rev. Dr. Potts spoke on 'The True Missionary Spirit' and also on 'Soul Winning the Chief Business of the Y.W.C.A.,' both of which addresses were very helpful. He said a consecrated woman was the greatest power in the world, that it was the chief business of the Y.W.C.A. to win souls from ignorance to knowledge, and from unbelief to faith. He spoke of it as the most delicate work in the world, but said souls were always worth winning.

"Dr. Adams conducted the Bible Hour each day and everyone found his talks most helpful. He reminded us amongst many other things, that we must not aim at numbers instead of power, as there is always a tendency to mistake bigness for reality. He said our business was not to outshine others, but to follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

"Miss Little, Dominion Secretary, in a very encouraging address said:—The Y.W.C.A. is a demonstration of the power of unity. It is helping to unite all ranks, and to solve the problem of what to do with strangers.

"Miss Barnes spoke at length on her work in industrial centres. She said, the day has gone when anyone can be indifferent to his neighbour. To-day men and women are considering the claims of others.

"The meetings all through were a source of deep rich blessing and each worker who had the privilege of being present could not but feel how greatly her responsibility was increased, as her knowledge of the work was made so much clearer."

A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL CONCERT

In Connection With the Salem Methodist Church

A very successful entertainment, under the auspices of the Sunday school in connection with the Salem Methodist Church, in Otonabee, was held last night and was well attended, a fact which those who were responsible for it have every reason to feel gratified at, as well as with the evident pleasure which the entertainment gave. The major portion of the programme was given by the scholars and much credit is due Mrs. Wm. Sargent and Miss Howson for the success of their work in training the children, who acquitted themselves so well. In addition to the numbers contributed by the children, Mr. Petrie sang a solo, Mr. Clayton Hanbidge, of Stewart's, was heard in two solos and Mrs. Wm. Sargent and Miss Howson contributed two vocal duets, all being appreciated by the audience. Addresses of congratulation were given by Rev. J. G. Lewis and Rev. J. G. Potter. Mr. Samuel Sargent, the superintendent of the Sunday school, acted as chairman.

He comes to Peterborough very highly recommended, and should make many friends in this city. The change was first instituted last night, and Mr. Bowes is now pursuing his new duties.

OBITUARY

MRS. ROBT. PHILP

A death which will be learned with regret by her many friends in Peterborough occurred in Port Hope this week, when Mrs. Robert Philp passed away. The late Mrs. Philp had been a frequent visitor in Peterborough, having been connected with the Oke family, Mrs. Fred Oke, a sister-in-law of Messrs. S. A. and Walter Oke, being a daughter of the deceased. The Port Hope Times, referring to her death says:—

After a lengthy illness, during the last six months of which she was confined to her bed, death came to Mrs. Robert Philp on Monday morning. The illness was the result of advanced age, deceased being in her seventy-second year. Born in Bowmanville deceased moved to Welcome where she was married. The family lived in the township of Cramahe up to 20 years ago when they removed to Port Hope. Two daughters, Miss Mura Philp at home and Mrs. Fred Oke and two sons, Frank and Fred, survive. The funeral took place yesterday from her residence on John street to Welcome Cemetery.

NEITHER TEAM HAD MUCH TO BRAG ABOUT

Wingston Whig Gives a One-sided Report of Wednesday's Game

THE 14TH TEAM WEAK IN SHOOTING

The Kingston Whig, speaking of Wednesday's game, says, in part:

The 14th Regiment hockey team ended Peterborough's streak of successive victories at the covered rink last night. Before an audience of 1200 enthusiasts the Kingston bunch put the "bug" in the Peterborough outfit by the score of four to two. As a game, last night's contest came nearer the senior hockey mark than any previous contest seen here this year. However, neither team had much to brag about as both missed golden opportunities to score by not being on the spot with the necessary shot.

The game was called at 8.25 o'clock, and Peterborough was on the offensive at the start. Referee Waghorne deserves credit for the manner in which he handled the players at all stages of the game. From the first scratch the play was fast and strenuous, each team demanding attention from the referee.

Where the 14th team is weak is in shooting and in playing their positions; many times a pass was missed during the contest by the 14th players not being in their proper position.

The Peterborough outfit were accompanied to the city by a large number of backers and several hundred of Peterborough dollars are in the hands of Kingston speculators as a result of the game.

For the home team the defence practically won the game. George Richardson and Bernier were always in evidence, and Potter, who had hard luck with his scoring, was as tricky and dependable as usual. Senator Powell played good hockey, showing up strong in checking back. For the visitors Lang in goal and Crowley at cover point, did excellent work, while Morgan and Whiteroft starred on the line. Referee Waghorne's decisions were fairly satisfactory to both teams, although Peterborough many times kicked, but Waghorne was their choice as referee.

The turning out of Vanhorne at coverpoint last evening, cinched the match with Peterborough for the 14th team. Vanhorne played a strong game despite the fact that he has been off the ice for some time with a bad knee.

IRVING'S CHARGES DID NOT AMOUNT TO MUCH

As Far as Inquiry Went There Was Found to be No Foundation for Them

The charges made by Mr. Irving against the St. George's, Marlboros, Galt, Berlin, Stratford and Peterborough clubs were investigated by the O. H. A. executive last night, with the result that so far as the inquiry went there was found to be nothing to the sweeping indictment made by the Guelph captain. The Marlboro, Stratford and St. George's men implicated cleared themselves without trouble. McGinnis, of Berlin; Munn Johnston and Brady, of Galt, and Whiteroft, Crowley and Morgan, of Peterborough, were not present, and the charges made against them were laid over until next Thursday night when these players must be present.

HOCKEY

The senior hockey team of Knox Church defeated the intermediate team of the same church in a fast game last night. The final score was 4—0, but the game was hotly contested all through. The seniors lined up as follows:

Goal, Killenbeck; point, W. T. Bellegham; cover, W. Galley; right wing, Dickson; left wing, Ryan; centre, Garside; rover, Hamilton (capt).

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS FOR JAN. SHOW INCREASE OF $11,000

A Big Increase in Receipts Over January of 1906

The customs receipts for the port of Peterborough are showing increases every month, and for the month of January this year the receipts were $36,357.75, compared with $25,140.72, for January, 1906, an increase of $11,217.03, a showing which is very satisfactory.

It is of interest to learn that only twelve years ago, the receipts for the whole year were about $45,000, just $9,000 more than for one month this year.

The fiscal year which closes on March 31st, will, it is expected, show a great increase in the receipts as compared with those of the preceding twelve months.

Gained 25 Pounds

"I was very much run down in health, could not sleep, was very nervous and so weak that I could hardly get around. Some months ago I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and to-day I am pleased to say that I am completely restored to health. I have gained 25 pound in weight, sleep well and feel strong and healthy." — Miss Annie Evans, 39 Gottingen street, Halifax street, N.S.

SURPRISE A PURE HARD SOAP

ONE OF THE THINGS it is hard to make folks understand is the fact that, with "SURPRISE" Soap, it is not necessary to boil or scald the clothes.

A tea-kettle of hot water is enough—and you don't rub hard. The soap does the work—loosens the dirt and it drops out.

You can use "SURPRISE" Soap any way you wish, but this tea-kettle-of-hot-water way is the best because it's quickest and easiest.

"SURPRISE" is a pure, hard soap of the highest grade. The first cost isn't any more than common soap.

Crippled With Rheumatism

CURED BY GIN PILLS

Mr. Derraugh certainly did have a hard time of it, winter before last. Caught cold, and it settled in his kidneys. First thing he knew, he was in bed with Rheumatism. He nearly went mad, the pain was so intense. The doctors gave him the usual treatment—and pretty nearly burnt his legs off with liniments and blisters—but the Rheumatism went right on aching.

Then a friend stepped in and said, "Why don't you try GIN PILLS?" After a great deal of persuasion, Mr. Derraugh did try GIN PILLS. You never saw such a happy man in your life, after he had taken two boxes. Pain all gone—stiffness and lameness completely left—that ache in back and hips disappeared—and he was well in no time. That was two years ago and he has been in perfect health ever since.

Contracted a severe cold. Rheumatism followed and the sharp pains took me so often and were so severe that I had to take to bed. For several months I could get no relief, until I started to take "Gin Pills." In five days I was up and around the house. My pains are gone and I have not had a return of the old trouble since. I wish also to say that "Gin Pills" gave me the first painless passage of urine I have had in two years.

ROBT. DERRAUGH, Winnipeg.

How about you? Haven't you suffered enough without going all over it again this winter? Get Gin Pills now—and cure yourself at home. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample to try. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg.

Orphans Came Near Beating Charlotte St. Outfit Last Night

Youngsters Put Up a Game Fight and Were Only Beaten After a Hard Battle—Score Was 6-4 in Favour of Methodists

THE STRATHCONAS WON FROM THE LAKEFIELD BUNCH

Charlotte Street won their City League game with the Orphans last night, but it was only after the hardest kind of a game that they managed to pull out a victory. The youngsters although out-weighed were not by any means out-played. In fact after the initial fifteen minutes they had the best of the play and had it not been for the clever work of Crowe in the nets for the Methodists, would have pretty near won out. The score was 6-4 and at half time 4-3 in favour of the Charlotte Street team.

The Orphans were much lighter than their older opponents and looked more suited for the juvenile series than the senior, but what they lacked in weight they made up in ability and aggressiveness. They were as fast as their big adversaries, played, if anything, better combination and showed no hesitancy in coming on the heavy defence. They were not given the gentlest treatment by any means and heavy jolts into the boards were common. The Orphans, while generally playing the puck, managed to hand back a little of the hard checking they were subjected to but for the most part they remained on the ice and this helped them materially in making the game close.

The contest was by no means a drawing-room affair. Heavy body-checking, tripping and slashing were prominent on the bill of fare with Charlotte Street leading the penalty list by a good margin. They used their weight against the youngsters but the latter came right back at them, never letting up for a minute and they won many friends by the gameness they exhibited throughout. Fifteen men were penalized by referee Stroud during the contest, 11 Charlotte Street men and 4 Orphans being sent to the boards. Several mixups occurred to add variety to the programme. Dobson and Grose tried to settle their difference by a Graeco-Roman match in the centre of the rink while the Orphans notched a goal. In the last half with six minutes to play, Long charged McFadden of the Orphans after he had stopped a shot and went off for the rest of the game.

There was plenty of hockey and also any amount of excitement which is a good substitute. With the checking as it was individual efforts predominated and both teams adopted one-man tactics with an occasional flash of combination.

Long while he was on the ice was always prominent for the winners and his work was decidedly useful. Grose also showed up to good advantage on the forward line, while the defence checked strenuously but for the most part effectively. Crowe, who played his first game in the nets, got in the way of many likely looking shots, especially in the last few minutes, when the Orphans looked like the one best bet.

For the losers Ray and Dobson shone on the forward line. Both had lots of speed which enabled them to check back in good fashion and their work on the defensive was brilliant. Pentland, the light cover point, checked fearlessly and was of decided assistance to the forward line. Barber played a fine game at point especially when it is considered he has just come from the hospital where he has been undergoing treatment for an injured knee hurt in the last game he played. He stopped many rushes that looked dangerous. McFadden stopped and cleared brilliantly.

The greater part of the game was played with six men a side. McGrath who started out with the Orphans had to leave the game in the first half on account of illness and Quinn was dropped from the Charlotte Street line-up.

The teams were as follows:—

CHARLOTTE STREET.
Crowe
Roddy
Moore
Dusty
Grose, Lang, Quinn,
Ray, McGrath, Sanderson
Dobson
Pentland
Barber
McFadden

ORPHANS.

Charlotte Street started off like easy winners, their weight and speed apparently sweeping the youngsters off their feet. In less than a minute Grose scored on a lucky shot from the corner, the puck glancing into the nets from someone's skate. Long by a pretty individual rush made it 2-0 three minutes after. Dobson mixed it up and was sent away. Ray got clear with a dangerous looking rush but Roddy bodied him heavily and—was penalized. Long scored once more for Charlotte Street in one minute.

Long had a mixup with McFadden and the Charlotte centre was benched. Barber bodied Grose into the boards and while he was off Grose scored again on a pretty rush. Score 3-0.

The Orphans pulled themselves together and had much the better of the remainder of the half. Ray carried the puck up the side and centred nicely to Dobson who scored. 4-1.

Dusty was penalized in the next period. The Orphans were pressing and there was great jubilation among their supporters when Sanderson scored on a pass from Ray. 4-2.

The next was scored in quick order by Ray while Dobson and Grose were wrestling in the middle of the rink. Referee Stroud did not see the mixup until the goal was scored. 4-3. Just before half time was called Roddy was benched.

Charlotte Street again started off to rush matters in the second half. Within a minute Long made the score 5-3 and 30 seconds after Moore scored on an individual rush. The Orphans were not dismayed and kept pressing until Dobson scored on a pass from Pentland. Score 6-4.

This ended the scoring and the play got faster and rougher with the Orphans having a shade the best of the argument. Penalties came thick and fast. Long was benched for 3 minutes and he was quickly followed by Dobson and Moore. Soon after serving his sentence Long got a 4 minute term. Roddy was chased for tripping and Barber visited the timers for the same offence. Long went off again for charging McFadden. The Orphans had the best of the play, but Crowe got away with some pretty stops of what looked sure goals. Dobson scored on an offside but the referee called them back and the game ended 6-4.

Summary:—

1.—Charlotte Street Grose.
2.—Charlotte Street, Long.
3.—Charlotte Street, Long.

7.—Orphans, Ray.

STRATHCONAS WON.

The Strathconas defeated the Lakefield team by 2-1 in a game that was marked by the closeness of the checking than the brilliancy of the hockey displayed. Combination was nowhere in sight and both teams showed a tendency to wander from their places to follow the puck around with the result that there was generally half a dozen players slashing around in the neighbourhood of the rubber. The game was clean although the checking was close. Both teams slashed considerably but not bad enough to cause many penalties to be handed out.

There was little to choose between the teams. They were evenly matched as regards speed and weight and both used the same tactics, individual effort, with combination left in the dressing room. The local team won by getting in closer for the shots while Lakefield lost opportunities from shooting from outside.

The winners' forward line all showed up well and it would be unfair to specialize. White played a useful game at cover and "Bill" Meagher was checked and relieved well. He replaced Weatherston who was out of the game on account of injuries received in Saturday's game with Omemee.

Quinn and M. Quigley were Lakefield's stars, both had lots of speed and used it to good advantage although less hogging the puck would have made their efforts more useful. Sabatino checked well at point and Gray made some clever stops.

The teams:—

STRATHCONAS.
Wilson
Meagher
White
McMillan
Seymour, Mann, Weatherston
J. Quigley, Quinn, Moran,
M. Quigley
Murdoff
Sabatino
Gray

LAKEFIELD.

All the scoring was done in the first half which was marked by little else than close hard checking and the manner in which the players wandered around after the puck. Sometimes three or four players of the same team would be trying to get away with the rubber. These tactics made good hockey an impossibility and there was nothing brilliant offered either in the way of individual or combination efforts.

Seymour notched the first goal for the Strathconas, showing the rubber into the net after Gray had stopped a shot. The net was dislodged in the melee but the goal counted. McMillan made it 2-0 a few minutes after on an individual rush. Shortly after Lakefield scored their first and the last goal of the game. Quinn doing the trick on a nice shot. Score 2-1.

The second half found both teams working hard to score, but under the existing circumstances it seemed impossible. Neither forward line could get in close and in the play on centre ice, there was little to choose between them. Shots on goal were rare with the exception of long drives from outside the defence. During the half White was benched for bodying and Seymour served two sentences for slashing and a heavy body check.

Summary:—

1.—Strathconas, Seymour.
2.—Strathconas, McMillan.
3.—Lakefield, M. Quigley.

Penalties.—Seymour 2; White.

Referee—Stroud.

AN ENCOURAGING REPORT WAS GIVEN

Ald. W. J. Johnston Presents Monthly Report on Labour Conditions in Peterborough for Month of December

SOME DISTRICT NEWS OF INTEREST

A more than ordinarily interesting report is that of Ald. W. J. Johnston, to the Labour Gazette, giving the conditions in the labour situation during the month of December. The Gazette, an advance copy of which has been received contains the following report:—

Labour in general during December was fairly well employed, excepting outside work which was impeded by cold weather. A number of buildings were being pushed to completion. Work on large transformer building of the Canadian General Electric Company has been closed down for the winter, but will be resumed as soon as weather permits. Dredging in the Otonabee river has also ceased during the cold weather. The Otonabee Power Company has increased its stock from $200,000 to $400,000, to meet demands for additional power and light.

The Peterborough Canoe Company has commenced the manufacturing of toboggans for the product of which there is a great demand, both local and foreign.

The McAllister flour mills were being closed down and the contents sold to make way for the installation of machinery for the manufacture of other produce.

The different factories throughout the city were running full time. During the past two years the excellent manner in which the waters of the Trent Canal, which furnishes electrical energy for various factories of the city have been regulated and conserved, has increased employment greatly and the manufacturers have been able to run their factories continuously, and have not been obliged to close down for days or parts of days. The Trent Canal is now closed for the winter. The Government has still a number of workmen engaged on the works at Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, and Kirkfield, repairing and placing every part of the locks in good shape for next season's navigation.

Commercial activity was very pronounced. The Christmas traffic was never known to be of such large dimensions, Express Companies had a very busy month. Woodworking lines were exceptionally active.

The banks had a good month.

The receipts of the Customs Department for the month of November amounting to $32,400, being $10,000 in advance of the receipts during the same month last year.

Six and one-third miles of walks were laid in the city during the past season; five miles of sewers were also laid during the year, making twenty-six and a half miles of sidewalks throughout the city and nineteen and three-quarters of sewers, all told. Day labour is being employed in the construction of one section of the city sewerage system, which is still under way. This system has proved a decided financial success.

Wages changes have only occurred where hours of labour have been shortened in the outside trades, and the labour market has been free from strikes.

Condition of Local Industries

Agriculture.—Work consisted chiefly in looking after stock and hauling hay, wood and all kinds of produce to market, all of which found a ready sale.

Fishing.—Conditions were comparatively dull.

Lumbering.—Very active conditions prevailed and heavy shipments of lumber were made.

Manufacturing. — All establishments were very active.

Railroad construction and employment. —Construction work consisted principally of section work, including the repairing of roadbed, etc.

Condition of Particular Trades

Building.—All were actively employed during the month, excepting bricklayers and masons, painters and paperhangers and builders' labourers.

Metal engineering and shipbuilding. Iron moulders, iron workers, and helpers, machinists, steam engineers, electrical workers, tool sharpeners and horseshoers, linemen, brass workers, blacksmiths, boilermakers, shipworkers (on repair work) sheet metal workers were busy. District Notes

Fleetwood.—The cheese factory reported using 1,933,366 lbs. of milk, making 180,138 lbs. of cheese and selling it for $24,880. Good markets were the rule and the following prices prevailed:—Boy apples $2.50 to $3.75 per barrel; butter, 25 cents per lb; eggs, 30 cents per dozen; chickens, 60 cents; turkeys, $1.25 to $2.00, and potatoes, $1.00 per bag.

The latter company has recently increased its floor space by 12,000 square feet, and added new machinery, including an 100 horse-power boiler. The firm will increase its staff considerably. These changes have become necessary in consequence of the increased demand for the company's goods.

Port Perry.—The Christmas show for dressed poultry, meat, horses, cattle and sheep aroused such interest during the competition among the farmers of the surrounding district.

Lindsay.—Flavelle and Company had a busy month making large shipments of poultry to outside markets. For water filtration purposes a by-law will shortly be submitted to the ratepayers proposing a grant of $20,000.

Whitby.—An agreement has been executed for the establishment here of the National Car Company's works to provide car and other equipment for the electric railway to run between Georgian Bay ports and Lakefield, Ont., with terminals at Toronto and Whitby. WEDDING BELLS

McCOLLOUGH—EAGER

A brief reference was made in the Examiner yesterday to the wedding of Dr. McCullough, which took place in Ottawa on Tuesday. Yesterday's issue of the Ottawa Journal gives the following report of this interesting event:—

On Tuesday evening a very prettty and quiet house weddding took place at 67 James street, the residence of Mr. P. W. Tomkins, uncle of the bride, when Miss Etta Eager, only daughter of Mr. Thos. E. Eager, of Hookston, was united in marriage to Dr. J. M. McCulloch, of Peterborough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C B Clarke, of Trinity church, Billings' Bridge, a personal friend of the bride's family. The tall and slender bride looked charming in an exquisite gown of white chiffon taffeta elaborately trimmed with lace. She wore the bridegroom's gift, a handsome pearl necklace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. She was attended by her two young cousins, Misses Alma and Edith Tomkins, as maids of honour, and very sweet they looked in dainty frocks of accordion pleated pink silk. They carried bouquets of sweet peas and wore the pretty pearl pins which were the gifts of the groom, and the tiny monogram rings, the gifts of the bride. Mrs. P. W. Tomkins was effectively gowned in pearl grey collenne with handsome yoke and trimmings of embroidered chiffon.

The drawing room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with festoons of smilax, and with ferns and palms. In the dining room, where the sumptuous wedding supper was partaken of, the colour scheme was pink, and the table decorations were of smilax, tulips, and carnations. The shade of the lights immediately above the table had been arranged to resemble a large bell, while the pink shades of the silver candelabra completed a pretty scheme of decoration.

The happy couple were the recipients of many congratulatory telegrams from distant friends. They left by the 11 p.m. train for a brief honeymoon trip, after which they will reside on Peterborough, where the popular young doctor has recently established a practice. The bride's going-away gown was of green cloth, with hat of green panne velvet, the trimmings of which harmonized with the touches of colour in the vest over which the long coat opened.

A GLORIOUS SALE OF WHITE LINGERIE UNDERWEAR

Our White Underwear did not need the excuse of a "Sale" to sell them—they would sell readily at the usual prices to a descriminating public; but we wanted more than a business that sold "Readily," we wanted business that sold "Remarkably," and that accounts for the drops in prices. The garments are just as fine as ever, but they have parted with part of their price so that we might have a "Bargain Holiday."

We couldn't begin to describe all the values—but FAIR'S WHITEWEAR SALES are so well known that the people flock to this store the moment they know the Sale is on.

This cut conveys a faint idea of the daintiness of our Whitewear. The values can only be appreciated by a personal visit to this department.

DEMANDS OF ALASKA

That Portion of the United States Making Firm Demands Upon the American Government for Home Rule

THE VIEWS OF A DELEGATE

Publishers' Press Special.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 2.—At the same time as the Canadian section of the northern gold fields is making a strenuous appeal to the national Government for important changes in the administration of the affairs of the region, the territory of Alaska is making even more important demands on the American Government. Nothing less than Home Rule for Alaska is the demand of Mr. Waskey, the first delegate to Congress from that section.

Mr. Wood, of Dawson City, who is the prime mover in the campaign claims that the whole question is one of right and not of expediency, and he laughs to scorn the assertion that the granting of home rule to the territory would mean a reign of organized labour, to the detriment of capital, and so to the injury of the industries of the country.

He admits, however, that there is quite an element of the population which is satisfied with the existing condition of affairs, and is not anxious for a change. This element, of which the Governor of the territory is the leader, makes the plea that the present system is the best considering the present condition of the country, its small population, its widely scattered settlement, and the uncertainty of the permanency of the placer camps. "All this," he said, "would undoubtedly make the establishment of a county organization and the working of the territory government somewhat expensive, but I believe this expense would be more than repaid by the advantages we would have in dealing with our political and legislative problems on the spot, and I think a majority of the people are in favour of home rule as their right, and also as the best way of meeting a number of difficulties in the present situation."

Mr. Woods, in spite of his realization of the necessity for home rule, is, however, not all sanguine of its being granted this session, and expects little more than the improvement of the mining laws, if even that.

PRAISE FROM SUPREME OFFICER OF K.O.T.M.

Very Much Pleased With Their Reception While in the City

The supreme officers of the K. O. T. M. had some pretty compliments for Peterborough and for their reception here. The banquet tendered by the local camp, and which was prepared by Mr. W. J. McCallum was the best in the circuit to the seven district conventions, they stated. They were well pleased with the reception from the Peterborough tent and took away some pleasant memories of their visit here. They liked Peterborough as a city and believed it to be one of the prettiest and most thriving young cities in the province.

Duty Free Canadian Timber Sent To Isthmus Of Panama

And United States is Deprived of Duty—San Francisco's Sad Plight Used as Means To Shirk Paying Customs Fees

HOW THE SCHEME WORKED

Publishers' Press Special.

Ottawa, Feb. 2. — Startling news has reached Government circles of a scheme which is resulting in diverting lumber produced in British Columbia from its natural markets in Canadian centres, where it is badly needed, to the United States, and also incidentally in cheating the Government of the neighbouring republic out of thousands of dollars in timber dues.

Up to the present time it has been believed that the great shortage of lumber in British Columbia has been caused by the huge demand in the city of San Francisco, for lumber for rebuilding after the earthquake.

It is not denied that lumber has gone to San Francisco in tremendous quantities but the real destination of the material has been the Isthmus of Panama, and it has only gone to San Francisco as a blind to obtain advantage of the preferential rates of duty that have been in force in that port since the disaster of last April.

Once at San Francisco the lumber has been immediately reloaded on other vessels and taken to the south, to be used in the temporary work on the Panama canal.

The unrighteous gold swindled out of the customs officers of the neighbouring nation has been divided between the managers of the schemes and the lumbermen with whom they deal in British Columbia.

While the greatest onus of this double dealing will fall upon the United States, the matter is one of paramount interest to Canadians, for lumber is one of the chief necessities of the rapidly spreading population of Western Canada.

GRANTS FOR RESEARCH

Lord Strathcona Will Give $1,000 a Year for Five Years to Solve Two Important Biblical Mysteries

A WELCOME ANNOUNCEMENT

Publishers' Press Special.

Montreal, February 2. — Sir William Ramsay announces the gift from Lord Strathcona of $1000 a year for five years to enable Aberdeen University to continue its antiquarian researches in Asia Minor. It was explained to-day that the Turkish Government had given permission to make excavations on an important Hittite site. By means of the discoveries thus made possible, it is hoped to answer two questions of world-wide interest. "Who were the children of Hebe, from whom Abraham bought the cave of Machpelah, and one of which was Uriah, whom David beheaded with such treacherous cruelty? Who were the sons of Javan? Gen. x, 4. Who founded Tarshish, and other cities of the north coast of the Levant, and who learned from, and gave lessons to the races of Syria, as early as the second millennium, B. C.?"

These two peoples, the Hittites, and the Tonians, stand on the borderland between East and West in that period, and now we are on the point of learning who and what they are.

WILL HAVE ALL RUSSIAN RAILWAY

Government Commenced To-day Construction of New Line to Vladivstock—All Through Russian Territory

Publishers' Press Special.

St. Petersburg, February 2. — The Minister of Railways to-day commenced the construction of another railway designed to give Russia a line to Vladivstock entirely through Russian territory. The line will run from Stretinsk, where construction of the road was abandoned when Russia occupied Manchuria, to Pokhrovskana, head of navigation on the Amiver, a distance of 240 miles. The purpose of the line at present is purely strategical and was evoked by the spectre of renewal of the Russo-Japanese war. It is admitted that the road cannot be profitable commercially for many years.

BIG CROWDS WERE AT JACKSON PARK LAST NIGHT

This Popular Resort was Largely Patronized Last Night—Slide and Rink Crowded.

Notwithstanding the other attractions billed for last evening, Jackson Park rink had the largest crowd of the season. The ideal weather, combined with the fine ice, served to make it one of the pleasantest events of the winter. The 57th band was in attendance, and as of yore, won golden opinions for their playing.

The toboggan slide still continues to have its full quota of devotees, every one of whom is delighted with the sport.

THE "DRAKE" WINNER

British Battleships on a Race Back From Gibraltar—Prince Louis, of Battenburg's Flagship Ahead

HAVE A FULL SPEED RECORD

Publishers' Press Special.

London, February 2. — An Admiralty report, issued to-day states that on its return from Gibraltar to England, the second cruiser squadron had a speed race of four-fifths power for thirty hours. Interest in the race was all the greater because the cruisers were fitted with rival types of water tube boilers.

The Blake, flagship of Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, fitted with Belleville boilers, was an easy victor. For thirty hours, with only four-fifths of her power, she averaged a speed of 23 knots.

At the end of thirty hours the ships were ordered to slow down to 18 knots, and proceed to their home ports.

The Drake arrived in Portsmouth some hours ahead of her companions. The speed registered constitutes a world's record for such long steaming. The Drake also holds the full speed record, having steamed at 25 knots at full steam last summer.

A SPINAL AFFECTION INDUCED HIM TO WED

Rev. Bert Holden, a Confessed Bigamist, Makes a Novel Plea, but It Avails Him Naught

HE WAS SENTENCED TO SIX YEARS

Toledo, O., Jan 30.—Pleading that a spinal affection made him susceptible to the charms of every fair woman whom he met and made him unable to resist the temptation to fall in love with and wed them, Rev. Bert Holden, age 55, a confessed bigamist, to-day tearfully besought Judge Barber to be easy on him.

"The court is under the impression that you have a dozen wives in various parts of the State," said Judge Barber. "I have no pity for such a confirmed trifler. The sentence of this court will be six years in the penitentiary."

Holden hung his head and received his six years' sentence weepingly. He declared that he had been examined by physicians who told him that his peculiar spinal disease was responsible for his penchant for plural wives and preyed upon his mind until he was not able to resist the desire to be off with an old love and on with a new.

Holden was a Toledo minister and made revival and camp meetings a particular calling where, in his religious fervor and sanctity he played havoc with the impressionable female members of his succored flock. It is said Holden has two sons now in penitentiary on bigamy charge, that he has been up three different time on the charge and it is known that he has married at least fifteen times. He also suffers with lung trouble, and—probably brain-softening.

CHAINED PRISONERS BY THE NECK

Sensational Reports of Brutality Recorded From Australia

Publishers' Press Special.

Adelaide, Australia, February 2.—At the meeting of the Science Congress to-day, Professor Klaatsch, of Heidelberg, related results of ethnological researches among the negroes of Northwest Australia. He confirmed the reports that have been current of ill treatment of the natives, and compared the relations between whites and blacks there with the state of affairs that prevailed in Tasmania in 1830, which resulted in the extermination of the blacks. Prof. Klaatsch said that he had witnessed at Wyndham the arrival of native prisoners, who had travelled 300 or 400 miles chained together by the neck.

THE TRUST AND GUARANTEE COMPANY

Evidence of the prosperous condition of the Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, was afforded at the tenth annual general meeting of the company, held at its offices, 14 King street west Wednesday, whose report appears elsewhere. There was a good attendance of shareholders and the report presented indicates a very prosperous year, showing a credit balance, after the payment of all expenses, of $79,234.22. Two half-yearly dividends at the rate of 5 per cent. and 6 per cent. per annum for the first and second half of the year, respectively, were paid, amounting to $57,406.96. Sargeness of his lips. Then I traced my man to the Lion at Moreton Wells, where he had obviously gone to see Reginald Henson. From the Lion our friend went to the Royal at Scarsdale Sands, where he is staying at present."

"Under the name of John Smith?"

"I suppose so, seeing that all the inquiries under that name were successful. If you would like me to come up and interview the man for you——"

"I should like you to do nothing of the kind," Chris said. "You are more useful in Brighton, and I am going to interview Mr. John Smith Rawlins for myself. Good-bye. Just one moment. For the next few days my address will be the Royal Hotel, Scarsdale Sands."

Chris countermanded the dog-cart she had ordered and repaired to the library, where Littimer was tying some trout-flies behind a cloud of cigarette smoke.

"Thought you had gone to Moreton Wells," he said. "Been at the telephone again? A pretty nice bill I shall have to pay for all those long messages of yours."

"Mr. Steel pays this time," Chris said, gaily. "He has just given me some information that obviates the necessity of going into the town. My dear uncle, you want a change. You look tired and languid——"

"Depression of spirits and a disinclination to exercise after food. Also a morbid craving for seven to eight hours' sleep every night. What's the little game?"

"Bracing air," Chris laughed. "Lord Littimer and his secretary, Miss Lee, are going to spend a few days at Scarsdale Sands, Royal Hotel, to recuperate after their literary labors."

"The air here being so poor and enervating," Littimer said, cynically. "In other words, I suppose you have traced Rawlins to Scarsdale Sands?"

"How clever you are," said Chris, admiringly. "Walen's American and Lockhart's American, with the modest pseudonym of John Smith, are what Mrs. Malaprop would call three single gentlemen rolled into one. We are going to make the acquaintance of John Smith Rawlins."

"Oh, indeed, and when do we start, may I ask?"

Chris responded coolly that she hoped to get away in the course of the day: With a great show of virtuous resignation Lord Littimer consented.

"I have always been the jest of fortune," he said, plaintively; "but I never expected to be dragged all over the place at my time of life by a girl who is anxious to make me acquainted with the choicest blackguardism in the kingdom. I leave my happy home, my cook, and my cellar, for at least a week of hotel living. Well, one can only die once."

Chris bustled away to make the necessary arrangements. Some few hours later Lord Littimer was looking out from his luxurious private sitting-room with the assumption of being a martyr. He and Chris were dressed for dinner; they were waiting for the bell to summon them to the dining-room. When they got down at length they found quite a large number of guests already at the many small tables.

"Your man here?" Littimer asked, languidly.

Chris indicated two people seated in a window opposite.

"There!" she whispered. "There he is. And what a pretty girl with him!"

CHAPTER XLIX.

Littimer put up his glass and gazed with apparent vacancy in the direction of the window. He saw a tall man with a grey beard and hair; a man most immaculately dressed and of distinctly distinguished appearance. Littimer was fain to admit that he would have taken him for a gentleman under any circumstances. In manner, style, and speech he left nothing to be desired.

"That chap has a fortune in his face and accent," Littimer said "'Pon my word, he is a chance acquaintance that one would ask to dinner without the slightest hesitation. And the girl——"

"Is his daughter," Chris said. "The likeness is very strong."

"It is," Littimer admitted. "A singularly pretty, refined girl, with quite the grand air. It is an air that mere education seldom gives; but it seems to have done so in yonder case. And how fond they seem to be of one another! Depend upon it, Chris, whatever that man may be his daughter knows nothing of it. And yet you tell me that the police——"

"Well, never mind the police, now. We can get Mr. Steel to tell Marley all about 'John Smith' if we can't contrive to force his hand without. But with that pretty girl before my eyes I shouldn't like to do anything harsh. Up till now I have always pictured the typical educated scoundrel as a man who was utterly devoid of feelings of any kind."

Dinner proceeded quietly enough, Chris having eyes for hardly anything else beyond the couple in the window. She rose presently, with a little gasp, and hastily lifted a tankard of iced water from the table. The girl opposite her had turned pale and her dark head had drooped forward.

"I hope it is not serious," said Chris. "Drink a little of this; it is iced."

"And they told me they had no ice in the house," the man Rawlins muttered. "A little of this, Grace. It is one of her old fainting fits. Ah, that is better."

The man Rawlins spoke with the tenderest solicitude. The look of positive relief on his face as his daughter smiled at him told of a deep devotion and affection for the girl. Chris, looking on, was wondering vaguely whether or not she had made a mistake.

"Lord Littimer obtained our ice," she said. "Pray keep this. Oh, yes, that is Lord Littimer over there. I am his secretary."

Littimer strolled across himself and murmured his condolences. A little time later and the four of them were outside in the verandah taking ices together. Rawlins might have been, and no doubt was, a ruined scoundrel, but there was no question as to his fascinating manner and his brilliant qualities as a conversationalist. A man of nerve, too, and full of resources. All the same, Littimer was asking himself and wondering who the man really was. By birth he must have been born a gentleman, Littimer did not doubt for a moment.

But there was one soft spot in the man, and that was his love for his daughter. For her sake he had been traveling all over the world for years; for years he had despaired of seeing her live to womanhood. But she was gradually growing better; indeed, if she had not walked so far to-day nothing would have happened. All the time that Rawlins was talking his eyes were resting tenderly on his daughter. The hard, steely look seemed to have gone out of them altogether.

Altogether a charming and many-sided rascal, Littimer thought. He was fond, as he called it, of collecting types of humanity, and here was a new and fascinating specimen. The two men talked together till long after dark, and Rawlins never betrayed himself. He might have been an Ambassador or Cabinet Minister unbending after a long period of heavy labor.

Meanwhile Chris had drawn Grace Rawlins apart from the others. The girl was quiet and self-contained, but evidently a lady. She seemed to have but few enthusiasms, but one of them was for her father. He was the most wonderful man in the world, the most kind and considerate. He was very rich; indeed, it was a good thing, or she would never have been able to see so much of the world. He had given up nearly the whole of his life to her, and now she was nearly as strong as other girls. Chris listened in a dazed, confused kind of way. She had not expected anything like this; and when had Rawlins found time for those brilliant predatory schemes that she had heard of?

"Well, what do you think of them?" Littimer asked when at length he and Chris were alone. "I suppose it isn't possible that you and I have made a mistake?"

"I'm afraid not," Chris said, half sadly. "But what a strange case altogether."

"Passing strange. I'll go bail that that man is born and bred a gentleman; and, what is more, he is no more of an American than I am. I kept on forgetting from time to time what he was and taking him for one of our own class. And, finally, I capped my folly by asking him to bring his daugher for a drive tomorrow and a lunch on the Capstone. What do you think of that?"

"Splendid," Chris said, coolly. "Nothing could be better. You will be good enough to exercise all your powers of fascination on Miss Rawlins to-morrow, and leave her father to me. I thought of a little plan to-night which I believe will succeed admirably. At first I expected to have to carry matters with a high hand, but now I am going to get Mr. Rawlins through his daughter. I shall know all I want to by to-morrow night."

Littimer smiled at this sanguine expectation.

"I sincerely hope you will," he said, drily. "But I doubt it very much indeed. You have one of the cleverest men in Europe to deal with. Good-night."

But Chris was in no way cast down. She had carefully planned out her line of action, and the more she thought over it the more sure of success she felt. A few hours more and—but she didn't care to dwell too closely on that.

It was after luncheon that Chris's opportunity came. Lord Littimer and Grace Rawlins had gone off to inspect something especially beautiful in the way of a waterfall, leaving Chris and Rawlins alone. The latter was talking brilliantly over his cigarette.

"Is Lord Littimer any relation of yours?" he asked.

"Well, yes," Chris admitted. "I hope he will be a nearer relation before long."

"Oh, you mean to say—may I venture to congratulate——"

"It isn't quite that," Chris laughed, with a little rising in color. "I am not thinking of Lord Littimer, but of his son. . . . . Yes, I see you raise your eyebrows—probably you are aware of the story, as most people are. And you are wondering why I am on such friendly terms with Lord Littimer under the circumstances. And I am wondering why you should call yourself John Smith."

The listener coolly flicked the ash from his cigarette. His face was like a mask.

"John Smith is a good name," he said. "Can you suggest a better?"

"If you ask me to do so I can. I should call myself John Rawlins."

There was just the ghost of a smile on Rawlins's lips.

"There is a man of that name," he said, slowly, "who attained considerable notoriety in the States. People said that he was the derniere cri of ruined rascality. He was supposed to be without feeling of any kind; his villainies were the theme of admiration amongst financial magnates. There were brokers who piously thanked Providence because Rawlins had never thought of going on the Stock Exchange, where he could have robbed and plundered with impunity. And this Rawlins always baffles the police. If he baffles them a little longer they won't be able to touch him at all. At present, despite his outward show, he has hardly a dollar to call his own. But he is on to a great coup now, and, strange to say, an honest one. Do you know the man, Miss Lee?"

Chris met the speaker's eyes firmly.

"I met him last night for the first time," she said.

"In that case you can hardly be said to know him," Rawlins murmured. "If you drive him into a corner he will do desperate things. If you tried that game on with him you would regret it for the rest of your life. Good heavens, you are like a child playing about amidst a lot of unguarded machinery. Why do you do it?"

"That I will tell you presently. Mr. Rawlins, you have a daughter."

The hard look died out of the listener's eyes.

"Whom I love better than my life," he said. "There are two John Rawlins's—the one you know; and, well, the other one. I should be sorry to show you the other one."

"For the sake of your daughter I don't want to see the other one."

"Then why do you pit yourself against me like this?"

"I don't think you are displaying your usual lucidity," Chris said, coolly. Her heart was beating fast, but she did not show it. "Just reflect for a moment. I have found you out. I know pretty well what you are. I need not have told you anything of this. I need have done no more than gone to the police and told them where to find you. But I don't want to do that; I hate to do it after what I saw last night. You have your child, and she loves you. Could I unmask you before her eyes?"

"You would kill her," Rawlins said, a little unsteadily; "and you would kill me, I verily believe. That child is all the world to me. I committed my first theft so that she could have the change the doctors declared to be absolutely necessary. I intended to repay the money—the old, old story. And I was found out by my employers and discharged. Thank goodness, my wife was dead. Since then I have preyed on society. . . . . But I need not go into that sordid story. You are not going to betray me?"

"I said before that I should do nothing of the kind."

"Then why do you let me know that you have discovered my identity?"

"Because I want you to help me. I fancy you respect my sex, Mr. Rawlins?"

"Call me Smith, please. I have always respected your sex. All the kindness and sympathy of my life have been for women. And I can lay my hand on my heart and declare that I never yet wronged one of them in thought or deed. The man who is cruel to women is no man."

"And yet your friend Reginald Henson is that sort."

Rawlins smiled again. He began to understand a little of what was passing in Chris's mind.

"Would you mind going a little more into details?" he suggested. "So Henson is that sort. Well, I didn't know, or he had never had my assistance in his little scheme. Oh, of course, I have known him for years as a scoundrel. So he oppresses women."

"He has done so for a long time: he is blighting my life and the life of my sister and another. And it seems to me that I have that rascal under my thumb at last. You cannot save him—you can do no more than place obstacles in my way; but even those I should overcome. And you admit that I am likely to be dangerous to you."

"You can kill my daughter. I am in your power to that extent."

"As if I should," Chris said. "It is only Reginald Henson whom I want to strike. I want you to answer a few questions; to tell me why you went to Walen's and induced them to procure a certain cigar-case for you, and why you subsequently went to Lockhart's at Brighton and bought a precisely similar one."

Rawlins looked in surprise at the speaker. A tinge of admiration was on his face. There was a keenness and audacity after his own heart.

"Go on," he said, slowly. "Tell me everything openly and freely, and when you have done so I will give you all the information that lies in my power."

CHAPTER L.

"So Reginald Henson bullies women," Rawlins said, after a long pause. There was a queer smile on his face; he appeared perfectly at his ease. He did not look in the least like a desperate criminal whom Chris could have driven out of the country by one word to the police. In his perfectly-fitting grey suit he seemed more like a lord of ancient acres than anything else. "It is not a nice thing to bully women."

"Reginald Henson finds it quite a congenial occupation," Chris said, bitterly.

Rawlins pulled thoughtfully at his cigarette.

"I am to a certain extent in your power," he said. "You have discovered my identity at a time when I could sacrifice thousands for it not to be known that I am in England. How you have discovered me matters as little as how a card-player gets the ace of trumps. And I understand that the price of your silence is the betrayal of Henson?"

"That is about what it comes to," said Chris.

"In the parlance of the lower type of rascal, I am to 'round on my pal'?"

"If you like to put it in that way, Mr. Smith."

"I never did such a thing is my life before. And, at the same time, I don't mind admitting that I was never so sorely tried. At the present moment I am on the verge of a large fortune, and I am making my grand coup honestly. Would you deem it exaggeration on my part if I said that I was exceedingly glad of the fact?"

"Mr. Smith," Chris said, earnestly, "I have seen how fond you are of your daughter."

"That is an exceedingly clever remark of yours, young lady," Rawlins smiled. "You know that you have found the soft spot in my nature, and you are going to hammer on it till you reduce me to submission. I am not a religious man, but my one prayer is that Grace shall never find me out. When my coup comes off I am going to settle in England and become intensely respectable."

"With Reginald Henson for your secretary, I suppose?"

"No, I am going to drop the past. But to return to our subject. Are you asking me to betray Henson to the police?"

"Nothing of the kind," Chris cried, hastily. "I—I would do anything to avoid a family scandal. All I want is a controlling power over the man."

"The man who bullies women?"

"The same. For seven years he has wrecked the lives of five of us—three women. He has parted husband and wife, he has driven the man I love into exile. And the poor wife is gradually going hopelessly mad under his cruelties. And he blackmails us, he extorts large sums of money from us. If you only knew what we have suffered at the hands of the rascal!"

"Rawlins nodded in sympathy.

"I did not imagine that," he said. "Of course, I have known for years that Henson was pretty bad. You may smile, but I have never had any sympathy with his methods and hypocritical ways, perhaps because I never did anything of the kind myself. Nobody can say that I ever robbed anybody who was poor or defenceless or foolish. By heavens, I am a more honest man than hundreds of London and New York capitalists. It is the hard rogues amongst us who have always been my mark. But to injure and wound women and children!"

"Which means that you are going to help me?" Chris asked, quietly.

"As far as I can, certainly. Especially as you are going to let Henson down easily. Now please ask me any questions that you like."

"This is very good of you," said Chris. "In the first place, did you ever hear Mr. Henson speak of his relations or friends?"

"Nobody beyond Lord Littimer. You see, Henson and I were extremely useful to one another once or twice, but he never trusted me, and I never trusted him. I never cared for his methods."

"Did you go to Brighton lately on purpose to help him?"

"Certainly not. I had business in Brighton for some considerable time, and my daughter was with me. When she went away to stay with friends for a short time I moved to the Metropole."

"Then why did you go to Walen's in Brighton and ask them to show you some gun-metal cigar-cases like the one in Lockhart's window?"

"Simply because Henson asked me to. He came to me just before I went to the Metropole and told me he had a big thing on. He didn't give me the least idea what is was, nor did I ask him. He suggested the idea of the cigar-case, and said that I need not go near Walen's again; and I didn't. I assure you I had no curiosity on the matter. In any case a little thing like that couldn't hurt me. Some days later Henson came to me again, and asked me to go to Lockhart's and purchase the cigar-case I had previously seen. He wanted me to get the case so that I could not be traced. Again I agreed. I was leaving the Metropole the next day, so the matter was easy. I called and purchased the cigar-case on approval, I forwarded dollar-notes in payment from the Metropole, and the next day I left."

"And you did all that without a single question?"

"I did. It was only a little consideration for an old confederate."

"And suppose that confederate had played you false?"

Two tiny points of flame danced in Rawlins's eyes.

"Henson would never have dared," he said. "My mind was quite easy on that score."

"I understand," Chris murmured. "And you kept the cigar-case?"

"Yes, I rather liked it. And I could afford a luxury of that kind just them."

"Then why did you dispose of it to Rutter's in Moreton Wells? And why Moreton Wells?"

Rawlins laughed as he lighted a fresh cigarette.

"I came to Moreton Wells knowing that Henson was at Littimer Castle," he explained. "I went there to borrow £200 from Henson. Unfortunately I found him in great need of money. Somebody who had promised him a large sum of money had disappointed him."

Chris smiled. She had heard all about Lady Littimer's adventure with the ring, and her stubborn refusal to give Henson any further supplies.

"Presently I can tell you who disappointed Henson," she said. "But fancy you being short of——"

"Of ready money; I frequently am. One of your great millionaires told me lately that he was frequently hard up for a thousand pounds cash. I have frequently been hard up for five pounds. Hence the fact that I sold the cigar-case at Moreton Wells."

"Well, the ground is clear so far," said Chris. "Do you know Van Sneck?"

"I know Van Sneck very well," Rawlins said, without hesitation. "A wonderfully clever man."

"And a great scoundrel, I presume?"

"Well, on the whole, I should say not. Weak, rather than wicked. Van Sneck has been a tool and creature of Henson's for years. If he could only keep away from the drink he might make a fortune. But what has Van Sneck got to do with it?"

"A great deal," Chris said, drily. "And now, please, follow carefully what I am going to say. A little time ago we poor, persecuted women put our heads together to get free from Reginald Henson. We agreed to ask Mr. David Steel, the well-known novelist, to show us a way of escape. Unhappily for us, Henson got to know of it."

Rawlins was really interested at last.

"Pardon me," he said, eagerly, "if I ask a question or two before you proceed. Is Mr. David Steel the gentleman who found a man half murdered in his house in Brighton?"

"The same. But don't you know who the injured man was?"

"You don't mean to say it was Van Sneck?" Rawlins cried.

Chris nodded gravely. Rawlins looked like a man who was groping about in a sudden dazzle of blinding light.

"I begin to understand," he muttered. "The scoundrel!"

"After that I will resume," Chris said. "You must understand that Mr. Steel was a stranger to us. We hit upon the idea of interviewing him anonymously, so to speak, and we were going to give him a gun-metal cigar-case mounted in diamonds. A friend of mine purchased that cigar-case at Lockhart's. Mind you, Reginald Henson knew all about this. The same day Henson's tool, Van Sneck, purchased a similar case from Walen's—a case really procured for your approval—and later on in the day the case passed from Van Sneck to Henson, who dexterously changed the cases."

Do You Weigh Enough?

Everyone of average intelligence knows something of the immense value of Cod Liver Oil and Iron as remedial agents. Consequently no one would be surprised to hear that very satisfactory results had followed from giving "FERROL" (a perfect emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus) in cases where Iron and Oil appeared to be needed.

But, when we ask people to believe that in an actual and scientific test made by an eminent and well-known physician, twenty-five bottles of were given to ten patients and the result was a net increase in weight of ninety-five pounds, we are aware that we are asking a great deal; nevertheless we are prepared to prove that this is an absolute fact, by evidence that no reasonable person can reject. Moreover, this is no isolated instance, but only one of many equally remarkable.

Very few people properly appreciate the importance of maintaining their normal weight.

There is no surer indication of approaching disease than a considerable loss of weight and even where this is not the case, a man whose weight is not up to the average is always in danger of contracting any of the germ diseases which are unfortunately so prevalent. On the other hand, while his weight is well maintained, a man is practically proof against attack, and if disease is already present, the fact that the weight is being increased is proof positive that the disease is being overcome.

The desirability of maintaining the weight should therefore be apparent. In view of this we can confidently recommend "FERROL" as the surest, speediest and most effective medicine by which the weight may be maintained or restored.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed by the best Physicians. It is endorsed by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in prominent Hospitals, Sanatoriums, etc.

THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE

Premier Says It Has Worked Out Satisfactorily.

ONTARIO RAILWAY REPORT

Provincial Railway and Municipal Board Reports and Details Are Laid Before House by Provincial Secretary—Board Suggests That It Be Given Greater Power in Certain Cases — 56 Cases.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—Yesterday afternoon, in the Legislature, the Provincial Secretary laid on the table the first report of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board. It is a voluminous document. The powers of the tribunal under the act are described, and much space is given to a review of the various cases that have come before it since its creation last spring. The board was called upon to intervene between the London Street Railway and its employes, and also to mediate the recent street railway strike at Hamilton. In each case the settlement effected "according to newspaper reports," was satisfactory to both company and employes, and no further trouble has resulted.

The board dealt with 56 applications, arbitrating many disputes with regard to the annexation of territory, money bylaws and railway matters. Many recommendations are made. To summarize, the board wants more powers as arbitrators; the law should be made clear that a municipality has power to take over a street railway on the expiration of its franchise; the board should be clothed with the authority now possessed by the Cabinet to approve of the locations of railways and their stations.

There were 25 deaths, and 320 persons were injured in accidents on railways under the jurisdiction of the board.

Powers of the Board.

As to the powers of the board, it may act on its own motion or on the request of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. The board has acted on its own initiative in several cases, and will do so in a case of sufficient gravity, or when apparently it is necessary for the protection and safeguarding of public. The board, however, thinks it only reasonable to assume that citizens and mayors of municipalities know their own business and are competent to protect their own interests by invoking the intervention of the board. The board, therefore, prefers that some interested parties shall set the law in motion. If the board undertakes to respond to calls which anyone might make at pleasure, and without responsibility, it might find itself paralyzed and incapable of effective work. In many cases complaints were made in reference to matters over which the board had no jurisdiction.

Railway Fares.

Regarding the question of railway fares, the board gave attention to clause 171 of the Ontario Railway Act, and sent circulars to companies under the jurisdiction of the board, requiring them to submit their tariff of fares. Difficulty was encountered by reason of the conflict of jurisdiction over electric railways. Railways declared to be for the general advantage of Canada are under the jurisdiction of the Dominion, and are entitled to charge the maximum fare of three cents a mile. The board spent some time in discovering just what railways are under the jurisdiction of the board, and then notified those railways of the provisions of the act. There was a reasonably prompt compliance by the different companies.

The board spent considerable time in examining all the acts of the Legislature regarding both steam and electric railways, with the object of ascertaining the history of each charter.

Municipal Appeals.

Two appeals were heard by the board regarding municipal assessments, and seventeen applications were heard under the section 53, giving power to deal with the annexation of territory to municipalities and bylaws relating to public improvements.

Reference is made to the London and Hamilton street railway strikes. In consequence of the board's mediation at London, the men returned to work and submitted their grievances for investigation. Through the press, both the company and the men expressed their satisfaction, and no trouble has since arisen.

There was the same result, according to the report, from the mediation of the tribunal in the Hamilton strike. The report detailed its investigations into the condition of the equipment of the London and Hamilton street railways. Report is also made of enquiries into two accidents on the Hamilton Street Railway. Tests of fenders were also made by the board.

Suggestions.

Several amendments to the existing law are recommended. It is suggested that it should be made clear that, at the expiration of a street railway franchise, a corporation has the right to take over a street railway franchise. The interpretation of the existing statute does not make this clear.

In regard to the location of lines, the board should be given power now exercised by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Three-Fifths Clause Efficient.

The leader of the Opposition, Mr. G. P. Graham, asked the Premier if the Government was considering the question of amending the Local Option Act by repealing the three-fifths clause.

The Premier replied that he had been watching the results of the voting as recorded in the press, and was satisfied that this condition had proved successful and efficient in the working out of the act as it now stands.

Mr. Graham then wanted to know when the public accounts would be laid on the table.

Hon. Mr. Matheson replied that the printing and arrangement would take time, and that, while they would rush the work through, they wouldn't be ready for three or four weeks.

Your Doctor

Can cure your Cough or Cold, no question about that, but—why go to all the trouble and inconvenience of looking him up, and then of having his prescription filled, when you can step into any drug store in Canada and obtain a bottle of SHILOH'S CURE for a quarter.

Why pay two to five dollars when a twenty-five cent bottle of SHILOH will cure you as quickly?

Why not do as hundreds of thousands of Canadians have done for the past thirty-four years: let SHILOH be your doctor whenever a Cough or Cold appears.

SHILOH will cure you, and all druggists back up this statement with a positive guarantee.

GIRLS OF THE 'PHONE.

400 of Them Resent Order to Sign Agreement to Work Eight Hours Per Day.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—The strike of 400 girls in the employment of the Bell Telephone Co. here yesterday was precipitated by an order, issued shortly before 1 o'clock, whereby the girls were required to sign an agreement compacting to work eight hours a day. The alternative was resignation, and practically all the operators chose it. They quit the switchboards, to the number of about 400, and gathered in groups before the offices, discussing the situation excitedly.

During the morning, Mr. Armstrong, secretary of the Provincial Labor Bureau, and Mr. King, Dominion Deputy Minister of Labor, conferred in private with Mr. Dunstan. Just what was said is not exactly known, but the order plainly indicated that the company was not inclined to talk along conciliatory lines.

Manager Dunstan declined last night to discuss in any way the suggestion made by Mr. King, that the girls should resume their work, pending arbitration proceedings.

FRENCH CABINET AT ODDS.

Premier and Education Minister At Odds Over Bishops' Proposal.

Paris, Feb. 1.—The existence of the Cabinet is believed to be in danger as a result of the clash in the Chamber of Deputies last night between Premier Clemenceau and Education Minister Briand.

M. Briand, regards the bishops' proposition as being unacceptable in its present form, but believes that the war with the church has gone far enough, and that the door of conciliation should not be closed.

M. Clemenceau flatly rejects even the discussion of the bishops' proposition, and favors the immediate issuance of a circular to the prefects notifying them that the conditions which the parish priests are authorized to propose, are unacceptable. He will brook no opposition, and at yesterday's Cabinet meeting apparently carried his point.

Against Brantford's Mayor.

Brantford, Feb. 1.—The sensational case of defamatory libel, charging Mayor Bowlby with the publication of a scurrilous circular against his opponent in the civic election, A. G. Montgomery, was given preliminary hearing before Magistrate Woodyatt yesterday afternoon. Magistrate Woodyatt reserved judgment for one week. The chief witness was John Buskard, local stenographer, who gave evidence against the mayor and was corroborated as to mayor's visit to his office by Mrs. Buskard and her daughter. He refused to typewrite document submitted by the mayor.

BRONCHITIS CAN BE CURED

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup Will Do It.

Bronchitis is generally the result of a cold caused by inclement weather or exposure to wet, and is a very dangerous inflamatory affection of the bronchial tubes.

The symptoms are tightness across the chest, sharp pains and difficulty in breathing, and a secretion of thick phlegm, at first white, but later of a greenish or yellowish color.

Neglected Bronchitis is one of the most general causes of consumption, so cure it at once by the use of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Mrs. S. Fidder, Linton's, N.B., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of my experience with Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. My little girl was very low with Bronchitis and our doctor did all in his power for her, but could only give her relief for a short time. My husband saw your medicine advertised, and immediately procured three bottles. I never saw anything give so much relief in so short a time. It stopped the annoying cough at night and she is now perfectly cured. I am so glad I can hardly express my gratitude for what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has done for us."

He was engaged in getting some charges ready. He had been in the habit of thawing the dynamite on the stove, and as he was alone in the powder house no one can tell just how the explosion took place.

The house was blown to atoms, and the deceased had his left leg blown to pieces from the knee down, and his right hand and forearm badly shattered. He also received a severe cut on the centre of his forehead, and his face was badly burned.

The deceased had been employed in the pit for a number of years, but had been in charge of the explosives only about a year. He leaves a wife and five children. He was 65 years of age.

ELMER TOWNSEND'S DEATH.

Nitro-Glycerine On Hammer Explodes By Friction.

Leamington, Feb. 1.—Yesterday morning Elmer Townsend, in the employ of the Leamington Torpedo Co., was instantly killed. He with Mr. Copus, the manager, went to work in the factory. Townsend took a monkey-wrench and went outside to fix some pipes. Shortly afterwards Copus heard a slight explosion and went outside and found Townsend dead.

One side of his head was blown away and one foot and knee shattered. The cause of the explosion is unknown, but it is supposed that there was some nitro-glycerine on the wrench, and that it was exploded by the friction.

The deceased was a young man, and was married about a year ago.

WENT TO BED IN THE DARK.

Found Thursday Morning Unconscious From Gas Poisoning.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—John Wilson, who lately came from Port Hope, and employed by the Dominion Paper Box Co., was nearly suffocated by gas Wednesday night.

He boarded at 137 Bathurst street, with Andrew Caldwell. He went to a friend's room for a chat, leaving the gas burning in his room. When he returned the light was out and he undressed in the dark, neglecting to turn off the jet.

At 4 a.m., when the gas was turned on at the meter, he got the full benefit of it. He was taken to the Western Hospital.

A

PROCLAMATION

BY

McDermid & Jury

Whereas, the people of this city have been led to purchase so-called remedies from which they have received no benefit whatever, and having thus wasted so much hard-earned money, it has come to pass that they know not what to believe,

Inasmuch as this unsatisfactory state of affairs now exists, know, therefore, all persons who are in need of a medicine for any of the hereinafter mentioned ailments, that we will supply them with Vinol, our delicious cod liver preparation—without oil—on a positive guarantee that if it does not succeed in benefiting them we will refund the entire amount of money they have paid out on the medicine, without question or quibble.

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but there are some we know to be honest, reliable and of great curative value. Such is Vinol. It is not a "patent" or secret medicine—everything in it is plainly printed on the label. We are familiar with every part of it and know that it should be a blessing to all persons who are suffering from any of the troubles hereinafter described; and, unlike other medicines, it will cost absolutely nothing if it produces no benefit for the user.

Could any offer be more fair than this? You are ill; we offer you medicine which we believe will benefit you, and if it does not we will return to you every penny you paid us for it. If you are ill and need such a medicine you owe it to your family, your friends and yourself to try Vinol, which we guarantee to be a genuine cod liver preparation made from cods' livers containing their oil.

We could not afford to lend our name to the praise of Vinol as we have been doing in the newspapers if we did not know it to be an honest and valuable remedy for the ills for which it is prescribed.

We ask you, our neighbors, friends and acquaintances, to accept our assurance that this is a genuine offer and that any and all persons who need a medicine of this character should feel a sense of security in our offer.

Vinol is not only a real cod liver preparation, but it represents the most scientific method of manufacturing such a preparation, and only by the elaborate process employed in its manufacture can all the medicinal elements or alkaloids be recovered from the cods' livers and their oil.

Vinol is not made up of drugs or active principles which are said to resemble the medicinal elements found in a cod's liver, as are many so-called extracts or wines of cod liver oil.

Vinol contains not only all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil—but those of the liver as well. The nauseating, useless oil—from which all the medicinal elements are extracted by the Vinol process—is thrown away.

Vinol is deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach and contains all the goodness, the soothing, healing, strengthening and curative elements of cod liver oil—actually taken from fresh cods' livers.

To the medicinal elements recovered from the cod's liver is added Magma of Iron Peptonate (Organic Iron), made by chemically combining Iron Oxy Chloride with Beef Peptonate dissolved in a very fine medicinal wine.

It is for these reasons that Vinol is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions in the treatment of coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles, and as a body-builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons and convalescents.

We want all persons suffering from loss of appetite, tiredness, loss of flesh, loss of strength, indigestion, dyspepsia, irritability, nervousness, chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, sore lungs, also pale, delicate women and children, nursing and weak mothers, and all debilitated and run-down persons to try Vinol on our "satisfaction or money back guarantee."

We stake our reputation on this offer being genuine and meaning exactly what we say—satisfaction or money back without question to all who purchase Vinol at our store.

Remember you are absolutely under no obligation to us whatsoever if, after having given Vinol a fair trial for any of the above ailments, you consider that you have received no benefit. You have only to tell us so and we will cheerfully refund the entire amount of money you have paid us.

You see our faith in Vinol, and you must admit that we know something about medicine. Therefore, when we tell you that Vinol is one of the most valuable cod liver preparations we have ever known, and a wonderful tonic, reconstructor and a rebuilder of flesh and strength, appetite and health, at the same time being absolutely free from any drugs or harmful ingredients of any description, we are not unreasonable to expect you to believe us.

Remember, Vinol is delicious to take and agreeable under all conditions.

Hamilton, Feb. 1.—Yesterday morning Police Magistrate Jelfs refused to accept bail for John A. R. McIntosh, the man arrested on the charge of defrauding Robert Mulligan out of $1,600. ENGLAND

For the first time in over ten years the quarter-session for the bourough of Maldon, Essex, was held a few days ago. There was only one prisoner for trial, but this made no difference to the magnitude of the preparations, and all the elaborate ceremonial of the court had to be requisitioned to investigaet the charge. Judge Willis, made a special journey down from London in order to begin the proceedings in good time. The grand and petty juries were summoned and sworn, and all the court officers were ordered to be in attendance. When the court opened the only person who did not seem interested or excited was the solitary prisoner, who looked lonely and foreign as he stood in the dock, the cynosure of all eyes. The grand jury spent a whole hour in conference before they finally agreed to return a true bill. Meanwhile the petty jury was sworn with all due formalities. Then, when all the preparations for the trial had been completed and everything was at last in full train, the prisoner pleaded guilty. Nothing remained to be done; in a few minutes he had been sentenced to three months' hard labour, and all was over. A grand luncheon followed, at which the Recorder, the grand jury, and other officials summoned for the event were entertained by the mayor, and then Maldon settled down to enjoy a peaceful, blameless existence for another decade.

A remarkable double life led by a young man who combined the professions of carpenter and burglar was exposed recently, in London. The name of this real-life "Raffles" is William Parker, aged 26. For four years he had been carrying on the business of a builder, while at the same time secretly executing an astounding number of burglaries aided by his expert inside knowledge of the "oribs" which he "cracked." When Parker happened one evening to be met by a detective in the company of doubtful characters, suspicion began to close round him, and his house was watched. All was without avail, however, until the interesting discovery was made that there was a secret exit from the house, leading out at the back into neighbouring back premises and giving access to neighbour's houses. It did not matter, therfore, how carefully the police watched the front of the bungalow—Parker could leave and return by the secret door at the back without a soul being the wiser. Parker had for long been very intimate with the local police, who trusted him implicitly, and from whom Parker had no difficulty in learning when extra police patrols had been put on.

Mr. Arthur Nathaniel Booth, a Leeds cloth manufacturer, died recently at Scarborough from the effects of taking too many chlorate of potash lozenges. Mr. Booth was suffering from sore throat. A friend told him that his father had taken as much as half an ounce of chlorate of potash lozenges at a time, and had derived great benefit. Mr. Booth then took half an ounce in the morning and half an ounce in the evening. He became seriously ill, and was apparently suffering from acute poisoning. These lozenges are sold in large quantities, and though chlorate of potash is a poison, it is not classed among poisons which chemists have to pay special attention to when selling them to customers. An ordinary lozenge contains about five grains of chlorate of potash. There are about eighty lozenges to the ounce, so that Mr. Booth must have taken about 400 grains. According to authorities thirty grains was the maximum quantity that should be taken.

A Chinese seaman, Ah Pow, who died at Cardiff, was buried recently, and the scene at the cemetery was more like an Oriental festival than the solemn interment to which Europeans are accustomed. At a given signal a couple of the Chinese brought out the graveside a large hamper, and amid the clutter of many tongues, basins of rice, a bottle of whiskey, a plate of sweets, a chicken, a piece of bacon, bundles of crinkled paper printed with Chinese characters, and candles were produced. The whiskey was poured on the coffin and basins of rice thrown into the grave. In the meantime others set the papers and candles alight, and thereupon an old Chinaman clapped his hands, moving them up and down while he uttered some solemn incantation. Subsequently all the eatables were thrown into the grave in order to provide Ah Pow with sustenance on his journey to the next world, the fire being to light him on his way.

SCOTLAND

A pathetic tragedy recently occurred off the Island of Harris. Two ghillies, father and son, were frozen to death while ferrying on the stormy waters of the Kyle of Obbe, beyond Harris. From Harris for several nights signal fires were seen on Pebbay Island, which lies somewhat remotet o the south-west of the Atlantic entrance to the Sound of Harris, and whose sole inhabitants are an old man and his wife, and a young shepherd lad, Charris Morrison. Owing to the stormy weather, however, communication with the island was impossible for some days but the storm moderating, a boat was manned, and the lone isle reached. The boat brought back the dead bodies of father and son. The shepherd lad Morrison, going out early in the morning, found the missing boat on the sands, with the dead bodies inside. That of the father was lying in the bottom of the boat, as if he had fallen asleep and died, but the son was found sitting with his coat and hat off as if he had been towing the boat. The unfortunate men had been caught in the strong ebb tide, and carried into the Atlantic, where they had lowered their sail and endeavoured to make Pabbay Island by rowing in the darkness, only failing to succeed through exhaustion and the dreadful exposure of the night.

Mr. Samuel Smith, formerly member of Parliament for Flintshire, died suddenly at Calcutta from heart failure a short time ago. Described in later years as the "crookedest minded bigot" in England, Mr. Smith probably owed much of his reputation as an extremist to the fact that he was born in Kirkcudbright, the home of the Covenanters, in 1836. Scottish shrewdness he must have had also in no common degree, for though he started as a poor cotton broker, he managed to amass a fortune. When he had been member for Flintshire for five years, he suddenly attained world-wide renown as a censor of plays and literature, so far as they made against what he considered the standards of social purity. One day he startled the House of Commons by condemning certain plays in London, as indecent, immoral, demoralizing, improper, disgusting and vulgar. "The Belle of Belle of New York," "Zaza," and "The Gay Lord Quex," especially came under his condemnation, and Mr. Smith called for a stricter supervision of theatrical performances.

A mass of nests and eggs discovered recently in the centre of a great elm tree, outside Edinburgh, constitutes a baffling natural history puzzle. The elm, 20 feet high, is probably a hundred years old. From top to bottom it seemed sound, and there was no sign of a hole through which a bird might have entered. The tree was sawn in two, and in the middle was found layer upon layer of birds' nests, formed of moss and soil to the depth of ten inches. At this point the tree was three feet in diameter. In addition there was layer upon layer of eggs, many broken, numbering about 30. It appears certain that in different years different birds must have found a means of entering the trunk of the tree, built nests — one over the other—and laid their eggs, but why they never—hatched the eggs, how many years the nests and eggs have been in the tree, and how the entrance chamber to the birds' home was eventually closed are questions which open up a wide field for speculation.

An extraordinary accident recently happened at the mouth of the river Dee. Thick ice floating on the river caused eighteen Moray Firth herring drifters to break their moorings with the result that several of them ran aground, while others were carried down the channel and out to sea. Three Torry yawls were sunk and a large liner was so badly crushed and battered by the ice as to be almost a total wreck. The fishermen were absolutely helpless in the way of rendering any assistance to the vessels as it would have been highly dangerous to have gone out in a small boat. The moving of the ice did not last more than half an hour, as it packed up again at exactly the same place at which it stuck first. The oldest fisherman in Torry state that never before had they witnessed such an occurrence on the Dee.

Recently, James Grieve, Mark, Argyleshire, celebrated his 107th birthday. He is a native of Inverness-shire, and is believed to be the oldest living Scotsman. He has worked all his days at a shepherd, and so recently as four winters ago took his last engagement as such in Dunblane. Although now retired he occasionally assists at sheep shearing, harvesting and general work about Collessan Farm, on the Glasgow Corporation estate of Ardkinglas, where he resides. His wife died 17 years ago, after about 70 years of married life.

A tragic incident occurred at Brydekirk, three miles from Annan, recently. A ladies' tea party was being held. Tea had been partaken of and the third dance was proceeding, when Thomas Walker, while dancing, gasped and collapsed. The dancers stopped in consternation, and when Walker was attended to it was found that he was dead.

IRELAND

Nearly two years ago, Thomas Burke, a native of Dublin, who possessedd property of the estimated value of £5000, advertised in the newspapers for a wife. Among the replies which he receivedd was one from a prepossessing young girl named Bridget Dunne, and Burke, anxious to clinch matters, drove up the following morning to see the laddy. He remained to dinner andd exhibited a deposit slip for £1000 or so to show that he was no penniless adventurer. Matters progressed so rapidly that within ten days he gave 20 pounds to defray the expenses of the wedding, and they were married. The marriage seems to have been quite a happy one. Burke, who had previously beeen of a roving disposition, bought house property, and was apparently quites ettled down. His mother in-law went to live with him, and all went well; but suddenly the old roving fancy seized Burke, and the next chapter was told when he turned up in Australia without any particular prospect of making a living. Eventually he was taken in hand by the Salvation Army, and provided with work, but later he displayed symptoms of weak-mindedness, and was put under restraint. The Salvation Army communicated with their branch in Dublin, and having ascertained the whereabouts of his relations there, sent him home at the request of the wife and her mother. The latter went to meet him at Tilbury Docks, Lond, recently, and the unfortunate man has been placed in an institution near London.

A mystery associated with an extraordinary series of burglaries, which has baffled the police for a month past, was cleared up at the Belfast police court recently, when two boys, Henry Jack, aged 15, and James Jack, 17, were remanded on no fewer than forty-six separate charges. The burglaries were skilful and systematic. At one place one of the burglars fell through a skylight, and, from a pool of blood which was found at was supposed that he was seriously injured, but no suspicious man presented himself for treatment at the hospitals. At the beginning of this week the robbers' hoard was found under a woodpile at the docks, and with it clue to the mystery. Amid the miscellaneous heaps of watches, chains, jewelry, purses, knives, footballs, postage stamps, and clothing, the police discovered a "sticky-back" photograph of two boys, which put them on the scent. They were arrested in dmade a full confession. The elder lad was in a pitiable plight. It was to who, had fallen through the skylight and there was an ugly wound on his head. Not daring to seek medical aid he had bandaged it himself, and the wound was in terrible condition.

At the village of Letterlougher, in County Donegal, an interesting marriage has just taken place. The bridegroom, Wm. Dixon, 45 years old, who has already survived three wives, led to the altar to become his fourth wife, a widow, Margaret Roeborough, who, although not forty years old, has given birth by her first husband to no less than sixteen children, eleven of whom are still alive. Further extraordinary facts which indicate the existence of a strong hereditary tendency to matrimony in the Dixon family are: (1 Dixon's grandfather, David, was also four times married, succumbing to the inherited instinct for the fourth time at the advanced age of 84 years. (2) Dixon's son, a lad of 22, already gives promise of a similarly interesting marital career, inasmuch as he has already been twice married.

An eccentric family recently presented themselves at an Irish workhouse. When asked why she sought admission a well dressed girl told the Edenderry, King's County, Guardians, that she had come across from Scotland to pass her holidays. She had no other place to go, she added, and she wished to stay twelve days only. Why didn't she get work? Well, wages in Ireland were too small to be worth working for. The mother of the girl also asked for admission. Her husband, she said, was not supporting her, as since he came from South Africa he pretended to be mad. The husband a few minutes afterwards entered the room and he, too, applied for admission. "I have a contagious disease," said don't want to be contaminating the whole country," he pleaded. They were all admitted.

A few days ago the historic mound at Clontarf, near Dublin, the legendary site of the great battle between King Brian Boru and the Danes 900 years ago, formed the subject of a midnight meeting in Clontarf Town Hall, where the national societies of Dublin were represented, with the object of protesting against what was described as an atrocious act of vandalism on the part of the city council. The speakers complained that the Dublin Corporation Distress Committee had put a large number of unemployed to work at levelling the famous mound, known as Conquer Hill, and filling up the adjoining fosse. A resolution was adopted protesting against the act of the corporation.

Maurice William Dwyer and Mary Dwyer, who on December 17, 1901, were sentenced to fifteen years' penal servitude at Cork Assizes for the manslaughter of a farmer, named Crotty, near Ballyvotton, Co. Cork, have been released from prison. A long standing ill-feeling between the Dwyer family and Crotty over a disputed boundary culminated in a fight in which spades and hay forks were used, and Crotty was killed. The entire Dwyer family, comprising six persons, were tried for murder and found guilty of manslaughter. The father, mother and eldest son were sentenced to fifteen years, the second son to eleven years, and the daughter and youngest son to ten years' penal servitude.

A mother's greatest pleasure is in seeing her little ones bright, playful and healthy. The well child is a blessing to the home; but the sick child is a regular little tyrant. A few doses of Baby's Own Tablets will make the sickly child well, or an occasional dose will prevent sickness. There is nothing to equal these Tablets as a cure for stomach and bowel troubles. They make teething easy, break up colds, expel worms and cure simple fevers. Baby's Own Tablets are sold under the guarantee of a government analyst not to contain one particle of opiate—they never do harm—always good. Mrs. G. M. At eleven months he weighed over twenty-six pounds." The Tablets are sold by druggists or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE PRAISE PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

A Marvellous and Triumphant Record of Victory Over Disease.

No medicine has ever effected as large a number of wonderful and almost marvellous cures as Psychine. It has had one continuous record of victories over diseases of the throat, chest, lungs and stomach. Where doctors have pronounced cases incurable from consumption and other wasting diseases Psychine steps in and rescues numberless people even from the very verge of the grave. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Chills, Night Sweats, La Grippe, Pneumonia, and other like troubles, all of which are forerunners of Consumption, yield quickly to the curative powers of Psychine.

Mrs. Campbell, one of the many cured, makes the following statement:

I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery with Psychine. In April, 1902, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased, my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, Fort Elgin Presbyterian Church, recommended Dr. Slocum's Psychine to me, when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased.

Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health and to-day I never felt better in my life. Psychine has been a godsend to me. MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL, Cottonwood, N.W.T.

PSYCHINE never disappoints.
PSYCHINE has no substitute.

GOLD MINE WISDOM.

(From Life.)

The price of gold mines, in common with all other necessities, has been going up lately. It is still possible, however, to purchase a fairly good gold mine for from 30 to 50 cents.

Of course, if one is really careful, has an over particular temperament, and wishes to be entirely on the safe side, then it may be well to pay a little more. Sixty cents for a first-class gold mine is, however, the limit.

Gold mines are of two kinds—with gold and without. A good gold mine with gold, ought to be bought at from 20 cents to 25 cents; without gold all the way up to half a dollar.

If a gold mine has no gold in it, it is easier to sell. But if it has gold, then there is always the temptation before one of attempting to find out how much gold there is in it. This, of course, is expensive, and is the reason why a gold mine is not worth so much as one that is sure and safe, and knowns not to contain any gold.

It is highly desirable in buying in your winter or spring stock of gold mines, to see that the directors go with them. A gold mine without a printed list of directors is hardly worth the paper on which it is located.

In buying a gold mine, always look at the certificate of stock first. If this certificate of stock contains a photographic reproduction of the mine, then do not under any circumstance buy the mine. This picture is almost positive evidence that the mine really exists. Always make sure before you buy a gold mine that it doesn't exist. This is the only kind that pays.

Get a gold mine if possible, that is made of cork, rather than gold. Cork floats.

This Preacher a Raffles.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—A genuine "Raffles," in the person of Henry E. Rice, graduate of a Montreal, Canada, college, who delivered "Up-Life" lectures in west side churches, is under arrest for a series of burglaries. Rice came to Chicago three months ago. He is 32 and was popular. He was caught in A. C. Liebick's shoe store with $50 in marked bills on him.

"I'm here, and if, prior to my arrest, I tried to better my fellow-man, does that make my crime any the more reprehensible?" demanded Rice, when seen in his cell. "I will only say that I did it. I am married, and my wife is in Canada."

Printer Ends His Life.

St. Catharines, Feb. 1.—Discouraged by repeated failures to secure employment, George Pearce, printer, of this city, committed suicide yesterday morning by taking carbolic acid, which he secured several days ago from Scobell's drugstore, saying he wished it for disinfecting purposes. He was one of the oldest printers in this district, but being crippled had done very little work during the last two years.

Bloodhounds on Their Trail.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 1.—A detective started yesterday with bloodhounds for Gordonsville to run down burglars who are reported to have entered two residences there Wednesday night, and assaulted, after chloroforming, two women in each house. One of the women has revived sufficiently to tell of the assault made upon her, while the three others are still unconscious and in a serious condition.

TARIFF ITEMS UP.

Free Imports For Government Use to Be Stopped—Expect to Finish Tariff Next Week.

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—Consideration of the remaining part of the tariff schedule practically monopolized yesterday's session of the House of Commons, and progress in committee was so rapid that before adjournment Mr. Fielding was able to announce that he hoped the tariff would be disposed of next week. A considerable number of items, some of them of a contentious character, have been allowed to stand over for further consideration, but the Finance Minister appreciates the undesirability of delay, and expects that a final decision on these items will be reached in a few days.

Cottons and Wools.

The discussion yesterday was largely confined to articles classed as cottons and wools, and reference was made to the change which discontinues free import of goods for Government use. Mr. Fielding explained that the principal reason for the change was that the former practice of allowing such articles to be imported free had been abused. Items connected with shipping had been allowed to stand over to permit of representations in favor of special legislation being considered.

Mr. Claude Macdonell introduced a bill to amend the winding-up act, designed to simplify and cheapen proceedings by giving a liquidator the same power as administrator in the various provinces. The bill was read a first time.

By Word of Mouth.

On motion for the House to go into Committee of Ways and Means, Mr. Foster called attention to what he regarded as an incomplete return of the correspondence connected with the Insurance Commission, because he found no communication from the present Minister of Justice. Mr. Aylesworth explained that owing to his intimate acquaintance with Mr. Shepley and Mr. Tilley all his communications with those gentlemen had been by word of mouth.

Mr. Borden—Perhaps the Minister exercised a wide discretion in not placing those communications in writing.

Bequests have been received by the society to the amount of $5,075; cash sales, $4,034; colportage sales, $1,594; Ketchum Trust Sunday School, $750; free contributions, $28,-406; rent, interest and dividends, $374, making a grand total of $44,-134. In the Northwest, Bibles have been applied for in fifty different versions, thirty-five of which the society supplied. N. W. Hoyles, K.C., LL.D., was re-elected president.

The convention balloted on three names, Messrs. Ross, Elliott and McDougall, the vote standing: Ross, 53; Elliott, 31; and McDougall, 16.

The circular asserts that the Government will adhere to existing laws.

Severe Form of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my little girl, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure of cold would lay her up, and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say that I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs A. A VanBuskirk, Robinson street, Moncton, N.B.

INTENSIFIED FRUIT JUICES AN IMPROVEMENT ON NATURE

A Discovery that is Revolutionizing Medicine.

Remarkable Success Attends the Finding of a New Medicinal Compound by Combining the Juices of Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes.

Fruit helps to keep one healthy. Fruit, in itself, will not cure disease. The medicinal principle—or that part of fruit which has a curative effect—is in such infinitesimal quantities, that it is unable to overcome a diseased condition of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys or skin.

Just here is where science stepped in. An Ottawa physician did what nature could not do. He first found that some fruits were stronger medicinally than others—and that apples, oranges, figs and prunes contained all the healing properties of other fruits. There are two principles in fruit juices—bitter and sweet. After extracting the juices of the four fruits mentioned, this physician succeeded in replacing one atom of the sweet principle by one of the bitter. This resulted in an entirely new combination being formed. This new compound was many times more active medicinally than the fruit juices. Where eating fruit only helped to keep one well, this compound actually cured disease.

To make it more valuable still, this physician added the finest tonics and antiseptics, and then, by evaporating the entire compound to a powder, made it into tablets.

This, in short, is the method of making "Fruit-a-tives"—these wonderful tablets — the most reliable cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Stomach Troubles, Kidney and Bladder Disease and Skin Affections. Being made from fruit, "Fruit-a-tives" may be taken by women and children without fear of ill-effect.

Don't take a substitute. If your druggist does not handle them, send 50c for a box to Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

It is a matter of much regret that the inventor of our town waterworks has been obliged to forego the completion of the complicated structure which was to have supplied the town with an unlimited supply of water; and the inventor of the system with fame and the thousands of dollars which the patent would have been worth to him. The principle of the scheme was simple, and briefly described is as follows:—From above ground two pipes were placed in the well. Over the one was placed a barrel filled with water; from the water running down the one pipe cause I the water to rise in the other. The idea was clever and worthy of its inventor, and just as the neighbours in the Glen were planning how many feet of pipe they would need to carry the water to their respective homes the worthy inventor discovered one flaw in the process, viz; as long as you poured water in, it ran out, but when no water was poured in none came out. For the present we dispense with the waterworks while the fertile brain of the Manager plans another and more satisfactory system.

A CAVAN PIONEER DIES IN SANTA BARBABA

David Best, at One Time Owned and Operated Saw and Grist Mills in Cavan—A Highly Respected Resident

HE WAS THROUGH THE EARTHQUAKE

Examiner Special.

Mount Pleasant, Jan. 30.—A letter received from Mrs. D. Best, of Santa Barbara, Col., brings the sad news of the death of her husband, David Best, who died on the 1st January, 1907. He was the son of the late S. J. Best, who in the early settlement of the township of Canan, built an oatmill, which was a great convenience for the settlers from the old country, who loved the food which gives life and energy to those who use it. Many farmers came from a distance with oats to exchange for meal. His home was always open for travellers. The latch string was in the door, and those in need always found a loving sympathy and a helping hand. He not only read that beautiful passage, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers for thereby some have entertained angels unawares", but put it in practice. His son David inherited the push of his father, not unlike in business matters, our American Cousins, he did not possess that love of money in him that ruins so many. He was thoroughly honest in all his dealings, but he found others who he trusted did not possess the same qualities. After his father's death he and his brother continued to run the oat and saw mills, adding a grist mill, but fire destroyed it. Nothing daunted they rebuilt the grist mill. Being short of funds David left his brother in charge of the mills and went to Cobalt at the time of the gold fever, where he succeeded, and sent home many cheques which supported his family and helped to pay the debts incurred in building the mills. He then went to Dakota and homesteaded a lot there and built a house on it. Before moving his family there he sold out his interests in the business to his brother. His three sons moved to San Francisco, which opened the way for him and the family. Like Lot taken out of Sodom, himself and his family had removed for a short time out of the city but like Lot the sons lost all their valuable property in that great earthquake and fire that destroyed San Francisco. He intended visiting his brothers and sisters in Ontario this summer, but an attack of nervous prostration from which he never recovered prevented him. "Man proposes but God disposes". We sympathize with the family in the loss of a kind loving father and husband, hoping that God who is a loving Father will sustain them in this bereavement.

THE RIFLE ASSOCIATION CAVE AT HOME

A Delightful Evening Was Spent Under Auspices of Warsaw Civilian Association Recently

Examiner Special

Warsaw, Jan. 30. — The "At Home" given by the Warsaw Civilian Rifle Association on Thursday evening was a brilliant affair. It is doubtful if a more pleasant evening has ever been spent in Warsaw in which so many participated. Nearly two hundred invitations were issued and very few were not used. The decorations of the hall were appropriate and in keeping with the occasion, the military rifles being used very effectively.

The forepart of the evening was spent at cards and other games in which all who could gather round the small tables took part. At 10.30 o'clock refreshments were served, after which the floor was cleared for the second, and evidently the more popular part of the evening's entertainment. The music for the dancing was furnished by Wilson's Orchestra, of Peterborough, and Mr. Archie Moore was Master of Ceremonies. The programme which consisted of all of the popular dances, was quite a lengthy one and was not concluded until 3.30 o'clock a.m., after which the guests left for their homes, all delighted with the evening they had spent and with best wishes for the Warsaw Rifle Association.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WILL ERECT NEW HALL

Cold Springs' Union Sunday School Have Decided on This Step

The Cold Springs Union Sunday School of Otonabee, have now decided to erect a new hall for Sunday and other meeting purposes. During the past 13 or more years the Sunday School has been held in the public school, and although on many occasions it was felt that a new hall was needed, nothing aggressive has been done until the present.

A number of those interested in the proposition began to-day to get subscriptions to assist financially in the erection of the building. The hall will be erected on the property of Mr. John Waldie, which is a short distance north of the public school.

The building as shown by the plans which are partly drawn up will be 40 feet by 27 feet in dimensions.

It will be a frame building with a basement below for Sunday School, socials, etc., will be begun as soon as possible in the spring.

CORNER-STONE LAYING DR. CHASE BUILDING

Handsome Five-story Story Structure of Stone and Brick to be New Home of the Dr. Chase Laboratories

An interesting event which took place in Toronto a few days ago was the laying of the corner-stone of the new Dr. Chase building at the corner of Adelaide and Duncan streets.

The stone was laid by Mr. W. J. Edmanson, assisted by Mr. Ira Bates, the proprietors of Dr. Chase's medicines. The new home of this enterprising firm will be a handsome five-story structure of stone and brick, in which every modern safeguard against fire has been provided and the comfort and convenience of the employees consulted.

Little idea of such an extensive business was entertained by Dr. Chase when, away back in the sixties he began to find his practice overriding the bounds of his own State of Michigan and extending into Canada, or even later in 1884, when in order to supply the Canadian demand for his medicines, he arranged for their manufacture in this country.

Especially during the last decade the success of this business has been phenomenal, and for some time the proprietors have felt the need for greater and more complete facilities for the manufacture of Dr. Chase's medicines. The plans for the new laboratories were prepared by Architect F. H. Herbert, and the well known firm of Holtby Bros., contractors, are now at work erecting the walls of the handsome building which will be the future home of the Dr. Chase laboratories.

Considerable space in the new building will be taken up with the mailing department from which Dr. Chase's calendar almanac is sent to sent to every home in Canada, with its message of good cheer for the sick and suffering. This book contains 52 pages of brightly-written reading matter, interspersed with witticisms and information of interest in every home.

The weather forecast is prized by many who claim to have proven its accuracy in the past, and to add to the value of the book ample space is allowed for keeping a diary. An annual contest in which $200 in gold is awarded for the best kept diary has made this feature of the almanac very popular, a fact which is made evident by the thousands who have competed during the past year. If for any reason Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac for 1907 has not reached your home it will be cheerfully mailed on request to Edmanson, Bate & Co., Toronto, and on page 27 you will find full particulars about the diary contest.

The Latest In Fashion's Realm; Items Of Interest To Ladies

IN FASHION'S REALM

VELVET AND VELVETEEN POPULAR FABRICS OF THE MOMENT.

Ways of Making These Frocks That Are Both Economical and Artistic. Evening Coats of Velveteen Trimmed With Fur and Lace.

Never has the fashion for velvet been more marked than at the present moment. We see it striped and plain, and there are some beautiful gowns made with checked and spotted patterns. Silk velvets are costly and beyond the reach of the multitude, but the substitute, velveteen, is almost as beautiful in appearance and wears splendidly. Moreover, it can be worn with more courage because it is not so easily spoiled. Corduroy velveteen makes up beautifully for day wear. I have a weakness for a beautiful shade of green which I saw the other day making a most successful coat and skirt at an afternoon tea. The skirt was plain and full at the feet, not too long, though well on the ground. The coat was one of those jaunty little affairs coming below the waist and semifitting. It was trimmed with green silk braid and embroidered buttons and opened over a waistcoat of biscuit colored cloth embroidered in pinks and blues.

VELVETEEN FROCK.

For evening wear its uses are manifold, and it tells an equally pleasing story as cloak or gown. For home wear a velveteen gown is a real treasure. Made in some simple artistic style with a chemisette and undersleeves of lawn, it needs but a little embroidery as trimming.

A convertible gown, which needs but a moment's adjustment to serve for day and evening wear, has much to recommend it, and the woman of limited means welcomes it warmly. The illustration shows a capital design for this useful frock.

The bodice is simply made, with a slightly pouched effect in front. Round the neck comes a plain shaped piece of the material edged with piping. The sleeves have the new wide cuff, with a piping at the edge. The chemisette and undersleeves may be in net or lace, or both, and a small piece of insertion is introduced to hide the join of the day and evening corsage. The little guimpe may be attached to a well fitting yoke of net with strings and loops to keep it well in place; then only a few tiny safety hooks and eyes, invisible under the insertion, will be necessary to hold it down. When a low dress is required the gown is worn without the guimpe. The insertion may be placed wherever it is most becoming, according to the figure of the wearer. The belt, being also of velveteen on the cross, fastened with some fancy buttons or cabochons, has a very graceful effect and helps the plain full skirt to show the figure at its best. The skirt has no trimming whatever and need only be faced up with silk for a few inches above the hem. It can be worn over a silk petticoat to match.

The other illustration shows what a fascinating evening coat may be made from velveteen. The model is in a lovely shade of brown. It is cut with open side seams, held together by straps of gold braid with rosettes of gold tissue at each end. The deep collar and cuffs are edged with golden brown beaver fur, and the lining is of make colored silk.

For Croup.

When a doctor cannot be secured promptly in an emergency it is necessary to have a good remedy always on hand when children are inclined to be croupy.

A mother who will provide herself with half a pint of raw linseed oil can fight the worst case of croup she may meet with.

It is said to be an unfailing remedy, and for quick results it beats anything else which can be given for that dread disease.

Half a teaspoonful is a dose unless the child is choking very badly; then give a teaspoonful.

It acts two ways. In the first stage of croup, where there is not much mucus, it is loosened and carried off through the bowels.

In the second stage it causes vomiting; but, unlike ipecac, it leaves no soreness of the throat as an after difficulty.

It is rarely necessary to give more than one dose, when the child will get relief and go to sleep again.

This simple remedy is one that is within the reach of every mother and one that can be kept on hand at all times, and while it is in the house the dread membranous croup need cause no terrors.

RHEUMATIC AGONY

Nothing Reached the Root of the Trouble Until Dr. Williams Pink Pills Were Used.

"I suffered almost untold agony from rheumatism. For several weary months I was confined to bed. I had the best of medical treatment, but nothing seemed to reach the root of the disease until I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These have completely restored my health." This strong emphatic statement is made by Mrs. Edna Morrill, of Woodstock, N.S., a lady who had practically been given up as incurable by doctors. She further says: "I suffered for over two years and rheumatism seemed to be firmly implanted in my system. At the outset I was able to attend to my household duties, but at night I suffered the greatest pain. I at once began to take medicine but my condition actually grew worse. I was attended by a skilful doctor but was ultimately forced to remain in bed, suffering untold agony with every movement. Finally the doctors told me the trouble was incurable. One day I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to do so. Presently the pains were not so severe, and I began to feel myself gaining. Shortly after I was able to go about, and in less than three months I was perfectly well. For this condition my thanks are gratefully due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Morrill by driving the rheumatic poison out of her blood. They actually make new blood. They don't act on the bowels. They don't bother with mere symptoms. They go right to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why they have cured the worst cases of anaemia (bloodlessness) headaches and backaches, kidney trouble, indigestion, neuralgia, nervousness and the special ailments of girls and women whose blood supply becomes weak, scanty or irregular. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

VANITY'S VISIONS.

Frilled Muffs For Short Sleeves. Smart Lavender Hat.

Muffs are flatter and softer than ever and more voluminous. The three-quarter sleeve almost universal upon dressy fur coats necessitates some protection for the gloved arms, and deep frills and other devices for filling this need have been introduced in many muffs.

Never in the history of dress were cloth costumes more fashionable than today. Velvet may be smart for afternoon, but even the most expensive velvet costume is not one bit handsomer than an elaborate cloth gown.

FANCY APRON—5177, 5185.

A hat in lavender felt has a round, rather wide brim of equal width all the way round the rim, rounding down the least bit. The crown is covered with folds of rich purplish velvet, the ends of which come out from the sides and are drawn in under the brim, pulling the latter in and down a trifle. A cachepeigne of purple tulle fills in the back. At the front of the hat, toward the left side, is a cockade of three lavender ostrich tips, one towering above the other and all falling over toward the front and center of the hat.

Lace evening toques are very attractive and useful, as they are suitable for wear with any costume. They are most charming when trimmed with gold floral wreaths and large roses, with fur, colored jeweled ornaments or ostrich feathers.

The chafing dish has become such an institution that pretty little aprons that can be slipped on to protect the toilet are recognized features of fashionable dress. The illustration shows an exceedingly attractive apron of dotted swiss trimmed with valenciennes lace. The fancy waist is of white taffeta adorned with German valenciennes lace.

Long Trains In Again—Pretty Things Made With Ribbon.

Once again long, graceful trains are to be seen, and, as they are becoming alike to short and tall, stout and slender, it is to be hoped that the fashion has come to stay for awhile. Naturally the comfort of a short dancing gown is great; but, then, the charming lines given to the figure by a long sweep of silk or satin should more than compensate for the slight inconvenience.

A plain white ornament is seldom effective in the hair, but in flowers or ribbon some green can always be added, and paillettes or rhinestones give character to an all white ornament. Coronets formed of ribbon or leaves are seen among the newest hair adornments, and in most cases they are heavily spangled. For an all black gown a coronet of solid jet leaves is most effective worn with a jet dog collar.

Jumpers and girdles are not the only serviceable articles made from ribbons this season, for there are pretty kimonos with lace insertions, detachable petticoat flounces that may be applied to any underskirt and little tea aprons that are decidedly attractive worn when presiding at afternoon tea at home. For a separate petticoat flounce seven and three-quarter yards of pompadour ribbon, five years of insertion and five yards of lace edging are used. The flounce, any width desired, is made of alternate circular rows of silk and insertion, with a ruffle edged with lace at the bottom. This may be pinned or sewed to any underskirt as that detaching or changing the extra ruffle from one petticoat to another is but the work of a minute.

Party frocks are in demand at this time of the year, and the illustration shows a nice little dress for a girl of ten or twelve.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Denim Draperies.

Inexpensive hangings for a room that is done in blue would be very pretty if made of the ordinary blue denim.

This is a little lighter in shade on the under side, and figures cut out and appliqued with this side up are most effective.

A border of fleur-de-lis is lovely; so also is the leaf of a horse chestnut tree slightly conventionalized or any other simple figure.

In applying these use an irregular buttonhole stitch around all edges in either white floss or a darker shade of blue.

WISDOM FOR WIVES.

A Clergyman's Advice to a Young Couple He Wedded.

A country vicar was noted for his excellent fatherly advice to young couples he wedded. He had printed cards of advice, which he used to distribute, besides giving guidance verbally. One of the cards was for the man and the other for the woman. That to the woman ran as follows:

When you marry him, love him.
After you marry him, study him.
If he is honest, honor him.
If he is generous, appreciate him.
When he is sad, cheer him.
When he is cross, amuse him.
When he is talkative, listen to him.
When he is quarrelsome, ignore him.
If he is slothful, spurn him.
If he is noble, praise him.
If he is confidential, encourage him.
If he is secretive, trust him.
If he is jealous, cure him.
If he cares naught for pleasure, coax him.
If he favors society, accompany him.
If he does you a favor, kiss him.
When he deserves it, kiss him.
Let him think how well you understand him, but never let him know that you manage him.

Save the Wishbones.

Wishbones made up as penwipers, with faces of sealing wax, the features being formed while the wax is soft, are very useful for favors or prizes for games, and the following little jingle may go with them:

And made to wipe your pen.

The Harwood Creamery Had A Successful Year

First Annual Meeting Was Held and Reports of the Operations Presented—Officers Were Elected—An Interesting Address by Mr. Mitchell

Harwood creamery has during the past year enjoyed great success. It was the first year of its existence and the results have proven far more satisfactory, than the most sanguine advocate would have expected.

The first annual meeting was held in the town hall Harwood, on Wednesday afternoon when a large number of dairymen interested were present. The first business taken up was the secretary-treasurer's report which was as follows,—

REPORT FOR 1906.

Total pounds cream, 731,790.
Total pounds butter fat, 39,985 64-100.
Total pounds butter, 44,792.
Money received, $9,119.86.
Cost of manufacturing, $1,794.87.
Paid patrons, $7,324.99.
Overrun for season 12c.
Average price for butter fat, 21.40c.

NEW OFFICERS.

The following officers were elected for the year, 1907,—
President—R. Watson.
Vice-Pres.—A. McCulloch.
Directors—D. Butters, A. Campbell, W. Minifie, S. Brisbane, W. Isaacs.

Great credit is due Mr. R. S. Southworth, who introduced the Harwood creamery, and who has so successfully worked up a good patronage for it. Mr. Southworth is proprietor and maker, and he has shown great courage and business ability in undertaking this enterprise, which is so valuable to the farmers.

EVENING SESSION.

After the business was completed in the afternoon, the ladies served a splendid supper to the men. Tables were set in the hall and lots of good things provided, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. In the evening an excellent programme of instrumental and vocal music and speeches was run off and greatly appreciated by the three hundred persons in the audience.

Mr. Thos. Hoskins of Grafton, president of the Farmer's Institute, was present and gave an excellent address on dairy farming. He is a strong advocate of cow testing and imparted much valuable information along these lines.

ADDRESS BY MR. MITCHELL.

The speaker, in opening his address, complimented the patrons on their success in their creamery. "In the first year, I notice by your report that you have an average test of cream for the season of 30 per cent. This is higher than the average cream taken in by the cream gathered creameries. A year ago, when with you, I advocated this very strongly, and I am pleased to see you have carried it out. I am also pleased to see the harmony and enthusiasm in the patrons. The year just closed has been very profitable for the dairy farmer, and I think the farmers should learn a lesson from last year's drouth, and prepare some kind of a soiling crop to feed their cows through a dry spell. Profits start with the production of milk, and to accomplish this we must study the care of the cow, the breeding and feeding. A cow must be a persistent milker, giving a good flow for a long period, ten months, at least. She must be well wintered and if she freshens early in the spring the grass will keep up the milk flow as long as the pasture is good, then feed this soiling crop, which will tide them over the dry spell and maintain the flow. If the flow is allowed to drop during the summer months, it will hardly ever increase again in the fall. I would recommend as a soiling crop, peas and oats. Sow three bushels to the acre of equal quantities. Sow a small piece at first, and in two weeks again and repeat it two weeks later. Another plan is to use the summer silo with bran, which makes a good ration. I would recommend to run your creamery the year round, having some cows freshen in the fall. It is estimated that four cows coming in the fall, is equal to five in the spring, if they are well stabled and fed through the winter, the gram will keep up the flow in the summer. It takes sixty to sixty-five per cent. of food consumed to keep the cow alive, and the extra amount fed will produce profit. In the winter season the butter will sell at a higher price, and time is not so valuable as in the summer months. Dairying enables the farmer to grow clover and other bulky food which has not a high market value, but when converted into milk sells at a high price and returns to the soil, fertility, which is being taken out of the soil in growing grain.

I see by Prof. Dean's report that butter made from cream gathered cream last season, scored as high as butter made from cream separated at the creamery, showing that if the care is given the cream on the farm the quality can be maintained.

USE OF THE HAND SEPARATOR.

The separator should be set level on a solid foundation, kept well oiled and free from dust. A separator is made of fine machinery, and it is important that it be kept in a clean, sanitary condition. It should be washed immediately after using, in warm water, not hot, thoroughly scalded and left in a clean, dry place to air. It is better to leave the machine apart until ready to use. In setting up the separator see that all parts are in their proper place, raise the speed slowly so as not to cause too much strain on the running gear. It is very important that the speed be kept uniform, and at its proper speed, if speed is too low, there will be a loss of butter fat in the skim milk, also a thin cream; if the speed is too high the cream may be too dense. Set the cream screw, so that the proper speed, which is stamped on the handle of all machines, the cream will test thirty to thirty-five per cent. This will be about one pound of cream to ten pounds of milk. By having a rich cream, more skim milk is retained on the farm for feeding purposes, less labor to cool, less hauling, and more butter can be made from the same amount of milk.

CARE OF CREAM.

Cream should be immediately cooled to a temperature of 50 per cent. or under, kept in a clean can, with a loose fitting cover, to prevent dust getting in, also evaporation from taking place. Ice should be provided in the winter months to be used in the summer months for cooling the cream. If the cream is treated as above on the farm, it will arrive at the creamery in a cool, sweet condition, and will enable the butter maker to control the ripening process. If cream is over ripe when it arrives at the creamery it will not yield as much butter, and will cause a direct loss to the patrons, hence the necessity of attending to these important points, which will mean more butter, better quality, higher prices and pleased customers.

A report of experiments at Kingston Dairy School was given by Mr. Mitchell, of turning separators at different speed; which showed that by turning five turns of the handle over proper speed a difference of ten per cent. higher test was found in the per cent. of cream and vice versa at a lower speed. Also separating at different temperatures in the fall a number of complaints come in where the cream test is lower late in the fall, without changing the cream screw. This was found to be caused by the milk cooling to a lower temperature before separating. The milk at this season of the year being more dense, it did not pass out at the skim milk tubes so free and a greater amount is forced out with the cream, in this case there will be a greater quantity of cream.

Special Evangelistic Services Closed at the Gospel Hall Last Night—Mr. Maplesden Returning to Buffalo

Mr. Maplesden, of Buffalo, closed his three weeks' meetings at the Gospel Hall last night, in a stirring address on Romans 4: 24 25 and Romans 5: 1-5, showing how God had delivered our Lord Jesus into the hands of sinful men, to be put to death for the offences of the very ones who killed Him. He was 1st Raised up on the cross; 2nd, Raised up from the grave; 3rd, Raised up into glory. Therefore being justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. Maplesden dwelt on the fact that Jesus was our peace. Man could never make his peace with God. He instanced the work of the Christ by the Russo-Jap war. How President Roosevelt had by intervention brought together two nations who were estranged, therefore making peace. When two were enemies Jesus Christ came between offending man and an outraged God. Having abolished in His flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments for to make in Himself of twain, one new man. So making peace, and that He might reconcile us with God in one body by the cross and came and preached peace to us who were afar off. The greatest trouble to-day is men are not willing to accept the terms God laid down. They think more of a dollar than of a precious soul.

This will close the week's meetings, but Mr. Maplesden will speak again at four o'clock at the hall and all next week meetings will be held in the Autumn church. There will be a special song service every night. There will be a meeting in the Gospel Hall at 7 o'clock Sunday night.

KILLED BY MOTHER OF THE GIRL HE LOVED

Young Man, Upon Refusing to Marry, is Riddled With Pistol Bullets and Bird Shot

MOTHER TRIED TO FORCE MARRIAGE

Washington, Jan. 30. — (Special) — Bernard Posey, the Navy Yard employee at Indian Head, who was riddled with bird shot and pistol bullets by the mother and brother of his sweetheart, whom he refused to marry, died at one o'clock to-day in the Casualty Hospital, where he had been taken for treatment.

The young man after being shot was hurried here on a naval tug from the proving ground at Indian Head. As soon as the surgeons saw him they pronounced his case hopeless. Posey was employed at the naval proving grounds, and became an ardent wooer of "Sis" Bowie, who lived with her mother and brother at Ironside, Md., a short distance from the naval station on the Potomac River.

The mother of the young woman, Mrs. Mollie Bowie, had insisted that Posey marry her daughter. In this she was joined by the girl's brother Henry. The family even went to the extreme of getting a marriage license for Posey and "Sis" Bowie. They had threatened to kill him in the event he refused to marry the young woman, but Posey had Mrs. Bowie put under peace bonds and supposed that the matter was settled.

After he had quit work yesterday afternoon ad was on his way home shortly after 4 o'clock, he was shot.

His brother, Bernard Posey, who was with him at the time, made this statement regarding the shooting:

"After crossing the creek," he said, "Hubert approached a vacant house. Mrs. Bowie and son came from the house. They told Hubert to stop, and then demanded that he marry 'Sis' Bowie, a daughter of Mrs. Bowie, who had been Hubert's sweetheart. When Hubert refused they both tried to catch him through the wire fence, but he got away from them and started on a run down the road.

"Mrs. Bowie opened fire with a revolver, firing three or four shots. Two of them took effect. Henry Bowie also fired. He had a shot gun. The entire load lodged in my brother's back."

So far as the police have been able to learn, Mrs. Bowie and her son have not been arrested nor have they been seen about their home since the shooting.

GETS ITS THIRD READING.

Mr. Fisher's Bill to Encourage Cold Storage—Payments May Be Spread Over Five Years.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—Practically the whole of yesterday's sitting of the House of Commons was occupied by consideration in Committee of the Whole of Mr. Fisher's cold-storage bill.

In the course of the discussion Mr. Fisher acknowledged the kindly way in which the bill had been received, and expressed his appreciation of the many valuable suggestions made by gentlemen possessing special knowledge with regard to the matter. As a result of some of these suggestions he introduced an amendment reducing the period over which the Government subsidy to cold-storage enterprises shall be spread from five to four years, payments to be made on the basis of thirty per cent. on completion of buildings and plant, seven per cent. at the end of the first year of operation, four per cent. at the end of the second year, and two per cent. at the end of the third and fourth years.

In consequence of this alteration the Minister of Agriculture said that it would be necessary to ask for a vote of $150,000 instead of $160,000 for the purposes of the bill. The bill was accorded its third reading.

Third reading was given to a number of private bills and to Government bills to correct certain clerical errors in the act confirming the agreement with the G. T. R. securing the extension of the I. C. R. to Montreal, a bill amending the Northwest Territories act, conferring the powers of stipendiary Magistrate and Justice of the Peace on the Commissioner of the Territories, and the bill amending the Transcontinental Railway act, providing a simple remedy for the recovery of workmen's wages.

Canada's World's Fair.

Dr. Welsh of Huntingdon, Que., introduced in the House of Commons the following resolution: "Resolved, that, in the opinion of this House, it is expedient for this Government to organize a world's fair to properly celebrate the centennial of peace between the two great English-speaking nations of the western continent."

Private Bills Passed.

After recess the following private bills were read a third time and passed:

To incorporate the Saskatchewan Valley and Hudson Bay Railway Co.—Mr. McCreany.

Respecting the Brockville, Westport and Northwestern Railway Co.—Mr. Derbyshire.

Respecting the Athabaska Railway Co.—Mr. McIntyre (Strathcona).

Respecting the Canadian Northern Quebec Railway Co.—Mr. Dugas.

GALT INSTITUTE WAS A MODEL

Building Which Greatly Pleased Peterborough Deputation was Opened Yesterday—It Cost $65,000 Which Was $30,000 More Than Intended

THE OLD BUILDING ENLARGED

Some Details of the Institute Building — Has 102 Feet Frontage—Peterborough's Institute Might be Built on Similar Lines

Peculiar interest so far as Peterborough is concerned, is attached to the fact that Galt's new Collegiate Institute was opened yesterday. It will be remembered that a deputation, representing the Peterborough Board of Education recently visited Galt and inspected the new building, which they declared to be the finest they had ever seen, and a model which they would like to see Peterborough's Institute built after.

Old Buildings Enlarged

The new building, a cut of which is given on this page, has a frontage of 102 feet, and its greatest depth is 90 feet. It is not entirely new, having been built around, over and in front of the old structure, which was a two story stone school, with about one-third of the floor space of the present building.

Cost $65,000

The cost of the new Institute was $65,000, though it was originally intended to spend only about 35,000. The plans, however, for a building of the size required ran into $30,00 additional when the tenders were called for. When the ratepayers were first asked to vote the additional $30,000 the bylaw was defeated, but upon beasubmitted a second time it was carried.

Through the courtesy of the Galt Reformer the Examiner is to-day able to give its readers a cut of the new building, which the Peterborough deputation thought was a model Collegiate Institute.

GALT'S NEW COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE OPENED YESTERDAY, COST $65,000

The Crossley Carpet Works Will Not Come To Canada

But if the Company Had Decided to Located in This Country Peterborough Would Have Been the City Chosen--Mr. Crossley Writes to This Effect

Peterborough is not to get the carpet factory of John Crossley & Sons, Limited, Halifax, England, after all, the company having decided not to take any action towards establishing a factory in Canada for the present. It was thought by the authorities here that the factory was coming to Peterborough. Representatives of the company were in Peterborough recently and were thoroughly satisfied with the advantages offered here, and were apparently prepared to come to an agreement with the city in the matter. They have evidently reconsidered the matter and have decided not to come to Canada at all. The intelligence will be received with general regret.

It is, however, gratifying to know that the Crossley firm were most favourably impressed with Peterborough as a manufacturing centre, as a letter published below will show.

The mayor has received the following letter from the firm, which is self-explanatory:

To the Mayor of Peterborough:

Dear Sir,—We have decided for the present to take no further steps for the starting of a carpet concern in Canada. We wish, however, to place on record our thanks for the trouble you took in giving our representatives all the information required.

Yours, etc.,
JOHN CROSSLEY & SONS, Limited.

Mr. E. C. Patterson, of the C. G. E. Co., has also received a letter from the firm. He assisted the council in receiving the Crossley representative. The communication is as follows:

Dear Sir,—You were good enough when I was in Peterborough to give me your assistance and advice and I therefore think that it is only right that I should inform you at once of the decision we have come to re starting a carpet concern in Canada. We have decided against taking any action at present for reasons too numerous to give here.

I wish, however, to say that my opinion of Peterborough is that it offers to-day as good, if not better, opportunities than any other place I visited in the Dominion. I trust if I come out again I may have the opportunity of renewing your acquaintance.

Yours sincerely,
CHAS. W. CROSSLEY.

THE ASSAULT CASE HAS BEEN ENLARGED

One of the Chief Witnesses Laid Up with a Badly Crushed Knee

The assault case against Dickson of Asphodel has been indefinitely enlarged on account of one of the witnesses not being able to appear next Tuesday. The brother of the youth who is supposed to be the victim of the assault is laid up with a crushed knee and is under the doctor's care. When he has recovered sufficiently to attend court the case will be dealt with.

Fire completely destroyed Mr. Crew's general store at Hartington, Ont., yesterday.

THE WEATHER

This is the day on which bruin is supposed to emerge from his hibernation, and take a survey of things generally, and of the weather in particular. If old sol is shining brightly and bruin sees his shadow on the snow, he goes back to his lair with the assurance that he will have to suck his paws for six more weeks. However, if the day should be overcast—as to-day was — he decides to terminate his winter's sleep, being satisfied that spring is not far away. To-day the weather has been quite mild, but we are in no danger of losing our sleighing, as another cold wave which has been over the Northwest for some days is moving eastward, and will be preceded by strong winds.

WANT AN IMPROVED MAIL SERVICE FOR SPRINGVILLE PEOPLE

An Effort Will be Made to Induce C.P.R. to Stop at Kendry in Future—Such a Change Would Benefit Peterborough

A DEPUTATION IS PROBABLE

The people of Springville are complaining of the mail service, and an effort is being made to improve it. At the present time the mail for that village is sent by way of Fraserville on the G.T.R., and staged over from there, and the result is that the Peterborough evening papers reach the subscribers twenty-four hours after their publication.

Stop At Kendry

An effort is being made to have the mail sent by the C.P.R., instead of by G.T.R., and set off at Kendry. At the present time neither the noon express from the west nor the afternoon train from the east stop at Kendry, but the Springville people are taking the matter up, and an effort will be made to induce the railway company to have both these trains stop at this station, which is but a short distance from Springville. If this were done, not only would they receive their mail earlier, but they would be able to come to this city much easier, and the result would be that Peterborough merchants would derive considerable benefit. They would be able to come to town on the noon train and leave in the afternoon spending about half a day in the city.

Would Benefit Peterborough

The City Council and Board of Trade of Peterborough will in all probability be asked to help in this movement, which will be to their decided advantage.

It is considered probable that a deputation will be sent to present the views of those interested to the proper authorities and hopes are entertained of securing the concessions asked for.

Whooping Cough

"My three boys had the whooping cough this winter and I could get nothing to help them until I sent for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. That was not a large bill for so distressing and dangerous an ailment. — Mrs. William Bell, Bracebridge, Ont.

BANK OFFICES WILL BE CREDIT TO CITY

The China Hall Building will be Entirely Remodelled

A great transformation is being made in the China Hall building, at the corner of George and Simcoe streets, which will shortly be occupied by the Dominion Bank, and the result will be a very handsome business building.

Contractor Webb of Toronto has a large staff of men at work, and the remodelling of the premises will be done as quickly as possible. The exterior of the building, as well as the interior, will be changed. It is the intention to tear down the north wall and rebuild the lower part of brown stone, which will make the corner one of most handsome in the city. The interior, on which a large number of carpenters are already at work, will be fitted out along the most modern lines. Two vaults are being built in the basement under the supervision of Mr. Adam Dawson.

CONTRACTOR FOR NORMAL SCHOOL HERE

Mr. Whitham Visited the City Regarding Plans for the Normal

Mr. S. F. Whitham of Brantford, the contractor for the four Normal Schools, was in the city yesterday afternoon and registered at the National. During the afternoon he conversed with several local contractors, and financial and supply men, concerning the Peterborough Normal school.

He also drove up to the selected site for the school and made a few plans for the future.

Mr. Whitham stated that he would soon have about 70 men at work here, but did not mention the exact time. He left this morning, but will return again to Peterborough next week to make further arrangements.

CLEVER OIL PAINTING BY A YOUNG ARTIST

Portrait by Miss Marie McCarthy is Attracting Considerable Attention

A portrait in oils displayed in Messrs. Lang & Maher's window today, attracted considerable attention and was the subject of many complimentary remarks. It is the work of Miss Mamie McCarthy, of this city, who has received many congratulations on her clever work. Miss McCarthy has shown remarkable ability in her work, which is most creditable for such a young artist. A portrait of Rev. Dr. O'Brien, by Miss McCarthy elicited most favourable comment.

No Truth In The Rumour That Coates Company Will Not Locate in This City

Foundationless Report to This Effect in Toronto Press is Denied--Company Will Surely Come Here

SENATOR COX HAS BEEN ADVISED TO THIS EFFECT

A few days ago an article appeared in one of the Toronto papers, to the effect that there was a probability of the Coates Carpet Company not locating its works in Peterborough, and that Toronto was standing a good chance of securing the industry.

The article went on to state that in case Toronto did not get the industry would, in all probability go to Fort William, which, it will be remembered, was a competitor with Peterborough for the industry in the first place, Peterborough winning out.

Foundationless Rumour

The Examiner to-day went into the matter, and learned that, as far as the local authorities know, there is no truth in the rumoured change in the plans, on the part of the Coates people, and there is every reason to believe that it is simply a rumour, without any foundation in fact.

Mr. Dinwoodie Coming

Mr. Dinwoodie, who is to manage the Canadian factory, is expected in Peterborough in a few days from Scotland, and when he arrives it is probable that an official denial will be given the rumours; but in the meantime the civic authorities are not worrying over the matter. A letter was received from Mr. Coates by Senator Cox, shortly before Mr. Dinwoodie left Scotland for Canada, and the letter would give an impression that there was any inclination to change the plans agreed upon while Mr. Coates was in Canada.

Industry Assured

In fact, the letter was of such a nature that it further assured the council, the members of which it was shown, if such assurance was necessary, that the industry was positively assured to Peterborough, and it contained another very pleasing item of information which the Examiner is not at liberty, at the present time, to announce, but which makes assurance doubly sure, and indicates a further industrial expansion for Peterborough.

Senator Cox's Judgment

Senator Cox, himself, is so satisfied that the works are coming here that he bought the land, upon which they are to be built, and the people of Peterborough may safely rest upon his judgment, the exercise of which in the past has proved satisfactory both to himself and Peterborough.

New Found Friend Stole His Watch and Money

This is the Story That William White Told the Court To-day in Reference to Edward Herron--With Bottle Hanging Over His Head He Had to "Shell Out" His Cash and Valuables

The aftermath of the story of the young steer that refused to move on Water street last Monday was aired in the police court this morning. The driver, Peter Moloney, of Douro, was charged with having ill-treated the animal and from the evidence of Mr. Robert Hay, P. C. Newhall, Mr. Robert Howden and others, Magistrate Dumble considered that the animal had not received gentle treatment, but it had not been wantonly beaten. He dismissed Mr. Moloney with a warning.

John Johnston, one of the regular visitors to the police court, once more pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk on the streets. He was fined two dollars.

Edward Herron

The third case was that of Edward Herron, who was charged with having stolen from William White a gold watch and the sum of $26 on Thursday last. Through his counsel, Mr. F. D. Kerr prisoner did not elect.

White was the first witness examined. On Thursday he dropped into Peterborough from Norwood, going to the City Hotel. In his possession was a fine gold watch and chain and about $30. He soon made up with a number of men and became fast friends. One of them was Edward Herron, and after a few drinks, Teddy, as witness called himself, decided to go and visit some of their lady friends. White bought a bottle of whisky and one of wine. They started out like bravadoes, and turned the Charlotte street corner. When they arrived at the first lane around the corner witness said that Teddy wanted a drink. Witness handed over the long black bottle as requested, and thereupon Teddy said to him, "Give me a dollar, or I'll brain you." Witness replied, so he testified, in a friendly manner, "All right, Teddy," and took out his wad. Witness said to his great surprise and dismay, Herron then snatched his money and his watch.

Gets the Watch Back

Friday morning White found out where Teddy's mother lived and went there to see if he could get his belongings back. She said that her son had returned to Chemong with his father. She at once drove out there. White got his watch on her return in the afternoon.

Mrs. Herron testified that her son had returned home on Thursday night about nine o'clock and was far from sober. The rest of her evidence was similar to that of the complainant.

In reviewing the case Mr. Kerr said he considered the affair a mere drunken bout on the part of the two men. White was in that maudlin state so common to the intoxicated when he handed over his watch to Herron to keep for him, so Mr. Kerr considered. They were going out for a time and one was more drunk than the other.

His Worship said that under the circumstances there was sufficient cause for committing Herron for trial, and the case will likely be heard at the next assizes.

INDEPENDENCE

The Hamilton Herald a theoretically independent journal, strives to make a point of the fact that some party papers, while approving of the stand of Mr. Studholm, the Labour representative of Hamilton, in the local legislature, condemn the stand taken by Mr. Armand Lavergne of Montmagny, in the House of Commons, who has swung clear of the Liberals. The cases are not quite parallel. Mr. Studholm offered himself for election as an Independent candidate and was elected as an Independent candidate and is expected to be Independent. If he ceased to be Independent and diverted his support to either of the standard parties and adopted their platform, he would not be representing the people who elected him as an Independent and they would be justified in demanding his resignation of a trust he had betrayed. Mr. Lavergne was elected as a Liberal and was expected to support the party representing Liberal principles. When he ceases to do that he loses representative justification. If a man in parliament cannot accept the attitude and administration of the party he was elected to support he has an unquestionable right to say so and act accordingly. Under our party system a party is committed to a certain line of policy whose application it believes to be in the best interests of the country. A man elected to support the policy of the party he was chosen to represent, must be loyal to that party. If his mind changes and he ceases to work in harmony with his party he should not expect to be counted among its supporters, and exercise the privileges or enjoy the advantages of such a relation. This position leaves a liberal latitude for independence in matters of detail, but not for defection in support of the general policy of the party. Independence in politics whether journalistic or otherwise, seems, in practice, to be a negligible quantity. It's good fair weather doctrine, but under the stress of an election campaign and the possible self-interest developed, the Independent journal generally wobbles to one side or the other and becomes fiercely partizan.

THE SPOILS SYSTEM

Hon. Mr. Whitney on one occasion epigramatically glorified himself as "honest enough to be bold, and bold enough to be honest." How well has he lived up to this self-applied character, there is ample evidence. He has been bold enough to be dishonest. He declared on the faith of a prime minister, that no Government official would be dismissed without an opportunity given for investigation into any charges that might be held to justify a demand for resignation, or dismissal. Read the subjoined correspondence connected with the dismissal of Sheriff Gillespie, the latest victim of the spoils system:

Toronto, Jan. 16, 1907.

Dear Sir, — I am directed to say that in consequence of representations which have been made as to your conduct, your resignation of your office as sheriff of the County of Prince Edward County, is required by the Government.

Yours truly,

J. R. CARTWRIGHT.

To James Gillespie, Esq., Sheriff, Picton, Ont.

Picton, Ont., Jan. 18, 1907.

J. R. Cartwright, Esq., K. C., Deputy Attorney-General, Toronto, Ont.:

My Dear Sir, — I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 16th inst.

I am unaware of any conduct on my part which the Government would deem sufficient to justify them requiring me to resign my office as sheriff of the county of Prince Edward.

I will therefore be glad to be afforded an opportunity of answering the representations which have been made to that effect.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES GILLESPIE. Sheriff.

Toronto, Jan. 21, 1907.

Dear Sir, — I have been directed today in reply to yours of the 18th inst., that my previous letter conveyed to you an intimation that your removal from office had been decided on, but that for what seemed to the Government to be good reasons you were to be permitted to resign should you choose to do so. I have also been directed to inform you that an order-in-council has been passed removing you from your office as sheriff, and appointing Mr. James Gibson your successor.

Yours truly,

J. R. CARTWRIGHT.

To James Gillespie, Esq., Sheriff, Picton, Ont.

Toronto, Jan. 21, 1907.

Sir, — I am commanded by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to inform you that he has been pleased to remove you from office of Sheriff of the county of Prince Edward.

I have the honour to be, sir, Your obedient servant,

THOMAS MULVEY, Assistant Provincial Secretary.

To James Gillespie, Esq., Sheriff, Picton, Ont.

It will be noticed that Mr. Gillespie is charged with dishonourable conduct, which naturally aroused resentment, and he was given no opportunity of defending himself, such as the law accords to the meanest offender. In this case, the Government has been cowardly, as well as brutal. Sheriff Gillespie is 84 years of age, and could have reasonably been politely asked to resign on the grounds of his advanced years; but when he is threatened with dismissal, with the added result of an aspersion upon his personal honour, and eventually kicked out of office, honourable men men will hardly admit that Mr. Whitney is "bold enough to be honest," when he so far departs from his promise to dismiss no official on uninvestigated charges.

BAD GUESSING

Our evening contemporary, whose right to do so is more evident than its wisdom, kindly comes to the aid of His Excellency-in-Council, and suggests the names of several local Liberals as candidates for the existing Senate vacancy in this district. Among others, it suggests the name of Hon. J. R. Stratton. The Review is informed that it has made at least one bad guess. Mr. Stratton is not an applicant for the position, and does not, therefore, expect appointment to the Senate vacancy. While the guessor was guessing, it might have included the name of Mr. John Lang, ex-M.P., who pluckily redeemed West Peterborough and, so far as party services are concerned, might fairly have had a place in the guessing contest.

A SURRENDER

The announcement is made by Hon. W. J. Hanna that the Whitney Government will back down on the compulsory salary to teachers and repeal last year's measure, agreeing instead to make a grant to each school of $15 per annum, and to pay forty per cent. of the amount of any rural teacher's salary over $300 and under $600. There can be no fault to find with the policy of spending more Government money on the public schools, particularly at a time when the provincial revenue is buoyant through the larger subsidy larger subsidy from the Dominion and increase in receipts from mining lands; but it is surely going too far to make this expenditure a partial substitute for the school tax in every school section, as it is proposed to do. Apparently Mr. Whitney and his followers in the Legislature have allowed themselves to be influenced by the protests of men who object to an addition to their school taxes, forgetting altogether the needs of the province in matters educational. It is to all appearances a surrender to the short-sighted protests of such men and does not bode well for the future of education in this province.—Ottawa Free Press.

NOTICE is hereby given that it is the intention of the Grand Trunk Railway Company of Canada after the expiration of four weeks from the first publication of this notice to apply to the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, under sections 231 and 232 of the Railway Act, for authority to construct a branch line or siding, extending from a point on the Grand Trunk Railway east of Gladstone Avenue, Peterborough, thence on a curve and crossing Landsdowne Avenue to the property of the Toronto Savings & Loan Company, and the Factory of the Brinton Carpet Company, Limited, situate on Park Lot No. 16 in Lot No. 15, in the 11th Concession Township of North Monaghan, as shown on plan, profile and book of reference deposited in the Registry Office for the County of Peterborough on 22nd December, 1906. Dated 31st January, 1907. W. H. Biggar, General Solicitor, Grand Trunk Co., of Canada.

SELECTIONS

EUROPEAN SOLONS.

Either Low Pay or No Pay Is the Rule For Lawmakers.

The Norwegian member of parliament gets little more than $3 a day for his public services, and even then when he takes a day off he loses his pay. The same is the case with the members of the Swiss diet. They are rewarded with $4 a day on condition that they do not absent themselves from work.

To go farther east, it is found that Roumania thinks her lawmakers worth $3 a day. Four dollars is the daily wages of those who compose the Bulgarian sobranje, but members who live in the capital get only $3 daily.

Denmark is about the stingiest of all European countries so far as remunerating her legislators is concerned. Danish members of parliament get only $1.50 a day, but, on the other hand, they have the odd privilege of a free seat in the Royal theater at Copenhagen.

While the members of the German reichstag are not salaried, the lawmakers of the various German states do not work for nothing. Saxe-Coburg members of parliament are paid about $3.25, those of Bavaria $2.50 and of Hesse $2.25.

At first sight Hungary seems to do her lawmaking on the cheap plan, for her members get $1,000 a year in cash. But they are not so badly off after all, for a liberal allowance is made into the bargain for house rent. Austria-Hungary's two legislative assemblies cost the country about $800,000 a year in all. Both in Austria and Hungary legislators can travel first class with second class tickets.

Besides the United Kingdom, Italy and Spain are the only countries which pay nothing to the members of parliament.

In Portugal also the state does not remunerate legislators, but they receive free railway passes, and their constituencies are legally permitted to pay those who represent them a sum of about $3.75 for each day's session.—New York Herald.

Frogskin For Grafting.

In a letter to the Lancet, Dr. Ranking of Oxford tells of the use of frogskin for grafting. "For more than twenty years," says the physician, "the frog has furnished me with grafts in all cases requiring such treatment. My first use of it was in my own case. I had suffered for nearly three years from obstinate ulceration of the skin of the foot, which had resisted all treatment and steadily refused to heal. I began using grafts of frogskin in the middle of January, 1885, and in less than six weeks had a sound covering of skin. At the present time, more than twenty years having elapsed, the cicatrix is perfectly sound and has none of the puckering and stiffness so often seen in cicatrices where human grafts have been used." Dr. Ranking was so encouraged by this result that he used frogskin in every case of the kind after that and at a rough estimate must have used it in some 300 or 400 cases.

A Yoke That Lincoln Made.

The University of Illinois has lately added a number of relics to its Abraham Lincoln collection. Among other treasures in the university's possession is an ox yoke made by Lincoln at New Salem, Ill., in 1830, when he was twenty-one years old. It remained there until 1849, just after Lincoln's return from his only term in congress. Then Lincoln and his brother-in-law, Clark M. Smith, visited New Salem together. While there the two attended an auction sale of farm chattels, among which was the ox yoke. When the yoke was offered for sale it was treated as a novelty because made by a congressman. Lincoln acknowledged having made the yoke, and Mr. Smith bid it off, saying "it was worth taking home as a souvenir because made by his brother-in-law and a member of congress."

Decline of Chinese Tea.

Some interesting statistics have been collected by Vice Consul Arnold at Fuchau concerning the great decline in China's tea trade. From 1678, when tea was first introduced into England, until 1837 China held exclusively the tea trade of the world. Then India began to enter the tea market. The Chinese trade reached high tide in 1886, with a total export of 300,000,000 pounds. In 1884 China furnished about 72 per cent of the world's total, India and Ceylon 18 per cent and Japan and Formosa 10 per cent. But in 1904, when the total consumption had increased to 644,000,000 pounds, China contributed only 30 per cent, India and Ceylon 60 per cent and Japan and Formosa 10 per cent. The decline in China is ascribed to careless methods of cultivation and preparation of the leaf.

A Pedigree.

A gentleman talking to a friend about the antiquity of his family, which he carried up to Noah, was told that he was a mere mushroom.

"Ah!" said he. "How so, pray?"

"Why," replied the other, "when I was in Wales a pedigree of a particular family was shown to me. It filled about five large skins of parchment, and near to the middle of it was a note in the margin, 'About this time the world was created.'"—London Tit-Bits.

Miss L. Wall, 350 N. Dale street, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"Last spring I had a very severe case of catarrh of the stomach and bowels. I was very much run down in strength and lost my appetite.

"I took three bottles of Peruna and found myself gaining very quickly in every way.

"I also had catarrh in my head, which has been entirely cured.

"I thank Peruna for the health I am enjoying."

The World's Greatest Medicine Factory.

The rapid growth of the Peruna Medicine Company is as phenomenal in the business world as the universal popularity of their famous remedy, Peruna. The plant covers a number of acres, and employs several hundred people. No other medicine firm in the world reaches anything like the volume of business done by Dr. Hartman's firm.

Although Peruna is a proprietary medicine, the details of its compounding are in strict accordance with pharmaceutical discoveries and nothing gives Dr. Hartman greater pleasure than to show his intimate professional friends through the laboratory where Peruna is made.

A Doctor's Prescription.

For years Dr. Hartman used Peruna in his private practice as a regular prescription. He had no thought of manufacturing it or advertising it as a proprietary medicine until there was a demand made upon him by his many friends, who clamored for the original prescription.

Forty Thousand Patients.

Dr. Hartman estimates that he must have prescribed Peruna for over forty thousand patients before it was advertised as a proprietary medicine.

Relieved in Four Weeks of Severe Cold on Lungs.

Miss Josie Schaetzel, Gen. Del., Appleton, Wis., writes:

"I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs in very short order and it was not long until it developed into a serious case of catarrh. Every morning I would raise a lot of phlegm, which was very disagreeable. My digestion was poor and my lungs sore.

"After a few doses of Peruna I began to mend, and felt that if I kept on taking it, it would not be long until I would be well. I was right, for in four weeks I was well again.

"I think Peruna is a grand medicine, and wish to add my testimony to the many others you have."

Catarrh is almost universal. Catarrh is difficult to cure. Many doctors do not care to treat catarrh at all.

Followed Doctor Hartman's Advice — A Grateful Letter.

Mrs. Anthony Rauch, 438 Johnston street, Bucyrus, Ohio, writes:

"I was suffering from obstinate constipation and torpid liver when I took your advice and purchased six bottles of Peruna and Manalin.

"When I had taken only one bottle I felt much better and since I have taken two more bottles I feel entirely well, but I will continue taking the medicine for a short time to make sure of my cure.

"I think Manalin is one of the finest remedies for constipation that I ever tried. I will never be without it. It has made me so strong. I can do a day's work and never tire.

"I am so glad I do not get those dizzy spells any more. I have'nt had one since I took your medicine.

"I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. All sick people should give it a fair trial."

Pe-ru-na's Popularity.

Peruna is not like so many other remedies that pass away as soon as the first few bottles are used. The longer Peruna is used in any community, the more popular it becomes.

Finds Relief in Pe-ru-na After Suffering Twenty Years.

Mrs. M. S. Davis, 1505 Buena Vista street, Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"After having been a constant sufferer from catarrh for more than twenty years and after trying almost every remedy advertised, and having lost all hope, I very reluctantly began the use of Peruna about two years ago.

"Everybody says I look younger now than I did twenty years ago, and I actually feel younger and better, and weigh more.

"I am recommending it to my neighbors and all with whom I come in contact."

Pe-ru-na Removes the Cause of Catarrh.

Peruna has no bad effects upon the system and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years.

Pe-ru-na Actually Relieves.

The reason why Peruna has become a standard catarrh remedy the world over is simply because it eliminates catarrh.

This explains why Peruna has become so popular. It relieves catarrh. This is an amply sufficient reason why it should become popular.

It therefore follows that when a remedy is devised that can be used in the home at a moderate cost, and a remedy should inevitably become popular.

Keeps Pe-ru-na in the House.

Mrs. Jessie Smith, 408 Buttles Ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes:

"I have used your Peruna for catarrh of the head and stomach, and have been greatly relieved from it.

"Therefore, I cannot praise Peruna too much, and can recommend it to any one having the above disease, as there is nothing better.

"I always keep it in the house."

There are a great many catarrh cures in the world. The most of them are local applications. Few of them are to be used internally.

Unfortunately, a large number of these catarrh remedies, especially the ones prescribed by the doctors, contain narcotics of some sort. Cocaine, opium, and other narcotics are used.

These remedies give temporary relief. The patient thinks he is better right away.

In a few weeks, however, he discovers his mistake. Not only is his catarrh no better, but he has acquired the habit of using some narcotic.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind.

Peruna is perfectly harmless. It takes according to directions on the bottle. So used, it can be taken any length of time without acquiring a drug habit.

An Elaborately Prepared Crime.

This story of an elaborately prepared crime was told by Sir Robert Anderson of Scotland Yard, London. A criminal marked a millionaire as his quarry and rented a bedroom near the railway station from which the rich man took the train for town. Well dressed and well groomed, he took his seat in the same compartment, attracting notice only by his apparent desire to remain unnoticed while he dealt with the papers he carried in a stylish handbag. One morning after a few such journeys he gave vent to his annoyance at having forgotten his keys. A stranger sitting in the opposite corner politely offered him his bunch in the hope that he would find on it a key to open the bag. But none of them would fit the lock. At the suggestion of the stranger, who, of course, was an accomplice, the millionaire then produced his bunch of keys, and a few seconds sufficed to enable the thief to take a wax impression of the key of the rich man's safe. A few weeks later the safe was rifled, and before the crime was discovered the chief was across the channel with his booty.

Why He Hesitated.

Why does this man stand upon the pavement trembling with terror, afraid to enter his own home?

Listen and I will tell you:

This afternoon at 3 o'clock he received a letter from his bank asking him to step around and pay a note that was due. He scribbled the following answer upon a slip of paper:

"Can't possibly do it. Got to meet another little thing this afternoon that won't be put off."

About the same time a messenger boy brought him a note from his wife asking him to meet her at his office at 4 to go with her to the dentist's.

Of course he got the answers mixed, and he is wondering whether he had better attempt an explanation or set out for Australia.—Strand Magazine

THE TRUSTS AND GUARANTEE COMPANY LIMITED

ANNUAL MEETING

The tenth Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, was held at the office of the Company, 14 King street west, Toronto, on Wednesday, January 30th, 1907.

There was a good attendance of the Shareholders present at the meeting. The President, Hon. J. R. Stratton, was invited to take the chair, and in the absence of the General Manager Mr. E. B. Stockdale acted as Secretary. After the notice convening the meeting had been read the report of the Directors was submitted as follows —

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE TRUSTS AND GUARANTEE COMPANY, LIMITED:

Your Directors have pleasure in submitting herewith their Tenth Annual Report, accompanied by the Financial Statement exhibiting the affairs of the Company for the year ending December 31st, 1906, together with the Auditor's Report verifying its correctness and reporting an examination of the securities.

The Company's operations during 1906 were very satisfactory, resulting in a profit of $79,234.22 after payment of all expenses, the gross earnings showing a gratifying increase, while the expenses have substantially decreased.

The dividend for the half-year ending December 31st was paid at the rate of 6 per cent per. annum. Your directors confidently expect that the earnings of the Company in the future will justify, and that the Shareholders may look forward to, the payment of dividends at the rate of at least 6 per cent. per annum.

After payment of the dividends for the year the sum of $21,827.26, the balance of the year's earnings, has been carried forward to the credit of Profit and Loss. The total amount at the credit of this account is now the very satisfactory sum of $140,170.06.

During the year the Company has established a Real Estate Department in connection with the general office, which promises to give profitable returns.

Owing to the great development of the western part of the Dominion, your Board believed it to be in the best interests of the Company to open a branch of the Company at Calgary, Alberta, and Mr. A. G. Ross, late Assistant Manager at Toronto, has taken charge of the Branch, with a strong local Advisory Board. The rates of interest prevailing in the West have been such as to make investments more profitable, while the security offered renders the investment equally safe.

Many of the shareholders have availed themselves during the past year of the privilege of paying up their shares in full, and with the satisfactory earnings and the increased dividend of the Company, it is not improbable that many more will take advantage of this privilege during the coming year.

It is a pleasure to your Directors to be able once more to place on record their appreciation of the officers, agents and staff of the Company.

J. R. STRATTON, President.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

The President, in moving the adoption of the report, said :—

Gentlemen,—

It gives me great pleasure to note the presence of so many of the Shareholders at the Tenth Annual General Meeting of this Company, met to consider and deal with the Directors' Report of the result of its operations for the past financial year. The Report which has been placed in your hands is accompanied by the report of the Auditors, in which they fully certify to the correctness of the cash transactions, of the receipts and payments affecting the several accounts, and the Assets and Liabilities. Reference to the figures of the Report will show that the gross receipts on account of interest, commission and vault rents total $122,444.87. The disbursements associated with these transactions amount to $43,210.65. This leaves a balance of $79,234.22 as the net profits in the year's operations. Of this amount the sum of $57,406.96 was apportioned to pay two dividends, that for the first half of the year, $25,743.64 at 5 per cent., and for the second half $31,663.32, at 6 per cent., equivalent for the year to 5½ per cent. This leaves a balance of $21,827.26 to be placed at the credit of Profit and Loss, which, being added to the balance of $118,342.80, brought forward at the close of last year, makes the total at the credit of Profit and Loss Account the sum of $140,170.06. These figures, it is submitted, indicate the very gratifying results of the Company's operations for the past year, which may be emphasized by a comparison or two with the figures of the preceding year. The confidence of the public in the Company is evidenced by the fact that the deposits in 1906 show an increase over those of 1905 of $212,000.00, the figures for the latter being $82,000.00, and for the last year being $294,0.0.00. The amount carried to Reserve was in 1905 the sum of $18,039.21, and the amount in 1906 was $21,827.26, an increase of $3,788.05. The total amount of Trust Funds in the hands of the Company was in 1905, $914,000.00. The total now stands at $1,259,000.00. Thus it is seen that in all departments there has been a satisfactory advance over the record of the preceding year, and as an evidence of careful and efficient management, at a reduction of expense, the disbursements of last year were $5,284.14 less than those of 1905.

It may be remarked that Mr. James J. Warren, who assumed the duties of General Manager a little over a year ago, has met with great success, as represented by increased business. He has shown himself to be a man of capacity, integrity and industry, whose services as Manager have so far been attended with satisfactory results in the interests of the Company. The Assets of the Company during the year under review show an increase of $856,000.00, or from $2,870,000.00 in 1905, to $3,726,000.00 in 1906.

The establishment of a Real Estate Department in connection with the general office indicates another form of expansion justified by results, the first year's receipts being largely in excess of expenditures. The rapid growth of the general business of the Company has been such as to make the present premises, as you may have observed, quite inadequate to supply the office convenience to meet the requirements of the increased and increasing business of the Company. The growing confidence of the public in the methods and management of the Company is evidenced by the fact of a very largely augmented number of wills having the past year been placed in charge of the Company, representing the disposal of estates of large volume.

It may be added that important liquidation interests have also been entrusted to the Company. In addition to profitable operations and all round improvement, expansion of the Company's business is further indicated by the establishment of a Branch Office at Calgary, in the new Province of Alberta, which promises to be the centre of a profitable field of operation. The splendid activity of development of the Canadian West, conjoined with the conditions of prosperity that prevail in every part of Canada, and the satisfactory condition of all the Company's interests, require no optimism to predict a continuation and even an increase of the prosperity of The Trusts and Guarantee Company.

I have great pleasure in moving the adoption of the report.

Mr. D. W. Karn of Woodstock, Vice-President, in seconding the motion for the adoption of the report, said that it seemed to him that the President had so fully covered the ground and so emphasized the good showing made in the Report of the Directors that there was little to be added. It was a matter of congratulation that all the interests of the Company showed improvement. There had been a satisfactory increase of business, and of profits achieved at a reduced cost, and good dividends had been paid, all indicating good management and careful administration. The business of the Company had expanded, and was continuing to expand, in a manner that gave promise of future prosperity. The Report presented to day for the information and approval of the shareholders was in every way satisfactory, and he had much pleasure in seconding the motion for its adoption.

Several of the Shareholders present referred to the very satisfactory statement the Company had presented. They were pleased with the progress the Company had made and was making, and all expressed their continued confidence in the success of the Company.

The Report was unanimously adopted. The opening of the Branch Office of the Company at Calgary was approved, and the appointment of the Local Advisory Board to the Branch was ratified. The by-law increasing the shares of the Company to a par value of $100.00 was also adopted.

The meeting, which was a most satisfactory and harmonious one, was concluded by a resolution of thanks to the management for the excellent manner in which the affairs of the Company progressed during the past year.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Board of Directors :—Hon. J. R. Stratton, Toronto; Hon. D. McMillan, Alexandria; D. W. Karn, Esq., Woodstock; A. T. Maclaren, M.P., Stratford; W. J. Sheppard, Esq., Waubaushene C. Kleopfer, Esq., Guelph; T. H. Purdom, Esq., K.C., London; W. Thoburn, Esq. Almonte; J. H. Adams, Esq., Toronto; Henry New, Esq, Hamilton; R. R. McLennan, ex-M.P., Cornwall; James J. Warren, Esq., Toronto.

The following members of the Board were appointed members of the Executive Committee :—Hon. J. R. Stratton, President; Hon. D. McMillan, D. W. Karn, Esq., R. R. McLennan, Esq., C. Kleopfer, Esq., James J. Warren, Esq

At a meeting of the Directors, held immediately after the Shareholders' meeting Hon. J. R. Stratton was re-elected President, and Messrs. D. W. Karn and C. Kleopfer were re-elected Vice-Presidents.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THE PITTSBURG ORCHESTRA

It is using weak and ineffective language to say that last night at the Grand Opera House, a large and music-loving audience was delighted with the splendid musical entertainment provided by the Pittsburgh Orchestra, to whose humanly perfect instrumental work, Madame Le Grand Reid, dramatic soprano, added the humanly perfect element of vocal art, constituting an ensemble eminently satisfying to ear and soul.

Last night this great orchestra was heard in Peterborough for the first time, and for the first time was heard here orchestral music performed, whose equal it would be difficult to find, and whose superior it would be difficult to conceive. To a combination of individual artists, on their several instruments, with a beautiful balance of parts, marvellous in their unity and flawless in their harmony of action, was added a leader, who led less by gesture than by magnetic intuition, who used his performers as instruments to extract the soul and spirit of his selections. The orchestra was splendidly balanced; none expressed an undesirable dominance over another. The wood choir was excellent, the bass section deep, and mellow, the string section of equal potency, and all combined with a mastery of technique, tempo and expression, made the orchestra absolutely despotic in compulsion of admiration.

The programme opened with the magnificent interpretation, and performance, of a Beethoven overture, "Leonore, No. 3." It was followed by the melodious overture, "Mignon," Ambroise Thomas, lightened with sprightly passages, and delicately dainty shading. An Entr' Act, from Gwendoline, concluded with a morendo of indescribable beauty. The complementary number, Rhapsodie Espana, was followed by Raff's March from "Lenore" Symphony, and Saint-Saens' "Le Rouet d'Omphale." The Gavotte by Rameau, a composition over 200 years old, was a gem, both in its elfish sprightliness of tune, as well as the airy and flawless daintiness of performance. The programme closed with the prelude and closing scene from "Tristan and Isolde," Wagner. It is superfluous to add that the orchestra was enthusiastically applauded throughout.

When the vocalist, Madame Le Grand Reed appeared, with modest and becoming coiffure, and beautifully gowned in invisible green, she was received with perfervid applause, which her subsequent work amply justified. To her winsome personality, she adds a quality of voice, an admirable method, and artistic temperament, which make Canadians proud that they are Canadians. The singer is a native of Toronto, and as a vocalist needs not fear comparison with most of the great living vocal artists, of any country. She is a dramatic soprano, with a voice of powerful sweetness, good range and even quality. She sings with both soul and voice, and not one of the least admirable of her qualities is a perfect enunciation, whether she uses English or French words. Her first number was the aria from "Faust," the jewel song — in French — sung with a finish and dramatic intensity that was charming. She won new triumphs in the three-song group — "Summer," Chaminade; "Le Moulin," Pierne; and the "Blackbird," Victor Harris. In "Le Moulin," thee refrain — "Tourne, tourne, tourne mon moulin," was a gem of piquant and artistic singing. "The Blackbird," was also beautifully sung. Mrs. Le Grand Reed achieved an artistic triumph last night. Her reception by the audience amounted to an ovation. She was recalled, and sang an extra number. She will be warmly welcomed back to Peterborough.

To Mr. Walter Stocker, as local impressario, public gratitude is due for the great musical treat provided.

BILL BAILEY'S JUBILEE

The offering at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday Feb. 5th, will be the big coloured aggregation known as "Bill Bailey's Jubilee." With its company of thirty-five of the best coloured actors, singers and dancers, an elaborate scenic investiture and one of the cleverest and brightest skits written in years, it promises well for a fine evening's entertainment. Musically, the company is very strong, and includes the best negro vocalists on the stage to-day. Among the big musical numbers are "Waiting for the Train," "Let Me See You Smile," "Everybody Gives Me Good Advice," "She Certainly Looks Good to Me," "Nobody's Friend," "Pretty Little Diamond," "There's a Mother Waiting at Home for You," and "Consolation."

THE WAR CORRESPONDENT

"The War Correspondent," a new three act English military musical play comes to the Grand Opera House, Thursday, Feb. 7th, 1907. The characters in this delightful success, termed "the show with music," are all consistently drawn and interpreted by one of the best companies on tour this season. There are no dull lines in the play and no forced effort to endeavour to make people laugh. The ludicrous scenes, perplexing situations, are capitally put forth and the comedy is spontaneous. It is entirely free from vulgarity and suggestiveness, which the authors say is not essentially wit, and there is nothing in the play of that unsuccessful effort to be funny which is so frequently dismal. The company, which includes some forty members, is composed of some of the most prominent and successful farce players in America. The chorus has been selected with regard to musical ability, as well as to the personal appearance of its members and comprises twenty of the most beautiful show girls ever brought together.

GEORGE ST. SOUTH TO BE OPENED AT ONCE

Board of Works Has Decided That There Shall be No More Delay in the Matter

THEY VISITED PROPERTY YESTERDAY

The Board of Works has determined that the extending of George street south to Lansdowne street, shall be gone ahead with at once. This matter has been before the Council and the Board of Works for several years and there has been long delay because of the price asked for their property by some of the persons who own land along the right of way.

The Board met yesterday and with Mr. Thomas McKee the valuator appointed by the city to ascertain the value of the property, inspected the land in question with a view of deciding whether the prices arrived at by Mr. McKee were reasonable. Between the valuator's figures and the price set on their property by the owners, there was somewhat of a discrepancy, but the Board judged that Mr. McKee's values were reasonable.

It was therefore decided to go ahead with the opening of the street, the question of the price to be paid by the city for the right of way to be settled by arbitration. The city appointed an arbitrator some time ago, and there will be no more dickering over the price. The Board feel that the matter has hung in abeyance long enough and the sooner it is settled the better for everybody.

OBITUARY

THOS. HANBURY

Word has just been received in this city of the death in Dundalk, of Mr. Thos. Hanbury, who is related in this city, his wife having been a niece of Mrs. R. M. Matchett, her maiden name being Elizabeth Neithercut, a former resident, with her parents, of Otonabee. The Dundalk Herald, referring to his death says:—

Dundalk lost a valuable and one of its highest esteemed citizens on Tuesday morning of this week when Thomas Hanbury crossed the great divide at twenty minutes to five o'clock. Mr. Hanbury was stricken a week ago with erysipelas, but his illness was not regarded as serious until Saturday, when he became delirious, from which time the disease had control, and in spite of all that medical science or tender nursing could do he steadily sank. He was unconscious from Sunday, and almost from that time he was unable to take nourishment.

Deceased had reached his fifty-eighth year, and while not rugged in appearance, yet was of a wiry build and was by no means delicate. He was born near Westport, in Leeds county, his father's first name being William. When five years old the family moved to Markdale, or Cornabus, as the village was then called, and eight years later his father died and he was obliged to shift for himself. His mother subsequently remarried, Stephens being her second name. When the Toronto, Grey and Bruce railway was built, thirty-four years ago, he came to Dundalk, which was then situated at McDowell's corners, and opened a shoe shop, and a year later was united in marriage to Elizabeth Neithercut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neighercut, residents of the vicinity. To them were born eight children, five of whom are living and three dead. Those who died were two boys, who died in their infancy, and Ada, later Mrs. R. J. Wilson, who passed away a few years ago. Those living are Mrs. R. J. Burdette, of Regina, Sask., George, of Miami, Man., and Lynetta, Amy and Harold at home.

Mr. Hanbury was raised in the English church, but during Rev. Dr. Strongman's pastorate, some twenty-one years ago, he united with the Methodist Church, and from that time until his death he was an active member. During almost the entire time of his membership he has been recording-steward, and for many years was superintendent of the Sunday School, also conducting a Bible class. He was also identified with the interests of the village almost since there was a village, serving as Police Trustee before incorporation, and afterwards being Reeve for seven years. For the last four years he has held the position of clerk of the municipality. He was a member of the A.O.U.W. and the Orange Order, and at different times held prominent offices.

Personally he was a man whom it was a pleasure to know. He was one of the few who do not put their own interests first, and greed and meanness in any shape or form was foreign to his nature. He was kindness personified, and was known far and wide for his hospitality. Although up in years he was youthful in spirit, and enjoyed harmless sport as much as anyone. For years he was identified with the curling club, and was a leading spirit in the bowling club, organized last summer. He was also for a number of years president of the Citizens' Band Committee.

Besides his own family he leaves two brothers, John, of Brandon, and William, of Winnipeg, and a half brother and sister, Mr. E. H. Stevens and Mrs. Alex. McDuff, of Dundalk.

Owing to the fact that Mrs. Burdette, George and Lynetta, the latter being on a visit to the former, cannot arrive home from the West until to-day (Thursday) the funeral will not be held until Friday at two o'clock. Service will be held at the church before proceeding to Maple Grove Cemetery.

The bereaved family and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of the community in their affliction. So well was Mr. Hanbury known, and so closely has he been identified with the town's interests for so many years, all regard their loss as a personal one.

FAVOUR FREE BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS

Text Book Commissioners Declare In Their Favor.

MANHOOD REGISTRATION

Premier's Measure to Repeal It, Except In Cities—Mr. Graham Is Personally Opposed to the Proposition, and Thinks the Present Act Should Be Broadened in Scope Instead of Restricted.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—Important recommendations are contained in the report of the Text-Book Commission, laid on the table of the Legislature yesterday afternoon by Hon. Mr. Hanna.

The Commission finds among other things that the text-books used in the Ontario schools are inferior in many respects to those of Great Britain and the United States; they cost too much to the pupils, and too many text-books are authorized. In the concluding portion of their report the Commissioners strongly favor a system of free text-books for the schools.

On this point they say in part: "Every one now favors a system of free education. A free school should include free equipment for the school —maps, globes, etc., etc., are now supplied free. And there seems no valid reason why text-books and other school supplies should not be so provided. Indeed, there are many cogent reasons, which suggest themselves on a moment's reflection, why they should be so supplied. Objections here, as in other quarters, readily disappear before the basic principle that education is maintained in the general interests of the whole province, rather than for the individual or for any particular locality."

Books Behind the Times.

The summing up of the commissioners is as follows:

"It is clear that text-book publishing in Ontario has fallen behind the times. Most of the books produced to-day are no better than those produced 20 years ago, whereas in the United States and in Great Britain great progress has been made. The paper used in the Ontario books is not equal to that used in the United States, and is much inferior to that used in Great Britain. As the demand for this kind of paper increases doubtless some of this inferiority will disappear. Concerning typesetting, some of the work done here is decidedly inferior, while plate-making and press work are more nearly up-to-date. In binding the United States factories have special machinery and produce better work at lower prices. Part of this general inferiority has been due to the absence of any insistent demand from the educational authorities, inspectors or teachers for better work. The Department allowed slovenly work, and apparently the inspectors and teachers either hesitated to criticize or were unfamiliar with conditions elsewhere. We believe that just as good books may be produced in Canada as elsewhere if the authorities insist upon an equally high standard."

Manhood Registration.

Premier Whitney introduced a bill in the Legislature to amend the manhood suffrage registration act. The measure repeals manhood suffrage registration except in cities.

The bill was introduced by the Government last year in order to give notice to the country that it would be amended to the extent stated. The Government takes the ground that it is only in large places where there is a considerable floating population that the present measure, which applies to cities, county towns and a few specified places, is necessary. There are several towns larger than county towns which are cut off by the act as it now stands. As there is a revision of the voters' lists in the counties every year the registration act is not needed there.

Mr. Graham Opposes.

Mr. Graham, leader of the Opposition, is personally opposed to the amendment. He thinks the present act should be broadened instead of restricted. The proposal of the Government will not, he thinks, get rid of a class of voters which it is aimed to deal with; they will get on the lists anyway. The registration act is, in his opinion, cheaper than the old law providing for a revision every year, is more thorough and more convenient because a more universal vote is obtained.

Mr. Thompson (Centre Simcoe) introduced a bill amending the registry act by making mechanics' liens on railway lands come under the general registry act.

ABOMINABLE TRAFFIC.

Justice Clute's Comment In Sentencing Mrs. Miller to Two Years.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Lillian Miller was sent to Kingston Penitentiary to serve a term of two years for supplying the noxious drugs which caused the death of Mrs. Agnes Bridant. She came up yesterday morning before Mr. Justice Clute for sentence. When the jury brought in a verdict of guilty, the prisoner's counsel, Mr. J. M. Godfrey, asked for a reserved case, the judge, however, announced that he would not grant the request.

Mr. Godfrey urged that his client had already spent seven weeks in jail. She never before appeared in any court, and the work she did possessed a legal aspect. By deviating from the straight path she had made herself a criminal.

Mr. Justice Clute said the evidence showed plainly that the prisoner had been supplying noxious drugs to procure abortion. From the letters produced in court it was apparent that she had carried on an abominable traffic in human life. Each of the woman's dealings with Bridant laid herself open to imprisonment for life. The sentence would be two years in Kingston Penitentiary.

WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN.

Taken by Arthur James Who Is Arrested for Theft.

St. Catharines, Feb. 2.—Arthur James, who, with Mrs. Joseph Gray and her two young children left Woodstock on Jan. 21, was yesterday arrested by Chief Parnall on a charge of theft, on information received by wire from Woodstock.

James had been a boarder with the Gray family, and while Gray was away in London in search of work his wife cleared out with James. They first went to Hamilton, but escaped the search of the police and found their way to this city, where the prisoner secured work in a coal yard, where the chief found him yesterday.

The woman and two children came to the police station with him. She claimed she could not help coming away, as she had fallen in love with James. Though she had lived with Gray for five years she stoutly claimed she was not his wife. Both the Grays and James are English and have been in Canada but a short time.

Total Is Now $25,000.

Hamilton, Feb. 2.—The amounts which citizens claim to have been beaten out of by John A. R. B. McIntosh now total up to about $25,000 and there are many more counties to be heard from. The amounts range from $5 up to $2,000. One of the victims was Police Constable Thompson. He got the reputation of being a millionaire. Mrs. McIntosh's home is in Kingston. McIntosh used to be a bookkeeper for J. H. Patterson, Toronto.

Will Charge Manslaughter.

Sault Ste. Marie, Feb. 2.—A charge of manslaughter is to be laid against Capt. Bault of the steamer Golspie, which was wrecked last fall. Crown Attorney Moses McFadden is authority for the statement.

Mate McLeod, who was also censured by the jury, may be the subject of some kind of action also.

Honorably Acquitted.

St. Catharines, Feb. 2.—E. J. Breheny and J. H Brick of Hamilton were yesterday afternoon honorably acquitted on a charge of theft to defraud creditors.

To the Next Assizes.

Uprising Suppressed.

Brussels, Feb. 2.—The officials of the Congo Administration announced yesterday that the uprising in the Manyanza district had been suppressed and that the native chief who instigated it had been apprehended. The latter asserted that the revolt was not against the administration, but against the Swedish missionaries at Kinsoye.

Minister Transferred.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—The German Government, recognizing the fact that some little feeling existed in Brazil against Herr Von Heutler, the German Minister at Rio Janeiro, on account of the Panther incident in November, 1905, has transferred him to Christiania. Herr Von Reichenau, hitherto Minister to Chile, goes to Brazil.

Compulsory Arbitration.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—A memorial passed the Legislature yesterday, memorializing the Ottawa Government to pass a measure of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes, involving the operation of public utilities.

The elections, it is expected, will be rushed on in March.

The Season for Group and Colds

BUT SERIOUS RESULTS CAN BE AVOIDED BY THE TIMELY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

With the return of wintry weather there comes again mother's anxiety for the health of her little ones — wet feet and chilled bodies, and then croup or severe colds. And what is to be done to prevent serious trouble?

Because it is pleasant to the taste, composed of simple ingredients of proven value, and positively free from anything of an injurious nature, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is especially suitable as a treatment for children, and its popularity is due to its wonderful success in the prevention and cure of croup, chest colds and bronchitis.

In the hour of emergency you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, aid expectoration, allay inflammation and bring speedy relief and cure.

This well-known preparation is not a mere cough mixture, but a medicine having thorough and far-reaching action on the whole system, and hence its remarkable success.

Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "There is no remedy, in my opinion, that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face from choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."

Don't take anything said to be "just as good." There is no throat and lung medicine just as good as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Remember this when buying, and insist on having Dr. Chase's; the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle. 25 cents a bottle. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

WORST STORM YET.

Fears Are Expressed as to Safety of Western Settlers.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—The west is again storm swept. Reports from Alberta and Saskatchewan say it is the worst yet, and cattle are perishing by thousands. Cattle seeking shelter from storm actually dropped dead from exhaustion, and starvation in the streets of Medicine Hat yesterday. Many ranchers are completely ruined.

The railways were just beginning to make some headway, but now it is feared they will be tied up completely. On many branch lines they have about given up the fight and the outlook is hopeless. Many towns are almost fuelless and provisions are running low.

It is feared that many isolated homesteaders will perish.

"The last of the commercial coal for Winnipeg, which was stored in our docks at Port Arthur, was shipped out yesterday," said E. A. James, manager of the Canadian Northern Railway.

"With the advent of such a terribly hard winter as we have experienced this year the consumption of coal on our lines has increased by 50 per cent. We are taking all precautions to husband our supply so that towns and settlers on our lines will not suffer for lack of it, and we have decided to cut down the schedule of our passenger trains somewhat and commencing Monday we will run only three trains per week to Edmonton."

The C. P. R. have also decided to cut out one train a day of the transcontinental service.

Ontario Man Asphyxiated.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—Daniel E. Cummings, aged 22, was found dead in bed yesterday morning, asphyxiated, in a boarding-house on Assiniboine avenue. He came from Maxville, Ontario. Faulty connection of stovepipes caused coal gas to escape. Seven other roomers in the place suffered from the effects.

Questions For Conference.

London, Feb. 2.—C. A. P.)—As announced here, the subjects for discussion at the colonial conference are preferential trade within the empire, the formation of an imperial council, additions to colonial naval contribution and plans for co-operation of British colonial troops in the defence of the empire.

TRIAL COMPLETED.

Prosecution In Thaw Case Will Resume Work on Monday.

New York, Feb. 2.—The Thaw trial jury was completed late yesterday. The selection of the twelfth juror came as a surprise at the end of a long and tedious day—the end of the eighth day of the trial—and immediately after he had been sworn, Justice Fitzgerald ordered an adjournment of court until 10.30 o'clock Monday morning.

District Attorney Jerome, who has been contending since Thursday afternoon for the removal of one of the men now in the jury-box, but who has failed to gain the consent of the defendant's counsel to a change, was reluctant when court adjourned yesterday to begin the actual proceeding without a further opportunity to plead with Thaw's attorneys.

At his request, therefore, Justice Fitzgerald ordered all the talismen who have not yet been examined to be in court on Monday morning, ready for jury service should any of them be needed.

Mr. Jerome announced that if there is no change in the situation in the meantime, the state will place all of its direct testimony before the jury at the Monday morning session. The defence was notified to be in readiness to proceed by Monday afternoon.

"We are entirely satisfied with the jury," said Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's leading counsel, last night, and he hinted that he would not consent to any further alterations of the personnel. "The defence will be ready to proceed the minute the prosecution has finished its case."

Thaw seemed to be in the best of spirits as the last juror was sworn. Forty talismen had been examined in vain during the day and everyone in the courtroom, including the defendant himself, was waiting listlessly for the hour of adjournment to arrive when Bernard Gerstman, who said he was a manufacturer's agent, was accepted.

VIEWED THE REMAINS.

Floral Tributes of Respect to the Late Mr. Timothy Eaton.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—From early afternoon until late in the night a constant stream of people passed to view the remains of the late T. Eaton, as he lay in his coffin in the great hall of his last earthly residence. On every side were floral wreaths, columns, emblems and every conceivable appropriate design in which beautiful flowers and rare exotics could be fashioned to manifest the respect or grief of the givers for him who had closed his life and had entered upon an existence not of this world.

As he lay, surrounded by so many tributes of affection with a calm, peaceful expression of repose, he appeared as just fallen asleep.

Telegrams of condolence have been constantly coming in since the first news of Mr. Eaton's death.

To-day a private service for the family will be held at the residence, and following upon this a public service commencing at 3 p.m. at the residence will be held.

REPORTS OF BRITISHERS.

Hamar Greenwood, M. P., and Sir Alfred Jones Declare Governor Swettenham Most Unfairly Criticized—Negroes Worship Swettenham, and Landing of U. S. Marines Was Yankee Bounce.

London, Feb. 2.—(C. A. P.)—Hamar Greenwood, M.P., speaking to the Canadian Associated Press, described the scene after the earthquake at Kingston as resembling "the edge of hell."

Regarding the landing of the American soldiers, Greenwood characterized it as nothing more or less than Yankee's bounce. Swettenham, Greenwood thinks, is being most unfairly criticized. Had it not been for Swettenham the negroes, who were half crazy with fear, might have gone completely so.

Worship Swettenham.

The negroes worship Swettenham and hate the Yankees. A large number of Americans on Christmas Day assembled in one of the large hotels, hoisted the Stars and Stripes, sang God Save America, but declined to sing God Save the King.

Greenwood, describing his feeling on the first shock while on the pier, remarked: "I am a man of fair nerve, but when I saw the pier collapsing and the hotel in front of me tumbling, I just closed my eyes, as I thought the Angel Gabriel had blown his horn."

Sir Alfred Jones, president of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce; John Henniker Heaton, M.P., and other prominent men arrived at Bristol yesterday on board the steamer Port Kingston, from Kingston, Jamaica, by way of Barbados.

A "Monstrous" Statement.

They gave vivid details of the earthquake and protested against the charges widely circulated that Sir Alfred's party inhumanly treated Americans at Kingston. In an interview Sir Alfred said it was a "monstrous" statement, adding:

"The ship was crowded from end to end with dead and dying. In order to provide for those we had to keep all our own passengers ashore at a hotel for two days. Several Americans who were hurt were treated on board the Port Kingston and we provided other Americans, who sought shelter under the shed of our wharf, with mattresses and supplies from the ship and an armed guard to ensure their security. Several Americans came and asked us what they had to pay, but we told them they were welcome to everything we could do."

Swettenham Did Everything Possible.

Sir Alfred said he considered that Governor Swettenham did everything possible under the extraordinary conditions incident to the earthquake and added:

"I do not think the correspondence with Admiral Davis was one the Governor thought would ever be made public by the American admiral, who of course, was anxious to help and did his duty in offering aid, and when it was not wanted went away."

The Swettenham Incident.

London, Feb. 2.—The Cabinet yesterday held its first meeting since the prorogation of Parliament. Premier Campbell-Bannerman presided.

The Ministers besides framing the outlines of the speech from the throne, to be delivered at the re-opening of Parliament Feb. 12, will, it is understood, finally dispose of the incident involving Governor Swettenham of Jamaica.

Eighty Dead.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 2.—Twenty-four mangled bodies have been removed from the Stuart Mine at Oakhill. The total number of explosion victims probably will be between 75 and 80.

Clydesdales In Canada.

London, Feb. 2.—(C. A. P.)—There were 1,049 Clydesdale horses exported to Canada last year, and The Scotsman prognosticates a bright future for the breed in the Dominion.

Killed By Yard Engine.

Brantford, Feb. 2.—Yesterday morning an Italian working in the G.T.R. yards was run over by the yard engine and killed instantly.

WHITCROFT WILL HELP TO DEFEND THE CUP

Has Left Peterborough to Join the Kenora Thistles in Which Team He Will Play Rover

SHOULD EASILY MAKE GOOD IN WEST

Fred. Whitcroft, captain and rover of the Peterborough Senior O.H.A. team left here yesterday on the 5.10 train for Toronto, whence he will go with Tom Phillips, captain of the Stanley Cup holders to Kenora. Whitcroft is slated to rover for the champion Thistles for the balance of the season in the place of Hooper, who is out of the game owing to injuries received recently.

The intelligence of Whitcroft's departure is being received with general regret, but at the same time the best wishes of the hockey enthusiasts will be extended to him. His leaving the city was not a surprise as it was known that Tom Philips for several weeks had been trying to induce him to go to Kenora. He was bound to land Whitcroft and yesterday the latter made up his mind to jump into professional hockey. It is stated that he will receive $700 for his services during the balance of the season with the world's champions.

The fans will wish him the best of luck in his new enterprise. Whitcroft should make good without trouble in the big league. He has the speed, skill endurance, and experience as well as a goodly share of weight, qualities which should make him a valuable aquisition to the champions. It is admitted on all sides that Whitcroft was the fastest rover in the O.H.A. this year. With his splendid skating and stick handling, together with his matchless checking back, he should easily hold his own on the Kenora line and local fans look to him for brilliant things in helping to defend the Stanley Cup.

Whitcroft has been of valuable service to the Peterborough hockey club for years and has figured on three championship Peterborough teams. He came here from Port Perry about seventeen years ago and began playing hockey in 1899 with the famous Colts with which team Harold Armstrong also learned the game. Whitcroft was with the Colts when they won the junior championship in the season of 1901-02 and with the senior club when they gathered in the intermediate O. H. A. honours next year. In 1903 and 1904 Whitcroft was also with the intermediate O.H.A. team. In 1905 he left Peterborough and played the season with the Midland senior O.H.A. team. Last year he was back at rover for Peterborough and was a prominent factor in their winning the championship. He is twenty-four years of age and weighs 160 pounds.

Whitcroft will never be able, to play an O.H.A. game in Peterborough again unless that body decides in favour of professional hockey.

KNIGHT TO PLAY WITH KINGSTON

Will Figure on the Line-up of the Soldiers in Next Game

The 14th Regiment hockey team has played all its home matches. Three trips to Toronto remain. Next Wednesday the Kingston team plays the Marlboros; on the 13th the Argonauts, and on the 18th will meet Midland in a single contest at Toronto, instead of playing home and home games with this far distant club. Should the 14th chance to win all three matches it will take the district championship, because Midland is very likely to defeat Peterborough on its home ice. It lost in Peterborough 2 to 0.

It is expected that Knight will be on the 14th forward line next week, as he is to be home from Cobalt. He will strengthen the line materially, and make possible better combination than at present played.

The local senior team will have to play a better game than on Wednesday night against Peterborough if it is to go on and win the district. Very little system has been noticeable in its play. The wings must play their positions and not encroach upon centre so much. It seems strange that the eastern system is not followed in the way of a line rush on goal, in which the puck is nursed for a while by one player and dropped for another immediately behind to carry it on. It was noticeable in Wednesday's match that there was never a player ready to take Richardson's quick passes from the side. The other forwards were either out of their positions or had not followed up to support an attack. With the forwards playing with more system the 14th can win the district championship. Systematic practice will improve their play wonderfully.—Kingston Whig.

The sporting editor of the Whig should come to life long enough to know that Peterborough defeated Midland by 14-5 and not 2-0 as the Penitentiary City paper has stated twice.

TORONTO SKIPS PLAYED AT THE CURLING RINK

Mr. Jas. Ince Evened Up With His Employee in the Annual Event

The prominent game at the curling rink last night was between skips Jas. Ince, of Toronto, head of the firm of Perkin and Ince, and J. A. Cameron, the local traveller. Employer and employee battled hard to carry off the honours of what has now become an annual event, but both were doomed to disappointment. The game ended a tie—eight all—but some excellent curling was done which left the result always in doubt until the final stone was shot.

Mr. Ince comes to Peterborough once a year to look after the business here and he always arranges his visit to coincide with the curling season.

The following were the games played last night:—

W D Campbell	W Talbot
R Hicks	J E A Fitzgerald
J H Connal	C Rutherford
Jas. Ince, 8.	J A Cameron, 8.
S T Stubbs	W F Johnston

THE ARGONAUTS WILL PLAY HERE MONDAY

Game Should be One of the Best of The Season

The game between the Argonauts and Peterborough which was to have been played on Friday, February 8th, has been changed to Wednesday of next week in order not to conflict with the Zephra which is to be given on Friday night. The contest should be a good one. Peterborough defeated the Argos in Toronto after a hard game by 4-3 and will have to exert themselves to win out in Wednesday's game, which should attract a monster crowd. The locals will be strong as there are several speedy men fighting for the vacant position on the line.

HOCKEY

The standing of the City League as given in the Examiner was slightly in error, the Auburns being given credit for three victories instead of two. The game between the Auburns and Strathconas was ordered to be played over again, not given to the Auburns.

• • • •

While the loss of Whitcroft will undoubtedly weaken the team, yet the club is confident of keeping up the good work which they started this season. They still lead the district and should win out without much trouble. There are several fast men available for the position of rover and the team will be able to turn out their usual brand of hockey. They had a good workout last night and will be in good shape for next week's game with the Argos, which may be played on Wednesday night.

OMEMEE BEAT THE CRESCENTS.

Omemee, Jan. 31.—The Crescents of Lindsay played the Beavers of this place to-night. The game was rather one-sided, as the score indicates, which at full time was 25 to 6 in favour of the Beavers.—Toronto Globe.

The Upstairs Department of Cressman's met the Downstairs Department in a thrilling game of hockey at Brock street rink last night, and the lower floor puck-chasers won out by 5 goals to 2. Tillerson was the star of the contest.

• • • •

In one of the most scientific and terrifically fast games of hockey ever seen in Peterborough "Moon" Fountain's Lockworks seven handed a lemon to "Bunker" Whaley's outfit from the same institution. The score was 4-1 in favour of the first named bunch who played the kind of hockey that wins games and fills the hospitals and cemeteries.

Ambulance calls were frequent. The sporting editor was chased from the rink before the game started so it was impossible to get any line on the teams.

Fountain's team lined up as follows:—

Goal—Fountain.

Rover— " Centre— "
Right wing—Fountain.

Fountain was the star of the team.

MR. H. S. NELSON HAS THRESHING RECORD

In 1905 He Threshed 137 Days and in Four Hours Ran Through 1,000 Bushels of Oats

The threshing record of Slattery Bros., in Otonabee, referred to in the Examiner a short time ago, has apparently been surpassed by Mr. Hilliard S. Nelson, in 1905, when he threshed for 137 days, and in four hours ran through his machine 1000 bushels of oats for Mr. Thomas Grady. Who has a record which beats this?

MAY BE 'PHONE INQUIRY.

Government May Appoint a Royal Commission to Investigate.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—The telephone strike has taken on new color, and it is altogether probable that the Dominion Government will step in sometime to-day and appoint a royal commission to investigate the alleged wrongs submitted by the striking operators and to ventilate the whole Bell telephone system as far as its connection with employers is concerned.

The decision of the company, presented to Deputy Minister of Labor King yesterday, that the company positively refused to submit the matter to an arbitration, and inviting a full investigation, was followed by resolutions passed by the strikers at a mass meeting at the Labor Temple last night asking for a royal commission to enquire into the matters in dispute.

The board of trade council decided yesterday to take no action in the dispute.

There are 450 operators on strike.

NAILS AND NAILING.

They Figure In Speech As Well As In Trade and Building—Burns' "Nail 't Wi' Scripture."

To nail a thing is to fix or fasten with a nail or nails; to drive nails into for the purpose of fastening or securing, such as to nail up a box, to nail a shelf to the wall, to nail down the hatches, etc.; to stud with nails; figuratively, to nail a thing is to pin it down and hold it fast, such as to nail a bargain or secure by prompt action. It was Burns who said:

Ev'n ministers, they ha'e been ken'd,
In holy rapture,
A rousing whid at times to vend
An nail 't wi' Scripture.

Passing into the colloquial, to "nail to the counter" is to put a counterfeit coin out of circulation by fastening it with a nail to the counter of a shop; hence, figuratively, to expose as false.

Other definitions referring to the nail are: Nailer, one who nails, who makes nails or who sells them, while a female nailmaker is referred to by Hugh Miller as a naileress. A nailery is described as an establishment where nails are made. A nail head is the head of a nail, and anything is said to be nail headed when so shaped as to resemble the head of a nail.

A nailing machine is one for forcing or driving nails into place; in carpentry, a feeding tube for the nails, connected with a plunger or reciprocating hammer; in shoemaking, a power machine closely allied to the shoe pegger, used to drive small metallic nails or brads into the soles of shoes.

The nail machine is a power machine for making nails, spikes, brads or tacks.

A nailmaker is one who makes nails; a nailer, a person connected in any capacity in the manufacture of nails.

A nail plate is a plate of metal rolled to the proper thickness for cutting into nails.

A nail rod is a strip split or cut from an iron plate to be made into wrought nails. A nail selector is a machine, or an attachment to a nail machine, for automatically throwing out headless or otherwise ill formed nails and slivers.

A countersunk nail is one having a cone shaped head like that of a screw; a cut nail, one made by a nail machine, as distinguished from a wrought or forged nail.

"On the nail" means on the spot, at once, immediately, without delay or postponement, as, to pay money on the nail. This phrase is said to have originated from the custom of making payments, in the exchange at Bristol, England, and elsewhere, on the top of a pillar called "the nail."

SEVERAL VIEWS ON MARRIAGE QUESTION

More Poetry in Effort to Solve Problem "Who do Men Over 25 Years of Age not Marry?" Letters of Much Interest on This Subject—Many Ladies Present Their Side of the Controversy and get the Better of the Argument

It begins to look as if the discussion on the question of matrimony started through these columns in the endeavour to arrive at a solution of the question, may result in some work for the ministers. To-day a letter is published from a young man who signs himself as "Canada," who is apparently in earnest, and he frankly says that he wants to be married, and that he would be glad to correspond with one who measures up to the standard set forth in his letter—and there are many young ladies in Peterborough who could fill the bill nicely—and he asks the Examiner to be the medium through which this correspondence may reach him.

Since the publication of the last batch of letters a number of others have been received, evidence of the fact that interest in the question has not died out yet. To-day a reporter of this paper was stopped on the street by a married man who contributes letters to the press on weighty matters, and asked if one could be accepted from him on this question, and he was assured that he was just the kind of man whose opinions were sought. It may be that there are others who are in the same position, and for their information it may be said that letters from them will be gladly accepted.

The poetic instinct has not died out yet, as is evidenced by the fact that to-day several original poems are given for publication.

A writer, who signs himself "Fair Play," discusses the situation in a serious manner, and his views are worthy of consideration. He is one of the men who comes in the class concerning which all the discussion has taken place, and, in view of this fact this letter is of more than usual interest.

The poem in the Examiner of last Saturday has inspired another in reply, written in the same metre but the sentiments expressed are totally different from those given utterance to by the Bachelors, who wrote that which appeared then.

In introducing it the writer, who signs herself "Indignant," says:

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I think the girls got a pretty "hard knock out" in last Saturday's Examiner. It strikes me that some of the gentlemen are only writing at random and really don't know what they are talking about. For my part I can't see that men have any room to talk about girls and should hold their hands over their mouths. If the girls can beat them running the streets, staying out late at night, etc., then I will quit. They speak of girls who don't know how to work, That's all bosh. If some wealthy girl appeared on the scene I don't doubt these same young men who did so much kicking about girls not knowing how to work, would mighty quick get after her: if she couldn't as much as make a bed. Why, it's the money the men are after every time. Wrote these few verses in answer last Saturday evening poetry. Hope they are not too long to be published.

Do not tell me after marriage
Life is ever what we dreamed.
In the nursery woman's kept working
And men are not what they seemed.

Men are cowards. Men are foolish,
Do they think the girls insane,
That they'd almost pop the question,
Just to have a change in name.

Smiles are sweet; men shew their kindness
Right up to the wedding day.
Sudden change the man you've wedded
To another glances pay.

In the world's broad field of battle
Do we undertake our life
That we'd give it to a Bachelor
Who only knows the name of "wife".

Treat no Bachelor however pleasant,
Let them keep their "bit of cash"
And the girls will in the future
Let them cook their meat and hash.

Lives of Bachelors all remind us
They've received the final "No"
And can't forgive the girl in question
So gives us all a "knock-out blow".

So let the girls be up and doing,
Surely we can win the race,
And will show the "swelled head creatures"
They've got to keep their proper place.

INDIGNANTA.

WANTS TO CORRESPOND WITH MARRIAGABLE GIRL, DOES "CANADA"

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—The discussion in your paper on why Christian men over twenty-five do not marry has got me going. While I am naturally in favour of my own sex, yet I would like to see a fair deal handed out to the fair sex. It appears to me that we bachelors expect too much in the girl we would marry, expecting in her good qualities when we do not possess corresponding good ones. And yet it is such an important step that too much care cannot be taken in selecting a partner. Better I think a thousand times single blessedness for all parties than unhappy unions. On the other hand, from the ladies' side of the question, their general complaint seems to be the indifference of husbands in the evenings, going out to pool rooms, clubs, etc., leaving their wives at at home alone. Such complaints, I think, are an admission that something is wrong in such a home, If homes were made attractive and comfortable the majority of husbands should prefer them than those other places. How many times is it the case that men frequent those places, not because they enjoy them, but rather to escape from the nagging tongue of his better half.

My own position on this great question is that when I can meet the good, true-hearted girl with tastes similar to my own, her consent will be all that is needed for there to be something doing. Being backward, or shy or some other failing I do not meet many girls and consequently have yet to meet the right one. I am twenty-five, make $15 per week, have a tidy little nest egg, not very fat but enough for a good start, like good amusement and like to share them. If there is any girl who is lonely and willing to try make the tail end of that $15 per week meet the front end of the one the following week, and possesses a fair share of the qualities below will correspond with me, why who knows of the results? She must be:

Under twenty-five years, fairly good looking, refined, a lover of music, of flowers and pictures, of good books, of good drama and athletic sports. A fair cook, not necessary as good as mother is. Thrifty, but not stingy; a lover of her own home; fond of children and affectionate. What she must not be—a nagger, a coquette, a crank on smoking or a knocker.

If, Mr. Editor, you will accept for me any replies to this and any happy results should occur, you will surely receive a comfortable slice of the cake.

Sincerely yours,
CANADA.

"A TIMELY WARNING"

In future tis my one suspicion,
Cupid must withdraw his bow
And get stronger ammunition,
For the hearts that stone-like grow.

Girls, the men that now a-parlest,
Do not want you for yourself,
You must be a kitchen artist,
You must be a parlour elf.

You must wash and dress the baby,
And yourself keep always neat
You will get enough cash,—maybe,
But you must be always sweet.

You must go and do the buying,
You must entertain his guest,
And if baby should be crying,
To the club for Hubby—to get a rest.

Do not have men think to wed them,
In life your only aim,
But, be a cook and fill their stomachs,
That's the secret of the game.

Feed them good and feed them often,
And the cure will be immense,
Affection is the best to soften,
For flavouring use good common sense.

In the world's broad field of battle,
Learn to live the proper life,
List not to the Bachelor's prattle,
But be a man and get a wife.

Lives of Bachelors all remind us,
That they'll old and lonely grow
Unless chloroformed at sixty,
And planted for the worms,—you know.

Girls, walk the straight and narrow pathway,
And you're sure to meet your fate,
There's still a noble fellow waiting,
To take you in thro' Hymen's gate.

Sanitary Inspectorship And Ex-Ald. Crowe's Position

He Writes a Letter in Which He Sets Forth His Claims—The History of the Movement For Milk Inspection

To the Editor of the Examiner:

As my name has appeared as an applicant for the position of Sanitary Inspector, etc. I consider that I can lay some claim to the office more so than any other aspirant as light thrown on what has transpired in the past will prove, also enlighten the public as well as some members of present council who may not know the facts.

In the winter of 1905 I took up milk inspection in Trades and Labour Council and got information from several cities and urged sanitary matters in connection with it. I placed all information in Ald. McIntyre's hands, which he used to good advantage. We kept in touch with the subject in the Trades and Labour Council during the past year.

Last August Ald. McIntyre interviewed me with reference to an inspector. Salary, etc., as he had no one in view. I told him I would consider it providing I could be constantly employed by the city, but would act on no account on any other lines. I gave him a figure as salary for the first year, which is in the neighbourhood of the present named salary by the committee.

I consider it very bad grace on Ald. Ball's part to apply for the position so recently after being elected to serve the people for another year. After he also acted on that committee, which had to do with salary, duties, etc. He would have you infer from the speech which he made when he addressed a public meeting in Trades and Labour hall in his own interest, that he, above all, had no axes to grind. That he was solely animated by the desire to give his services freely for good, honest municipal government, free from graft or clique party or office seekers. It appears to me that the stone which grinds his axe in this case is run on "Ball bearings" of the latest design. I will leave it with the public to judge if Ald. Ball had not this office in view before he sat in this year's council also has done much toward canvassing present council in his behalf. If the position has to be striven after in this manner, I for one will not use such methods to secure it.

This is simply a case of misplaced confidence, as far as his supporters are concerned.

WEDDING BELLS

BOWES—WHITE

A wedding of much interest in Peterborough took place in Elora last week, the groom being a former well known resident of this city. The Elora Express in referring to it, says:

A very bright and fashionable church wedding was solemnized in St. John's Church, Elora, at 1.30 o'clock on Wednesday, Jan. 23rd, by the rector, Rev. Mr. Naftel, in the presence of a large circle of relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, and a large assemblage of interested villagers, when Miss Minnie Louise, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. White, became the bride of Mr. John G. Bowes. The bride entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Tabitha Sheppard, and leaning on the arm of her father.

The bride was gowned in a Princess dress of white silk and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The only ornament she wore was a very beautiful brooch, an heirloom presented by her mother, and bequeathed to her by her grandmother. The bridesmaid, Miss Nettie White, sister of the bride, wore crepe de chine over pink silk, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Robert E. C. Waddell, of Toronto, formerly of Elora. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. (Dr.) Robertson sang most exquisitely "O Fair, O Sweet and Holy."

The ushers were Messrs. Donald McLeay, jr., and Stanley Boshm, of Elora; Wm. Allison, of Galt; R. Gillespie, of Peterborough.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and guests proceeded to the residence of the bride's parents, "Maple Lawn," where a dainty wedding dejeuner was served. The usual toasts were tendered by the best man, and heartily honoured and suitable responses made.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome ermine coat; to the bridesmaid a whole pearl ring; to the ushers handsome pearl stickpins.

The happy couple left on the evening train for a trip to Toronto, Montreal and the Maritime Provinces, and on their return will reside in Galt for the winter. The bride is one of the most popular, as well as one of the fairest, of Elora's daughters, and the groom is one of the best known and best liked sons of another estimable Elora family. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended them for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

The presents received were many and beautiful, and congratulations received from friends all over Canada.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environments of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating at its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure dandruff and baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble — it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ and healthy hair is the sure result.

A GLORIOUS SALE OF WHITE LINGERIE UNDERWEAR

Our White Underwear did not need the excuse of a "Sale" to sell them—they would sell readily at the usual prices to a descriminating public; but we wanted more than a business that sold "Readily," we wanted business that sold "Remarkably," and that accounts for the drops in prices. The garments are just as fine as ever, but they have parted with part of their price so that we might have a "Bargain Holiday."

We couldn't begin to describe all the values—but FAIR'S WHITEWEAR SALES are so well known that the people flock to this store the moment they know the Sale is on.

This cut conveys a faint idea of the daintiness of our Whitewear. The values can only be appreciated by a personal visit to this department.

AN OTONABEE YOUTH TOOK POISON BY MISTAKE

Swallowed Salt Petre, Thinking He Was Taking Magnesium Sulphate

MEDICAL AID ARRIVED AT RIGHT TIME

George McGregor, an Otonabee youth, took poison by mistake the other day, and narrowly escaped death. He had not been feeling well and asked for some medicine from one of the other members of the family.

A dose of saltpetre was mixed for him, instead of magnesium sulphate, and the effect was immediately shown by the rapid change in the colour of his face.

A doctor was quickly summoned, and in about three quarters of an hour after the young man had taken the potassium nitrate a medical man had arrived. The poison was pumped from his stomach, and in less than an hour young McGregor was out of danger. Had the family lived much farther from the city, there would have been little chance of his recovery.

To be poisoned, seems to be the fate of the young man. Not long ago while sowing wheat in the west, which contained a sprinkling of bluestone, he swallowed some of the poison, but was assisted in time to prevent death.

He is now recovering from the effects of the drug, and is already out of danger.

GENERAL BUSINESS OF THE T.A.S.

Annual Entertainment Discussed—Debating Club Formed for the Young Men

At the regular meeting of the St. Peter's T.A.S. yesterday afternoon two society pins were presented to the two members who obtained the largest number of new members during the past six months. Mr. Jas. Grisdale was awarded one pin for securing the largest number and his brother, Mr. John Grisdale got second prize for having the second largest. The latter had already received one and thus donated the new one, to be tried for during the next half year.

Forty-fives

The T.A.S. and St. Martin's T.A.S. of Ennismore will meet in the local society's hall in a friendly game of forty-fives on Tuesday evening of this week.

Debating Club

At the expressed desire of His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor, a debating club has been formed in connection with the T.A.S. All the members who are interested in debating and thereby in self-culture, are requested to take an active part in the society's efforts. Contrary to the proceedings of other years the debates will be held only among the members, the general public not being admitted. The meetings will be held every second and fourth Monday of the month. The first will take place on Feb. 11th, at 8 o'clock. The meetings will be made as interesting as possible and it behooves the members to take this opportunity of becoming efficient in public speaking.

17th of March Concert

The annual entertainment given by the society on the 17th of March will this year consist of a concert. Difficulties arose to prevent the preparation of the play but an excellent concert is promised. A committee has been formed to settle the date on which the affair will be held as the 17th falls on Sunday.

SAY THAT SCHOOL IS NOT WELL HEATED

Barnardo Avenue Pupils Had to be Sent Home This Morning

The parents of the pupils at the Barnardo avenue school and the pupils themselves are complaining that the building is not properly heated. This morning the rooms were so cold that it was found necessary to send the smaller pupils of the school homes. It is stated that the thermometer in one of the rooms occupied by the younger scholars registered 43 degrees of heat this morning.

WEDDING BELLS

CLEARY—CORCORAN

This morning at 7 o'clock a wedding took place at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Miss Mary Theresa Corcoran, daughter of Mr. Bryan Corcoran, Elm street, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh Joseph Cleary, of Charlton, New Ontario. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Galvin. The bride was attended as bridesmaid by Miss Stella Ball, while Mr. J. P. Hart supported the groom.

After the wedding breakfast, served at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Cleary left for their new home in Charlton, where they will reside.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

QUEEN ZEPHRA

"Queen Zephra," the peer of all spectacular productions, will be presented at the Grand Opera House on February 8, 9, 11 and 12, with a matinee on Saturday. The story of Zephra is adapted from one of Hans Christian Anderson fairy tales, full of strong climaxes, and with an opportunity for a lavish display of costume and scenic effects. Two hundred people will be seen in the cast, chorus and dance ensemble, and no expense will be spared to make this attraction the event of the season. The advance sale of seats will be opened at the box office on Tuesday, February 15, at 9 a.m., when seats for all five performances will go on sale.

The BILL BAILEY JUBILEE COMPANY have cancelled their Canadian tour and consequently will not appear in the Grand Opera House to-morrow night as announced.

MUSIC FOR SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S TO-MORROW

At St. John's church yesterday, Woodward's Communion Service in E flat was well sung at the 11 o'clock service by a large choir.

The offertory selection on the organ was a voluntary grounded on Hymn 160 "Holy, Holy, Holy."

The offertory anthem "Conquering Kings" by Marsden was sung at evening, the solo part being well rendered by Mrs. R. J. Davey and Mrs. Jos. Halpany.

HOW TO TELL THE PRICE

Values Fixed by the Only Man Who Really Knows the Worth

One can always tell the price of a Semi-ready suit of clothes without asking salesmen or clerks.

The price is fixed by the makers, for they alone know the worth of the cloth and the worthiness of the work which goes into the garment.

Printed plainly on the silk trade-mark label one finds both the price and the guarantee of the Semi-ready Company on every genuine Semi-Semi-ready tailored garment.

Should a customer ever get a suit of clothes without this label the garment is not and cannot possibly be a real "Semi-ready."

Cressman's have all the new Semi-ready styles and the exclusive agency for Peterborough and district.

GIGANTIC SALE IS NOW AT FULL BLAST

The gigantic sale now being held at the B. Y. Moyes Store, 408 George street, is drawing enormous crowds and they are all shoppers. They buy because the prices are right. Patrick T. Murphy, the noted bargain giver, has charge of the sale and his orders are to turn the entire $17,000 stock into cash, regardless of cost or value, so he at once began to cut and slash at the prices until he has them at where the shoppers have simply got to buy. This sale is for ten days only, so come with the crowds and get in on some of these bargains that Murphy is offering. Remember the place. B. Y. Moyes, 408 George street.

MINISTERS APPROVE OF NEW TRUANT OFFICER

Believe Mr. Cochrane to be an Efficient Man for That Office

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTIONS ASKED FOR

The Ministerial Association met in the Y.M.C.A. parlours this morning with the following members present: Revs. Canon Davidson, J. G. Lewis, Dr. Torrance, A. H. Brace, Dr. Crothers, J. R. Webb, H. M. Manning and L. McKinnon.

In the report on the week of prayer, it was shown that all the meetings were impressive and profitable. It was noted however that the attendance was not as large as might have been expected, especially for union meetings.

On motion of Revs. Dr. Crothers and H. M. Manning, it was resolved that as an association the hearty approval of the action of the Police Commissioners appointing Mr. Geo. Cochrane as truant officer in our city be expressed, believing that it will have a generally healthy influence in and beyond the city. They believe farther that the pulpit and press can greatly encourage and help Mr. Cochrane in his new and important work.

Revs. Canon Davidson, J. G. Lewis, Dr. Torrance and L. McKinnon were appointed a committee to memorialize the Board of Education re the re-introduction of religious instruction in the city schools.

A conference on prayer, its methods and principles, was participated in by all and proved most profitable. Some of the leading thoughts expressed were: Liturgical and extempore prayer are not conflicting but complementary. Communion is an important factor in all true prayer. Reverence and humility are bassi and essential to all true approach to God. The danger was noted of reliance on the form when used and the neglect of preparation for extempore prayer.

Rev. Mr. Webb was given a cordial and unanimous welcome as a member of the Association.

The visitors to the Hospital and Home visitation for the month are Revs. J. G. Lewis, Dr. Crothers, J. R. Webb, L. McKinnon in the successive weeks in the order as the names occur.

On account of the enforced absence of Rev. J. G. Potter, no definite report was given of the municipal service, but satisfaction was generally expressed at the way in which it was carried out and the appreciation evoked.

YOUNG MEN'S SAFETY SUBJECT OF SERMON

Rev. Dr. Marsh Preached to Young Men in Springville Presbyterian Church Last Night

"What the fathers are doing for the safety of the young man," was the subject of a special sermon to young men preached at the Springville Presbyterian Church last night by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Marsh, and was the first in a series which will be preached in this church, the succeeding subjects to be "What the mothers are doing for the safety of the young man" and "What the young man is doing for his own safety."

There was a large attendance last night, and a feature was the presence of thirty young men on the platform leading in the musical services. John Marsh, a son of the pastor, a boy 13 years old presided at the organ.

Gained 25 Pounds

"I was very much run down in health, could not sleep, was very nervous and so weak that I could hardly get around. Some months ago I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and to-day I am pleased to say that I am completely restored to health. I have gained 25 pound in weight, sleep well and feel strong and healthy." — Miss Annie Evans, 39 Gottingen street, Halifax street, N.S.

A GOOD PROGRAMME AT AT THE POP

But the Attendance at Y. M. C. A. Was Not as Large as Excellence of the Entertainment Deserved

The attendance at the first Pop at the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night did not justify the committee in the expense of bringing to the city so excellent a lecturer as Mr. Frank Yeigh, who is so widely known in connection with his picture travel talks. The small attendance was in some measure no doubt due to the bad weather and the old time Pop audiences will be present next Saturday evening. The Mayor presided and introduced the lecturer.

The lecturer made a splendid impression and eloquently described the pictures showing different views of Canadian scenery and life from the Atlantic to the Pacific. His views were well selected and real works of art.

Mr. E. C. Srigley operated the lantern with great success.

IT WORKS WELL

The Fielding tariff is an accepted fact. The Conservative Opposition has quite failed to make a case against the tariff arrangement, as proposed by Mr. Fielding. And for very good reason. The Conservative Opposition have not been able to agree among themselves as to what kind of tariff they wanted. It is therefore unreasonable to expect Mr. Fielding to arrange a tariff which would be adjustable to the conflicting views of the Opposition. The Liberal tariff seems to have worked pretty well. The country has prospered greatly under it. Mr. Fielding was right in saying that "there never was a time when the condition of the working classes in Canada was better" than it is now, and has been for years, and that condition is due to the conditions that have promoted the great expansion of the country's revenues. There is work for every man who is willing to work. When the wealth makers are busy, all the other classes are prosperous.

Desperate Toronto Youth.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 4.—"I am starving and desperate and must have some money, or I will kill you," declared a wild looking youth as he confronted Mrs. Charles A. Painter, wife of the millionaire iron manufacturer, in her home yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Painter argued the revolver from her would-be assassin, and had him delivered to the police. At the police station the man described himself as Ernest Davis, 18 years old, of Toronto, Canada. He said he was driven to the deed by fear of death from starvation.

Swede's Pathetic Death.

Kenora, Feb. 4.—P. H. Hanson, 30 years of age, was killed near Ingolf in a rather strange manner. A large piece of rock was blasted. Hanson was about 100 yards distant, but was struck on the head by a piece of drill from the explosion. He was only a short time out from Sweden. Mrs. Hanson had only joined her husband at the camp a couple of weeks ago, having been in the hospital here when her baby was born.

Child Murder At Hamilton.

Hamilton, Feb. 4.—At noon Saturday the lifeless body of an infant was found wrapped in an old coat at the corner of Main and Hess streets. The police were notified and they had it removed to the morgue. Foul play is suspected.

HER 100TH BIRTHDAY

MRS. E. P. OSLER CELEBRATES HER CENTENARY IN TORONTO.

A Gathering of Six Sons and Daughters and Many Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren at Her Home —Some of the Unique Features of a Most Unique Celebration—Portrait of the Mrs. Osler of To-Day.

Mrs. Ellen P. Osler, widow of the late Rev. Featherston Osler, on the 14th Dec., 1906, at her home, 58 Wellesley street, Toronto, celebrated the centenary of her birthday. It is given to few people to live one hundred years, and to still fewer to see the completion of a century with unimpaired faculties and a fair degree of health and strength.

Mrs. Osler has lived in the reign of five Sovereigns, and the chief feature of the decorations of the day was a handsome five-storey birthday cake emblematic of the reigns of George III., George IV., William IV., Victoria, and Edward VII. The cake was surrounded by one hundred brightly-burning wax candles, significant of the number of years Mrs. Osler has lived to be a blessing to others.

MRS. OSLER IN HER 100TH YEAR.

The celebration naturally took the form of a home-gathering of children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, grand-nephews and grand-nieces. About sixty-five people were privileged to be present at this historical reunion, and they represented widely-distant parts of Canada, England and the United States.

There are six children living, three of whom have a conspicuous place among eminent Canadians—Mr. Justice Featherston Osler of the Court of Appeal for Ontario, Toronto; Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., Toronto, and Dr. William Osler, regius professor of medicine in the University of Oxford, England. The other surviving children are: Mr. E. L. P. Osler, barrister, residing in the Northwest; Mr. Francis L., of Summerland, B.C., and Mrs. Gwyn, wife of Lieut.-Col. Gwyn of Dundas. A noted son was the late Mr. B. B. Osler, a leader at the Bar in Canada. The late Mrs. Williamson, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of England, diocese of Toronto, was a daughter of Mrs. Osler.

The birthday cake was in five layers, adorned with five score red and white candles, red icing traceries on the white ground, and bearing symbols of some of the chief inventions of the century. On the top story of the cake is: "E. P. Osler, Dec. 14, 1806, George III., Rex." Each of the other layers respectively bears the dates of the accession of the other four Sovereigns in whose reign Mrs. Osler has lived: "1830, George IV., Rex."; "1830, William IV., Rex."; "1837, Victoria, Regina"; 1901, Edward VII., Rex." The progress of the race in the eras in question is typified by designs of an old-fashioned coach in the first reign, and thereafter by developments from crude conditions to the era of the gasoline launch, the modern man-of-war, the bicycle and automobile.

Dainty and valuable souvenirs of the happy occasion were given by Mrs. Osler to each of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. These are centennial silver spoons in three sizes, with a design by Mrs. Gwyn of Dundas of the Cornish Cross on the handle of each, and engraved with the Cornish county motto: "One and All," also with the ancient Cornish motto: "In God is My Trust." On the handle was lettered the date of Mrs. Osler's birth, Dec. 14, 1806, and 1906. The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were delighted with the tokens. The memento Mrs. Osler gave her nephews, nieces, grand and great-grand nieces and nephews, and a few old friends was a small Colport plate, a modern reproduction of the celebrated Salopian-Colport, Indian Tree pattern, with her monogram and the dates in gold. Ninety-six of these plates were given by her. In their congratulations to Mrs. Osler they made it clear that they were not only proud that she had lived so long, but that she had lived so well.

One of the first acts of the honored centenarian in connection with the celebration of her one hundred birthday was the taking of communion at the hands of Rev. John Pearson, D.C.L., rector of Holy Trinity Church, an old friend of Mrs. Osler and her late husband. Congratulations from many points were received.

Mrs. Osler was born in Cornwall, England, in the reign of George III. In 1837, the year of Queen Victoria's accession to the throne, she came to Canada with her husband, Rev. Featherston L. Osler, to whom she had been married but a short time. They were accompanied by a brother of Rev. Mr. Osler, Rev. Henry Osler, the well-known York Mills clergyman, whose death occurred several years ago. They settled at Bond Head, Ont., where they experienced the privations and trials peculiar to pioneer life. A loghouse was their home. Mrs. Osler was possessed of the true missionary spirit, and she was a devoted helpmate to her husband in his mission work. In caring for dispossessed Indians, ministering to the welfare of incoming white settlers, giving comfort and help to missionaries and their families, and in self-denying work of various kinds Mrs. Osler worked side by side with Rev. Mr. Osler. One of her experiences in those early days was the making of bread in scooped-out gourds, as bowls were scarce. In 1857 Rev. Mr. Osler and his wife removed from Bond Head to the Dundas and Ancaster pariah, where they remained for 19 years. Then Mr. Osler retired from the active ministry, and he and his wife came to Toronto to reside. Mr. Osler died in 1895.

Mrs. Osler is in possession of her faculties to a remarkable extent, and last August some of the visiting members of the British Medical Association who met her expressed surprise at her gift of repartee. She has been an active member of the Woman's Auxiliary, in which she is still deeply interested. While she remains indoors practically all the time, this is due more to the habit acquired during her husband's illness than to lack of strength. She is able to move from room to room at her home, and she continues to be interested not only in her numerous descendants, but in other matters as well.

AMBASSADOR DURAND.

Noted British Diplomat Who Will Soon Leave Washington—Man of Unusual Ability.

The discussion regarding the forthcoming retirement of the British Ambassador to the United States, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, has directed attention to the unusual ability and versatility of the present representative of King Edward at Washington. The British Ambassador at Washington has one of the most difficult positions in the diplomatic service of any nation. In the first place, he is expected to keep up good relations between Great Britain and the United States. In the next place, he is supposed to be on the watch for any infringement upon the rights and privileges of the British possessions in North America and the West Indies by the people or Government of the republic to which he is credited. Sometimes these duties are somewhat conflicting. Sometimes, indeed, the colonies in the new world put forth claims upon the Government of the United States which the Imperial Government in England does not feel disposed to indorse. The British Ambassador often finds his way beset with thorny problems on this account.

Sir Henry was born in India in 1850, comes of a fighting family and has been a fighter himself. His grandfather fought under Wellington and won laurels at Waterloo, and his father spent forty years in the midst of wars and perils in India. The Ambassador devoted many of the earlier years of his manhood to the interests of the empire in India. In 1893 he was sent on a special mission to the Ameer of Afghanistan and succeeded in negotiating an important treaty with him. In recognition of this service he was made minister to Persia and in 1900 was promoted to the Embassy at Madrid. His appointment as the British Ambassador at Washington was made three years ago. It is said that he once came near killing the Russian general, Kuropatkin. Sir Henry is fond of the cavalry sport known as tent pegging, where the rider tries to transfix a tent peg with his lance. He was testing his skill in Persia, where Kuropatkin had been sent as envoy to the Shah, when the Russian general came suddenly in line with the flying lance and narrowly escaped being transfixed.

A Remedy.

"For some time past I've been buying a dozen eggs every week at this store, and I invariably find two bad ones in every dozen. Something's got to be done about it," said an irate housekeeper.

"Well," said the new clerk naively and with a quiet smile, "mebbe if you only bought half a dozen you'd only get one bad one."—Grocer's Literary Gazette.

It Lasts.

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

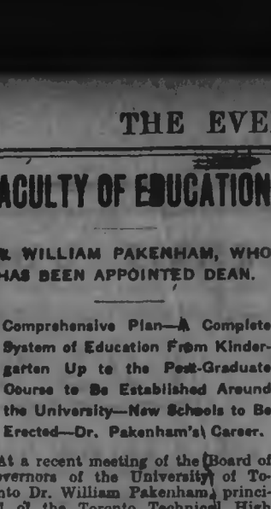
DR. WILLIAM PAKENHAM, WHO HAS BEEN APPOINTED DEAN.

A Comprehensive Plan—A Complete System of Education From Kindergarten Up to the Post-Graduate Course to Be Established Around the University—New Schools to Be Erected—Dr. Pakenham's Career.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Governors of the University of Toronto Dr. William Pakenham, principal of the Toronto Technical High School, was appointed dean of the new faculty of education and professor of the chair in the science and history of education. That marks the first step in the practical carrying out of the Government's plans for transferring to the direct control of the university the work of the present Normal College at Hamilton.

Dr. Pakenham will assume the duties of his new office as soon as a successor can be found to take his place at the Toronto Technical High School. He will proceed at once with the selection and organization of a faculty, will arrange for the course of lectures, for practical work by the students in the high and public schools of the city, pending the erection of a model high school and a model public school in connection with the university, and will endeavor to have everything in readiness for beginning the work of instruction on October 1st next.

The University Board of Governors will take up in the near future the question of erecting near the university a new high school and a new public school, which, besides relieving the city Board of Education of the problem of providing additional school



DR. WM. PAKENHAM,
Dean of the Faculty of Education.

accommodation for the Queen's Park district, will serve the double purpose of affording facilities for students enrolled in the faculty of education for practical as well as for the theoretical training, and will also establish around the university a complete and model system of education from the kindergarten up to the post-graduate university course

As dean of the new faculty Dr. Pakenham will be in charge of the professional training of the high school teachers and of the public school teachers of the province holding first-class certificates. He is eminently well qualified for so responsible a position. From the standpoint of practical experience he has had a most comprehensive and thorough training. He has taught either as assistant or principal in rural and urban public schools, in high schools, and collegiate institutes, and for the past four years he has been at the head of the Toronto Technical High School. He has taught at one time or another all the public school and high school subjects except shorthand and Greek. He has graduated from Ontario model and normal schools and from the Normal College. He is a graduate in arts of the University of Toronto, and holds the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy from his alma mater. From 1896 until 1902 he was chairman of the Provincial Boards of Examiners and Registrar of the Educational Council. In this connection his duties involved the preparation and revision of all departmental examination papers—from high school entrance to senior leaving on the nonprofessional side and from the kindergarten to the Normal College on the professional side. At various times he has been a university and departmental examiner in English, history, science of education, psychology, etc. He was a member of the Educational Council of the Province, 1904-5, and is now a member of the Advisory Council as a representative of the high school teachers.

As an organizer and administrator he has made a striking success of every school of which he had charge. He has taught in public schools in Peterboro' County, and in high schools at Port Dover, Smith's Falls, Brockville and St. Thomas. Since his appointment in 1903 as principal of the Technical High School the staff has almost trebled, the day attendance has grown from 75 to 550 and the annual expenditure from $160,000 to $350,000.

Dr. Pakenham was born at Glen Millar, Ont., in 1866, and received his early education at Peterboro'. He was a member of the class of '92, Toronto University.

The new faculty will probably include four instructors in the history and science of education. These will be required to devote all their time to the work of teaching. In addition there will be about ten assistants who will give instruction to students in the special subjects of the school curricula.

The Season for Group and Colds

BUT SERIOUS RESULTS CAN BE AVOIDED BY THE TIMELY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

With the return of wintry weather there comes again mother's anxiety for the health of her little ones—wet feet and chilled bodies, and then croup or severe colds. And what is to be done to prevent serious trouble?

Because it is pleasant to the taste, composed of simple ingredients of proven value, and positively free from anything of an injurious nature, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is especially suitable as a treatment for children, and its popularity is due to its wonderful success in the prevention and cure of croup, chest colds and bronchitis.

In the hour of emergency you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, aid expectoration, allay inflammation and bring speedy relief and cure.

This well-known preparation is not a mere cough mixture, but a medicine having thorough and far-reaching action on the whole system, and hence its remarkable success.

Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "There is no remedy, in my opinion, that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face from choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."

Don't take anything said to be "just as good." There is no throat and lung medicine just as good as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Remember this when buying, and insist on having Dr. Chase's; the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle. 25 cents a bottle. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

IN FERTILE ANTICOSTI.

Island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence Being Transformed Into Homes of Peace and Plenty.

Nestling in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, off the east coast of Quebec, of which province it is a part; lies the fertile island of Anticosti. The island is interesting because so little is generally known of it; and because so many wrong impressions have gone abroad with reference to it.

When, in December, 1895, H. Menier, the French chocolate king, purchased the island, many wild rumors were set afloat with regard to the alleged purposes for which it had been acquired, says a writer in the Montreal Standard. The most sensational of these was that a Canadian Monte Carlo was to be established there, and that the new proprietor of the elongated piece of territory would have undisputed sway over it, politically and otherwise, even greater than that enjoyed by Prince Monaco over his world-famed domain. The keen imagination of many American writers was responsible for much circumstantial detail that was published in the United States, and, as stories lose nothing by repeating, some very extravagant flights of fancy were indulged in. But what has happened since that time, and what is still happening, is in keeping with the onward march of industrial progress which the whole of Canada is making.

Until a comparatively few years ago what was known of Anticosti from the days of Champlain may be said to have been traditional rather than historical, for the very few references to it in the old records and manuscripts are practically valueless to the historian.

Prior to the first treaty of Paris the St. Lawrence and all its islands had been taken over by the victorious English. But, owing to many complaints being made of depredations and outrages being committed by the New Englanders on the Island of Anticosti, the Magdalen Islands and on the Labrador coast, it became necessary to do something for the protection of the inhabitants.

Headquarters of Squadron.

Newfoundland being a naval command, and headquarters of the North American squadron, was selected as the most convenient government to control the territory referred to and consequently Anticosti, the Magdalen Islands, and the Labrador coast were, on February 10, 1763, annexed to Newfoundland. Sir Hugh Palliser was governor of Newfoundland at the time, and did his best under the existing circumstances, but Anticosti had no harbor, was almost wholly uninhabited, and very little visited.

Later, complaints came from the American, Nova Scotian and Canadian colonists against the strict fishing regulations of Sir Hugh Palliser, and so, by the Quebec Act of 1774 Anticosti was returned to Canada.

Traders and Eskimos continued to visit Anticosti on account of the valuable salmon fisheries, but still the island was practically without inhabitants. Then, during a hundred years, portions of the island were acquired by private individuals until it had practically all been absorbed. In 1863 there were a good many heirs, and in order to secure their individual shares they had the island sold by the sheriff.

Formed Joint Stock Company.

It was purchased by a Mr. Stockwell, who formed a joint stock company, which was called "The Governor and Company of the Island of Anticosti." This, however, did not help matters so far as the development of the island was concerned. Up to this time no attempt was made to develop it, and although the new company predicted many improvements it accomplished practically nothing, and in 1868 the company went into liquidation.

The liquidator, a Mr. Kendrick, sent out a representative from year to year to farm out such fishing rights as went with the ownership of the island, but this brought in but scant revenue. In 1895 a Mr. Deapecher obtained an option on the island, offered it for sale to Mr. Menier, and in December of that year, upon the favorable report of Mr. Duiardin-Beaumetz, an expert, the deed was passed. Mr. Menier took possession the following spring.

Is Being Transformed.

Gradually the Island of Anticosti, for ages standing out of the waters of the Gulf in its primeval state of wild and rugged grandeur, is now being transformed into a land of homes and plenty. Thousands of acres of land have been cleared, and the soil is proved of excellent quality; roads and houses have been built and sawmills and lobster and salmon canning factories are in full operation. Canadian history proper is repeating itself on the gulf island.

A breakwater nearly a mile long has been constructed, and lighthouses, of value alike to island and general navigation, have gone up at Ellis Bay. Twenty miles from Fox Bay is the valuable water power of Vanreal. Here it is proposed to establish a pulp mill, for the island is thickly wooded with pulp wood as well as with large spruce. There are more than a million and a half acres of this valuable timber land.

The Island's Capital.

Ellis Bay is what may be termed the island's capital. It is here that a very handsome villa has been erected for Mr. Menier, and along the road which runs from this port to English Bay the lands have been cleared, farms established, and the husbandman is contributing his labor towards the general prosperity. Fifteen families from the Old Country took up farms during the summer just past, and others will follow as soon as the land is cleared.

The winter population of the island is about 500, but hundreds come from the mainland each summer to take up the work in the various lines of industry, and the number is ever increasing. The cod, lobster and salmon catches during the year are said to have been very good.

And so the development of the great Dominion goes on, and island, hill and prairie land are all contributing alike to our too-long delayed prosperity.

A Close Shave.

Mr. Raymond Blathwayt, in his lecture on "People I have Met," tells how, during his recent provincial tour, Mr. Beerbohm Tree was entertained at a big public luncheon by the Lord Mayor of Manchester, and sat next to Bishop Welldon, the new dean. Said Dr. Welldon, "Well, Mr. Tree, what have you been doing today?" "Oh," replied the famous actor-manager, "I went for a long motor ride this morning and I lost a bet." "Indeed," answered the dean, "May I ask what the bet was?" "Certainly," said Mr. Tree. "I made a bet that we would pass through four hundred different odors, and we only encountered three hundred and ninety-nine." "Ah!" swiftly replied the witty dean, "you missed the odor of sanctity!"

Edinburgh's Empty Houses.

Some rather remarkable figures have been published concerning the number of empty houses in Edinburgh. The burgh assessor's books show that in May last, there were 4,179 tenantless houses—a record for that city. Nearly four-fifths are houses under £20 rent, and, therefore, for the most part, working class houses. The total valuation of unoccupied houses is £121,251, against a total valuation for the city of £3,191,803. On all hands it is agreed that the chief causes of the large amount of property standing empty are overbuilding and want of employment.

A Little Reach Into Space.

There are very few stars whose distance is even approximately known to astronomers. Moreover, the different estimates of the distances of these few vary by large amounts. The nearest known star is Alpha, in the constellation Centaur, not visible from the northern lands of the earth, and one of the next nearest is the little star in the northern constellation Cygnus, called "Sixty-one Cygni." The latest determination of this star makes its distance 53,000,000,000,000 miles. This is about 18,000,000,000,000 miles less than the distance derived from Professor Hall's measurement of some fifteen years ago.

According to the determination of Professor Harcourt, of the Guelph Agricultural College, Orange Meat is fifty per cent. more valuable as a food than bread.

Orange Meat taken with milk every morning and evening is the most perfect food that the human subject can secure.

Why not use the Cereal that gives the best value to the consumer by every known test?

YORK LOAN VICTIMS AFTER INFORMATION

Would Like to Know Something of the Progress of the Case Against President Phillips

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir, — Now that justice has been satisfied in the Ontario Bank case, I, undoubtedly with thousands more, would like to know what has been done, or is being done, in the case of the York Loan. The Ontario Bank case affected those mostly in a position (or I imagine they were) to afford a loss but the York Loan case is affecting thousands of poor people who put their hard-earned cash into it, with the idea of providing for a rainy day. It is now some six months since anything was heard of it. Is Mr. Phillips, the manager of the defunct institution, out on bail, or is the case, as far as he is concerned, finished? I for one, would like to know what has been done. Is the Government prosecuting him, or not, and what chance is there of the shareholders ever getting anything? Possibly you, or some of your subscribers, can enlighten me?

I am, sir, yours,
A VICTIM.

Mr. Dawson Sang

AN INTERESTING feature of the musical service in St. Paul's church, yesterday, was the presence of Mr. James Dawson, who sang solos in both anthems given by the choir yesterday. In the morning the anthem was "Hark, Hark, My Soul," solos being sung by Miss Davies and Mr. Dawson, while at the evening service, "Spirit Immortal," was the anthem, and again Mr. Dawson took a solo.

Three Months of the New Scientific Treatment Restored His Hair

Baldness is caused by dandruff, which is caused by a germ, and it is almost certain that hair will grow again if the follicle has not been destroyed. Nels Peterson of Lime Spur, Mont., says: "I had been bald six years and had tried all kinds of cures but without any benefit whatever, until I tried Herpicide, Nov. 16, 1899. I began using Herpicide and in three months a fine growth of hair covered my head completely." Ask your druggist for Herpicide. Anyone can have luxuriant, glossy hair if Herpicide is used thoroughly. CLIMAX OF THE WHOLE WINTER

Blizzard Just Over in the West the Worst in 25 Years.

TRAINS KILL DRIFT CATTLE

Fuel Running Very Low Owing to the Tie-Up of the Railways For Days—Hardly a Wheel Turned in Three Provinces Since Friday Night—Two-Engine Train Stalled at Regina — Report 18 Frozen.

Winnipeg, Feb. 4.—The great storm which has swept over the west has completely tied up railroads, and scarcely a wheel has turned in the three provinces since Friday night.

The blizzard was the climax of the worst winter the west has seen for 25 years, and the railroads are almost hopelessly tied up.

Branch line after branch line is completely snowed up, while, to add to the trials of the situation, fuel and provisions in many towns are running low.

The most serious aspect of the whole situation is the shortage of coal. Owing to terrible storms, the railways have been unable to bring forward enough coal from the head of the lakes to keep up with the consumption, until, at the present time, the stocks are practically exhausted.

Reports from Brandon state that fuel there is running very low.

At Medicine Hat, Alta., the fierce storms and heavy snow have resulted in famished stock drifting in large numbers on to the railway tracks of the range section. Every passing train kills large numbers, and the slaughter has become so heavy on the Crow's Nest Pass, from Dunmore Junction to Lethbridge, that the C.P.R. has employed a large number of Indians to drive the cattle from the right of way.

The Indian scouts are patrolling the lines for miles through the Grassy Lake section, holding the half-crazed cattle by every device known to experienced cowboys.

The stock "drift" with the wind and snow until they strike a "cut" or the side of a heavy "fill" on the line, where they are protected from the fury of the storm. Here they remain in ever-increasing numbers until passing trains scatter them.

Under the Railway Act, the transportation companies are practically responsible for all cattle killed on the right of way, regardless of the existence of cattleguards and fences.

At Regina the last train from the north came in Friday morning, pulled by two good engines, but has been held there since, as it is impossible for it to return until the road is dug out.

The Canadian Pacific has been little better off, the first train from the east in three days arriving yesterday afternoon, while it is reported that all important coal supplies from the west were stalled in drifts in the neighborhood of Maple Creek.

It is proposed to shut down the power and electric light plant during the day and from midnight to 5 in the morning, and it is probable that the schools will be closed down so the fuel supply on hand can be distributed in half-ton lots in needy cases.

The thermometer dipped to 50 below again and has not risen above 26 below all day. A special train of men of the N. W. M. P. left here last week for the north and the patrols have been ordered from depot headquarters here to proceed to Battleford, and from there take up the work of rescue among settlers.

A report was received here yesterday that 18 persons were frozen to death in the Goose Lake district. This report is unconfirmed.

Truly the Windy City.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Saturday the wind was so severe at times as to overturn wagons in the street. At five o'clock the mercury registered 5 to 8 above zero on the street level and, the wind was blowing from 36 to 40 miles an hour.

Drop of 66 Degrees.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 4.—Reports from all parts of the northwest say that the wind and storm of Friday night was the most severe of the winter. The temperature is about 10 below zero. Drops in temperature from 40 to 60 degrees in various parts of the northwest during the preceding 18 hours have been reported.

STOMACH TROUBLES

To wrong action of the stomach and impaired digestion a host of diseases owe their origin.

When the food is imperfectly digested the full benefit is not derived from it by the body, and then stomach troubles start to appear.

Thus you become thin, weak, nervous and debilitated, energy is lacking, brightness, snap and vigor are lost and in their place come dullness, dizziness, loss of appetite, depression and langour. The great point is to get the stomach back into good shape again so it can properly digest the food, and the easiest, quickest and best way to do it is by the use of

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Miss Lizzie Furlotte, Jacquet River, N.B., writes: "I was very much troubled with my stomach and did not know what to do. I consulted several doctors, got medicine from them, but all to no purpose, and was constantly growing worse. One day I had the good luck to meet with a friend who had been troubled in the same way as myself. My friend told me of the wonderful cure Burdock Blood Bitters had made with her and advised me to try a bottle. I did so, and what a happy change the first bottle made. I took two more and am completely cured, and I shall ever sing the praises of B.B.B."

Price $1.00 per bottle or 6 bottles for $5.00.

FIRST-BORN DIES.

Death of T. H. Lynch, Who Was Royal City's Oldest Son.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock there passed away from the effects of la grippe, at 41 Munro street, Thomas Hyland Lynch, for many years the most widely known man in the City of Guelph. Mr. Lynch was the first male child born in what is now known as Guelph, he first seeing the light there on Feb. 29, 1828. The deceased, who, in his prime, was a powerful man, was for thirty years county constable of Wellington, and was warrant officer for the late Sheriffs Grange and Gow of Wellington.

On April 23, 1877, he carried the flag at the head of the procession when Guelph celebrated its fiftieth anniversary as a municipality. Two years later he performed the same office, when Guelph became a city. He was the guest of honor at the last celebration in the Royal City, when the Guelph Old Boys visited the scenes of their youth.

Mr. Lynch's father at one time possessed the ground of what is now the Model Farm at Guelph.

For fourteen years he was a resident of this city. Mr. Lynch, who was in his 79th year, only celebrated nineteen anniversaries of his birthday, his last one two years ago, being eight years after the previous one.

Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Lynch celebrated their golden wedding. Mrs. Lynch pre-deceased her husband four months ago.

To-day the remains will be taken on the 1 o'clock train to Guelph, where they will be interred in the family plot. The deceased leaves behind him four sons and three daughters.

DEATH OF JUDGE HORNE.

Senior Judge of Essex County Dies After One Day's Sickness.

Windsor, Feb. 4.—After an illness of only one day, Charles Robert Horne, senior judge of the Essex County court, died suddenly Saturday night. He was subject at times to weak spells on account of an affection of the heart.

Judge Horne was born in St. Vincent, West Indies, 70 years ago. His early life was spent in Bath, England. In 1855 he went to Toronto and studied law. After being admitted to the bar he came to Essex County, first going to Amherstburg. He came to Windsor in 1867, entering into partnership with Justice Killam, chairman of the railway commission.

He had been county judge since 1883. He was mayor of this city from 1877 until 1880. Judge Horne was of a very genial disposition, and was known as one of the most democratic judges in Ontario.

A widow and three daughters survive him.

PAPAL SINCERITY AT TEST.

Briand Concedes Points and Pulls Over Stiff-Necked Premier.

Paris, Feb. 4.—The view of Minister of Education Briand that the Government must continue along Liberal lines in the execution of separation laws seems to have pulled over the stiff-necked view held by Premier Clemenceau, and it has been practically decided to instruct the prefects that the contracts of the leasing of churches offered by the parish priests are acceptable, with modifications, provided they do not violate the rights of the state which exist under the present laws to "disaffect" the churches.

In other words, the Government wants to test the sincerity of the desire expressed by Rome to find a basis of settlement.

Dr. Nuttall is arranging to proceed to England almost immediately to interview Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Premier, and Chancellor of the Exechequer Asquith, to bring their influence to bear to have Parliament sanction the proposed loan.

MR. CHAS. M'GILL MAKES STATEMENT

Directors Knew of His Speculations to Save Ontario Bank.

COCKBURN IN POLICE COURT

Former General Manager of the Ontario Bank, Now Under Sentence to Serve Five Years in Penitentiary, Declares That His Speculations Were Known and Approved by the Directors—The Defence.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—"Any bank officer who signs a statement that is false shall be held to have done so wilfully."

Such is the section of the statute, under which George R. R. Cockburn, ex-president of the Ontario Bank, appeared before Police Magistrate Denison on Saturday, the specific charge being that he did make a false return to the Dominion Government.

The court room was crowded when the case was called. Charles McGill, the late general manager, who is now under sentence of five years in the penitentiary on the same charge, was called to the box to give evidence.

Mr. Cockburn occupied a seat at the lower table beside his solicitor.

McGill was put through a close examination by Crown Attorney Corley, and a scathing cross-examination by Frank Arnoldi, K.C., appearing for Mr. Cockburn.

He swore that he was but a tool in the hands of the board of directors as general manager of the bank up to the time of the crash. He had been brought to the position to take the bank from the verge of ruin and with his ability, connections and support to attempt to carry the tottering institution to a successful conclusion.

He swore that the president of the bank was aware of the situation, had suggested that at any cost the bank should extricate itself, that dealing in American securities should be tried as a means to repair the lost capital. From the first he was sure that Cockburn knew the real situation, was at all times aware that he was playing New York stocks on margin, and that the bank was dealing in its own stock.

McGill further stated that President Cockburn must have known that portions of the report sent to the Government were untrue, and that he had been consulted on the investments in American securities. He had been instructed to do things on the quiet.

Frank H. Pope made a statement in the course of the day to the effect that McGill had told him the directors were entirely innocent of his speculations, and were in no way responsible for the losses which occasioned the ruin of the bank.

Director Thomas Walmsley stated that McGill had told him he nor his co-directors were in any way to blame. He denied any knowledge of the affair until notified by the accountant.

The case will be resumed at 11.30 this morning, when several of the directors will give evidence.

DEATH OF LADY GRENFELL.

Daughter of the Governor General Dies Suddenly From Typhoid.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Lady Violet Grenfell, eldest daughter of His Excellency Earl Grey, died at Government House shortly after midnight, following an illness from typhoid fever of three weeks.

She is believed to have contracted the disease while traveling with her husband, Capt. A. Grenfell, in Mexico, whence she came direct to Ottawa about three weeks ago.

The fatal malady developed immediately after her arrival.

High hopes were held out for her recovery, but the end came somewhat unexpectedly last night.

A WOMAN'S BACK WAS NOT MADE TO ACHE

Thousands of Women suffer Untold Misery Every Day with Aching Backs That Really have no Business to Ache.

Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order.

Backache is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from Kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Mrs. Thos. Craig, Almonte, Ont., writes: "I was doctoring for six months for kidney trouble and my back was so lame I had to lie in bed. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and in one week I was able to walk with very little pain, and in five months my back was as strong as ever.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

TIME EXTENDED.

Josiah Gilbert, Sentenced to Hang, Will Have Chance to Appeal.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The supreme court, Sir Louis H. Davies presiding, granted an order for the extension of time of appeal against the conviction of Josiah Gilbert, sentenced at Regina on Nov. 10 to be executed for the murder of Barrett Henderson. Reprieve had been granted at Calgary until Feb. 8, and on Jan. 15 sentence was again affirmed. This was subject to appeal within 15 days. That time expired, and application was made that the time might be extended for further appeal. This the supreme court now grants.

10,000 Men For Railway Work.

London, Feb. 4.—(C. A. P.)—Stockwell & Co. of London have commenced recruiting in compliance with a cable from Lord Strathcona asking for 10,000 men for railway construction in Canada. At a meeting of the central unemployed committee, it denied that men of large families were not accepted for emigration or that preference was given to men with small families. Five hundred and ten applications have been received for emigration to Canada.

Locomotive Ran Away.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 4.—Two men were fatally injured and two others seriously and 12 slightly injured Saturday night when an engine on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad ran amuck and crashed into another engine drawing a caboose on the 33nd street bridge crossing the Allegheny River. It is believed some foreigners opened the runaway engine's throttle by mistake.

Duty to Discover the Pole.

New York, Feb. 4.—Commander R. L. Peary, the Arctic explorer, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the Lotus Club Saturday night. Commander Peary said: "The discovery, not only of the North Pole but of the South Pole as well, is not only our privilege, but our duty and destiny, as much as the building of the Panama Canal and the control of the Pacific."

WAR OF U. S. AND JAPAN.

Not to Embroil Britain If It Ever Comes to a Head—Senator Cullom Says "All Bosh!"

London, Feb. 4.—Despatches received here from the United States reporting renewed tension between the United States and Japan over the San Francisco school incident are published with rather derisive comment, for the press takes the view that Japan is not as belligerent as represented.

The official view, while it does not minimize the delicate points involved, does not regard the question as having entered upon the critical stage.

Government circles thus far have given little consideration to this controvesy, because they do not share the view that it is likely to embroil Great Britain under the terms of the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

War Talk "All Bosh."

Washington, Feb. 4.—After a talk with the President Saturday, Senator Cullom, chairman of the Senate committee on foreign relations, said:

"This war scare is all bash. I'd like to go to war with Senator Perkins for talking the way he did last night.

"There is no more chance of our going to war with Japan over this little school question," said the Senator, "than there is of fighting China, Russia or Great Britain."

PREMIER M'BRIDE HAS BEEN RETURNED

British Columbia Endorses Conservative Government.

SOCIALISTS LOST HEAVILY

Twenty-Five or Twenty-Six Conservatives Returned In a House of Forty-Two Members—Liberals Elect Sixteen—Cities of Victoria and Vancouver Solid for McBride —Two Ministers Defeated.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 4.—The appeal to the country has resulted, after all, in an emphatic endorsation of the McBride Government, which is now somewhat stronger than in the last Legislature. Mr. McBride entered the contest with 23 supporters, as against 16 Liberals and 3 Socialists, though the latter really supported the Government and kept it in power in the early days of its existence. He emerges from the struggle with 25 or 26 supporters in a House of 42. The Liberals are 14 or 15, and the Socialists 2. The Ministry itself did not fare well, Mr. Cotton, President of the Council, being defeated in Richmond, and the newly-appointed Minister of Education, Mr. Manson, going down in Alberni, while Mr. Green, Minister of Lands and Works, was literally sacrified by the Government at the beginning of the contest. The crucial points of the struggle were the two cities, Victoria and Vancouver, and both of these elected a solid delegation of Conservatives, four in the capital and five in Vancouver. The former was a smashing blow for the Liberals, who had counted on holding Victoria, and its effect could only have been offset by the capture of Vancouver. The latter was not accomplished, despite the strong candidates, and with the loss of both cities the Liberal cause became hopeless. Nevertheless the party made a number of gains through the provinces, defeating two Ministers, as stated, and also the former Speaker, Pooley, in Esquimalt, while three other Liberal gains were Nelson, Skeena and Yale from the Conservatives and one from the Socialists at Newcastle. Against these seven gains, which would have been ample to overthrow the Government had the party held its own elsewhere, the Liberals had to face a formidable array of losses, beginning with four seats in Victoria and continuing with Columbia, Cowichan, the Islands and Saanich. Slocan was taken from the Socialists by the Government.

The result in Victoria is perhaps in a measure a personal triumph for the Premier, who was returned at the head of the poll, with over 100 more votes than the next following Conservative, but still more largely due to the strength developed by Dr. Ernest.

Vancouver's View of It.

Vancouver, Feb. 4.—"Let well enough alone" was the winning cry in British Columbia on Saturday. The fear that the inflow of eastern and British capital might be checked for a time, while the owners of it awaited developments and sized up the situation under a new regime, has brought about the endorsation of the McBride Administration by the return of at least 24 supporters. At this time the results stand as follows: Conservatives, 24; Liberals, 10; Socialists, 2; undecided, 6.

Latest News Of Various Sports

A GREAT HOCKEY GAME IS PROMISED

Street Car Men to Meet at a Late Hour Some Night in a Whirlwind Game at the Park

The latest news of the great game of the season has just been issued. The motormen and conductors of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company are going to meet at a near date in what is promised to be the most spectacular game of the season. This wonderful event will probably not be witnessed by a large audience, as the railroaders are a very bashful body of men. Some night in the near future a special car will convey the "sports" to the ice in Jackson's Park, and what will happen there is a mere matter of conjecture. Some say the doctors have been requested to be ready for any emergency, and private wards in the hospitals are to be secured beforehand.

There is a great deal of rivalry among both bodies of men for places on the two teams, but a probable line up will be as follows:—

Motormen.	Conductors.
	Goal.
Jimmy Gordon...	...Sam Girvin
	Point.
Arthur Killenbeeck...	...John Spiers
	Cover.
J. Londerville...	...Larry Connors

	Rover.
W. Jarvis...	...H. Middleton
	Left wing.
Joe Thomas...	...Geo. McKee
	Right wing.
"Louie" LeGrandeur ...	...H. Fowler

Goal umpires, Jack McCann and J. H. Larmouth. Referee, Harry Bradburn.

The other men are requested to be in uniform as their services may be required at any moment.

Any player found with a fence rail under his sweater will be sent home in the car and prevented from seeing the finish of the game. The motormen claim that they have the strongest defence possible. Jimmy Gordon has a pair of bob-sleighs, which he will attach to his feet. Arthur Killenbeck has rented two toboggans for the same purpose. Sam Girven says that nothing will get by him. Larry Connors says he can take care of Joe Thomas and LeGrandeur. "The Flying Freshman." Walter Jarvis, it is believed, has an old score to pay off with Middleton, and there should be something doing all the time. A further report will be given later. N. B. — Jack McCann has bought a pair of automobile goggles to keep his eyes on the puck, which will be faced off at 11.15 p.m.

None need suffer with Rheumatism.

It makes one think that perhaps some people WANTED to have Rheumatism. Because they wont take Bu-Ju. Now, isn't it a fact that there are a lot of people in your neighborhood who say "Bu-Ju completely cured me of Rheumatism."

When you read their letters; the agony they suffered with Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism, Sciatica and Lumbago; how they tried remedy after remedy without relief, and then found health in Bu-Ju, you will wonder how people will go on having Rheumatism when they can cure themselves at home.

After using a few boxes, I found I had recovered my strength nicely, and after less than 18 boxes had been taken, it left me without a vestige of the old complaint. I believe Bu-Ju to be the best medicine on record for Rheumatism."

WAREHOUSE MEN DEFEATED HARNESS

Two Teams From B. F. Ackerman's Factory Played at Brock Street Rink on Saturday

The warehouse and harness departments of Messrs. B. F. Ackerman & Son's factory played an interesting game at the Brock street rink on Saturday night, the warehouse winning by a somewhat one-sided score of 7—0. The harness men, however, are not satisfied yet, and a second game will be played, in all probability, next Saturday night at the same time.

Examiner Special.

Keene, Feb. 4.—The junior hockey team of this place played a friendly game of hockey in the skating rink here with the "Independents" of Peterborough. The Keene enthusiasts far outstripped their opponents as the score would indicate. Goal keeper Moss for the visitors was disabled in the first half of the game and Manager Shepherd took his place. For the home team, R. Weir, centre and T. Campbell, played a good game. Mr. P. Newton of Keene Seniors, kept down all rough play by his vigilance. The teams were:—

Wednesday's game between the Argonauts and Peterborough should be one of the best of the season. The two seemed very evenly matched when they met in Toronto a little over a week ago. Peterborough won by 4 goals to 2 but they had to work for it. The Argos are in splendid condition just now. They defeated the Marlboros by 7—5 on Saturday night and are confident of putting up a hard argument against Peterboroughs on Wednesday night.

The Seniors will practice to-night at 7 o'clock when a full turn-out is expected. There is a vacant position on the line and the man for the place will be picked from the best of the men at practice.

The City League games this week will be the hardest and most important of the series. The Auburns will meet the Charlotte street team in the fist game, while the Strathcona and High Lifes are the contestants in the second chapter.

The Argonauts defeated the Marlboros by 7—5 on Saturday night and by so doing move up to second last place, sending the Dukes down to the cellar position. The Caramon should come pretty near handing a lemon to that Kingston bunch.

A ROYAL COMMISSION.

Judge Winchester and W. L. M. King to Enquire into Telephone Troubles.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—A royal commission, consisting of Judge Winchester and Mr. Mackenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor, will to-day, at 2.30 p. m., begin an enquiry into the difficulties between the Bell Telephone Co. and the striking operators. The enquiry will begin with calling the company's officials to testify.

The telephone girls have decided that they will offer their services on Monday morning to the local manager of the Bell Telephone Co., and are united in the intention to accept whatever positions he sees fit to give to them.

The bill that Allan Studholme proposes to introduce into the Legislature fixing the hours of labor for telephone girls at five hours will receive the support of the Ontario Government.

Priest's Death Due to Worry.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 4.—Father McAulay, chief witness in the trial of Thomas Collins last month, convicted of the murder of the priest's cousin, died yesterday from heart failure. He had been greatly worried over the case and passed away just as his congregation were assembling for mass at a nearby church.

Miner Injured by Dynamite.

Caledonia, Feb. 4.—William Beckerson, a miner, in the employ of the Alabastine works here, was seriously injured. If he recovers he will likely lose the sight of an eye. While preparing a blast the dynamite had only been inserted in the hole a few inches when it exploded.

Passenger Fares On C. N. R.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The C.N.R. has filed, and had approved, a schedule of passenger rates, as follows:

Between sections on the Stony Plains section and Morinville branch, Province of Alberta, on the basis of three and one-half cents per mile.

Ridgeville section, between Stuartburn and South Junction, Province of Manitoba, on the basis of three cents per mile.

Between stations on Qu'Appelle, Long Lake & Saskatchewan Railroad & Steamboat Co., Regina to Prince Albert, Province of Saskatchewan, on the basis of three and one-half cents per mile.

C.P.R. Get I.C.R. Rights.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—It has been learned that the C.P.R. has secured running rights over the I.C.R. between St. John and Halifax. This means that Halifax will be made the company's passenger and mail port, and that their fast overseas limited will take mails and passengers to Halifax and also receive them at that port.

Died In Saving Train.

Kenora, Feb. 4.—John Anderson, employed at Knudson's double-track camp, east of Hawk, was killed while flagging passenger train No. 97, which was in danger from a cracked rail. He failed to get out of the way in time.

To live long it is necessary to live slowly.—Cicero.

The Last Word.

"Having the last word," said a naval officer, "reminds me of a story I heard not long ago. A certain man died, and a clergyman was engaged to offer a eulogy. This worthy minister prepared a sermon of exceeding length and strength, but just before he entered the parlor to deliver it he thought that it might be advisable to learn what the dead man's last words had been. So he turned to one of the weeping younger sons and asked:

"'My boy, can you tell me your father's last words?'

"'He didn't have none,' the boy replied. 'Ma was with him to the end.'"

Absentminded.

La Fontaine, the famous fable poet, was a most absentminded man. Meeting one day in a saloon a young man, he was so favorably impressed by his conversation that he expressed his admiration for him in the most flattering terms. "But he is your own son!" exclaimed a guest in astonishment. "Is it so?" replied the poet. "Then I am the more delighted to make his acquaintance."

OPPOSED TO JEWS.

Armed Bands Unmolested by Police Parade Odessa Streets and Stab.

Odessa, Feb. 4.—The elements of the population of this city who are opposed to the Jews are renewing their efforts to organize an anti-Jewish attack, and as a result the people of Odessa, of whom about one-third are Jews, are in a state bordering on a panic.

Saturday armed bands, unmolested by the police, walked about the streets shouting "Death to the Jews!" During the past week not less than 40 Jews, including a number of students and school boys, have been stabbed and otherwise mercilessly maltreated, and numerous Jewish shops have been looted. These outrages occurred in broad daylight.

A GLORIOUS SALE OF WHITE LINGERIE UNDERWEAR

Our White Underwear did not need the excuse of a "Sale" to sell them—they would sell readily at the usual prices to a descriminating public; but we wanted more than a business that sold "Readily," we wanted business that sold "Remarkably," and that accounts for the drops in prices. The garments are just as fine as ever, but they have parted with part of their price so that we might have a "Bargain Holiday."

We couldn't begin to describe all the values—but FAIR'S WHITEWEAR SALES are so well known that the people flock to this store the moment they know the Sale is on.

This cut conveys a faint idea of the daintiness of our Whitewear. The values can only be appreciated by a personal visit to this department.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS IS REPORTED

At Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Company Held on Monday Afternoon

THE PAY ROLL IS $45,000 A YEAR

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Company was held in the office of the Company on Monday afternoon, a number of shareholders being present.

The annual statement of the receipts and expenditures and assets and liabilities was submitted and adopted.

The statement of the operations of the Company for the past year, which was a most satisfactory one, received the hearty endorsation of the shareholders and a vote of thanks was passed to the officers and directors.

The following directors were re-elected:—

Hon. J. R. Stratton, Mr. W. G. Morrow, Mr. T. H. Fortye, Mr. A. L. Davis and Mr. Wm. Irwin.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the Hon. J. R. Stratton was re-elected President and Mr. W. G. Morrow, Vice-President.

This company commenced business in Peterborough twenty one years ago, and during, especially the latter half of that period, has made steady and satisfactory progress, until at the present time it is one of Peterborough's most flourishing industries, paying out in wages to employees $45,000 per annum. The output at the present time is greater than at any previous year in its history, and its expansion in every direction is a matter of extreme gratification to the shareholders.

MR. HARRY MORGAN IS AN ALDERMAN

Takes the Place of Ex-Alderman Ball, Who Resigned Last Night

Mr. Geo. Ball is no longer a member of the City Council. In order to be qualified to accept a position from the Council it was necessary to resign from that body. Accordingly, a letter of resignation was read from him at the meeting last night, which was accepted on motion of Ald. Elliott, seconded by Ald. Stevenson.

Mr. Ball's successor in the Council will be Mr. Harry Morgan, who was thirteenth in the list of candidates voted upon at the last election.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS TO HOLD A BANQUET

Big Gathering of Boys Will be Held on Thursday Night

Arrangements are rapidly being completed for the boys' banquet on Thursday evening, February 7. It will be one of the big events of the year, as 126 boys and intermediates have been invited. Only paid-up members are being invited. The mothers of the members have been asked to provide for the banquet, and each have been asked to provide for some part of the bill-of-fare.

The toast list will be a good one, and music will be provided. Association Hall will be used for the event.

A CABLEGRAM RECALLS MISSIONARY

Miss McKim Will be Unable to Give Address in This City This Week As Announced

A telephone message was received last night by Rev. Mr. Major, rector of All Saints' Church, in which Miss McKim, a returned missionary from Persia, who had been announced to give an address on Missions Thursday night, to the effect that Miss McKim would be unable to fill her engagements in this city, because of the fact that she has been recalled to her work in Persia by a cablegram. No further information as to the reason for her recall was given.

In view of this fact, the regular weekly service will be held on Thursday night at 7.45 o'clock.

SEVERAL REQUESTS WERE MADE TO COUNCIL

Mr. G. W. Green Wants to Secure Portion of Gilchrist Street, South of McDonnel Street

OTHER BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTED

Although it was well past nine o'clock, the hour set by Ald. Morrow as "reception" time for deputations, when the City Fathers entered the council chamber last night after meeting for two hours in committee of the whole, yet there were several people in attendance to wait upon the council, and their requests were on motion heard.

Mr. Jas. Flynn asked for permission to cut down two trees in front of the American Hotel, on Hunter street, of which he is the proprietor. He proposed to have a lamp put up there.

It was moved by Ald. Duncan, seconded by Ald. Bradburn, that the matter be referred to the Board of Works.

Mr. G. Walter Green was the next man to seek a favour from the council. He asked that he be given the privilege of extending his factory of a portion of a street, 31 feet of Gilchrist street from McDonel street to the G.T.R. tracks. He pointed out that this portion would never be used as a highway.

The Mayor said that the matter should be dealt with by the Board of Works, and on motion of Ald. Leary seconded by Ald. Phelan, the matter was referred to that body.

Mr. T. R. Barney, field secretary of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, was the next to wait upon the council and outlined the great work being done by that hospital. He asked the council for a grant to the institution.

On motion of Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Leary, the matter was referred to the committee of the whole council.

Ald. Duncan moved that the constables who had acted at the last municipal elections be paid $1.00 extra for their services.

This was seconded by Ald. Wilson, and was carried.

Ald. McIntyre brought up the matter of the carters' shelter, with which his committee is dealing. He stated that a suitable property could be procured from the Chamberlen estate at the corner of Charlotte and Water street, for $50 a year. The sheds, he thought, could be repaired for $25 or $30.

After some discussion, in which Ald. Leary objected to the scheme on the ground that the hackmen and expressmen had a right to similar privileges, the matter was in the hands of the Property Committee.

Ald. Stevenson seconded by Ald. Johnston, moved that the Property Committee be authorized to take such steps as might be necessary to keep in touch with the building operations. This was carried.

Ald. Johnston moved, seconded by Ald. Duncan, that the matter of systematic flushing of the sewers should be taken up by the Board of Works. —Carried.

A BIG INITIATION IN C. M. B. A.

Organizer Hardy Has Done Good Work For This Fraternal Society in This City.

To-morrow night, as a result of the work of Organizer Hardy, a gigantic initiation into the local branch of the C.M.B.A. will take place in the T. A. S rooms. Mr. Hardy has done excellent work during the few weeks that he has been in the city, and a large number of candidates will be ready for initiation to-night. Following the business, a banquet will be held.

FELL ON THE TRACK AND CAR PASSED OVER HER

A Narrow Escape From Fatal Injury of Maggie Lowery—Slipped on Ice In Front of Car

WATER STREET WOMEN'S ACCIDENT

The fact that Miss Maggie Lowary, who lives on Water street north, is alive to-day is due more to good luck than to any other circumstances. Last night she was crossing the street to her home with a pail of water when she was knocked down by a street car, which passed over her body. She noticed the car coming, but thought that she could cross the tracks before it reached her, and attempted to do so. She slipped on the ice between the rails, and before the motorman could bring the car to a standstill the fender had struck the girl, and she was pulled beneath the car. Fortunately, however, she fell between the rails and the wheels of the car did not touch her.

The motorman carried the girl to her home, and a physician was called to attend her. It was found that she had a somewhat serious cut on the back of her head, while her ankle was also injured and her forehead cut. She was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she is resting quietly, and no serious results are likely to ensue.

MR. GOODWILL WAS ELECTED TO VACANCY

In the List of Officers of the Children's Aid Society—Will Succeed Mr. R. M. Dennistoun as Secretary

AN ENERGETIC OFFICIAL IS RETIRING

At a meeting of the Children's Aid Society held yesterday afternoon, the resignation of Mr. R. M. Dennistoun from the office of solicitor and secretary, was tendered, and reluctantly accepted. Mr. Dennistoun resigned this office because of his intention to remove from the city, and in his stead Mr. J. E. L. Goodwill was elected, and will assume the duties of the office at once.

Perhaps in no organization in the city will Mr. Dennistoun be missed more than in the Children's Aid Society, his connection with which dates back a number of years. He has dvoted a great deal of time to the work of the Society, more than the general public has any idea of, and he has thrown into it the enthusiasm and energy, and above all, a wise discretion, which has been characteristic of his connection with any line of work he has undertaken.

Severe Form of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my little girl, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure of cold would lay her up, and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say that I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs A. A. VanBuskirk, Robinson street, Moncton, N.B.

YOUNG BOY PURLOINS A KNIFE

So Proprietor of Cutlery Store on Aylmer Street Fully Believes—Was Taken Yesterday

A little girl about 15 years of age went to the police station this morning and complained that she believed a well-known young lad had stolen a jack-knife from their store on Aylmer street yesterday afternoon.

The proprietor of the store is Mrs. Jay, who sells English cutlery, particularly Sheffield goods. Yesterday three boys, ranging in years from 13 to 16, entered the store and asked to be shown some knives. The little girl showed them three, one at $1, a second at 60c, and the third at 45c. They were looking these over and asked further to see some collar buttons. The little girl turned her back, and on turning again found the 45-cent knife gone.

The girl was alone in the shop, and, of course, could not take any proceedings, but she firmly believes that one of the boys purloined the knife. They said they would make it up by giving ten cents apiece, and bringing the rest later, but they did not offer to do so.

If one of the boys did take it, as it really seems, something should be done to the young culprits to teach them the difference between "mine and thine."

DEPUTATION TO GO TO TORONTO ON FRIDAY

To Ask the Ontario Government for Assistance in Connection With Defraying Cost of Smallpox Outbreak

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE ALSO

The deputation representing the County Council appointed to interview the Government with reference to securing financial assistance to help the townships in the northern portion of the county in defraying the cost of the outbreak of smallpox, in 1905 and 1906, will go to Toronto this week. The County Council made a grant but this was not sufficient to pay the cost, and it has been decided to appeal to the Government. Mr. Bradburn called the Premier's attention to the fact a deputation had been appointed, and arranged for an interview on Friday, and the County Clerk has been advised of the fact.

At the time that these gentlemen are in Toronto, they will interview the Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, with a view to the formation of a Farmers' Institute for the northern part of the county, to be known as the North Peterborough Farmers' Institute. Reference to this movement, and the necessity for it has already been made.

ENGLISH GIRL AFTER MAN; LONDON MAN WANTS WIFE

Wife Wanted

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—I have read in the Star that eight men want to marry an English lady. They can't all marry her, so why don't some of them turn to English girls already in Canada? I am 25, and have been housekeeper for my father for the past four years. If by any chance our home was broken up I should hardly know what to do for my living, as I have given myself heart and soul to housework and am very fond of home life.

ENGLISH GIRL.

Wanted—A Hobby

Farmer who owns a good farm and has one little girl, would like to correspond with a respectable woman with a view to matrimony; would make good husband for suitable person. For further particulars write, giving age and other information, to

JOHN E. STERLING,

The letter to the left appeared in the Montreal Star of yesterday, while the advertisement to the right was in the last issue of the Port Hope Times. This circumstance indicates that thought on the question of matrimony is not confined to those who are writing letters on it to The Examiner.

THE NORTH AMERICAN ASSURANCE COMPANY

No more encouraging and concise report of last year's results in the insurance business has been furnished than that shown by the annual report of the North American Life Assurance Company, which appears in another column of to-day's Examiner. The new business for the year amounted to the sum of $4,364,694—the largest in the company's history. Not only has there been satisfactory increases and a handsome addition to the Reserve Fund, but the directors are to be congratulated on being able to effect a reduction of about five per cent. in one year in the ratio of expenses to premiums received, resulting in a saving of $48,996.49, as compared with previous years. The assets of the company are shown to be all safely invested, and the assurances given to the insured and those desirous of effecting insurance, are decidedly convincing.

The district manager for Peterborough is Mr. Geo. B. Stevenson, with offices at No. 374 1-2 Water street.

STILL ADVANCING

It would be unbecoming to boast of, but it would be permissible to be grateful for, the advancement and progress of Peterborough. This is eloquently expressed in the continuously increasing growth of the Customs revenue, a pretty accurate index of business expansion, and consequently, improvement of the condition of our citizens, as represented by increased purchasing power. If the people had not, generally, more money to spend, the merchant would not import so much merchandise, and if this were not brought in there would, of course, not be the Customs revenue now received. The improvement is emphasized by the fact that the present Customs revenue is nearly twelve times as great as it was in 1895, when the total revenue for one whole year was only a little greater than it was for the single month of January, 1907. A more pleasing feature is that the whole country shares very perceptibly in the prosperity, of which Peterborough enjoys so liberal a proportion.

A Boon to the Bilious

Are you compelled to deny yourself many wholesome foods because you think they make you bilious? Do you know that your condition is more to blame than the foods? Your liver and stomach need attention more than the diet. When you find yourself suffering with a bilious attack, take and all annoying symptoms will soon disappear. They settle the stomach, regulate the liver and exercise the bowels. Their good effects are felt immediately.

Beecham's Pills mingle with the contents of the stomach and make easy work of digestion. The nourishing properties of the food are then readily assimilated and the residue carried off without irritating the intestines or clogging the bowels.

Beecham's Pills should be taken whenever there is sick headache, furred tongue, constipation, sallow skin or any symptoms that indicate an inactive liver.

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 25 cents.

THE YELLOW PERIL

The now notorious Thaw trial, in which the leading personal elements seem to be largely a lot of moral degenerates, looks to Canadians like a travesty of justice. The selection of a jury appeals to us as a loosely-rehearsed vaudeville performance. The absurd and disgusting minuteness of detail — with which the newspapers slop over—the thrilling statement that Thaw picked his teeth, or blew his nose, that Mrs. Thaw crossed her feet, or consulted her watch, is given "splash" headlines, and the whole business moves in the region of opera bouffe. With no fear of contempt of court before their eyes, the newspapers comment on the case, deciding it pro or con and, his pendens, doing everything they like to bedevil the situation, and prejudice public opinion. If, under similar circumstances, Canadian newspapers treated a pending trial, as the American journals have done, the jails would be full of Canadian editors. Recently the editor of the Globe was on the threshold of a prison cell because that paper published a poetical parody of a Sunday school hymn, in which the aspirations of the plumbers, whose case was sub judice, was given expression. While we might naturally expect the New York yellow sheets to make the most of the Thaw trial, to exploit nasty details and magnify inconsequential trifles, we do not expect Canadian newspapers, as some of them are doing, to wallow in the wake of their journalistic New York confreres, in their style style of journalism.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The telephone girls are true to their sex—they are bound to be in the station. They demand a Government investigation. They think they are as much entitled to it as an insurance company. It must be a "royal" commission, too.

Mr. Duncan C. Ross is pushing his feet into his father's shoes in West Middlesex. He has been nominated Liberal candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Hon. G. W. Ross to the Senate. If the son can fill the father's shoes, or rather, the father's hat, even approximately, he should be elected.

Conservative papers are opposing the nomination of Mr. Duncan Ross, for West Middlesex, because he is the son of his father. They say that it represents a "family compact." When did our Conservative friends discover that there was no virtue in a family compact? They thought it was all right in the early history of the province.

NE SUTOR ULTRA CREPIDAM

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir, — I wish to inquire what Mr. George Cochrane has done to forfeit the public confidence of the citizens of Peterborough, where he has lived for over sixty years, so as to make it necessary for the Peterborough Ministerial Association to put him in the same class as "Joe" Stewart, by giving him a certificate of character, that he (Mr. Cochrane) does not need at their hands? It seems to me that the Ministerial Association should digest this little morsel — ne sutor ultra crepidam.

Yours, etc.,
INQUIRER.

TO SECURE THE OPINION OF FIRE ALARM EXPERT

At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council last night the question of the new fire alarm system was again brought up. The matter was introduced by the Mayor and Ald. Johnston, who spoke of securing expert opinion on the matter.

THOUGHT COLD WOULD TURN TO CONSUMPTION

READ HOW DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 28th, 1906.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs: As I am one of the thousands that have been benefited by your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I thought it my duty to give you a description of my case. "I am 19 years of age and was always in the best of health until last spring when I caught a severe cold by going about with wet feet. It settled in my chest and all the remedies I tried would not stir it. My friends began to fear it had turned to consumption and were advising me to go east and see a specialist. One day my father brought home a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I laughed at the idea of it being any good and refused to take it, and only as a last resource would I. When I had finished one bottle I had only a slight cold left and before I had taken a quarter of the next I was as well as ever I was, if not better, so you can see what a God-send this medicine was to me. I never fail to recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to my friends and they all use it. To show my full appreciation of this remedy I will gladly answer any letters in reference to it. Believe me. Sincerely yours,

Miss Winnifred D. Smith.

Breakdown of Nervous System

TOO FREQUENT THESE DAYS--PREVENTED BY USE OF THE GREAT RESTORATIVE

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The keen competition of life is now felt in all grades of society, and as the result prostration, paralysis, and insanity are becoming more and more common as the natural outcome of exhausted nerves.

Sleeplessness, irritability, indigestion, headache and general lack of energy and ambition are among the early indications of nervous troubles, and with women the result is not infrequently derangements and irregularities of the feminine organism.

If a committee of experts on diseases of the nerves were to prescribe for you they would give you just such a formula as that of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for this medicine is composed of the most powerful nerve restoratives known to medical science.

This is no idle boast, as we shall be pleased to prove to you if you will have your physician call at these offices and examine the formula.

What we consider as better proof of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will do for you is to be found in the letters of recommendation published from time to time in Dr. Chase's Almanac and in the newspapers of this country.

Mr. Alexander Hornberger, 10 Moore street, St. Catharines, Ont., writes, "For some years I was much afflicted with nervousness, which grew on me and developed into paralysis of the limbs so that I became helpless. The best efforts of three doctors failed to even relieve me, and, though I tried a Buffalo specialist, he, too, was baffled in my case. I gradually grew worse and was in such a bad condition that I despaired of being well again.

"After having taken five boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was able to resume work and am now feeling better than I did for twenty years. I consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the king of all medicines, for through its use I recovered health after long suffering."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.—10.

A CORD OF TAMRACK COST $10

Mr. T. E. Scriver, formerly editor and proprietor of the Hastings Star, has bought a paper in Wolsley, Sask., and assumed control of it this week. Mr. Scriver will considerably enlarge the paper, and those who know of his journalistic ability will have no doubt that he will make a success of it. In writing home recently he stated that he had a cord of tamarack wood still, so that the fuel famine would not affect him for a few days, but he had to pay dearly for that cord of soft wood, $10.00 being the amount that he had to hand over in exchange.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide

Did you ever see anyone trying to wash himself without water or soap?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try and get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness, by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so called hair growers.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful, because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp Germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send ten cents in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

MRS. BYRNE GEORGE STREET

Ex-Ald. Geo. Ball Appointed Sanitary Inspector By Council

Different Appointments Were Made Last Night—Sheriff Hall is Permanent Auditor at a Salary of $300—Two Assesors Were Appointed

THEY WILL NOT BOTH WORK TOGETHER AS FORMERLY

SANITARY INSPECTOR—
Ex Ald. Geo. Ball
PERMANENT AUDITOR—
Sheriff Hall
ASSESSORS—
Thos. McKee
T. B. McGrath

The above were the appointments made by the city council at its regular meeting last night. The council met first in Committee of the Whole, and threshed out the whole matter. The discussion while long drawn out was very amiable and the vote in favour of the men appointed represented a large majority of the council.

The discussion was not so much as to the merits of the applicants for the position, but rather as to how they were to be selected, and in the case of auditors and assessors whether one or two men should be appointed. In the first case it was decided to appoint a permanent auditor, and afterwards Sheriff Hall was decided upon. His salary will be $300, the same remuneration as the

Who was appointed Sanitary Inspector by the City Council Last Night

two auditors received for their services under the old system. With regard to thee assessors it was decided to appoint two as usual. A new method will be employed, however, as the city is to be divided into two sections, each of which will be covered by one of the assessors.

All the members of the council were present, with the Mayor in the chair.

When the matter of appointments came up, Ald. Johnston said that to open the discussion he would move that the council appoint a permanent auditor. This was seconded by Ald. Duncan.

Ald. Elliott suggested that two auditors be appointed. He thought that the auditors employed by the city had been satisfactory.

Ald. Stevenson was in favour of appointing two auditors, who would report monthly.

The Mayor thought that the appointment of one man as auditor would be more satisfactory than the present system. The man should be one whose standing in the community was such that the people would be satisfied. The position was one of the most responsible in the control of the council.

Ald. Johnston thought that if a change should be made, it should be made at once.

Ald. Bradburn, said that if it were legal, hee would move that the present auditors be appointed for 1907.

Ald. Johnston's motion was carried by a vote of 6 to 5.

The Assessors

The Mayor asked what the council wished to do about the assessors.

Ald. Phelan moved, seconded by Ald. Elliott, that two assessors should be appointed, and that they should work on the same lines as last year.

Ald. Johnston moved in amendment the appointment of one man as permanent assessor. The council he said, had tried two men, and also four men. He stated that the satisfactory work of the assessors last year, was due to the able work done by Mr. McKee the previous year. The speaker thought that the council should give the system of appointing a permanent assessor a trial. He also thought that the official could look after the question of building permits.

Ald. Wilson seconded the motion, referring to the fact that other duties might be added to those of the assessors.

Ald. Ball took exception to the statement that the increased assessment was the work of an individual. He thought that the change in the law was responsible for the increase.

Ald. Stevenson thought that the city should not be too hasty in appointing permanent officials. He suggested that each of the two assessors should take half off the city.

Ald. Elliott and Bradburn were both in favour of two assessors, and thought that they should do the work together. The latter did not think that the credit for the increased assessmennt of the city should be given to Mr. McKee; it was due to the general prosperity of the city.

Ald. Johnston's motion was then put and lost, by a vote of 9—3.

Ald. Stevenson moved in amendment to Ald. Phelan's motion, that two assessors be appointed, and that the city be divided into two portions, each assessor taking one division.

This was seconded by Ald. Morrow, and was carried by a vote of 7 to 6.

Sanitary Inspector

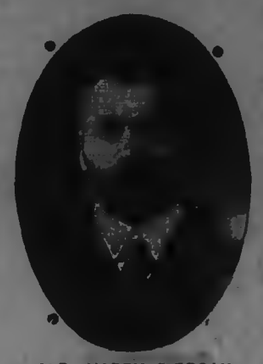
Then came the question of how the appointments were to be made, and after a little discussion it was decided to vote on the names, taking the last received first. The applicants for the position of sanitary inspectors were: William Gray, H. Stenton, S. Rightmyer, Jos. Crowe, R. H. Adams, George Ball and A. Hope.

Mr. Ball's name was the second called, and as nine members of the council voted for him, there was no necessity for taking any further vote.

Ald. Stevenson said that it was creating a bad precedent to allow an alderman who was a candidate for an office to sit on the committee when the question was being discussed.

The Mayor ruled that Ald. Ball had a right to sit on the committee of the whole, but he would have to resign before the matter came up in the council.

"I think that he should resign at



ALD. HARRY MORGAN
Who succeeds Ex-Ald. Geo. Ball on the City Council

once," said Ald. Duncan; "there has been a lot of talk about this thing now."

A letteer of resignation was then read from Ald. Ball, but no action was taken until the council met in regular session.

The appointment of a permanent auditor was next proceeded with, and Sheriff Hall, the first name called was supported by the majority of the council.

The same course was adopted in the appointment of the assessors, over which there was so much trouble last year. After some discussion it was decided to vote on each name separately. On the vote for the first assessor, Thomas McKee received eight votes, assuring his appointment. Some of the aldermen did not quite understand the system, and considerable amusement was caused, when on the vote for the second assessor they wanted to vote for two different men. The vote for the second assessor was as follows: T. B. McGrath, 8; Henry Thompson, 2; Dawson Kennedy, 1; John Kincaid, 1. Messrs. McKee and McGrath will be the assessors this year.

It was moved by Ald. Stevenson, seconded by Ald. Morrow, that Mr. McKee take Wards 1 and 2, and Mr. McGrath Wards 3, 4 and 5.

Ald. Wilson moved in maendment, seconded by Ald. Bradburn, that Mr. McGrath take Wards 1 and 2, and Mr. McKee Wards 3, 4 and 5.

The amendment was declared lost on avote of 7—4 and the motion carried on the same vote.

At the regular meeting of the council held afterwards bylaws appointing these officials were carried with ery little discussion.

THE LADIES TO TAKE SERVICE

Deep Interest in Series of Special Sermons to Young Men in Springville Presbyterian Church

The series of sermons to young men by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville, has awakened deep interest among the members of the Presbyterian congregation there, and the interest is not confined to the adherents of that church either, the whole community has become interested, and is taking the matter up. It was the intention of Dr. Marsh to preach the second in the series next Sunday night, when he was to have preached on the subject, "What are the mothers doing for the safety of the young man?" Since Sunday, however, the ladies of the congregation waited on the pastor and asked to be allowed to take this service outside of the sermon. Their suggestion was gladly accepted, and the service will be held one week from next Sunday night, instead of the first Sunday, in view of the fact that the ladies wish longer time to prepare for it. The ladies will have charge of the singing, will read the lesson, and, in fact, will take the whole service outside of the sermon.

OBITUARY

MRS. BEAGLEY

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Beagley yesterday, has come as a great shock to her many friends. Of late she had been very poorly in health and her nervous system was in great danger of breaking down. During the last four years she had had the constant care of her invalid husband, which undoubtedly had undermined her health. She had been very bright yesterday morning, and nothing indicated anything that would lead one to believe that she had any mental depression. Going to the dresser, she said that she would take some of her tonic which had been prescribed by a local physician. She was talking to her husband at the time she was taking the medicine. Having taken it, she at once remarked to her husband, "I have taken the wrong thing," and, after walking a few steps, she fell unconscious to the floor, where she was found by her grand-daughter, Mrs. R. Cox. Medical aid was at once summoned and the physician did all in his power to bring her to consciousness again, but everything was unavailing. Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, of whose church she was a loyal member, was sent for, but she had expired when he arrived, never regaining consciousness again.

The late Mrs. Beagley was 73 years of age, and a native of Kent, England. She was known and respected by a wide circle of friends. Her life had been a life of toil and much disappointment. She endeared herself to those who knew her by her spirit of independence and honesty. For over four years she had been attending to her husband, who is confined to his bed with an incurable affliction, and to his comfort and relief she devoted all her time. As a member of St. Luke's Church, she attended to her religious duties with regularity and devotion, and was a loyal daughter of the Church of England. On January 12 she celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her wedding.

The funeral will take place Wednesday, February 6, at 2.30 o'clock, from her late residence, on the corner of Douro and Rogers streets, to St. Luke's Church, and from thence to the Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. ELLIOTT

News was received to-day of the death of Mrs. Elliott in Port Hope on Sunday, the third inst. The deceased was formerly of South Monaghan, her maiden name being Mary Brown, one of the many settlers of that name who have resided in the neighbourhood of Springville for many years. The deceased was born in Druin, Ireland, about 87 years ago and was among the first settlers of this country. She was married to Mr. Elliott some years after her arrival in this country. Her husband predeceased her some time ago. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. The remains will arrive in this city to-morrow morning from Port Hope and the funeral will take place to the Little Lake Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Potter will officiate.

MR. SHEEHY IS GIVEN TIME TO FINISH SEWER

Recommendation From Board of Works Was Turned Down by the Council

WILL BE PAID EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT.

The recommendation from the Board of Works, that the city should complete the Cedar street sewer, and that the expense of doing so, be charged to Mr. Sheehy, was turned down by the council at the regular meeting last night, and instead, Mr. Sheehy was given an extension of time to finish the work.

The clause in the report dealing with the matter was as follows:

We recommend that in view of Mr. Sheehy having quit work on Cedar street, without giving notice to the corporation or the consent of any officer of the corporation, and in view of the further fact that he had been notified that the Board of Works would require the work to be completed within the time stated in the contract, Mr. Sheehy be notified that the city will complete the work and charge the expense of doing so to him, in accordance with the terms of the contract.

Ald. McIntyre objected to the clause, and moved that Mr. Sheehy be given an extension of time. The motion was seconded by Ald. Bradburn. Ald. Elliott strongly supported the motion.

The Mayor explained the position of the committee in reference to the report saying that Mr. Sheehy was one of the most satisfactory contractors in the service of the city.

After considerable discussion, Ald. McIntyre's motion to the effect that Mr. Sheehy be given an extension of time, and that he be requested to complete the work as soon as possible, and that he be paid 85 per cent. of the contract price of all work completed, was carried.

Discussion on the matters in connection with the new armouries, its furnishings, etc., will probably be taken up at this meeting.

HEADLIGHT NUISANCE TO BE REMEDIED

Council Will Request Radial Railway Company to Reduce Their Strength

The powerful headlights on the local street cars, it would seem, are at last to be remedied. These lights have been frequently complained of over since coming into use.

The following clause in the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, presented last night, seems to indicate hope for better things:

"That the Peterborough Radial Railway Co. be requested to reduce the strength of the headlights used on the street cars, or to shade them."

Fire Limits

Ald. Bradburn moved, seconded by Ald. Wilson, that the Property Committee consider the advisability of extending the fire limits.—Carried.

THE GINGERBRED CLUB GAVE DELIGHTFUL DANCE

About Thirty Couples Enjoyed Their Hospitality in Foresters' Hall

A dance was given last night by the Gingerbread Club in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, which proved to be a very delightful event. About thirty young couple were present, who enjoyed the dancing from nine o'clock until shortly after midnight. Piano and violin music was provided by the three Misses Dorris, in a splendid and capable manner. Mr. H. Gainey performed the work of director of ceremonies very creditably and as master of the dance could scarcely have been improved upon.

The evening was a most enjoyable one and will be remembered long by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

Charles Beavis Appeared on Charge of Being Drunk and Was Gaoled for Vagrancy for More Lengthy Term

Charles Beeavis appeared at the police court this morning, on the old, time-worn charge of being drunk in a public place. He pleaded not guilty, and in his defence said he had no place of abode, and was actually a vagrant. This was making things much worse, and it was readily proved that he was a vagrant. Instead of a fine or short term on the hill, the Magistrate sentenced him to two months in gaol. This was not quite what Beavis expected, and did not meet with his favour. He was just out of jail a short time, and the same old trouble returned him there.

Happiness in a Grain of Wheat

It Contains Every Food Element Necessary for Man's Sustenance.

All authorities agree that fourteen elements are needed in the human body to sustain perfect health and that these must be supplied in the food taken into the system. Nature has provided us with one single article of food containing all of these fourteen elements in the exact proportions necessary to supply our bodies with vitality, strength and heat. This food, so wonderful in its composition, is wheat, and intelligent men and women are coming to realize more and more that in the whole of the wheat is found the secret of health and happiness. Rich in the nitrates, or muscle-making elements, the carbonates, or heat-producing elements, and the phosphates, or brain and nerve-making elements, the whole grain of wheat supplies every necessity for man's body and mind.

This is how Malta-Vita came to be known as "The Perfect Food," for Malta-Vita is simply the whole of the wheat and a little malt, thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute cleanliness, then mixed with pure barley malt extract, which converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, an active digestive agent and very nutritious as well.

All grocers sell Malta-Vita. Large package, now 10 cents.

BRIGHT STUDENTS SHOW DEBATING ABILITY

An Opening Meeting Held Last Night in the Y.M.C.A. Hall—Mock City Council Discuss Civics

A LARGE ATTENDANCE GREETED THEM

The first open meeting of the Philomathean Society of the Collegiate Institute for the present scholastic year, was held in the Y.M.C.A. hall last night. As on many previous occasions the hall was well filled by the pupils, their relatives and friends, who have always shown a practical interest in the scholars' efforts. Once more the necessity of a modern school building was demonstrated, and when the fondest hopes of the young people shall be realized probably before another year rolls by the generosity and kindness of the directors of the Y.M.C.A. will not need to be depended upon. A spacious assembly hall will be of service to the student at the Collegiate in more ways than one, but especially will it be a great convenience and assistance to the Literary Society. Then, when a stately building, the ambition of the Board of Education, shall stand forth prominently on a portion of the present Central Park, then will the friends of the P. C. I. expect even greater results from the Philomatean Society.

Mock Council Meeting

The wisdom of the offerings of this Society was displayed last night by the unique form of entertainment that was provided. It was a mock council meeting, and gave the pupils many opportunities of showing their oratorical abilities.

At former public meetings debates were held, and on one occasion a mock trial was conducted most successfully. The council meeting was of course different from all previous attempts, and provided a pleasing entertainment for the evening. The speeches were well up to the standard of those delivered by past members of the Society and proved to the citizens present that the work done by the local staff is worthy of more appropriate environment.

Mr. Fred Brown first gave a short address explaining the nature of the entertainment, and assuring the citizens and friends that the students fully appreciated the interest that was taken in their affairs. Misses Gi[illegible] rendered an instrumental duet in a splendid manner.

The Coudcil

The council, composed of the following young gentlemen was then convened: Mayor, Fred Brown; City Clerk, Michael O'Brien, and Aldermen Wood, Munroe, Edmison, Austin, Johnson, Cameron, Blackwell, Ingham, Bravender, Heffernan, Hall and Dobbin.

The business was similar to that conducted by the city council. Of course it was not as cut and dried, or as important as that which it is the duty of the city fathers to consider, but was of a light vein and at times quite humourous, especially to the pupils. From the standpoints of flowery language, perfect diction, and freedom of expression, the pupils were, it was suggested, undoubtedly superior to the genuine council. Communications were received from various sources and duly dealt with.

Delegation

A delegation from the Women's Club of Universal Reform waited upon the council. It was composed of Miss M. Burnett, Miss Jean Campbell and Miss Katie Leary. The ladies had the task of presenting to the Council a movement they were advocating, i.e. "The keeping of New Year's resolutions on the part of the men." It is not necessary to detail the claims of the young ladies, suffice to say that it gave them an opportunity of displaying their ability as speakers, any one of them would qualify for the presidency of a Woman's Club. They enumerated to some extent the deficiencies of the male character, his January 1st resolutions and his proneness to failure in fulfilling them. Their speeches were well delivered and elicited the appreciation of their fellow-pupils and friends.

Public Library Bylaw

The next business was done by a committee of the whole council with Ald. H. Blackwell as chairman. It was a discussion of a bylaw providing for the granting of an annual sum of $1,500 for the maintenance of a public library, the location of which was to be donated by the Nicholls Estate. Those taking an active part in the discussion were Aldermen Munroe, Johnston, Ingham, Wood and Brown. The speeches they made were praiseworthy and showed that the speakers had given the matter some consideration.

Conclusion

Considering everything the pupils did splendidly and they deserve credit for the business-like manner in which they conducted their proceedings, and advanced their ideas. The pupils seem to appreciate the opportunities afforded them to become proficient in public speaking, and the staff also heartily co-operate. Add to this the interest that the citizens, generally, show, and the reasons are asserted for the repeated success of the open meetings of the C.P.S.

The most fluent of the speakers were Misses Burnett, Campbell and Leary, Messrs. Brown, Ingham and Wood. It is to be hoped that the pupils will hold at least another open meeting before the last studies are entered upon and the season terminated.

The North American Life Assurance Company

Held its Annual Meeting at its Home Office, in Toronto, on Tuesday, the 29th Day of January, 1907. The President, Mr. John L. Blaikie, was appointed Chairman, and the Manager Director, Mr. L. Goldman, Secretary, when the following report was submitted:

New Business — The policies issued for the year, together with those revived, amounted to the sum of $4,364,694, being less than the new business transacted for the previous year. Owing to the conditions prevailing in the life insurance business on the Continent, the Directors considered that in the interests of the policyholders the reduction in expenses was of greater importance than expansion in new business, and in this respect the statement presented shows they have been eminently successful, by making the very large reduction of about five per cent. in one year in the ratio of expenses to premium income. This percentage of reduction has resulted in the material saving in expenses of $48,996.49, as compared with the previous year.

Saving in Expenses

Cash Income — The cash income for the year from premiums, interest, etc., was $1,746,514, showing the satisfactory increase for the year of $96,480.94.

Payments to Policyholders — The amount paid on policyholders' account was $389,195.68, and of this amount the sum of $306,179.53 represents payments for dividends, matured endowments, etc.

Assets — The assets increased during the year by the sum of $831,050.79, and now amount to $7,799,064.45.

Addition to Reserve — After making ample provision for all liabilities, including special addition to the reserve fund, and paying a relatively large amount for dividends to policyholders during the year, there was a handsome addition made to the net surplus, which now amounts to $650,209.08, the year's work, from the financial standpoint, being the best in the Company's history.

Net Surplus Increased

Assets Safely Invested — The assets of the Company have been, as heretofore, invested in the best class of securities; a detailed list of these will be published with the Annual Report for distribution.

Full Report Sent to Government — As heretofore, the Company's books were closed on the last business day of the year, and in due course full reports with detailed list of the securities held by the Company were sent to the Government.

Monthly Audit — A monthly examination of the books of the Company was made by the auditors, and at the close of the year they made a thorough scrutiny of all the securities held by the Company. In addition to the examination of the securities by the Auditors, a Committee of the Board, consisting of two Directors, audited these securities each quarter.

Owing to the Dominion Legislation providing that Judges should not be Directors of Corporations, the First Vice-President, Hon. Sir William R. Meredith, K. C., who had been associated with the Company for many years, much to its advantage, felt compelled to resign his position on the Board of the Company, and the Directors accepted the same with great reluctance.

It will be the duty of this Meeting to elect a Director to fill the vacancy thus created.

The Insurance Legislation enacted in New York State, which went into effect January 1st, 1907, had the effect of our Manager and Agents there declining to accept the statutory terms of remuneration, and it was, therefore, found necessary to cease writing new business in the State. Provision has been made at the Syracuse office to look after the interests of Policyholders in that State, while the large deposit will remain there for the security of Policyholders in the United States.

The care and attention manifested in their duties by the Company's Officers, Provincial Managers, Inspectors, District Agents and all other Agents, are deserving of the highest commendation.

L. GOLDMAN, Managing Director. J. L. BLAIKIE, President

The Annual Report, showing marked proofs of the solid position of the Company, and containing a list of the securities held, and also those upon which the Company has made collateral loans, will be sent in due course to each policyholder.

The District Manager, Mr George B. Stevenson, reports a very gratifying increase in the business of the Company in this city, and the rest of his district. Any one desiring further particulars regarding the Company will promptly receive the information desired on application at the Local Office, No. 374½ Water Street, Peterborough.

W. STROUD'S UNCLE MAKES A BIG PURCHASE

Daniel Stroud, of Belleville, Buys Business Block in That City—One of Choice of Stroud's Tea Stores

THE BIGGEST DEAL OF THE YEAR

Mr. Daniel Stroud, an uncle of Mr. W. Stroud, of this city, has recently closed what is said by the Belleville Intelligencer, to be one of the most important real estate transactions recorded in the city for a year. He bought from Frank Knight the block known as the Ashley block in which the Stroud Tea Store, one of the chain of Stroud Tea Stores, is located. The Intelligencer referring to the deal, says:

Stroud's Tea Store has been for years such a familiar landmark to all residents of Belleville and the vicinity, and the business is established on such a satisfactory basis that it is not surprising that a man of his business acumen and extensive interests should make an investment which places his well known establishment among the permanent business features of the city.

The opportunity to purchase was given Mr. Stroud a week or two ago, and he decided that Belleville real estate at present certainly looks like a good investment. Mr. Stroud who has enjoyed 21 years of progress and prosperity among the business men of the city, was not slow to avail himself of the chance and so Belleville may expect to see the old familiar sign, "Stroud's Tea Store," for an indefinite number of years to come. The manager of the store, which by the way is one of the branches of Mr. Stroud's various depots for the selling of good teas and coffees, in different parts of Canada, is Mr. Clarence W. Stroud—who has made his home in Belleville, since our old friend, W. H. Reed, went to Edmonton, and has made himself popular with all classes of people.

FAVOURABLE CONDITIONS FOR THE ICE HARVEST

The Local Ice Companies Are Busy Gathering in the Crop—16 to 18 Inches Thick

Messrs. Wm. Curtis, T. A. Rehill, the Allin Ice Co. and the Point St. Charles Ice Co. are cutting ice on Little Lake, and report that the conditions are very favourable for the work, there being a comparatively light covering of snow. The ice is of excellent quality, about 20 inches in thickness. Last year the thickness of the ice was about 16 to 18 inches, and the year before last the thickness was 36 inches—all ice and a yard deep.

Vital Statistics

The vital statistics for the month of January, 1907, show a decided increase in all lines over those of the corresponding month last year. The number of marriages in January, 1907, was 10, while last year there were 11 weddings celebrated. The births for the first month of this year numbered 24, being four less than for 1906. The deaths were as follows: 1907, 21; 1906, 27.

MINKS OUTSCORED THE HUNTER ST. SEVEN

Superior Combination of the Victors Was Responsible for the Winning of the Game

VANQUISHED HAD A GREAT DEFENCE

The hockey match between the puck chasers from Fanning's boarding house, and the Minks, last night was by no means of the parlour croquet brand, as many of the players expected before they donned their battle garbs. The score ended 5 to 1 in favour of the Minks, who led at half time by 2 to 0, but they had to play strenuous hockey all the way through to win by 4 goals over their speedy and tenacious opponents. In fact, at times, some of the players forgot that a game was in progress, and often were on the point of settling their superiority in a totally different manner from chasing after the disc. However, these incidents were nipped in the bud by the referee and the game ended shortly after 11 with everybody in good spirits and nobody disfigured.

The play at intervals was fast, and some good combination work was displayed, especially by the victors. It was this feature won the game, although the forwards found out early in the game that they were up against a hard proposition in the Hunter street defence. Bruce in goal, is a wonder, and O'Connor at point, stopped scores of rushes. He paid three visits to the fence, however, for not obeying the laws of gentle play. He was accompanied on two occasions by Robertson and Milburn. Ray Best at cover, did some good work using his body effectively on would-be scorers. The forward line was fast but could not get their combination working.

The Minks have some good hockeyists in Barber, Green and Robertson. The former two took care of almost everything in the Mink territory and made some spectacular rushes down the ice. Robertson got three of the five goals, while the other two were credited to Paton and Milburn. Clarke used his body to stop some dangerous sprints, and especially those of Bennett, who played the boards on the right wing. Cameron in goal was on skates for the first time, and had to be carried from one goal to the other at half time. Nevertheless he got in the path of the rubber a few times, for good stops. Rolly Glover handled the bell and made the play as gentle as possible.

The teams lined up as follows:

Minks. — Goal, Cameron; point, Barber; cover point, Clarke; rover, Robertson, centre, Milburn, right wing, Green; left wing, Paton.

THE MASTER MECHANICS' STAFF BOLD

Issues a Challenge to the Winners of the Conductors-Motormen Game at Street Railway Rink

The master mechanics' staff of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company have an idea that they can show the conductors and motormen a thing or two about playing hockey, and to-day are out with a challenge to the winners of the conductors-motormen game, which will be played this week. Mr. Blackburn has received the latest pointers on hockey, "as she is played" in the east, and the car men who go up against the car barn staff will likely learn a few things they did not know before.

THE HARNESS MEN AND BOAT BUILDERS

A Great Hockey Struggle Which Will Take Place at the Brock Street Rink on Saturday Night

The hockey team representing the Ackerman harness factory accept the challenge thrown out by the Canoe factory employees of the city, for a game, and the two aggregations will meet at the Brock street rink on Saturday night between 6 and 7 o'clock. The harness men have an idea that they can wipe the ice with the boat-makers, scuttle them and send them to the bottom. The game will be a good one, and the supporters of the two teams will likely be out in force to witness the struggle.

TO-MORROW NIGHT'S GAME WILL BE FAST

Argonauts Will Be Here With Their Best Line-up—Locals Must Win

The game between Peterborough and the Argonauts to-morrow night should be one of the best of the season. The Oarsmen have struck a rapid gait and will make the locals extend themselves to the utmost. To be in the running at all, the locals will have to defeat the Scullers, and they are going to make a big effort to do so. Their line-up will be a strong one, and although the Argos will bring down their best seven, the locals should win out. The reserved seat plan opened at the rink this afternoon, and judging by the way in which the seats are selling, the crowd will be of large proportions.

A PEDESTRIAN WITH A REPUTATION

Is Mr. Thos. Brown Who Left on Foot This Afternoon for Springville

Peterborough has a pedestrian who for long distance walks will rank among the best in the district. He is Mr. Thos. Brown, a man who thinks little of taking a tramp out to Springville and back. This afternoon he left on foot for that village, a distance of almost 10 miles, wearing two heavy overcoats one of which was a fur.

Mr. Brown is a cattle buyer and is one of the best known drovers of the district.

HOCKEY

Church Union is Advancing

The Kingston Whig says: — "Church union is advancing," said Rev. Dr. Mackie, to a Whig representative, this morning. "I notice that in St. Luke's Anglican church, Peterborough, the preacher last Sunday evening was Rev. R. E. Knowles, Presbyterian minister and author, of Galt."

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will remain open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions, inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

To Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—It is not very often that I have to register a kick against the ministers of the city, but in this particular case, I feel in duty bound to call attention to their utter forgetfulness of men and horses who have to stand out in the cold while they are delivering lengthy funeral orations over the bodies of the departed. With all due respect for the dead, I would humbly suggest that the divines shorten their funeral sermons, especially in the winter time, when the cab drivers and the rest of us, who have horses to watch, are compelled to stay out in the cold.

I was at a funeral not long ago which was called for 2 o'clock, but it was almost an hour afterwards before the preacher had concluded his long address and the various vehicles had moved away. Hoping that this brief note will have some influence in the proper place, I remain,

Yours, etc.,

MUSIC AND DRAMA

BEAUTIFUL ZEPHRA

Zephra is surely winning its way into popular favour, and theatre-goers and lovers of the artistic and beautiful are anxiously awaiting the opening performance. Rehearsals are being held afternoon and evening under the direction of H. J. Booth, of Boston, and Mr. Booth assures us of its artistic success, and it is earnestly hoped the friends of the young people who are participating in the great spectacle will rally to their support, and give them a rousing send-off on the opening night, and show by their attendance their appreciation of the work done. If you miss seeing Zephra you will surely miss the treat of a life time. Watch the daily papers for news of beautiful Zephra.

AN EXCELLENT LITERARY PROGRAMME AT A.Y.P.A.

Last Evening's Meeting a Decided Success —Several Local Artists Take Part —The President Leaving

A very attractive programme was presented at last night's meeting of the A.Y.P.A., in the school room adjoining St. John's church. The meeting opened with that old Christian battle song, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and all present joined heartily in giving expression to it. Encouraging reports were then presented by the different committees, thus showing that the work the society is doing is having a far-reaching effect.

A good literary bill followed, and to judge by the hearty applause each number received, everyone must have relished it to the full. The programme in brief, was as follows:

Bugle calls, Mr. Dalton, in uniform.

Recitation, Mr. B. Doucette, "On a Tramp."

Dialogue, a Dutch act, "Pickles for Two," by Messrs. Mat Drysdale and G. R. McBrien.

Dialogue, "Spoken and Broken," by Messrs. John Hogan and — Dalton, with Miss Huffmann as accompanist.

Recitation, "The Face on the Barroom Floor," by Mr. B. Doucette.

Reading, "Beau Buck, etc.," by Mr. Chas. Reid.

Reading, "The Two Love Letters," by Mr. Hogan.

Bugle calls, with drum accompaniment, by Messrs. Drysdale and Dalton, taken from the Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto, coming down Yonge street on a frosty day. It ended in a tableau of the artists.

The precesident, Mr. Reid, explained that this would in all probability be the last meeting in which he would act in that capacity, and desired to thank every member for the generous support accorded him during his tenure of office. He also desired the members to always labour for the interests of the Association, and wished them all happiness in the future.

The Rector, Rev. Canon Davidson, spoke of the regret he felt at Mr. Reid's departure; not only did he feel regret at the separation, but all the members would as well. He wished him all prosperity wherever he might be, and assured him of the hearty welcome he would receive if he ever returned to Peterborough.

The next meeting will be in the form of a lecture to be given by Rev. K. A. Langfredt, rector of St. Luke's church, on the subject of "Success." This subject should prove of much interest, and no doubt a large number will greet him.

ENDEAVOUR DAY WAS CELEBRATED AT ST. ANDREW'S

Impressive Address Delivered by Rev. D. D. MacDonald, of Keene, and Rev. J. R. Webb

YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETIES CONVENE

Much enthusiasm marked the uniting of the various Young People's Societies of the different churches of the city in St. Andrew's Hall last night to continue the universal celebration of the Christian Endeavour which was begun on Sunday. The hall contained representatives from the Young People's Societies and on few occasions have there been larger audiences assembled there. The meeting was characterized by the deep interest manifested in the deliverances of the two reverend gentlemen who had been secured to address the young people in their joint worship. Both selected subjects dealing with the duties of a Christian life and the one augmented and interwoven with the other.

Rev. J. G. Potter, pastor of St. Andrews, occupied the chair and introduced the evening's programme. He referred to the kindness of the speakers, expressed by their presence, and to the large number present from the Christian Endeavour or equivalent Societies of the city, which was far beyond his expectations.

The convention was opened by Scripture reading and the singing of a number of hymns. Miss Aggie Carr rendered in a very pleasing manner a vocal solo with piano accompaniment played by Miss Winnie Anderson.

Rev. D. D. MacDonald

Rev. Mr. MacDonald, of Keene, was the first speaker and based his remarks on the subject "Our Capital for our Life's Work." All present, he believed were Christian Endeavourers in spirit if not in name. He first explained the meaning of the term "capital" with reference to its financial aspect and by illustration succeeded in easily impressing his message on the minds of the hearers. When young people begin the seriousness of life they need capital so the Almighty has placed within their reach something to insure success. There was no lack of capital, he said to one waiting to attain the highest moral mark in life. It may be found from all that is beneath, around, within or above them; from the material world in which they live, the world of mind, and the divinity of self. If it is true that man is made in the image of God, he must be capable of more than he accomplishes.

Truth and goodness are necessary to make a success in life—to reach the highest ideal. An ancient writer and one of the wisest too, once left to the world good advice, when he wrote, "Buy the truth and sell it not." The speaker believed that the ideas now dominating the world today are religious ideas—ideas of God—and those who have not these ideas are leading the way to barbarism. Lives should be begun with God, lived with and finished with Him and then all will have sufficient capital to make a success. In concluding the speaker exhorted all to strive to attain to their ideals and those who accomplished that will assuredly meet with success on life's greatest field of battle.

Rev. J. R. Webb

The subject of Rev. Mr. Webb's address was the question "What is your life?" Dr. Joseph Cooke, of Boston when asked to send a message to the Christian Endeavours said man's life was made up of tender teens, toiling twenties, tireless thirties, fiery forties, forcible fifties, serious sixties, sacred seventies, aching eighties, shorter breath, sod, God. Life stands for force and power and wherever there is power there are results. It is our task to project our influences so that the best may be obtained from them. The world is either the better or worse for what each of us have done in our lives. Life cannot be still; it will move on and all men and women have influences, either moral or immoral, on the whole universe.

The lives that have been given us will have to be accounted for to Almighty God and all men shall have to give an account to Him for the deeds they have done. It is a well known fact, said the reverend gentleman, that what the infant is, the child becomes; that what the child is the man becomes and what the man is so is he in old age. Everything, we see in life is preparatory—leading on to something. What men do now is going to affect not only ourselves but others. Life is a trust, given by God and men should use it as they believe God would have them do.

Mr. Duncan Campbell next rendered a vocal solo in his usual excellent manner, and the meeting afterwards closed with the benediction.

Refreshments had been provided by the ladies of St. Andrew's and these were served by the young people of the church to their visitors after which the gathering dispersed.

"You Will Suffer all Your Life."

SAID ALL THE DOCTORS

Half a dozen of the best physicians told Mr. Baker that he had Chronic Rheumatism, and would have it as long as he lived. One day Mr. Baker read in a paper of a man who had Rheumatism just like him—who had been told by doctors that his case was hopeless—and who had been completely cured by GIN PILLS.

The two cases were so much alike that Mr. Baker decided he would invest 50c in a box of GIN PILLS and give them a trial.

It was the best investment he ever made. Before the first box was taken, he felt better all over, so he got another. He took that and bought a third, getting better all the time.

Hinesville, May 8, 1905.

I have been greatly benefitted by your Gin Pills, and all who have used them in this neighborhood speak very highly of them. One of my neighbors, Mr. X., who suffered for years with Rheumatism and who has spent hundreds of dollars with specialists without receiving the slightest benefit, was entirely cured by two boxes of Gin Pills. He is proclaiming their virtues from the "housetops."

Yours truly, D. L. BAKER.

We don't even ask you to buy Gin Pills—but to try them at our expense. Write us, mentioning this paper, and we will gladly send you a free sample of these wonderful Kidney Pills that cure Rheumatism. The Sole Drug Co., Winnipeg, Man.

Sold by all dealers—50c. a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50—or sent on receipt of price. 58

A GLORIOUS SALE OF WHITE LINGERIE UNDERWEAR

Our White Underwear did not need the excuse of a "Sale" to sell them—they would sell readily at the usual prices to a descriminating public; but we wanted more than a business that sold "Readily," we wanted business that sold "Remarkably," and that accounts for the drops in prices. The garments are just as fine as ever, but they have parted with part of their price so that we might have a "Bargain Holiday."

Contract For New Armouries Has Been Let To G. H. Proctor

Sarnia Man Has Been the Successful Tenderer — Contract Let This Morning by the Dominion Government.

BUILDING WILL COST $125,190

Work Will Be Begun as Early as Possible in the Spring—Plans Approved of by Local Officers.

The contract for the erection of the Peterborough Armouries has been let. The successful tenderer is Mr. Geo. H. Proctor, Sarnia, Ont., and the figure of the contract signed is $125,190. One of the conditions of the contract is that $30,000 must be expended the current year. Work will be begun as early in the spring as the weather will permit.

This is most satisfactory news not only to those interested in the promotion of the military interests of the city, but to the citizens at large, especially as the construction of the armouries is a preliminary step in the direction of practically making Peterborough the headquarters of the 3rd Military District, which would be a recognition of Peterborough's strategetic, as well as material importance. In connection with the Armouries building project Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., is deserving of great credit for the energetic and successful campaign he has conducted in behalf of the construction of the buildings.

The plans provide for a large and imposing structure, one that will be an architectural ornament to the city and admirably serve the interests of the several militia corps for which it is the rallying point and home.

The Plans

It may not be amiss to repeat the reference made a few days ago to the plans of the new armouries, which have received the hearty endorsation of the local military officers, as excellently adapted to their intended use.

The building will be constructed of brick and stone and will be a very handsome structure. In area it will be 252 by 169 feet, the front facing on Murray street. Every known convenience and comfort for all classes of the militia have apparently been provided in this building. In the basement there will be a shooting gallery, where the men may indulge in target practice, and a bowling alley for recreation. The furnace and fuel rooms and lavatories will also be located here.

The Ground Floor

The parade hall will, of course, be on the ground floor, and will be 170 by 80 feet in size. On the southeast end of this floor will be found the infantry quarters, containing mobilization, quartermaster's stores, infantry orderly room, infantry commanding officers, infantry adjutant rooms and eight infantry companies' armouries.

On the northeast end of this floor will be the cavalry quarters, including a mobilization store room, commanding officer's room, cavalry orderly room, cavalry armouries and harness room. An entrance will be provided at the rear for harnessing horses.

The southwest end of the building will be devoted to artillery purposes, and this section will contain commanding officer's room, artillery orderly room, artillery harness room, derly room, artillery harness room, mobilization stores and a store room for small arms, with a main gun shed, 81 by 40 feet.

In the northwest corner of the armouries on the ground floor there will be a wagon shed, 40 feet square, and also quarters for the stretcher bearer companies.

The Second Floor

The officers' mess-rooms, which are situated on the second floor, are very comfortable and commodious, fitted with all the conveniences. Separate entrances to these quarters are provided, as are also entrances to the galleries and lavatories. In the centre of the east end of this floor there will be an officers' and sergeants' lecture room, 43 by 20 feet, and the north-east corner contains sergeants' mess and caretaker's quarters, with separate entrances and lavatories.

In the southwest wing on the ground floor there is a large recreation room with stage for men and four sitting-rooms, leading off, for the men. Entrances are also made to the galleries for the men and the public.

The band room will be situated on the northwest end and will be 40 feet square. The room for the bugle band will also be located at this end, and both will have entrances from outside the building.

It will thus be seen that everything has been provided for the comfort of the officers and men, who will no doubt appreciate the provisions which have been made. As a result of the erection of this armoury there will doubtless be a revival of interest in military matters in Peterborough.

WITNESS TESTIFIED THAT STANFORD WHITE HAD THREATENED THAW

Also Stated He Had Informed the Prisoner of This Threat

Examiner Special.

New York, February 6. — The Countess of Yarmouth was present at the Thaw trial this morning. She looked a trifle pale. Benj. Roman, the first witness, testified that he had heard Stanford White make threats against Thaw's life, and that he told Thaw of the threat. The cross examination is now proceeding.

STILL ANOTHER BIG ONE.

The gigantic sale at the B. Y. Moyes' store, 408 George street had another big day yesterday. The storm did not keep the people away, they came and they kept coming. They found the bargains offered were just exactly as they had been advertised, and above all that the sale was on the square. Now, you who read this, you'll have to hurry; remember time and tide wait for no man or woman either, and this sale won't wait, so if you're alive to your own interests you'll smoke up on this invitation. The sale is for ten days only; the $17,000 stock must be sold, and Patrick T. Murphy, the noted bargain giver, who has the management of the sale, is on to his job. He has taken a contract to sell the stock and you can bet all you own he is going to do it. Be wise, shop early, but if you like a crush come in the afternoons. Remember the place. B. Y. Moyes', 408 George street.

Kingston Daily News

Mr. Harry M. Bennett is to take part in the grand concert in St. Peter's Hall, new Separate School, to-morrow night, and the Kingston News has the following to say of him: The star of the evening was Harry M. Bennett, humorist and vocalist. He is near the top in his line of business, and it is questionable if there ever appeared before a Kingston audience a better variety actor. His songs and sketches were up-to-date, and a rich wardrobe of many coloured costumes increased the effect of the pieces. He has a fine voice and a very taking manner. He made people laugh until it became irksome for them to continue. He excelled in "I'm going to be Married," and his make up was in keeping with the sketch. He was "berai in responding to encores.

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cure Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me: I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked." Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 732 Cadieux St., Montreal Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

CO-OPERATION

The development of the fruit-growing industry, especially in relation to apples has been marked, and, to the benefit of the small growers. The co-operative system has put the latter in as favourable a position as the owners of large orchards. The origin of this is interesting. A number of farmers conceived the idea of combining. One of their number arranged for shipment and a market. Gradually the necessity for a central packing house became evident. Incorporation followed, in the case of Ontario under a measure passed in 1900 for co-operative cold storage associations. By 1905 twenty co-operative apple picking and shipping associations existed in Canada with an approximate membership of 1,300. In that year ten per cent. of the apple shipments from Canada bore the stamp of the co-operative associations, and their shipments to the Old Country found great favour. There was reason for this for the results of the co-operative movement were uniformity of packing, economical methods, sending each variety to market at its best, manufacture or wholesale purchase of packing material, management by practical men whose interests are the same as other members, improvement of product, sale of fruit at point of shipment and utilization of inferior products. The success of co-operation in dairying lines is an old story, but its application to fruit growing is not so well known, but the results as already demonstrated are so great as to prove its value. The extension of the co-operation system which necessarily discourages dishonest methods of packing is in the interest of the entire fruit-growing industry. It is well known that one dishonest packer who puts inferior fruit at the bottom of the package does an injury to the whole Canadian trade, for the Old Country buyers are not finely distinctive in distributing blame for the swindle of which he may be a victim. He does not regard his case as an exception, but as a type of a general condition. In fruit packing as in other things, honesty is the best policy.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A hundred ladies are entering a curling bonspiel in Montreal. Ladies should be adepts at the game. Their familiarity with sweeping and curling should stand them in good stead, and they all know how to make the tee.

Hon. Mr. Hanna has the subject of prison contract labour under consideration. His plan, says the Toronto Star, is to employ the convicts on road work, so that they will compete with nobody but the squaws, who must expect this sort of thing for not belonging to the union.

The striking telephone girls of Toronto, have technically lost, but, if the legislation now before both the Ontario Legislature and the House of Commons, becomes law, the alleged evils, on account of which the girls "went out," will be remedied. There will be no eight-hour shifts. The bills of Mr. Studholme, in the Legislature, and of Mr. Verville, in the Commons, call for a five-hour day for telephone operators.

The Whitney Government has an abnormal majority in the Legislature, and claims that this represents the confidence of the country in their ability to govern, and administer the affairs of the country. Why, then, should Mr. Whitney be so much afraid of an appeal to the people, that he contemplates a gerrymander, in order to put his opponents to a disadvantage, and practically unseat them by act of Parliament?

Hon. Rudolph Lemieur, post-master-general, has introduced into Parliament a bill, which will doubtless become law. It will deal with strikes and lockouts, where public utilities, such as the telephone, are affected. It is provided in the proposed law that at the request of the employees in question there may be a public inquiry. The employees do not need to leave their posts at all in order to secure an investigation. Had this law been in force, there would have been no strike of the Toronto telephone girls.
